

THE WORKING MAN'S VIEW.

"It is mighty hard," said a working man some time ago, "to save money by laying aside a dollar or two a week." That man had never tried to save. Any wage earner can put aside one dollar a week. At that rate in twenty years a depositor would have $1612.00—quite a little fortune. A deposit of five dollars a week during the same time would grow to $8,000. There is no secret about accumulating money. Try a systematic plan and deposit your savings with this bank.

DEATH CLAIMS VALUED CITIZEN

Mr. Samuel J. Hudson Passes Away After Lingering Illness.

PREY OF CONSUMPTION

In Dying Condition For Several Days—Fu- neral Friday.

Mr. Samuel J. Hudson died yesterday morning at 6:45 o'clock after a lingering illness with consumption. For several days past he had been in a critical condition and friends all over the city were prepared at any moment to hear that the end had come.

Though Mr. Hudson's death was not unexpected, it comes as a matter of keen sorrow to many. And as the news went around yesterday that death had claimed him, many were the expressions of regret mingled with sympathy for those who had watched so consistently by his bedside.

He had been in failing health for a year or more when, seeing that consumption had assailed him, he gave up work and commenced an unequal struggle with the disease. Last summer he spent in Asheville and seemed to be somewhat benefited. This summer he went again, but instead of growing better he became worse and a few weeks ago he returned with the shadow of death hovering closely around him. All the while since, he has been slowly sinking, wife and friends realizing that no power on earth could save him and helpless to do more than watch and wait for the end, endeavoring in the meantime every day to do that love and skill could suggest.

He was born Dec. 6, 1861, at Pollockville and would have been fifty-one years of age had he lived until next December. Dec. 5, 1883, he married Miss Lucretia Edwards of Kinston, who survives him. Twenty-five years ago he came to New Bern to live, first as a salesman and later as the proprietor of a grocery store which he conducted for seventeen years, when the condition of his health made it necessary for him to give up work.

He was a man of irreproachable character, leading a life of singular beauty and rectitude. One who knew him well said, referring to his death: "As he has New Bern been called upon to part with one of her prominent citizens—prominent not in worldly position nor in material wealth—but in strict integrity, in sterling worth, in gentleness of manner, in beautiful unselfishness of heart. Mr. Hudson was one of those rare men who filled his place in the community and in the church, without crowding against any one, without envy, without thinking evil."

Mr. Hudson is the last of his immediate family, leaving no closer relatives than cousins.

He was a member of Centenary Methodist church and also of the official board of that church. He was a member of the Masonic order and of the Royal Arcanum.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at five o'clock from Centenary Methodist church and is a former pastor, by Rev. R. C. Beaman, a former pastor, assisted by Rev. Dr. J. H. N. Sumnerell. Burial will be in Cedar Grove.

The Board of Stewards of Centenary Methodist church are requested to meet in the Church Parlor this afternoon at 4:45 o'clock to attend the funeral of our deceased Brother Samuel Hudson.

NOTICE TO MASONS.
There will be a special communication of St. John's Lodge No. 3, this afternoon at 4 o'clock to attend the funeral of our late Brother, S. J. Hudson. All Masons invited to attend.
By order of W. M.
Wm. H. BAIN,
Secretary.

DEATH CLAIMS CHARLES T. BELL

Mr. Charles Thomas Bell, a promising young member of the Carteret county bar, died at his home at Morehead City Monday, at 6:30 p. m. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon. Mr. Bell contracted tuberculosis some months ago, and was taken to the sanatorium at Morehead City several weeks ago. His improvement, as he bore his sufferings with great fortitude to the end. Joe, the Turk Well Received

Despite the terrific heat, or maybe on account of it, "Joe, the Turk" held the attention of a large crowd on the corner of Middle and Pollock streets last night, before the meeting at the Salvation Army hall on Griffith street. Staff Captain G. A. Wood, which is "Joe's" real name, is a picturesque character. When he gets on a box arrayed in full Turkish costume, and begins to play the Turkish drum, every one stands in attention. "Joe" is certainly a musician, as he plays the cornet, clarinet and saxophone in addition to the peculiar drum from his native land.

TWO PROSPECTORS HERE FROM OHIO

Messrs. Frank Law of Hebron, Ohio, and A. H. Ellis, of Thurston, Ohio, came to our last night's train from Norfolk. They left Ohio Tuesday morning and made stops all through Virginia, reaching Norfolk, they took a train right through to New Bern, in order to look at the farms of Craven county, of which they had heard so much.

BROWN COMES CLEAR

In the Mayor's Court Monday Andrew Brown, the negro arrested Saturday night on the charge of stealing a watch belonging to Stephen Mosley, was discharged from custody, there being no evidence to hold him. He proved that he bought the watch from a woman to whom Augustine Adams, Mosley's nephew, had given it in payment of a board bill.

