IN CHICAGO HOSPITAL.

Gaily Insisted on Delivering His Speech Despite Serious Wound.

Advices received here last night regarding the condition of Col. Theodore Roosevelt who was shot by an assassin Monday night in Milwaukee were that the wound while serious was not at all likely to prove fatal and that the distinguished patient was resting well. Physicians who examined him at Mercy Hospital in Chicago where he was rushed soon after the shooting issued a statement saying that they had definitely determined the course of the bullet and assured themselves that it had touched no vital spot. It was stated that there was no danger unless blood poisoning set in.

The attempted assassination created the biggest sensation here in years. The Journal's bulletins were read with the deepest interest, crowds flocking around them to learn the latest news from the bedside of the former president.

Milwaukee, Wis. Oct. 15.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt was shot in the breast by an assassin as he entered the automobile in front of the Hotel Gilpatrick to start for the Auditorium, where he was to speak last night. The shooting was done by a man evidently insane. Colonel Roosevelt insisted on going to the hall and there quieted the crowd that heard he had been shot, spoke from 8:45 until 9:45 o'clock, though apparently weak, and then was taken to an emergency hospital.

The bullet struck a roll of manuscript of his speech and this saved his life.

After an hour's questioning the assassin gave his name as John Schrenk, of 370 East Tenth street, New York. From notes found in the prisoner's clothes, it is evident he is demented the subject of Colonel Roosevelt running for a third term.

The shooting occurred in the street in front of the Hotel Gilpatrick. Colonel Roosevelt reached Milwaukee shortly after 5 o'clock, and making his way through the crowd which had gathered at the station, entered an automobile and was driven to the hotel. He took dinner in a private dining room with the members of the party on his private car.

After dinner Colonel Roosevelt went to his room on the second floor of the hotel, and shortly before 8 o'clock he started for the Auditorium. His automobile stood in front of the door, and about it was a big crowd waiting to catch a glimpse of the Colonel as he started off.

With the Colonel were Philip Roosevelt, a young cousin; Mr. Cochemis, Mr. Martin and Captain Girard.

The crowd pressed close about the Colonel and gave a cheer as he appeared. As the party approached the automobile Colonel Roosevelt's companions stood aside and he stepped into the car. Martin entered directly behind him and sat on the further side of the car. Colonel Roosevelt stood up, waving his hat in answer to the cheers of the crowd. The assassin was standing in the crowd a few feet from the automobile. He pushed his way to the side of the car and raising his gun, fired.

Martin leaped over the car a second after the bullet sped on its way. Colonel Roosevelt barely moved as the shot was fired.

Before the crowd knew what happened, Martin who is six feet tall and a former football player, had landed squarely on the assassin's shoulders and had borne him to the ground.

All this happened within a few seconds, and Colonel Roosevelt stood gazing rather curiously at the man who had attempted his life—before the stunned crowd realized what was going on. Then a howl of rage went up.

"Lynch him! Kill him!" cried a hundred men.

Roosevelt raised his hand and motioned to the crowd to fall back. "Stop! Stop!" he cried. "Stand back, don't hurt him!"

The men in the crowd at first were not disposed to heed his words, but at length fell back and permitted Martin and Captain Girard to carry the man into the hotel.

The Colonel continued his speech evidently with increasing effort. Then he was rushed to his automobile and to the Emergency Hospital.

The operating room had been placed in readiness to receive him and six of the leading surgeons of Milwaukee were awaiting his arrival.

Colonel Roosevelt was undressed and placed upon the operating table although he insisted he was not badly hurt and that the doctors were taking it seriously.

An examination of the wound showed that it had been made by a bullet of large size. It entered the fleshy part of the right breast, half way between the collarbone and lower rib. The physicians found that they knew no more after their examination than before as to the location of the bullet and it was decided to send for an X-ray machine to determine to what depth the missile had penetrated. While he was waiting for the X-ray machine, Colonel Roosevelt sat upon the operating table and talked politics and joked with the physicians.

At midnight he was placed on a train and rushed to Chicago where he was placed in Mercy Hospital.

