W. J. BRYAN'S HAND IN THE CAMPAIGN

Sends Warning about Conceding Anything to The Enemy

"WEST IS FOR WILSON"

Publicity Committee is Taken To Task—Daniels Enters Denials

Sea Girt, N. J., Aug. 21.—William Jennings Bryan took a hand in the conduct of the Democratic national campaign long enough to send a message of warning to Josephus Daniels, chairman of the Democratic campaign publicity bureau. The warning was against the issuance of any statements concerning such Western States as Nebraska, Colorado and Utah to the Republicans.

Mr. Daniels could not make out what the warning was all about, but he found that dispatches had been sent out from Sea Girt to the newspapers declaring that he had brought to the "Little White House" the results of a canvass conducted by members of the national committee which showed 10 States against Governor Wilson.

"It doesn't sound like you're conceding anything to the enemy, let alone my own State of Nebraska," wrote Mr. Bryan from West Virginia, where he is busy on the Chautauqua circuit.

Mr. Bryan went on to disclose that the national committee had any information that Colorado and Utah were against Wilson, the information was all wrong. He said that wherever he had appeared on the lecture platform and mentioned Governor Wilson he had been instant and prolonged applause and that the signs seemed most hopeful.

From the Far West, he said, all of his letters were enthusiastic in promises of support and indicated that Wilson sentiment predominated. As to Nebraska, he said he was certain the Republicans had no chance to win.

Mr. Bryan was not the only Democrat who took Mr. Daniels to task because of his alleged interview. Mayor James Dahlman, of Omaha, who is an anti-Bryan man, wrote in a tone fully confident as that Bryan had used, declaring Nebraska was for Wilson and objected to it being given over to the enemy.

From Utah came this telegram: "What the blankety blankety blank do you mean? Utah is for Wilson. We object to being conceded away."

Mr. Daniels, over the telephone, dictated a statement tonight declaring that the message from the West and Mr. Bryan's message of warning had all originated because of a totally spurious interview.

"I never conceded any States to the Republicans," he said.

DEATH SUMMONS GENERAL BOOTH

London, Aug. 21.—The Rev. William Booth, general and commander-in-chief of the Salvation Army, passed away at 10:14 o'clock last night. He was born in Nottingham in 1829.

The veteran Salvation Army leader was unconscious for 48 hours previous to his death. The medical bulletin had not revealed the seriousness of the General's condition, which for a week past, it is now admitted, was hopeless.

Twelve weeks ago General Booth underwent an operation for the removal of a cataract in his left eye. For two days after the operation indications justified the hope of the General's recovery. Then, however, septic poisoning set in and from that time, with the exception of occasional rallies, the patient's health steadily declined. The General recognized the end was near and often spoke of his work as being finished.

Throughout the Commander in chief's illness, his son Bramwell Booth, chief of the staff of the army, and Mrs. Bramwell Booth, gave their unremitting attentions to him both night and day.

GOOD PROGRESS ON THE CAR LINE

Very satisfactory progress is being made in laying the track for the Riverside extension of the New-Bern Street street railway. This line runs from Pollock up Metcalf to New street. The track has now been completed along New street nearly to the corner of Bern. It will then follow Bern street to Pine, down Pine to George and thence to the Norfolk Southern tracks.

LOST JOBS, ALSO CLOTHES, MAY SUE

Craven County Boys Want Wilmington to Reimburse Them

ELSE GO INTO COURT

Detained As Witnesses. Positions Gone When They Got Home

Daniel Harper and L. H. Dixon, two young men of Craven county, through their attorneys, Moore & Dunn, are threatening suit against the City of Wilmington, because of loss of clothing and positions as a result of being detained in Wilmington as witnesses in a tiger case. They claim that the place where they were confined was so filthy that when they got out they had to buy new clothes and throw their old ones away.

They also want compensation for the loss of their positions as they claim that by reason of being detained in Wilmington several days, they lost their position, their employer not having been advised as to whether they were coming back and having secured other men in their places.

A further charge is that they were not allowed to give bail and were not allowed any sum whatever even as witnesses money.

The Star of yesterday says that Mayor Joseph D. Smith has received a letter from Messrs. Moore and Dunn asking for some compensation for the young men and threatening to institute suit if the request for compensation is not complied with. The Star also says:

"The mayor and other city authorities are inclined to laugh at the threat contained in the letter. They say that the men were given opportunity to give bond, and were only held in jail after they could not raise the money, and that it was the county which was responsible for them going to jail, for they were not locked up at the City Hall, but merely detained there."

