

The Prudent Saver.

The man or woman who sees far enough ahead to prepare for the future need by saving today is a prudent saver of money. This is the only way to become independent—free from those worries which are sure to follow the loss of employment, sickness or some other trouble, if there is no surplus saved up to meet the emergency.

WOODMEN HAVE A LOG ROLLING

Class Iniation Held Last Night at Hall of The Order

SERVE REFRESHMENTS

District Manager Will L. Bell to Award Silver Service

The Woodmen of the World, Elmwood Camp No. 12, had a class initiation in the Woodmen hall, corner Broad and Hancock streets, last night. The Bridgeton degree team, Capt. William Simons, put on the degree work in splendid style. This was the first class work ever put on in Eastern North Carolina and applicants were most favorably impressed. After the degree work, refreshments were served.

Those who received the degrees were only a part of a class of forty-five. The remainder will be initiated on or about the 18th inst.

Those wishing to join during the class should see that their applications are in before that date. Mr. Will L. Bell, district manager, will be here until that time.

Elmwood Camp contemplates a new degree team. There is a great deal more enthusiasm than in the past, and the New Bern camp seems to be taking on new life.

Mr. W. N. Pugh made the address of welcome to the new members, and it was greatly enjoyed by them.

A silver service will be awarded to the Elmwood Camp by Mr. Bell as a token of appreciation for enthusiastic work for the order.

ENDORSES DUNCAN FOR HEAD OF N. S.

The Raleigh Chamber of Commerce at a meeting held Tuesday night adopted resolutions endorsing Mr. E. C. Duncan for the presidency of the Norfolk Southern Railroad Company as follows:

"Resolved by the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce, in meeting assembled: "That we most heartily endorse Mr. Duncan and recommend to the board of directors of the Norfolk Southern railway his selection as president of the company; we believe him to be eminently qualified and feel that no selection could be made which would meet with more universal approval, or go farther toward establishing, extending and maintaining those cordial and friendly relations which should exist between railway officials and the people; by reason of the fact that the greater part of the mileage of this road, both actual and contemplated is in this state, we believe the selection of a North Carolinian as president will be appreciated by the people of this state, and we pledge to him our hearty co-operation and support in extending and building up the property of the company until it shall become, as it deserves to be, one of the great railway systems of the south."

The Norfolk Ledger-Dispatch says that F. S. Gannon, who was president of the road when it was known as the Norfolk and Southern, will almost certainly be made president.

SHIPPING NEWS

There is considerable activity at Meadows' shipyard. Mr. Hamilton, the manager, seems to have his hands full. The schooner Essex is on the ways, being calked and painted. The big wrecking schooner Humphrey Toomey is lying in the basin, waiting to go on the ways. The schooner S. C. Donohoe also awaits a chance to be hauled out to have a new keel put in.

The auxiliary schooner Sarah Wilson is on Stewart's ways.

Power boat Daisy is in from Oriental, with general cargo.

The power boat Clifford Perin cleared for Beaufort yesterday. A load of pipe and mill fittings was taken aboard at the plant of the Elm City Lumber Company, for the new mill of the Perin Lumber Company at Lenoxville.

JAMES SMITH, JR. WILL TRY AGAIN

Jersey Boss, Once Beaten, Still Has Senatorial Aspirations

TO BE A CANDIDATE

Governor Wilson Caused His Defeat in Interest of Martine

Newark, N. J., Sept. 4.—James Smith, Jr., former United States Senator, has announced that he will be a candidate at the coming primaries for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator. His petition has been forwarded to the Secretary of the State at Trenton for filing.

Ex-Senator Smith's opponents have discussed as a candidate for the primary nomination State Senator Gebhardt, Representative Hughes and former Judge Westcott, of Camden, who placed Governor Wilson's name before the Democratic convention at Baltimore.

Mr. Gebhardt, Hughes and Westcott held a conference over the situation with Governor Wilson several days ago at Sea Girt, but were unable to decide which two should withdraw to unite the Wilson strength. The time for filing petitions ends with today.

Governor Wilson's break with Mr. Smith occurred almost two years ago, after the Governor's election, but before he assumed office. Governor Wilson opposed his Senatorial ambition and in the ensuing contest was victorious, James E. Martine, the primary choice, being elected by the Legislature. The office for which Mr. Smith announces his candidacy is now occupied by Frank O. Briggs, Republican, whose term expires March 4, 1913.

BREAKS NECK IN FALL FROM PORCH

Kinston, Sept. 4.—John H. Burke, a prominent young man of LaGrange, met death in a singular manner at his home there. Young Burke, who was about 23 years of age, was talking to his father on the front porch of his residence, and was leaning against a post when he suddenly fell to the ground, breaking his neck. It is not known whether Burke died from heart failure or the broken neck. He had been suffering from vaccination against smallpox, an epidemic of the disease prevailing in the little town, and was very weak. He was seen to stoop as though in pain before falling from the porch. When the elder Burke reached his son's side the young man was dead.

John H. Burke was very popular throughout this section and was a leader in social circles in LaGrange. He was a partner in the mercantile business headed by his father, W. H. Burke. The funeral was largely attended, and the interment was in Oakdale.

SMALL BODY, BIG COURAGE

Chief of Police W. G. Rouse of Dover came in on the evening train last night leading a desperate-looking negro at the end of a chain. The darkey was being taken to the Craven county jail. The commitment described him as Alex Franks, arrested for retailing whiskey. A bystander at the depot remarked, "What a little policeman."

MR. GREGORY DEAD

The body of William Gregory, who died in Beaufort, was taken over the Norfolk Southern from this city yesterday morning to the home of the deceased in Beaufort. Mr. Gregory was a shipbuilder, well known in this section. He had been employed on Dredge O, which left there two years ago.

NO COMPLAINT ON NEW SUNDAY LAW

Closing of Postoffices Said to Cause But Little Trouble

OBSERVE WORKINGS

No Suggestions Received As to Amending Executive Orders.

Before the order of the Postmaster General carrying out the new law was issued vigorous protests were received here from every part of the country. Since a trial of the new order has been made, however, there appears to have been no great inconvenience.

Orders were sent out by the Postoffice Department to the postmasters at Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and Washington to observe carefully the working of the law on Sunday and to advise the officials here if any interest had suffered through the closing of the general delivery windows.

Up to today no complaints had been forwarded to the Postmaster-General. Neither were any suggestions received as to the advisability of further amending the executive orders to allow other patrons than hotels and newspapers to receive their mail.

OFFERS $10,000 FOR CURE OF CHILDREN

St. Louis, Sept. 4.—Following the death of his seven-year-old daughter Virginia from infantile paralysis, Dr. Robert Edward Wilson of No. 4295 Lindell Boulevard said he would give a fortune to any physician who would save the lives of the other three Wilson children, who are all ill of the same disease at their home in Pottsville, Mo.

"I will give $10,000 to the man who can save my children," was Dr. Wilson's cry after his daughter's death. The scene in the little girl's room was so touching just before her death that the father was frantic, and two other physicians who had been in attendance were so affected they had to go out.

FUNERAL OF P. M. PRIOR

The funeral of P. M. Prior, whose death occurred Monday at Burlington, took place yesterday at that place, which was the old home of the deceased. Mr. Prior went to Burlington a few weeks ago for his health, but was taken worse and died. He leaves two sons and two daughters, three of the four; Misses Ethel and Hazel Prior and Mr. Priest, being residents of New Bern.
