SEAMAN SHOT ON ELFREIDA

Pugh Robertson of Edenton After Quarrel, Shot Raymond Harney a Sailor.

News comes from Elizabeth City of a bloody personal encounter aboard the U. S. S. Elfreida, which is patrolling the waters of Albemarle Sound to enforce the fishing laws. Pugh R. Robertson, a member of the Edenton Naval Reserves, went aboard the vessel late at night, drunk, and attempted to raise "rough house," when Raymond Harney a regular seaman of the navy tried to quiet him, he made an attack on the latter with a knife and was promptly knocked down. Robertson went ashore, secured a pistol, returned and began firing at Harney, one shot taking effect lodging just below the heart. Robertson was put under a $1,000 bond by the civil authorities and Harney was sent to a hospital in Norfolk for treatment.

EX-GOVERNOR AYCOCK PASSES

North Carolina's Great Educational Governor Dies Suddenly While Making Address in Birmingham.

Birmingham, Ala., April 5.—Former Governor Charles B. Aycock, of North Carolina, dropped dead at the Jefferson theatre last night while addressing the Alabama Educational Association. Mr. Aycock was speaking on "Universal Education, Its Necessity and Benefit." He was about one fourth through his address when he suddenly staggered back a step and fell to the floor so suddenly that those on the stage were unable to reach him in time to support him. Water was hastily thrown in his face and he was taken to the wings of the theatre, but expired at once. Death was pronounced to be the result of heart failure. Charles Brantley Aycock was born November 1, 1859, was district attorney under Cleveland, and was elected governor for four years in 1900. He leaves a widow and eight children—six girls and two boys, all minors except the oldest, Miss Alice. Since his term of Governor he practiced law, the last three years in Raleigh, having removed his residence from his old home, Goldsboro, in 1909, and enjoyed probably the most lucrative practice of any lawyer in North Carolina. He had been in poor health for some months and only a week ago returned to Raleigh from Philadelphia, where he spent a month in a sanitarium fortifying himself for the strenuous canvass of the state which he was to begin on April 12th, with his opening speech in Raleigh, to be followed by one in Charlotte, for the nomination by state primary for United States Senator, to succeed F. M. Simmons. The other two opponents of Senator Simmons, Governor Kitchin and Chief Justice Clark, began their campaign a month ago, but Governor Aycock had delayed his campaign for several weeks meantime making an effort to build up his health. Those who knew him best know he has been afflicted with a malady that might prove fatal, but no such immediate result was anticipated.

IS WILSON FALLING BEHIND

Big Leaders at Washington Turning to Clark, Underwood or Harmon.

Washington, April 5.—That the fight from now on for the Democratic nomination for the presidency is between Underwood, Harmon and Clark is the opinion of all non-partisan politicians here. Prof. Wilson has lost ground while the others have gained. Especially is this true in the case of Underwood and Clark, Tuesday's election in Alabama gave the Alabama 24 votes, just 14 more than Mr. Wilson has. Mr. Underwood's friends confidently expect to carry Georgia, Tennessee, Mississippi, Virginia, North Carolina and possibly South Carolina, and after the "favorite son" ballot they expect to have New York's 90 votes and hence the nomination. "I do not care to discuss the subject of presidential candidates," said Representative Claude Kitchin, of N. C., but while you are talking about presidents there is no man in the U. S. who would make a better president than Oscar W. Underwood. One day the Wilson people claim they have the assurance of 800 delegates and in the same breath they yell "conspiracy" among the other candidates George F. McCombs, a wealthy New York lawyer is managing Mr. Wilson's campaign.

School News of the Week.

On Friday night April 12th, there will be a music recital by the music pupils of the school. The program will consist of piano, violin and vocal music and the public is invited. There will be no charges for admission.

On account of sickness, Miss Lina Ivey, teacher of instrumental music has had to give up her work, and will return to her home in Leicester. Miss Mary Willis has been secured to take up her work for the remainder of the year.

The school base ball team had two games scheduled for this week, one with the Washington High School team on Thursday at Washington, and another with the Kinston High School team on Saturday.

