ROB POSTOFFICE
GET ONE DOLLAR

Snead's Ferry Has Epidemic of Store Robberies. Posse on Trail of Gang.

Between the hours of 1 and 5 o'clock yesterday morning a band of yeggmen broke into the postoffice at Snead's Ferry, Onslow county, and rifled the safe, securing, however, only one dollar in cash, the remainder of the money which had been there on the previous day and also a quantity of stamps having been removed by Postmaster P. P. Sheppard. In addition to robbing the postoffice the stores of Mr. C. C. Jenkins and Postmaster Sheppard were also broken into and a quantity of merchandise carried away.

Two robberies have occurred there during the week. On last Sunday night several stores were entered, including the two above mentioned and goods and money were stolen. On Monday a search was made for the thieves but they had left not the least trace and the pursuers were forced to give up the hunt.

When the second robbery was discovered yesterday morning the Sheriff of the county telegraphed to Raleigh for bloodhounds, but for some reason could not secure them. He at once organized a posse and went in search of the robbers. The robbery required at least two men to commit it was clearly evidenced. The front door of the postoffice was constructed of a number of layers of thick wood and was securely bolted when the postmaster left the building at night. Upon his return yesterday morning it had been torn from its hinges. It is the belief of the people in that place that the robbery was committed by an organized gang of robbers.

A telephone message from Jacksonville last night stated that the posse in search of the robbers had arrived there but up to that time had been unsuccessful in their attempts to apprehend them. A general alarm has been sent out over this section and there is every probability that they will be captured.

VISITORS THROG
ATLANTIC HOTEL

Every Eastbound train passing through the city has its quota of passengers enroute to the Atlantic Hotel at Morehead City. The present season at this popular hostelry is surpassing all anticipations of the owners. Although Manager DuBois always continues to give accommodations to those who stop at the hotel, the house is practically filled at all times with guests.

One of the chief causes of so much popularity with pleasure seekers is the excellent services which the managers of the hotel demands that each guest be given. In the dining room every variety of food that can be secured regardless of trouble or expense is to be found, while a score or more of attendants await the demand of the guests at all other times.

Today the North Carolina Press Association, the occasion being the annual meeting of the North Carolina Press Association, and it is safe to say that each one of them will return home more than pleased with the treatment they received while there.

EDITORS FLOCK
TO MOREHEAD

Four Coaches Attached to East Bound Train For Their Convenience.

Special to Journal

Morehead City, July 23.—Newspaper men and their families to the number of 150 are here for the annual meeting of the North Carolina Press Association. When the editorial party had come in tonight, divested themselves of the dust and grime which many of them had accumulated in a journey across the State and had partaken of the supper provided for them at the Atlantic Hotel, it was found that it was too late to undertake to carry out the program arranged for the evening. So that was postponed until this morning when Mayor Wallace for the city and Mr. B. L. Bagg for the Norfolk-Southern will make the visitors welcome, and Editor James H. Cowan, of the Wilmington Dispatch will deliver the response.

The whole program will be rushed through today. Tomorrow the editors will devote to recreation a part of which will be, very possibly, a trip by boat to Cape Lookout. Friday, instead of Saturday as provided for in the program, the trip by the Inland Waterway to New Bern will be made and the quill drivers will hasten back to their sanctuaries Friday afternoon after partaking of the hospitality of the New Bern Chamber of Commerce.

Four cars carrying a large number of the editors and their families passed through New Bern yesterday afternoon attached to the east-bound train. There were about one hundred and fifty members in the party, including the wives and daughters of the scribes. A number had already gone on to Morehead City to prepare for the other members and others will go down today.

One of the most conspicuous figures among the visitors when they arrived in New Bern was Editor Josephus Daniels, of the Raleigh News and Observer. Attired in a linen suit he appeared to be entirely at ease and enjoying the trip immensely. During the train's short stop here his time was taken up with greeting numerous friends and acquaintance and talking over the present political situation.

Among the other noted personages on the train was Mr. Don C. Seitz, of the New York World. President E. T. Lamb's private car had been placed at his disposal. Mr. Seitz will deliver an address before the Association this morning.

JONES COUNTY'S
HOOKWORM FIGHT

Director T. E. Hughes Predicts That Campaign Will Meet With Success.

Editor Journal:—

The hookworm campaign in Jones county has the co-operation of her citizens, officials and physicians, and therefore will surely meet with success. The only way for each man to have his family benefited by the work is to visit the dispensary, hear the talks on hookworm disease, see the parasites and their eggs, be examined and, if necessary, take the treatment.

It requires little time and trouble to find out whether you are infected with the disease, and if relieved of the malady, you will be greatly improved in health. The matter is too important and serious to be treated indifferently. If you are a real citizen and a faithful head of a family, see to it that your family is examined. Health is one's greatest asset.

Don't keep postponing visiting the dispensary until it is too late, wake up, talk it over with your neighbor, get into the campaign with a vim, and let's free ourselves of this disease. Over 80,000 people have been treated for hookworm in this State during the past year. About 45 counties have made provision for the free dispensaries, and the work has been successfully conducted in about 35 of them.

The dispensaries will continue in Jones county two weeks longer as follows:

Comfort—Monday, July 29th (and Thursday, Aug. 1st in afternoon.

Follockville—Tuesdays July 23, 30.

Haskins' Chapel—Wednesdays July 24, 31.

Paschal Taylor's Store—Thursdays July 25 and (Aug. 1st, in morning.)

Trenton—Fridays July 26 and Aug. 2.

Maysville—Saturday July 27th.

T. E. HUGHES,
Director.

Many Tomatoes on the Market.

These persons whose appetites crave fresh tomatoes at this season had an ample opportunity of appeasing their desires yesterday at a nominal cost. There were tomatoes everywhere, in the stores, on hucksters carts and even a number of boats tied up at the various docks along the water front had quantities of them on board. They could be purchased at prices ranging from 5 to 10 cents per dozen according to size and quality.

Government Boat Leaves.

The government survey boat, Hydrographer, which has been in port during the past few days, left yesterday morning for Elizabeth City. During the time that the boat has been stationed here several men have been gathering information for a coastal survey.
