TWENTY MILLION FOR SPECULATOR

Bernard M. Bauch Said to Have Cleaned up That Amount.

CAREER SPECTACULAR.

In Business For Himself. When the Time is Rife He Gets Busy.

New York, Sept. 19.—Following the recent active market, it was reported in Wall street that Bernard M. Bauch, a daring speculator, had "cleaned up" $20,000,000.

Word was passed around at the opening of the market Tuesday that the long-delayed activity had come at last, and stocks began to climb at once. Such favorites as Steel, Union Pacific, Almagamat, Reading and other issues went soaring upward, and the trend of the whole list was toward better prices.

The rise had hardly started before brokers began to believe that Bauch was busy again. Every rise was watched as a barometer of what might be expected, and the floor of the Stock Exchange was again the scene of intense activity, after months of comparative quiet.

The Stock Exchange contains no more spectacular character than Bernard M. Bauch. He has two brothers on the Exchange, Hartwig N., of Baruch Bros., and S. W. Bauch, of A. A. Housman & Co. He was at one time connected with the firm of Baruch Bros., but for some years past has been doing business by himself, and in a little private office in a building overlooking Trinity churchyard he sits and does things when the time is ripe.

DRESSES WILL BE TIGHTER STILL

And They Will be Yet More Unsubstantial, Says Miss Temped.

COLORS TO BE VIOLET.

Actress Lifts the Veil Hiding Mystery of Autumn Fashions.

New York, Sept. 19.—A cable from London says:

The veil which has been hiding the mystery of the autumn fashions has been lifted. Marie Tempest, the actress, had a peep at the dressmakers' outfits and says:

"The pannier has now become drapery and everything is draped. The dresses are tighter than ever under the drapery and there are no foundations, only transparencies. I do not know what we women are going to do with such unsubstantial clothing."

"In regard to colors, they are the most vivid and most violent that can be imagined. There are new shades and tones not seen before and colors which no one thought possible to use in combination with contrasting. The colors which will be the vogue are mustard, orange, dahlia, purple and fuchsia. Vivid tones will be most popular."

"The hats," continued Miss Tempest, "will be more eccentric than ever. They will be both larger and smaller, but the flat will if anything be the most popular."

PLAN BOAT RACES FOR WEEK OF FAIR.

If the present plans of a number of local boat owners materialize visitors and local citizens who attend the Fair be held in this city next month will have an opportunity of witnessing some exciting boat races. There are a number of fast boats owned by local people and with the addition of several entries from nearby cities the event would prove to be one well worth witnessing. At present nothing definite in regards to the matter has been done but some action will be taken during the next few days and there is every probability that the races will be held.

BACK AFTER LONG TRIP BY BUGGY.

Misses Nettie Fowler and Mary Nixon returned Wednesday night from a journey to Little River, S. C., in a buggy. The young ladies left New Bern about six weeks ago. Taking the trip on easy stages they made on an average five miles an hour. Returning they left Little River last Saturday morning. Frequent stops were made at towns en route between that place and this city. The entire trip totaled about 325 miles. Both the young ladies stated that they enjoyed the entire trip immensely.

RALEIGH PAPER LAUDS BERT LEIGH'S COMPANY

Of the attraction billed for the Masonic Opera House Saturday night, the Raleigh News and Observer says:

Bert Leigh and his big company in "45 Minutes from Broadway" appeared at the Academy of Music last night for the first time. Too much cannot be said of the success of this attraction, as it is one among the best seen here in some time.

Mr. Leigh has surrounded himself with a first-class company, a corking good looking chorus of men and women and a production that showed the earmarks of a brand new metropolitan first night. As Kid Burns, he played the part of a tough New York pug, and he played it admirably full of action and true life. Mr. Leigh is an excellent actor and deserves much credit for his work last night. He is always welcome on his visits here. Hazell Burgess, who portrayed the part of "Mary," is a new comer. She is young, pretty and shows much promise for a long and successful career in the musical comedy.

WE are now showing over 1000 patterns of Foreign and Domestic Woolens for Autumn and Winter. Patterns that are exclusive in design and tailored by the Best Tailors in America.

GETS IN MORE AUTOS.

Mr. J. W. Stewart, who is the local agent for Ford automobiles, yesterday received another carload of the model T Ford. In speaking of the automobile business in this section Mr. Stewart states that the demand for machines is increasing steadily. In proportion to population, it is believed that New Bern has more automobiles than other city in the State.

SUPPLY OF HOUSES UNEQUAL TO DEMAND

There are comparatively few vacant houses in the city at the present time. A local real estate dealer yesterday stated that during the past few weeks he has had many calls for desirable residences which he was unable to supply. A number of dwellings are now in course of construction in different parts of the city and these will be ready for occupancy within a few weeks and there is not the least doubt that the owners will have any trouble in securing tenants.

TWO NEW DWELLINGS.

At an early date the building located No. 48 George street, known best as the Hanf homestead, will be torn down by the owner of the property, Mr. W. P. Metts, and two dwellings erected on the large lot. This is one of the most valuable pieces of property on the street and the owner intends making it one of the most attractive.

EXCURSIONISTS RETURN.

About fifty white and colored excursionists returned last evening from Norfolk where they went last Tuesday morning from points all along the Norfolk-Southern road. A number of the sightseers were compelled to stop over here for half an hour or more and some of them were intoxicated the policemen stationed at the Union depot had their hands full for a time.

RETURNED FROM AUTO TRIP TO ASHEVILLE

Several weeks ago Judge O. H. Guion and son left this city in the former's automobile en route to Asheville. They arrived at their destination without any mishaps and after spending some time at Asheville started on the return trip. They experienced no trouble until near Fields yesterday afternoon when one of the rear axles of the machine broke. The injury to the car was such that it could not be repaired at once and the tourists continued their journey by rail.

TAKE BODY AWAY.

The remains of Mr. Charles C. Knapp, chief train dispatcher of the Norfolk Southern Railway Company, who passed away at his home in this city Wednesday night, were taken to Washington, S. C., yesterday for interment. A representative of the Order of Railway Telegraphers, of which the deceased was a member, accompanied the family with the body.

PROGRAM AT THE ATHENS TODAY

Young & Manning singing and talking comedy entertainers. They introduce in their act a pair of trained roosters who engage in a sparring contest which is very very funny. This is one of the best novelty acts we have had. We have an exceptional fine picture program featuring "Twins" an Essany production—a complex tangle of uproariously funny situations. 'Tis the story of a clever wife who teaches her gay husband a severe lesson.

BOUND OVER FOR RETAILING.

R. C. Cleve, of Vanceboro, was given a preliminary hearing Wednesday afternoon before United States Commissioner Charles B. Hill on a warrant charging him with retailing spirituous liquors without a government license. Several witnesses were placed on the stand by the government and after hearing their evidence Commissioner Hill bound the defendant over to the next term of Federal Court under a bond of $150 in default of which he was committed to jail.

EXCITED OVER MAD DOG.

A great deal of excitement prevailed among the colored residents of Cypress street in the northern part of the city yesterday morning when it was reported that a mad dog was at large in that locality. A posse of colored men and women started out in search of the animal and incidentally to phone for the assistance of an officer. But before the guardian of the law could be summoned the canine had been killed. As far as is known by the city council in being reported to the city.