The fence has been completed around the flower garden on the north side of the Griffin building, and a space assigned to each grade in school. The pupils have shown quite an interest in the work, and a number of grades have prepared, and in part planted their plots.

On Wednesday, the Uniform Entrance Examination on English Literature, given by the Association of Colleges and preparator schools of the Southern states in May 1911, was given to the 10th grade as a test. They had no notice and no preparation whatever for the work, but it covered work, which they had been over during the past year. The average grade made by the class was 88. Gertrude Carraway and Bertha Gaskill both made 98, the highest made in the class, while lowest was 70.

The 4A grade has been making special effort for several weeks in marching, and has made quite an improvement. At present, they present about the best appearance in marching, of any grade in school.

The 8C grade has had only a few absences so far this month. Special interest is being taken in Geography and Spelling. The entire grade made 100 on spelling one day during the week. Several very creditable drawings have been handed in.

Sold Whiskey and Caught.

Mae Hudson, colored, was brought to this city yesterday from Jacksonville and placed in jail to await the next term of Federal court. Hudson was tried at that place on the previous day on warrant charging him with selling whiskey without a government license. A reliable cause was found and he was bound over under a bond of $300 which he failed to give.

QUICK RELIEF FOR RHEUMATISM.

George W. Koon, of Lawton, Mich., says: "DR. DEWEE'S REMEDY FOR RHEUMATISM has given my wife wonderful benefit for rheumatism. She could not lift hand or foot, had to be lifted for two months. She began the use of the remedy and improved rapidly. In Monday she could not move and on Wednesday she got up, dressed herself and walked out for breakfast." Sold by Bradburn Drug Co.

Mrs. Tom Hodge Melton was acquitted at Olinville, La., on a charge of murder.

STRAYED OR STOLEN.

On or about the 24th of February a light colored brown or tan Jersey cow, one horn off, dark face, ear mark, slit right, swallow-fork and hole left, cow probably has calf. Information from any one who has taken up or bought a cow of above description will be rewarded by communicating with W. A. Wilson, Dover, N. C.

First Pea Blossoms.

The first pea blossoms of the season were being exhibited yesterday by Mr. Carter Tidale, manager of the New Bern Produce Company, from whose farm they came. Mr. Tidale stated that he would be able to supply his customers with peas within the next two weeks. This is the first pea blossom in this State, so far as is known, for the present season. There is but little wonder that northern farmers desire to locate in this section.

An Indispensable Hand Book.

The March number of Watts' Official Railway Guide, Atlanta, Ga., is just inaugurating the twenty-seventh year of its publication. The railway lines of the South are shown in a clear and comprehensive form with miscellaneous information and the most extensive Hotel Directory of the South, making it especially valuable to the traveling public and business office. Mr. J. R. Watts has well earned the success of his efforts in presenting the South the most complete sectional Guide extant. It is an indispensable hand book of information well worth its price, 25c per copy or $2.00 per year.

High Cost Irish Potatoes.

Chicago papers are kicking because consumers are having to pay fifty cents a peck for Irish potatoes, now, against fifty cents a bushel last year. New Bern people have long ago become accustomed to pay fifty cents a peck and sometimes think themselves lucky to get them for ten cents a quart, which looks very much like this is a better market for potatoes than Chicago.

GOOD NEWS

Oh, he has returned! Who is that? Why, old man Economy, with the noblest line of spring and summer samples, I must ever seen at prices way down yonder. He is very jubilant over his patronage of last season and takes this means of expressing his appreciation to the general public for the same. The tools at lawyer's are seemingly trying to outdo one another. "You may be cheap," said the thread to the needle, "but I notice you are always getting it in the eye."

Oh, I don't know.

"I don't know," answered the needle. I notice that whenever you get in a hole I have to pull you through."

Then the soldiers cut in.

And they are busy too, doing the right thing by all customers. Economy is stopping for the season with H. SAWYER, The Merchant Tailor, 81 South Front St., New Bern, N. C.

Charles Rice, Asheville, was crushed by an elevator, which he forgot to stop because he was talking with a boy.
