INLAND WATERWAY PEOPLE COME IN

Senate Committee Agrees On Amendments to House Rivers and Harbors Bill; Appropriations for Cape Lookout Harbor of Refuge, etc.

Washington, May 3.—Carrying $8,031,010 in addition to the appropriations provided for by the House, the Rivers and Harbors appropriation bill aggregating $32,126,630 has been agreed to by the Senate Committee on Commerce and will be reported in a few days. The largest single item in the House bill was $2,500,000 for the Mississippi river, making $6,000,000 for that waterway.

Among the appropriations as increased by the Senate committee are: Inland waterway, Norfolk to Beaufort, N. C., for a dredge, $200,000; Cape Lookout Harbor of Refuge, $300,000; Cape Fear River, $300,000. The bill authorizes the appointment of a board of three engineer officers to examine Galveston harbor and channel, Texas City harbor and channel, and the Port Bolivar harbor and channel, near Galveston, with a view of securing a depth of 35 feet, the necessary cutting off heads, of widening of channels in the Sabine-Natchez canal, Texas, and change of the route of the channel Arkansas Pass to Cavalle so as to pass by Port O'Connor, Texas. The $6,000,000 for improving the Mississippi river includes $4,000,000 to repair and build levees on account of the flood.

Will Have Fish Fry and Picnic.

Follockville, May 3.—The Oak Grove Sunday School will give a fish fry and picnic at Quaker Bridge, Saturday, May 11th, and a great time is expected. Quaker Bridge is about six miles from here on the river Trent. Whose high banks, there are shaded by tall, noble oaks, an ideal place for a picnic. Oak Grove's annual picnics have become famous and are largely attended, not only by those living nearby but people from all over Eastern Carolina. The annual picnic however, will be in July, this of May 11th, being just a little extra "joy occasion." A cordial invitation is extended to everybody and is urged that all who can carry well filled baskets.

Noted Allen Says Thaw Sane.

New York, May 3.—Supreme Court Justice Keogh will be petitioned in White Plains, tomorrow by Clarence J. Shearn, counsel for Harry K. Thaw, for permission to let a jury pass upon Thaw's present mental status.

Seven of the foremost alienists of the country it is said, have examined Thaw recently and are prepared to swear that he is sane and would not be a menace to society, if liberated. If Thaw can get his case before a jury, he believes he will have no difficulty in proving that he is entitled to leave his prison.

The hearing on the writ of habeas corpus, which will follow the decision regarding the jury trial, is set for next Monday.

LADIES DEMAND LAW ENFORCEMENT

In Order That Conditions Now Existing May Be Improved.

To the editor of the Journal:

Sr: Having noticed the timely articles in your paper in regard to James City conditions, and commending you for them, we wish to make a few suggestions.

We recognize through repeated assertions, and the fact that our Federal Court last week had so many cases of selling liquor without license, that our Prohibition law is not adequately enforced. We ask why?

Under the law of the United States a person who makes a business of selling liquor has to have a license costing $25.00. That license must be posted up in plain view of the public. The possession of that license under the law of North Carolina is prima facie evidence that the holder thereof is engaged in selling liquor, which is an absolute violation of our Prohibitory law.

Why are not these parties arrested and prosecuted for violating this law?

If no license is procured the seller of liquor is arrested, prosecuted, and sentenced under Federal law, as evidence by the eighteen or more persons sent to the Penitentiary and county jail at the recent term of Federal Court here.

There is a statute on our books that will enable our men to enforce the Prohibition law. It is this:

Section 3721 of the Revised prescribes as follows:

"All justices of peace, intendants and magistrates of police, mayors of towns, and judges of the supreme or superior court, who shall have good reason to believe that any person within their jurisdiction has knowledge of the existence and establishment of any place where intoxicating liquors are sold contrary to law, in any town or country within their several jurisdictions, and such person not being minded to make voluntary information thereof on oath, then it shall be lawful for such justice of the peace, intendand and magistrate of police, mayor of town, or judge of supreme and superior court to issue to the sheriff of the county, or any constable of the town or township in which said place where intoxicating liquors are sold contrary to law, are supposed to be, a subpoena, capias and testificandum, or summons in writing, commanding such person to appear immediately before said justice of peace, intendand or magistrate of police, mayor or judge, and give evidence on oath as to what he may know touching the existence, establishment and whereabouts of said places where intoxicating liquors are sold contrary to law, and the names and personal description of the keepers thereof; and such evidence when obtained shall be considered and held in law as an information on oath, and said justice, intendand, magistrate, mayor or judge, may thereupon proceed to seize and arrest said keepers and destroy said tables, or issue process therefor, in like manner as they do by authority of the preceding section."

We urge our good people of Craven county, and New Bern in particular, to unite in this matter, and free us from the lawless, destructive element that is causing us to be a reproach in the State. Goldboro has been able to do effective work along these lines, so has Greensboro and other places.

Will not our citizens place Craven county in the forefront as a law enforcing, law abiding people

SOCIALISTS INSULT NATIONAL FLAG

Red Banners of Socialism Flung To Breezes After Fight in Union Square.

New York, May 3.—The Stars and Stripes were torn down and trampled it under foot and a red flag substituted during a fierce fight at a May day meeting of the Socialist party and affiliated unions in Union Square Park. That a serious panic did not ensue is believed to have been due to the fact that thousands of persons on outskirts of the crowd did not know what the trouble was. Responsibility for the tearing down of the flag is disclaimed by the Socialists, who assert that members of the Industrial Workers of the World committed the act.

The Socialists representatives on the platform appear to have done their best to protect the national colors.

The trouble started at the conclusion of a parade of 8,000 men and women, who gathered in the park for speech-making. Red banners, the emblems of socialism already adorned the speakers platform, and the band was playing the "Marseillaise," when the Stars and Stripes were carried to the stand at the first speaker was about to be introduced. Instantly there was the widest excitement.

"Take that dirty rag down!" went up a cry from the crowd. But those on the platform held their ground, and some with cooler heads tried to quiet the tumult that had broken out.

"We don't recognize that flag," cried a man in front as he tried to reach the platform. That cry was taken up by others, a number of whom fought their way to the platform. Those on the platform tried to protect the flag and a fist fight resulted in which a line policeman was the only officer who figured. His club knocked three men down. Several men were tossed bodily over the platform rail into the crowd.

Bloody faces were numerous. The big American flag was finally torn down and hurled to the ground. Miss Caroline Dexter, a member of the Socialist party a tall, muscular woman, elbowed her way to where the fallen banner lay.

"Men like you should be shot," she cried as she gathered up the flag. She met no resistance and carried the flag home with her. With nothing but red ribbons to decorate the platform, the meeting proceeded, but the program as arranged by the Socialist party had to be given up, and the speakers were mostly from the ranks of the Industrial Workers of the World.

We Are Rushing Into The Sun.

Pasadena, May 3.—Disquieting reports from Eastern scientific centers to the effect that the earth was plunging at a terrific rate toward the Cluster of Hercules, whose twelve suns would burn it to a cinder, failed to create consternation among the scientists in the Mount Wilson observatory.

Residents of Pasadena were given yesterday the reassuring information by Professor W. S. Adams that, while it was true that the earth was racing toward the fiery sun at the rate of 600 miles a minute, it would require several million years to reach the cluster. Even then it is announced the course of the earth may be changed before the collision.
