HAPPENINGS AT SWANSBORO

The General Writes a Budget of Racey Items This Week.

Swansboro, June 5.—One of the latest structures to attract the eye of one passing through the sound here, is the tall water tower that has recently been built on Mr. P. B. Smith's Hammock Plantation. It supplies water for the residence, stables, sawmill and for irrigating twenty acres of land. The tower was built by the General, who by the way does all the cement and concrete work in this section.

Captain George Littleton has had a concrete wall built in front of his property which adds greatly to the looks of it.

Mr. Dan Ward, a son of the late Geo. W. Ward, long time correspondent at this place for the Journal, has returned from Florida where he went several years ago to reside. While away Mr. Ward amassed a comfortable fortune and has come back to his first home to enjoy it. He is already building a nice cottage on a front lot for a home. Mr. J. C. Rogers is doing the work.

Mr. Emory Rogers will leave shortly for Warsaw, where he has a contract to build a twenty thousand dollar school house for the Unitarians. Emory is an efficient mechanic.

Mr. Charlie Webb is doing a successful business repairing boats. He has ways accommodations enough for large boats, and his shop is equipped for any kind of work. There are five boats on his ways now.

Mr. Van Winkle, our gas boatwright, is building a 53 foot craft in which he will install a twelve horse power engine. The boat is for Capt. Tyre Moore, of Deer Island.

Since the sinking of the Titanic, our boatmen are afraid to even take passengers over to the banks, lest they be not sufficiently provided with life boats and life preservers according to law, hence we have had no annual Banks picnic so far.

Mr. J. H. Miller, of Trinity, and Mr. J. H. Tipton, of Goldsboro, were here for a few days putting some additional machinery in Mr. P. B. Smith's mill. They were delighted with our place.

Captain Matt Bloodgood arrived Saturday from the North where he went to convey a party of sportsmen from Florida.

Ye General returned last week from Whiteoak where he had been to survey lands for the Loyds and others.

"GENERAL."

GERMANS AT FORT MONROE

Were Guests of the Officers at Celebrated Fortness.

Fort Monroe, Va., June 5.—On picturesque parade ground inside the Fort Monroe walls of the United States army welcomed the officers of the German emperor's visiting squadron. The coast artillery corps, garrisoning the fort, paraded in honor of Rear Admiral Von Mebeur Paschwitz, Col. Strong, commanding the artillery district of Chesapeake Bay, received the German visitors. All through the army reservation the German sailors fraternized with the American sailors and soldiers. Following the review and exhibition drill, Rear Admiral Winslow, prepared luncheon for the German officers aboard the flagship Louisiana.

One of the features of the day was a garden party in honor of the visitors at the home of H. L. Schmeis, at Hampton, Va. The visiting officers leave for Washington where a round of festivities will be begun today.

Washington, June 5.—A cable message from Emperor William to President Taft, thanking him for the hearty welcome extended the German fleet in Hampton Roads, expressed the emperor's wish that the fleet's visit may "further continue to strengthen the good and friendly relations existing between our countries."

CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION

Held Yesterday at Goldsboro. Dr. J. M. Faison Receives Nomination.

Goldsboro, June 5.—The Third Congressional Democratic Convention was called to order by W. L. Hill at 12:25 o'clock. L. I. Moore, of Craven, was made temporary chairman and escorted to the chair. Editors of Democratic papers were made secretaries. Mr. Moore thanked the convention for the honor. On roll of counties all answered.

On motion, the temporary organization was made permanent.

On motion, as there was no contest, the committees on Credentials and Resolutions were dispensed with.

On motion, speeches were limited to two minutes.

On roll call the following executive committee were named: Carter—T. D. Webb. Craven—J. C. Thomas, Jr. Duplin—W. L. Hill. Jones—J. R. Lowry. Onslow—S. B. Taylor. Pamlico—H. L. Gibbs. Pender—T. J. Armstrong. Sampson—Fitzhugh Whitefield. Wayne—J. L. Barham.

On motion by Pender county, Dr. J. M. Faison was nominated and same was made by acclamation. Dr. Faison was called and made a short speech, thanking the convention for the honor. The speaker's address was loudly applauded.

On motion, George E. Hood, of Wayne, and L. I. Moore, of Craven, were nominated for Presidential electors. Mr. W. T. Caho, of Pamlico, was called to the chair, upon motion of Mr. Moore. Several speeches were made seconding.

Before the vote was announced, L. I. Moore asked that the nomination of George E. Hood be made unanimous, which was carried. Mr. Hood responded, thanking the convention.

Hon. Charles R. Thomas made a speech, advocating that four delegates and four alternates be elected to the Baltimore convention. Carried.

The following delegates were elected—A. F. Howell, of Sampson; N. O. Barry, of Wayne; E. G. Hill, of Duplin, and L. G. Daniels, of Craven. Alternates—J. T. Bland, of Duplin; E. M. Green, of Craven; W. T. Caho, of Pamlico, and Benj. May, of Carteret.

Tragedy at Kinston.

Kinston, N. C., June 5.—Perry Stallings, a young white boy of this city, was stabbed to death at 7:15 o'clock last night as the culmination of a quarrel with Charles Randolph, Young Stallings was about 15 years old and Randolph is about the same age.

The slaying occurred in the down town section of Queen street, in front of a restaurant. Stallings is said to have retorted a remark by Randolph with a blow, and the latter drew a large knife stabbing the unfortunate lad in the back, the point penetrating the right kidney, Stallings ran a short distance, bleeding profusely and fell. Other boys tried to carry him and a doctor met them, but the boy died on the street.

Young Randolph fled toward his home. He was arrested by the sheriff. Both boys are well known and Randolph is the son of the late C. T. Randolph, a wealthy carriage manufacturer. The dead boy is the son of J. B. Stallings, a well known tobacconist of North Carolina and Virginia. The tragedy has cast a gloom over the city.

Will Investigate Beef Trust Next.

Washington, June 5.—The house judiciary committee decided to undertake a preliminary investigation of the "beef trust."

The committee agreed to regard the resolution calling for an investigation, but before doing so private inquiry will be made. The committee does not purpose to call any men heavily interested in the packing industry or undertake any sensational investigation of packing house conditions.

Chambermaids Strike.

New York, June 5.—The threat of the striking waiters to carry the war into other branches of hotel employment began to be realized yesterday, when ten chambermaids walked out of the hotel Imperial, marched up Broadway to the headquarters of the Waiters' Union and announced that they wanted to join. At a mass meeting later they declared they had determined to bring out every hotel chambermaid in the city.

Veterans Are Invited.

Headquarters North Carolina Division United Confederate Veterans, Durham, N. C., June 6, 1912.

General Order No. 47.

Paragraph 1. A most cordial invitation has been received from the "Wyatt Monument Committee" for the Confederate Veterans of North Carolina to attend and participate in the exercises at the unveiling of the Henry L. Wyatt monument on the Capitol Square at Raleigh on the 10th day of June, 1912. It is hoped that as many veterans as possible will accept this invitation and by their presence do honor to the memory of the great Confederate soldier killed in battle, and by their presence also express their appreciation of the efforts made by the Daughters of the Confederacy and others to perpetuate in bronze and granite at the capital of our State the sacrifice of Henry L. Wyatt.

Paragraph 2. All staff officers, and as many other veterans as can, are urged to attend in uniform and by their presence aid in making this occasion one of the most memorable in our State's history.

By order of Major General J. S. Carr, Adjutant General and Chief of Staff.
