

TWO WEEKS TERM OF COURT OPENS

Judge Stephen C. Bragaw of Washington Presiding Here For The First Time.

MAKING GOOD IMPRESSION

Court Occupied All Day Yesterday With One Case Without Concluding It.

A two weeks' term of Craven County Superior Court for the trial of civil cases only, convened in this city yesterday morning with Judge Stephen C. Bragaw of Washington presiding.

This is Judge Bragaw's first appearance on the bench in Craven County. He is making a very favorable impression. Only one case was taken up yesterday, that of Ipeck vs. Gaskins and Wiggins. In this case the plaintiff, who is ably represented by Messrs. A. D. Ward and H. C. Whitehurst, is suing for the possession of a tract of land located near Swift creek. The defendants are represented by Messrs. D. L. Ward and W. D. McIver and they are putting up a hard fight. A large number of witnesses were examined during the day without getting all the evidence in before court adjourned before the day. The hearing of the case will be resumed this morning and it will doubtless be given to the jury before noon the recess.

The following cases are on the docket during the remainder of the term:

Tuesday, November 19th, 1912.

Williams vs. Warren Brothers.

Stanly et al vs. Whitfield.

Whitford vs. Norfolk Southern Railroad Co.

PROGRAM AT THE ATHENS

Our vaudeville Chaffins Duo comedy entertainers. This is a good act direct from Philadelphia. Don't miss it.

Picture program is one of the best. "The Colonels' Escape"—Kalem featuring General C. Rhys Pryce, an insurgent officer, for whom the Mexican Government has offered a reward of $25,000, dead or alive. General Pryce was especially engaged by the Kalem Company for this production.

"The Sacrifice"—This is a very exciting and interesting picture.

"Rube's Mistake"—A rollicking comedy. A good laugh in every scene.

"Meeting Mamie's Mother"—Is another good picture.

Matinee 3:45. First show at night 7:30. Something special for Thanksgiving.

ORGANIZE ASSOCIATION

Monument Committee Holds Meeting and Considers Plans.

A committee composed of S. M. Brinson, L. I. Moore, H. K. Land, Owen Dunn and R. A. Nunn, which was appointed by the Chamber of Commerce to act with Edgar Walnau in the interest of the De Graffenried Colony Monument Fund, met at Mr. Brinson's office last night and formed a temporary organization to be styled the De Graffenried Colony Monument Association, with Mr. Brinson as chairman, and R. A. Nunn as secretary.

Various plans for securing the money sufficient to erect the monument were discussed and other matters relative to the undertaking were brought up. It was decided that nothing definite would be done at this meeting but that the matter would be more thoroughly discussed at a later meeting and in the meantime the assistance and co-operation of the Woman's Club similar organizations be secured. Another meeting will be called within a few days and the organization will be made permanent and all plans completed.

In the meantime the work of securing contributions will go right ahead. Several contributions were made yesterday. Contributions of any amount are gratefully received.

EXPECT BIG SUCCESS

Races at the Fair Grounds Thanksgiving Will be Worth While.

That the horse and motorcycle races to be held at the Fair grounds on Thanksgiving Day will be a complete success there is little doubt. Already a number of entries have been made and it is understood that a number of other horses and machines will be entered before the day arrives. A number of cash prizes have been set aside for the winners and they will be well worth trying for. An admission fee of fifty cents will be charged the public and this will admit them to any part of the grounds or the grandstand. Boats will be operated between the grounds and the foot of Pollock street.

SUES THE ELKS

J. M. Arnold Claims Construction Co. Damaged Him $5,000.

A case of much interest which is slated to come up at today's session of Superior Court is that of Arnold vs. Elks Construction Company. In this case J. M. Arnold, now residing at Vanceboro but formerly a citizen of New Bern, is suing the Elks Construction Company for damages in the sum of $5,000 for tearing down a brick wall which stood just north of the Elks building on the site now occupied by the Blades building.

The tearing down of the wall occurred about six years ago, when the Elks' Temple was being constructed. Mr. Arnold had owned a building just north of the Elks' Temple site and this had been destroyed by fire, leaving the Southern wall standing. The contractors thought that the wall, which was owned jointly by the Elks' and Mr. Arnold, was unsafe and asked that it be taken down and Dwight Strogo, who was chief of the fire department at that time informed Mr. Arnold that the wall must be taken down, that it was a menace to life and property.

There was a good deal of controversy about the matter, Mr. Arnold not desiring to have the wall taken down and the final outcome of the affair was that the Elks Construction Company gave bond in the sum of $2,000 and the wall came down.

