

RIISING TO AN EMERGENCY.

Ever now and then the newspapers have accounts of some sensational acts done by men. These deeds are generally performed as part of the man's duty in his work or employment, acts that his duty calls him to do, and yet many men fail in an emergency not because they lack in courage, but rather they fail to grasp the situation and act promptly.

Two notable emergency deeds recently carried to full and splendid results, were those of conductor Lee on the Twentieth Century Limited, and Express Messenger Trousdale on the railroad train in Texas.

Conductor Lee on the first section of the Twentieth Century Limited that because of a bad rail went into the Hudson river, crawling from a mass of wreckage, bruised and internally injured, dragged himself out and went back and successfully flagged the second section train that would have gone in the first section wreckage.

Express Messenger Trousdale, whose train was held up by two bandits, himself covered by the "gun" of one, fooled his first man, shot and killed him, also the second bandit as he attempted to crawl into the express car, thus saving the train from pillage and his company from money loss. It is not to be presumed that the double killing was to his liking. The situation called for a quick emergency act, and the duty was to preserve what Trousdale was placed in charge of to fully protect. The shooting was an incident. It was a part necessary.

Neither of the above men performed more than their full duty, but each man's duty was in these cases an emergency call, and each possessed the nerve to meet the demand.

FOLEY-KIDNEY PILLS

FOR RHEUMATISM, KIDNEY AND BLADDER

Deafness cannot be cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitution remedies.

Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

THIS LADY'S GOOD APPETITE

Mrs. Hanson, in a Letter From Mobile, Tells How She Gained It.

"I suffered for seven years with stomach trouble," writes Mrs. Edward Hanson in a letter from this city. "I felt weak and always had a headache and was always going to the doctor. At last I was operated on, and felt better, but soon I had the same trouble."

"My husband asked me to try Cardui. I felt better after the first bottle, and now I have a good appetite and sleep well. I feel fine, and the doctor tells me I am looking better than he ever saw me."

If you are sick and miserable, and suffer from any of the pains due to stomach trouble—try Cardui. Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients that have been found to act effectively on the stomach.

The Prodigal Judge

CHAPTER XXIII.—Carrington visits the Judge and allies are discovered. CHAPTER XXIV.—Judge Price visits Colonel Pentress, where he meets Nancy and Cavendish. Learns things of importance about the colonel's face and a duel is arranged.

He Tossed the Glass and Contents in Pentress' Face.

the next meal or the next drink; he had believed that as he knew him so he had always been, lax and loose of tongue and deed, a noisy tavern hero, but now he saw that he was tilting what must have been the measure of his manhood.

"I tell you I had no hand in carrying off the boy," said Pentress with a sardonic smile.

"I look to you to return him. Stir yourself, Gatewood, or by God, I'll hold so fierce a reckoning with you—"

The sentence remained unfinished, for Pentress felt his overwrought nerves snap, and giving way to a sudden blind fury, struck at the judge.

"We are too old for rough and tumble," said the judge, who had displayed astonishing agility in avoiding the blow.

"Tomorrow morning at sun-up at Boggs' race-track!" cried Pentress. The judge bowed with splendid courtesy.

"Nothing could please me half so well," he declared. He turned to the others. "Gentlemen, this is a private matter. When I have met Colonel Pentress I shall make a public announcement of why this appeared necessary to me; until then I trust this matter will not be given publicity. May I ask your silence?"

As if the very place were evil, the judge hurried down the drive toward the road. At the gate he paused and turned on his companions, but his features wore a look of dignity that forbade comment or question.

"The State of Chihuahua, Mexico formally acceded."

NO REASON FOR IT

You are Showing the Way Out.

There can be no just reason why any reader of this will continue to suffer the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the danger of serious kidney ills when relief is near at hand and the most positive proof given that these ills can be cured. The following is convincing proof.

Mrs. L. Cameron, Leon, N. C., says: "The great benefit I obtained from Doan's Kidney Pills justifies me in recommending them. A dull, nagging backache, accompanied by sharp twinges through my loins bothered me for a considerable length of time. I could hardly sit up or lift and was unable to obtain my proper rest. I had no energy orambitions and was caused additional annoyance by the kidney secretions. Having Doan's Kidney Pills recommended to me, I procured a box and after taking the contents, the pains in my back ceased and the difficulty with the kidney secretions were removed. Doan's Kidney Pills are certainly a reliable kidney remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

WOMEN

Women of the highest type, women of superior education and refinement, whose occupations and avocations give them a wide range of interests, are attracted to their own sex.

"I feel that I should commend the riches of the Indies, it would be my resources to meet the fractional part of my obligations to you."

"Think of that!" said Nancy, as much overwhelmed by the judge's manner as by his words.

"His Uncle Bob shall keep his place in my grandson's life! We'll watch him grow into manhood together. The judge was visibly affected. A smile of deep content passed Mr. Yancy's lips as his muscular fingers closed about the judge's hand with crushing force.

"Whoop!" cried Cavendish, delighted at this recognition of Yancy's love for the boy, and he gleefully tossed the antique Malheur to the chamberlain. Malheur was dumb in the presence of the chamberlain, he quite looked an interpreter. The judge looked back at the house.