NOT IDENTIFIED YET AS WILDER OF RAZOR.

The colored man who claims that his name is Charlie Edwards but who is thought to be Charlie Smith, who seriously if not fatally wounded Amos Dillahun, at Fort Barwell early Sunday morning and was placed under arrest at Vanceboro by Deputy Marshal John H. Russell Sunday night and brought to this city, still remains in the Craven county jail awaiting the arrival of some one from the scene of the crime who can identify him. The man sticks to his story that he is not the one who did the cutting. However, if he proves this to be a fact there will still be a charge against him. At the time of his arrest a razor was found on his person and he will have to answer to a charge of carrying a concealed weapon.

BOUND OVER ON CHARGE OF LARCENY.

William Pinner, whose home is at Beaufort and who has been employed as a flagman on one of the Norfolk Southern Railway Company's freight trains running between Goldsboro and Beaufort, was given a hearing before Justice of the Peace S. R. Street yesterday afternoon on a warrant charging him with larceny of a quantity of whiskey. After hearing the evidence in the case Squire Street bound the defendant over to the next term of Craven county Superior Court under a bond of $500 which he gave. The case was worked up and the arrest made by Special Officer Pettus of the company's force of detectives.

BRYCE STILL AT LARGE

Although the police in all the nearby towns have been furnished with his description and asked to be on the watch for him, R. H. Bryce, the young man who broke out of the Craven county jail early Sunday morning, has not been apprehended. Bryce has light hair, weighs about one hundred and sixty pounds and is about five feet six inches in height.

FAIR TO BE WELL WORTH THE COST

Persons Who Buy a Ticket to Eastern Carolina's Big Event Will Get a Square Deal

THE GROUNDS BEST IN STATE

Grand Stand Most Beautiful and Comfortable Ever Erected In North Carolina

(By J. Leon Williams)
"The American people love to be humbugged." This statement was made by the greatest show man on earth a number of years ago. For a number of years, this statement held true, but within recent years the American people have begun to demand that they get a square deal from those who separate them from their hard earned money.

Recently there was advertised that there would be a fair in a certain town in Eastern North Carolina. The fair was a gigantic failure, because the promoters had deceived the public. Fortunately for the public they found out before the advertised date that the whole thing would be a fake, and the public did not show up.

As secretary of the Eastern Carolina Fair Association at New Bern I visited the fair referred to above and all I discovered there was a sandy race track, a shed that could not be called by the dignity of the name a grand stand, and a few shows on the "Midway" that was standing idle.

I mention these things to show what a hard proposition an organization has to go up against who desires to have a legitimate proposition when one has fooled the public time and time again by advertising something that they cannot and will not produce.

At the outset, I want to make the broad statement that the Fair grounds of the Eastern Carolina Fair Association Company at New Bern is today the most beautiful and best located fair grounds in North Carolina. This sounds like hot air to the men who do not know the spirit with which New Bern tackles a proposition. Those who visited the Bi-Centennial know that it was the greatest event of its kind ever pulled off in North Carolina.

Those who attended the "Elks Convention," the "Shriners Convention" and other conventions at New Bern know that New Bern never does things by halves.

The fair grounds are situated at a beautiful spot on the Neuse river known as the Oaks Farm. The Association owns one hundred acres of land, thirty of which is now enclosed in the Fair grounds and seventy of which extends along the Neuse river and is considered one of the most beautiful natural parks in the country.

As one enters the Fair grounds they discover at the left the most magnificent exhibit buildings ever erected in North Carolina. This building is 200x60 feet and will be used as the exhibit hall for all departments except the poultry, stock and machinery.

The poultry building is 32 x 150 feet and contains 192 coops, 3 x 4 feet.

DR. FAISON FLAYS REPUBLICANISM

The Ills Which Afflict the Country Laid at the Door of "Grand Old Party"

DOMINATED BY MONEY KINGS

Claims that Party That Has Been in Power Prevented South From Expanding

A fair-sized audience greeted Dr. John M. Faison, Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress at the Court house last night. He was introduced to the audience by Mr. R. A. Nunn.

