IN THE REALM OF SOCIETY

Beautiful Reception Given by Mrs. Hugh Lovick, Canterbury Club Entertained.

Among the several functions of the past Lenten season was the beautiful reception given by Mrs. Hugh Lovick in honor of her sister, Miss Belle Pecud, of Raleigh, Tuesday afternoon at her home on Middle street.

Her home was a veritable bower of Spring flowers, the trailing jessamine and dog-wood blossoms being artistically and profusely used as decoration in all the rooms and the mantles were banked with the lovely blossoms. The door was opened and the card tray was presented by Master Lovick Smith and the guests were greeted in the hall by Mrs. Francis Stringer Duffy in white mull and Mrs. Charles Buford in white lace.

The hostess, wearing a white lace robe with touch of green, received her guests in the parlor, assisted by the guest of honor, exquisitely gowned in a Parisian robe, and Mrs. Rosa Smith in black lace.

Mrs. Thomas Carraway in white crepe meteor invited the guests into the library where refreshment punch was served by Mrs. Charles Stith and Mrs. Fred Smith, wearing white mulls.

Miss Margaret Bryan gowned in a lovely white net led the way to the dining room where an ice course was served by Mrs. Henry R. Bryan, Jr., in a white marquisette, Miss Mary L. Waters, in gold colored mesaline, and Miss Mary Stith in white lingerie frock. The dining room was particularly attractive in the decoration and many lighted candles, the center piece of the table consisted of a handsome cherry lace piece and bowl of red poppies.

At 6:30 o'clock the receiving party was served a delicious two course luncheon.

CANTERBURY CLUB ENTERTAINED.

Mrs. Robert Nixon delightfully entertained the Canterbury Club at their regular meeting, Tuesday afternoon at her home on Craven street.

Mrs. Charles Ives, in a most interesting manner read and interpreted the poem "Saul" from Browning. A most refreshing ice course was served at the close.

Those present were: Meslames Chas. Hollister, Robt. D'Val Jones, William Dunn, James Mitchell, Monroe Howell, John Dunn, John Tull Hollister, J. B. Hurley, William B. Ives, Charles Ives, Misses Janet Hollister, Bessie Summerell, Mabel Chadwick, Mary Oliver, Mary Henriksen, Sadi Hollister and Katie Styron.

DOES YOUR WATCH NEED REPAIRING? A WATCH If intended to tell you the time of day, unless it does this accurately it is worse than useless, for it is like the man you cannot depend upon. Many a man has twenty five or thirty dollars tied up in a watch which is worthless when it is found to be a dollar or two for having it repaired he would get the full value out of it.