DEFENDANTS FILE ANSWER IN SUIT

In the case entitled Mrs. P. C. Ervin, administratrix of Leonard Ervin vs. the Southern Railway company and William Thomas, set for trial in Winston-Salem, the defendants have filed an answer to the complaint of the plaintiff in the damage suit recently removed from Craven county to Forsyth county for the convenience of the witnesses. Mrs. B. O. Ervin, the milliner on the corner of Pollock and Craven streets, is suing for $50,000, alleging that her son, Leonard Ervin, was killed at Rural Hall in April, 1911, by the negligence of the defendants. They deny this and allege that the plaintiff's intestate was killed because of his own negligence.

CAMPERS REPORT DELIGHTFUL TRIP

The New Bern people camping on Shackleford Banks report a great sport. Plenty of cool breeze, good fishing and a delightful time in general. Among others there yesterday were Dr. L. L. Hendren and wife and Dr. Stevens and Prof. Webb of Athens, Ga. Mrs. Mabel Chadwick, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Roberts and Miss May Hendren. They will camp there for ten days. Their happiness was not complete without the Journal and it is now going to them.

CROWD SEES CINDERELLA.

The largest crowd in the history of the Athens Theatre turned out yesterday afternoon for Cinderella the moving picture event advertised for matinee and evening. Of course a goodly part of the crowd at the matinee were children with whom Cinderella is ever popular. Another large house greeted the evening presentation and greatly enjoyed the three reels of Cinderella, the one reel of "When Rosa Withers" and the vaudeville. An entirely new bill is on for tonight.

DEATH OF MRS. W. T. CAPPS.

Mrs. W. T. Capps died Monday at her home, 48 Griffith street. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon at five o'clock at the Salvation Army barracks on Griffith street. Mrs. Capps is survived by her husband and five children one of whom is only two weeks old.

VISITORS THROUGH BLACK MOUNTAIN

Fortunate Those Who Engaged Their Rooms In Advance

TRAINS ARE CROWDED

Perfect Weather Covering At Night Necessary To Comfort.

Special to the Journal.

Black Mountain, August 21.—Fortunate those who engaged their rooms for August and September in advance! Thirty days ago railroad and hotel people in this section bemoaned the lack of tourists. Today it is the lucky tourist who can get comfortable quarters. Every Southern passenger train is crowded. The lively men have all they can handle and the horses are beginning to have that tired summer look.

Perfect weather thus far. Several days in the noon time hour the temperature was about 80, while at night most visitors want covering beside the sheet.

The Montreal crowd has been large. The interest greater than ever in the various meetings. The swimming pool near the hotel has proven a great attraction and this with base ball have been the greater dissipations among the cottage people and visitors. A game of ball between two lady nines was a drawing feature last week.

The Inn has its full quota of guests most of those coming to the Inn stay at least one week many for a month or two. The weekly dance Thursday night was well attended and greatly enjoyed.

Mrs. R. D. V. Jones and Miss Margaret Bryan gave a supper to some fifteen friends last Thursday. The plan was to sup at Alexander's on the Asheville road, but Alexander received the postal too late, so the guests enjoyed the drive and buying canned and packaged goods from a grocery, had a good time.

Among the town arrivals are Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Slover, Mr. T. A. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Dill and children are also among recent arrivals and await their cottage. Alderman Wm. Ellis is at Gladstone Hotel. Mr. C. T. Bennett and family have taken the Nunn cottage near the Inn. At the Inn, recent arrivals are R. A. Nunn, and Mr. N. C. Hughes formerly of New Bern.

The ladies and friends of St. James church held a bazaar last week for the church benefit, to help the furnishings. A good amount was realized. Rev. B. F. Huske, Rector of Christ Church, New Bern, is here for a few days, the guest of Mrs. F. W. Hughes, at her beautiful mountain home. Rev. Mr. Huske held the first regular services at St. James Church on Vance Avenue, Sunday morning. There was a congregational that filled the new church building. Both service and sermon found devout worshippers and close hearers.

HOW DOES HE GET AROUND IT?

[Charlotte Observer.]

In endeavoring to create prejudice against Senator Simmons by reason of his advocacy of government aid in building good roads for postal delivery service and for the development of the waterways, how is the editor of the Carolina Democrat and the Monroe Journal to get around the fact that these principles were written in the platform of Baltimore and are Democratic doctrine? Governor Kithenno doubt stands on the Baltimore platform. Senator Simmons not only stands on it, but works for it. No Democrat can assail Simmons for his work for these measures without assailing the Democratic platform, itself. And that is something no loyal Democratic newspaper can afford to do.

Governor Wilson, our nominee, is partly a North Carolina man; he was the favorite of our people for the nomination, and our support tended greatly to bring about his nomination. Now let us make good and each one chip in to raise a liberal contribution from North Carolina, to meet the necessary expenses of the campaign—Senator F. M. Simmons.