HAVE MACHINES ON MARKET SOON

Bridgeton's New Factory Nears Readiness For Operation.

WILL MAKE WASHERS

Little Town Across The Neuse Has Building Boom.

The washing-machine factory, which is being built at Bridgeton by Mr. A. J. Holton of Beesboro, is nearing completion and he will no doubt have some of his machines on the market in a short time. This is a new plant for Bridgeton.

Bridgeton is on the boom. There are two new stores just completed, and several new houses have been finished within the last few weeks. Mr. L. R. Davis has about completed a very handsome house for Mr. C. V. McGeehee on A street. It adds greatly to the looks of the place. Mr. Duff Lathinghouse has taken a contract to put $1,400.00 improvement on Mr. E. R. Phillips' house, on Bridge street.

Mr. J. H. Oglesby, postmaster, has recently enlarged the post office and is in position to give better service to the people.

Mr. A. L. Johnson returned Monday from Beaufort county, where he had been on business for several days.

Mrs. J. P. McCullen returned home Friday from Goldsboro after spending a week with relatives.

Miss Maggie Campbell came home Friday, after spending two weeks in Vaceboro with her sister.

Misses Mittie and Mattie Barrington are visiting friends in Durham.

Mr. G. O. Lee of Washington is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lee.

Mrs. Duff Lathinghouse and children returned home Monday from Vaceboro.

Mr. Perry Fulcher on Monday moved in his new store which has just been completed by Mr. L. R. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wyatt of Norfolk are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Wyatt.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Stallings are visiting in Vaceboro.

Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Wright are visiting in Hyde county.

Mr. Willie Simons, who is employed by S. Coplan & Son, has been taking his vacation for the last week, but returned home Monday night and is back on his job.

BIG LOCOMOTIVE RESUMES ITS RUN

The big passenger locomotive No. 127 has resumed its run on the Beaufort division of the Norfolk Southern. It makes a great improvement in the passenger service. The trains have become too heavy for the smaller type of engines. Very often trains of ten coaches, crowded with passengers, are hauled over the Beaufort division, and the small locomotives cannot make steam fast enough to maintain the schedule. Genial Nat Russell, an engineer who has a reputation as a "runner" is at the throttle of the new machine, and he is mighty proud of it.

THE DAYS FLYING ALL TOO SWIFTLY

Morehead City, N. C., Aug. 13.—The glorious outdoor August days at Morehead are passing only too swiftly for the midsummer crowd of visitors, who are crowding into each day many hours of boating, fishing and other water sports aside from the enjoyment of the indoor delights at the Atlantic hotel. Every evening the spacious verandas and piers and splendid hall room of the Atlantic are the scenes of enthusiastic midsummer happiness, but in the day time the crowd goes to the water either for a sail, or to seek the thrill of the finest fishing sport on the Atlantic coast or a dip into the surf.

BANKS CONCEAL UNTOLD WEALTH

Fortunes Believed to Be Stored in Lime Deposits.

J. C. BROWN PIONEER

Indefatigable in His Re- searches Concerning Shell Products.

In the Journal of Sunday last appeared a little story about the shell deposits along the banks of the Trent river. The intention was to refer to the wealth concealed in these banks, and how it was being gotten out by the men who know how, but owing to the exigencies of the mechanical department, and the rush incident to daily journalism, this matter was omitted.

The large deposits of carbonated lime, located along the Trent, from about six miles up the stream nearly to Pollockville, are mainly controlled by the Carolina Coast Lime Company, of which Mr. J. C. Brown is manager. Mr. Brown has spent many of the best years of his life in research concerning natural shell lime, its use on the farm and in the poultry yard, and it is understood that he really discovered many of the deposits along the Trent and Neuse rivers. While the banks were known to exist, a profitable use for the lime contained had not been found.

Mr. Brown took these disintegrated shells, ground them in a mill he built at the foot of Mealeaf street, this city, and demonstrated to farmers the virtues of his natural shell lime as a soil builder and crop increaser. The value of this lime had been known for over one hundred years, but Mr. Brown must be given credit for making it available.

After the pioneer work was done, a company was formed, The Carolina Coast Lime company. They control mines on both the Neuse and Trent rivers, containing millions of tons of high-grade natural shell lime, composed entirely of fossilized shell fish, and a plant with a daily capacity of fifty tons of the most valuable fertilizer for most lands.

Widely Answered.
I am clearly the following "Think-shoulder" advice, who being once asked how he would marry his daughter, whether to one that was poor but honest, or to one that was rich but dishonest, he made answer: "I had better have a man without a necktie than a man without a necktie."
