MR. HAHN PASSES IN LONG BRANCH

Well known New Bern Citizen Is Stricken By Death at Home of Daughter

SICK FOR MANY WEEKS

His Funeral Will Take Place Wednesday at One-Thirty in New York City

Former Sheriff Mayer Hahn died at 8:30 o'clock last night at Long Branch, New Jersey. His funeral will take place at New York Wednesday at 1:30 o'clock. News of his death reached here in a telegram received by Mrs. L. G. Daniels.

He was at the home of his daughter Mrs. Straesberger, having gone there on a visit several weeks ago. A short while after going there he was taken seriously ill and his condition has been critical for some time past with an occasional but not permanent change for the better. Bright's disease was the cause of his death.

The death of Mr. Hahn removes one of the best known citizens of New Bern. For a number of terms sheriff of the county, always even in his later years prominent in Republican politics and for many years before he retired from active business life engaged in the livery business, he was known to practically everybody in Craven county and to many in other counties. He was one of the most enthusiastic local members of the Order of Elks.

Personally he was a very likable man, jovial in his manner and entertaining in his conversation. These traits, coupled with sound judgment, made him a very successful man and he leaves a substantial fortune including much valuable real estate.

Mr. Hahn's wife preceded him to the grave many years ago. He leaves three children, Mrs. Carrie Haas of this city, Mrs. Straesberger of Long Branch and Mr. Ferd Hahn of Winston-Salem. Mrs. H. A. Merfeld of this city is a grand-daughter. He was in the neighborhood of seventy years of age.

Worthy Negro Dies.

John Rhone, a worthy colored man, died yesterday at 2 p. m. after an illness of three months, aged 70 years. He leaves a wife and six children. No time of funeral will be given later.

Reassuring.

(Everybody's Magazine.) Mike got a job moving some kegs of powder and, to the alarm of his foreman, was discovered smoking at his work.

"Ye-ru-salem!" exclaimed the foreman, "do you know what happened when a man smoked at this job some years ago? There was an explosion that blew up a dozen men."

"That couldn't happen here," returned Mike, calmly.

"Why not?"

"'Cause there's only you and me," was the reply.

"Horse Trot" Latest Dance.

(Newport (R. I.) Correspondence New York American.)

The "Horse Trot" is the latest dancing fad of Newport and was brought here by Uffel Davis, of Washington, who composed it.

Last night a party of young people headed by Preston Gibson, surprised Mrs. Sidney, which was repeated many times. None danced it better than Hansel von Ber Halchhausen, Charge d'Affaires of the German Embassy, and Mr. Von Bulow, of the same embassy, dancing with Mrs. Julian Light, Mrs. Preston Gibson and Mrs. Collier.

Providence, R. I., July 27.—

The handsome villa of James Sprunt, of Wilmington, was totally destroyed by fire at Narragansett Pier early this afternoon in the course of a conflagration that razed six other cottages and killed burning, although under control. Mr. Sprunt's loss is $25,000, while the total damage is well over $100,000. The cottage, one of the many handsome ones situated in the section known as Kantara Green, was next but one to the home of Louis E. Stoddard, of New Haven. The fire was first found in the kitchen of the Stoddard cottage, and by the time that the volunteer fire fighters reached the place, the structure was a mass of flames. A fire engine from the northwest fanned the flames to fury and the fire fighters were helpless. The residents of the cottage saw that their chances were practically hopeless and so all turned to, to save what they could.

SAID PISTOL WAS NOT CONCEALED

But Mayor Rules That Superior Court Should Make An Investigation.

AIR TRAIN DISORDER

Harry Huff Held For Higher Court Under Bond of Fifty Dollars.

At a hearing last night Mayor McCarthy bound Harry Huff over to the Superior Court on the charge of carrying a concealed weapon, the bond being fixed at fifty dollars. The offense is alleged to have occurred on an Atlantic Coast Line passenger train between here and Wilmington, on Sunday, July 7. The defendant who is a young man 22 years of age, admitted that he had the pistol in his possession but insisted that at no time was it concealed.

The principal witness for the prosecution was Capt. W. H. Newell, who was in charge of the train. He testified that young Huff and three others played cards on the way down to Wilmington on the Sunday morning in question and that the defendant was so disorderly that he had to approach him on four different occasions and urge him to behave himself.

On the return trip, Capt. Newell testified, he heard the young man use a remark so vulgar that he went to him and told him that if he gave any further trouble he would send him to the baggage car until he got him to New Bern and that then he would give him all the trouble he could. Later, according to the account of the disturbance given by the conductor, he was making his way back into the coach when some one told him not to go back in there as Huff had a pistol and would shoot him. Capt. Newell said he procured assistance, went to where the young man was sitting, reached into his hip pocket and took a pistol out of it. He then took the man up into the baggage car and kept him there until the train reached New Bern.

Mr. Jake Hartefeld, who was in the car where the disturbance occurred was the only other witness for the State. His testimony was in substance the same as that of the conductor. His pistol was not loaded, Mr. Hartefeld testified.

The defendant had no lawyer, he and his father, Mr. Helen Huff, examined his witness and cross examined those for the State. They introduced John Stanley, Lewis Cury and Asa Ippert. They all testified that the pistol was not concealed part of the time, according to their testimony, it was lying across his lap and part of the time it was in his pocket. But the time it was in his pocket they maintained he was walking up and down the streets of Wilmington and as he did not have his coat on and as the pocket was shallow the weapon was not concealed at any time. They admitted that he was drinking but denied that he was drunk. All declare emphatically that he did not use the offensive language which Capt. Newell testified he used.

Attorney L. I. Moore represented Capt. Newell. He said that there had been a great deal of disorder on the Sunday excursion train of the Coast Line and it was highly desirable that the court uphold the efforts of the conductors to maintain order. Captain Newell, he said, was not concerned about the degree of the punishment imposed but was concerned only about the certainty of punishment being imposed.

The defendant addressed the conductor directly in court and declared that the reason he made the arrest was because he wanted to show his authority. Capt. Newell insisted that there was no malice in anything that he did, but that he was determined to keep order on his train.

There was a warrant for disorderly conduct as well as for carrying concealed weapons. Lawyer Moore mildly insisted that as the Mayor had jurisdiction in disorderly conduct cases he ought to pass on it. But the Mayor said he would let the whole business go up to the higher court together.

Played Three Games, Won Three.

Talking of the Oriental baseball team Mr. E. M. Jacobs, who is manager of the team and who sits in the city yesterday, said that it played three games last week and won all three and that it expected to make almost if not quite as good a showing in the games which it has yet to play. This year's team is one of the best Oriental has ever had, says Mr. Jacobs.

Washington, July 29.—A living, useful memorial will be erected in honor of the late Dr. Seaman A. Knapp, of the United States Department of Agriculture, founder of the Farm Demonstration Work. The Knapp Memorial Committee, has decided to raise $150,000 with which to purchase and equip a farm and erect a building in connection with the Great Peabody College for Teachers, in Nashville, Tennessee.