Mr. Arnold claims that he was damaged in the sum of $5,000 by having the wall torn down and is suing for that amount. He is represented by R. A. Nunn and W. D. McIver while the firm of Moore and Dunn are looking after the interests of the defendant company.

BOOST FISHING INDUSTRY.

The North Carolina Fisheries Association will hold a meeting at Washington, N. C., Wednesday, Dec. 4. It is hoped that all fishermen and oystermen who are interested in the development and perpetuation of the fishing industries of the State, as well as other citizens, will attend and participate in the meeting. The first session will be held on the date named immediately on the arrival of the train from this city.

The election of officers of the Daughters of the Confederacy will take place at the regular monthly meeting to be held this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at Wolfenden's Hall. It is especially desired, owing to the importance of the meeting, that every member shall be present.

G. B. PENDLETON RESIGNS POSITION

Leaves Here Dec. 1 to Join Staff of Trust Company of Georgia, Located in Atlanta.

DEPARTURE IS REGRETTED

Came Here Six Years Ago When New Bern Banking and Trust Co. was Organized.

The announcement was made yesterday that George B. Pendleton, who for the past six years has been cashier of the New Bern Banking and Trust Company, had tendered his resignation to the Board of Directors and would leave on December 1 for Atlanta, Ga., where he has accepted the position of secretary and treasurer of the Trust Company of Georgia, one of the largest and strongest institutions of its kind in the South.

Mr. Pendleton came to New Bern six years ago from Elizabeth City and accepted the position of cashier of the New Bern Banking and Trust Company when it was first opened to the public. Since that time he has capably filled this position and has won the esteem and respect of the patrons of his bank and the public generally. He understands every phase of the banking business and has proven invaluable to the institution to which he devoted his entire time. He has a host of friends who will regret to see him leave for new fields but who wish him every success.

T. A. Green, first vice-president of the New Bern Banking and Trust Company, has been chosen to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Pendleton's resignation and W. C. Rodney, who now holds the position of teller, has been elected as assistant cashier.

NEGRO WOMAN BURNED TO DEATH

Supposed That Her Clothing Caught From Flames in Open Fire Place.

VAIN ATTEMPT TO RESCUE HER

Coroner Views Body and Decides Holding of Inquest To Be Unnecessary.

Laura Burton, an aged colored woman, was burned to death at her home on Burn street Sunday morning about 11 o'clock. The woman occupied the second story of the building while the first floor was occupied by Howard S. Kinner. It is supposed that she was attempting to cook her breakfast in an open fireplace and that her clothing became ignited.

Her screams brought the people living on the first floor to her assistance. They found her writhing on the bed. An attempt was made to extinguish the flames but without avail. Practically every inch of clothing was burned off her body.

The bed became ignited from the woman's clothing and for a short time it seemed as though the building would be destroyed. An alarm of fire was turned in but before the department arrived the blaze was extinguished with several buckets of water.

The coroner viewed the body and decided that there was no need for an inquest to be held and the remains were turned over to an undertaker.

While in the agonies of death the woman's screams could be heard for several blocks and pandemonium reigned in the neighborhood. Dense clouds of smoke came from the room so that it was almost impossible for anyone to enter until the fire had been partially extinguished.

NEW CHURCH FOR ATLANTIC

Methodists Decide to Erect One To Cost $5,000.

W. A. Cowell of Atlantic, Carteret county, stated here yesterday that a few weeks ago a band of enthusiastic workers in the Methodist church at that place, assembled in their house of worship and made plans for the erection of a five thousand dollar edifice. He said that it was a great meeting, backed by a great purpose and urged by equally as great determination. Without one dissenting voice, it was voted that Atlantic should have a church building that would reflect credit on the founder. Work on the new structure will begin at an early date.

We would like to see a picture of the man who can always please himself and his wife at the same time.

BOARD MEETS TONIGHT.

The Board of Aldermen will hold a recess meeting tonight. Owing to the fact that there were so many matters to be discussed at the last meeting, all the business was not completed. The meeting tonight is expected to prove of unusual interest and a good-sized attendance of spectators is expected.

TO INVESTIGATE DR. GRAFFENRIED

Woman's Club Will Look Into Record of Swiss Baron Who Founded New Bern.

RESOLUTIONS ARE ADOPTED

If His Character is Found Unworthy Club Will Make Suggestion As To Monument.

At a meeting of the Woman's Club held yesterday afternoon resolutions were read by Miss Mae Hendron and adopted by the club providing the club look into the worthiness of Baron DeGraffenried to whom it is proposed to erect a monument as founder of New Bern and if found unworthy that the club use its efforts in having the monument erected to "German and Swiss Founders of New Bern."
