ARE UNITED FOR TARIFF REVISION

Democratic and Progressive Senators Decide They Will Get Together.

TO PASS FOUR BILLS

Chairman Underwood of House Ways and Means Committee In Alliance.

Washington, July 31.—An understanding has been reached between the leaders of the Democratic and Progressive forces in the Senate whereby they propose to take charge of the body for the remainder of the session and to put through a tariff revision program.

Chairman Oscar Underwood, of the House Ways and Means Committee, it was stated has been taken into the confidence of the coalition leaders. He will be a party to the combination and will see to it that the program will not be interfered with in the House.

So far as can be gathered this program includes the passage of compromise measures revising the wool, the cotton and the sugar schedules. It also contemplates the enactment of the income tax bill with all destructive amendments removed. In general terms it means the passage of a series of progressive measures that will strongly appeal to the country.

If the alliance goes through, the effect will be a Democratic majority in both houses of Congress, and the result will be the passage of a list of tariff reform bills that will give the Republicans such a shock as they have not received in a decade. Incidentally, it will seriously embarrass the President and put him in a deeper hole than when the extra session handed him three reform tariff bills a year ago.

FIX GENERAL TAX LEVY ON MONDAY

Commissioners on That Day Will Also Pass on Walker Road Matter.

IMPROVEMENT WANTED

Chamber of Commerce Is Much Interested in Action of County Board

At the regular monthly meeting of the County Board of Commissioners, which will be held Monday, one of the principal matters to come up will be the fixing of the general purpose tax levy for this year. The levy for roads and several other levies were made at the meeting in June.

It is expected also that the board at its August meeting will take final action on the Walker road matter. This is the road which the Chamber of Commerce has asked the county to put in such repair that it can be used. It extends in the direction of Aurora and will shorten the route to that place by several miles, the route as traveled now being very circuitous.

The members of the Chamber of Commerce are awaiting with some anxiety the action of the commissioners in this matter. They feel that for the county to fail to put the road in shape for service would rob New Bern of a very inviting prospect as the improvement of the road would bring to this city many people who now do their shopping elsewhere. As it runs through a very populous section, the amount of new business for New Bern that is involved is considerable. The people along the road are clamoring for its improvement, and it is felt that the Commissioners will be disposed to put the county convicts on the road and get it in condition for use at an early date.

The Chamber of Commerce had the road carefully examined and it is believed that the cost of improving it will not exceed several hundred dollars.

SHOWS NEED FOR NEW INSTITUTION

Frank Oglesby, a feeble-minded young man who has been kept for some time at the County Home, has been transferred to the county jail, as Mrs. Williams the keeper of the Home had become afraid of him.

He is a good worker and ordinarily harmless but at times he develops a mania for threatening to burn dwellings and other property. Mrs. Williams heard him indulge in this sort of talk until her nerves became unstrung and she asked that he be taken some where else.

An effort was made to get him in the State Hospital in Raleigh, but incurable cases are not taken there and Frank was born an imbecile. It is the feeling around the court house that he ought not to be kept in the jail, but under the circumstances it seems that there is nothing else to do but keep him there. His case illustrates the need for the institution for the Feeble-Minded to be opened soon at Kinston. As soon as it is opened, application for admission for young Oglesby will be made.

Rattler Lay In 2 Feet of Child.

Special to Journal.
Swansboro, July 31.—Without knowing it Thomas Glancy, who lives near here, placed his little five year old daughter within imminent danger of terrible suffering and possible death when he sent her into a barn where later he found a huge rattler. He permitted the little one to the barn to get feed for the stock, closing the door as the child was afraid of a cow that was loose in the barn yard. Later he found within, in a few moments he went in the barn himself and to his horror found coiled within two feet of the child a huge rattlesnake. Hurriedly getting his little daughter out of danger he dispatched the reptile.

Wilson-Cook.

Miss Sadie E. Cook, of New Bern and M. C. Wilson, of Norfolk, were married last night at 11 o'clock by Rev. J. B. Hurley at the Methodist parsonage on New street. The couple left on the train leaving here at 12:30 this morning to go to Norfolk for a few days, after that they will come back to Elizabeth City which is to be their home. The bride is a well known and popular young lady of this city. Mr. Wilson is connected with one of the tags that run into this part.

Big Sale Starts.

A big sale started yesterday at A. B. Enger's on Middle street. Long before the hour advertised as the time for the sale to open a crowd of people had gathered to be on hand and get the first pick of the goods offered at reduced rates. And all during the day there was a good sized crowd in the store. The sale is being conducted by Mr. C. D. Coak, who has had wide experience in this sort of work, and it will continue for some days yet.

RETURNS AFTER DELIGHTFUL TRIP

Mrs. Bayard Wootton has returned from Philadelphia where she attended the annual meeting of the National Association of Photographers of America. She had a most delightful trip and one that she expects to prove of helpfulness to her in her work.

As a member of the executive board of the Woman's Federation, which is an organization within the National Photographers' Association, Mrs. Wootton had business as well as pleasure on her hands in Philadelphia. She was one of those who responded to toasts at the annual luncheon given by the Federation at Hotel Walton, and her response was greeted with a degree of applause that showed that it was warmly appreciated by the many women owners of studios present, for none but owners can belong to the Federation.

Mrs. Wootton was enthusiastic in her praise of the way in which the photographers of Philadelphia entertained the visitors. Nothing was left undone, she said. One day was given over to an outing at Atlantic City and there was also provided a revel which lasted from 6 p. m. to 1 a. m., and which did not have a dull moment from start to finish.

NEW BERN NEARS SPOTLESS TOWN

With the exception of three of the principal alleys in the city, New Bern is a fairly clean town now, says sanitary Officer Henry Brinson. The three alleys which don't come up to the mark are Henderson alley, running from South Front street to Trent river and between Middle and railroad street, the alley from Middle to Craven and between Pullock and South Front and the one from Middle running back of the Gaston Hotel. Mr. Brinson will get to work on these alleys today and have them put in thoroughly sanitary condition.

Masher Will Be Court Martialled.

Richmond, Va., July 31.—Julius Kibel, private in the United States army who was transferred to Richmond last week from the recruiting station at Rocky Mount, has been ordered to Fort Slocum, N. Y. to be court martialled for paying the arts of a masher here. He will probably be accompanied north by Corporal Pitman, of the local station, whose home is at New Bern.

Kibel was fined $15 in the police court for attempting to escort home a young lady whom he accosted on Broad street after he had bet a friend a dollar he could do so.