Dr. Faison maintained that Republican rule, instead of being the cause of prosperity in this country as is so often claimed, has been a constantly hindering influence.

"But for the curse of the Republican party," he said "the United States would be today the greatest country in the world and the richest in every way. For years the Republican presidents have been the puppets of the money kings and as long as the Republicans are in power they will continue to be led around by these men. The South has not been given an opportunity of expanding, the Republicans knowing that once it came into its own in the eyes of the world their reign would be over. Notwithstanding this it is now one of the best sections in the country and is gaining its hold upon the management of the affairs of the nation. The Republicans are losing their hold here. When a party gains the contempt of its own leaders who denounce each other as crooks and scoundrels there is but little wonder that they also gain the contempt and disdain of those outside."

PENNANT DECIDING BALL GAME TODAY.

The seventh game of the World's baseball series was won yesterday at Fenway Park, Boston, by New York, the score being 11 to 4. Tesreau and Meyers were the battery for New York. Boston started off with the hitherto invincible Joe Wood in the box, but when the Giants piled up six runs in the first inning, Wood was withdrawn and Hall put in his place. But New York was in batting mood and kept right on adding to its score.

The game today, which will be played at Boston, will decide which team gets the pennant unless it results in a tie. Each team has three victories to its credit.

The swine building is 24 x 150 feet and contains fifty pens 6 x 6 feet. There are forty-six cattle sheds, 3 x 10 feet.

There are thirty stable for the race horses, 10x10 feet.

The grand stand is the most beautiful and comfortable ever erected in North Carolina. The race track is oval an standard one-half mile track.

The association has built two magnificent buildings and have placed them in charge of the ladies of New Bern.

REV. MR. PHILLIPS WARMLY PRAISED

Fellow Church Workers in Macon Unite in Enthusiastic Endorsement

WRITE TO NEW BERN PEOPLE

As Pastor of the Second Baptist Church in Georgia City He Made State Marvel

Rev. J. B. Phillips, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist church, is conducting a series of revival meetings at his church and although the meetings have only recently begun, they are attracting much interest and large crowds are attending each night. Rev. Mr. Phillips, before he accepted the pastorate of the local church, was located at Macon, Ga., and had charge of the Second Baptist Church of that city. That he was held in high esteem by the members of his congregation is manifested by the following letter received by Mr. J. S. Miller from one of the congregation there and a copy of the resolutions adopted by the Baptist Ministers Association of Macon, Ga., of which Rev. Mr. Phillips was a valued member, and also the resolutions adopted by the Second Baptist church at that place:

Macon, Ga., Oct. 10th, 1912.
Mr. J. S. Miller,
New Bern, N. C.

Dear Sir:
I am enclosing copies of some resolutions concerning Rev. J. B. Phillips which I thought might be of interest to the people of New Bern.

I wish I could tell you how we people of Macon regret to have this good family leave us. As pastor of the church of which I am now pastor Bro. Phillips did a work which made the state marvel. He is a wonderful combination of enthusiasm, zeal, consecration and common sense. His wife is the ideal preacher's wife and his missionary assistant, Miss Herndon, is a woman of rare gifts and power.

With the co-operation I am sure these good people will receive at the hands and hearts of the New Bern Christians great things are ahead in the Tabernacle.

Yours very truly,
T. F. CALLAWAY.

Whereas, a member of our association, Rev. J. B. Phillips, for five years pastor of the Second Baptist church of this city and for the past four and half years engaged in evangelistic work, leaves in a few days for New Bern, N. C. to become pastor of the Tabernacle church of that city; and

Whereas, we feel the departure of Bro. Phillips a great loss to ourselves personally, our association and our work generally throughout the State it is

Therefore resolved:

1. That we, the Baptist Ministers' Association of Macon, Ga., do hereby assure Bro. Phillips that our love, confidence and prayers will follow him into his new field of labor;

2. That we heartily congratulate the New Bern Church in their good fortune in securing as their undershepherd a man who has been so significantly owned of God as has Bro. Phillips; and

3. That we gladly commend Bro. Phillips to the entire brotherhood of North Carolina as an evangelist, both safe and sane, of unusual power and success, having been greatly used of God in that line of work not only in Georgia but throughout the South and many portions of the North.

Read and unanimously adopted Oct. 7th 1912.

T. S. Hubert, Pres.

T. F. Callaway, Secty.

Resolutions adopted by the Second Baptist church, Macon, Ga., concerning Rev. J. B. Phillips and family.

"Whereas, our much beloved Brother J. B. Phillips, who for five years was our pastor prior to entering evangelistic work, leaves the coming week with his most estimable family for New Bern, N. C. where in the future he will reside as pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle of New Bern; and

Whereas, we are mindful of the gracious work accomplished under God in our church while Bro. Phillips was our pastor, during which time our work prospered in a wonderful manner along all lines of work; and

Whereas, we deplore in the flesh the

GET THIRTEEN IN ONE FULL SWOOP

Detectives Gather in Huge Sized Bunch of Illegal Sellers of Liquor at Stonewall and Bayboro

ALL BUT TWO ARE BOUND OVER

Cases Against the Accused Were Worked Up by Agents of the Rourke Detective Agency

Thirteen arrests of blind-tigers in one day was the record made Monday by the authorities of Pamlico county, who are now waging a crusade against liquor dealers. All of the men were colored. Eleven were taken into custody at Bayboro and two at Stonewall. They were given a preliminary hearing Monday afternoon and in eleven of the cases probable cause was found and the defendants bound over to the next term of Pamlico county Superior Court. Three of the defendants succeeded in giving bond and were allowed to go free until court convenes but the others are languishing behind the bars of the County jail pondering over their misdeeds.

Sheriff A. H. Stephens, who made the arrests of the alleged "tigers" was in the city yesterday and stated that he was living a strenuous life just at this time. The Pamlico county authorities are determined to break up the liquor traffic there and are going about the matter in a systematic manner. It is expected that several other arrests will be made during the next few days.

The securing of evidence against the liquor-sellers has been in the hands of the Rourke Detective Agency of Raleigh, which detailed Detective J. F. Leggett, white, and Walter Canty, a colored man, to the Pamlico job.

THE MONUMENT FUND.

A few names are each day being added to the list of contributors to the fund to be used in the erection of a monument to Baron DeGraffenried and the amount of contributions is steadily increasing. Next Sunday the list of contributors will again be published in the Journal. See that your name is on the list. You need not contribute any large amount unless you can do so without any inconvenience. Any amount no matter how small will be greatly appreciated.

LADIES HARD AT WORK.

The members of the Woman's Club worked hard and successfully yesterday selling season tickets for the Eastern Carolina Fair. At the close of the day, several hundred tickets had been disposed of. Again today the ladies will visit the citizens of New Bern and every person is urged to purchase at least one of the tickets.

EXHIBITION GAME.

Next Wednesday afternoon, October 23, the New Bern Football team will play an exhibition game with the graded school team. The game will be played out at the Fair grounds and the public is urged to attend. No admission will be charged for this game. Both teams have been getting in trim for the past two weeks and the game will be a close one.

BALL-PLAYING PAYS,

Norfolk Ledger-Dispatch.
The life of a ball-player is not long, but it is profitable while it lasts, and the players who land in a world's series coin money for a few days.

A liberal share of the receipts for the first four games of the series goes to the players of the two clubs. In the first games between the New York and Boston clubs the players received $147,572.28. The winning players this year will receive $86,543.37 and the losers $59,028.90. Individually each of the winners is due to receive approximately $4,000 and the losers about $2,800.

fact that he and his good family can make our church and city no more their home; but feeling assured in the Lord that they will be abundantly used in their new field, it is Therefore Resolved that while we regret our loss we do most heartily congratulate the New Bern church in their gain in securing so successful a pastor, powerful evangelist and Spirit-filled man of God to be their leader.

CHAS. ALEXANDER,
Church Clerk.

Dead campaign contributions tell startling tales.
