The New Bern Graded Schools will open tomorrow morning for the spring term. The pupils have been allowed several days to enjoy the Christmas holidays and Superintendent Craven requests every one to be present on the opening day.

The Norfolk Southern Railway Company's freight depot will be closed today. No freight will be delivered until tomorrow morning.

The regular meeting of the Epworth League will be held in the League room at Centenary Methodist church tonight at 8 o'clock. This meeting will be of especial importance and every member is urged to be present.

Tickets for the first annual banquet of the Chamber of Commerce to be given at the Gaston Hotel Friday night are now on sale at Edward Clark's cigar store. The price of these tickets is one dollar each and it is hoped that every member of the Chamber will purchase one.

The Turkey shoot to be held at Ghent today will begin promptly at 11 o'clock and will continue until night. Contestants will be allowed to use any gauge up to number ten and they may use any size load desired. The range will be fifty yards.

The local branch of the Coca Cola Bottling Company is presenting its patrons with attractive and useful souvenir pocketbooks and card cases. The supply is limited and they are being given only to users of that beverage.

R. R. Eagle, civil engineer, left Monday for Washington where he will lay off the race track at Bearfort county's fair grounds.

New Year's Day being a holy day of obligation in the Catholic church, services will be held at St. Paul's church at 10 o'clock.

The first bunch of shad of the season were brought to the city yesterday afternoon and sold to Albert Willis, a local fish dealer. There were five of the shad and they were caught in a net a few miles down Neuse river.

MISS NUNN AT GREENVILLE.

Miss Etta Nunn spent Sunday at Greenville and that evening made an interesting talk at the Christian church. The Greenville Reflector has the following to say of her visit: "Miss Etta Nunn, field organizer of the Christiana Womens Board of Missions, made an interesting talk in the Christian church here Sunday night on the work of the board and how to enlarge its efforts for the coming year. The service was made all the more enjoyable by the presence of the quartet of Atlantic Christian College, of Wilson, who sang several beautiful selections.

MEAT MARKET CLOSED UP—UNSANITARY.

Meat and Milk Inspector, E. C. Hargett yesterday closed the meat market of Virgil Bryan, colored, on South Front street. The inspector said that Bryan's stock of meats appeared to be very good but the place where they were stored for sale was so unsanitary that he could not allow it to remain open longer. Dr. Hargett is making a thorough inspection of markets, dairies and restaurants with the view of closing up places which do not come up to the requirements as laid down in the city's health ordinances.

We have 75 Ladies Suits and long Coats to close out at cost. Now is your time. J. J. Baxter.

For a Christmas Present

Get something useful—so you will be longer remembered and your friend benefited.

FOR INSTANCE—A good Hair Brush and Comb is better than the usual kind found in "fancy boxes." A nice bottle of Perfumery is always a pleasure to the recipient and marks good taste and delicacy in the giver. For a man, a box of nice cigars, not too many, for a lady, a box of Huyler's Candy are always in order.

Bradham Drug Co. have a full stock of the best of all these and will sell at all the year-round prices.

Some Ways To Keep Off Dread Tuberculosis.

Take Bear's Emulsion in Time—Watch for the Symptoms of Disease.

How to keep from getting consumption. Keep the body strong and healthy—Now then; how are you going to keep the body healthy; not by losing weight every day; not by allowing that tickling in your throat to remain, not by getting bronchitis or tonsillitis on every little exposure; not by letting your children have the croup or whooping cough and not giving them something that will heal the throat and build up the system; not by going from day to day with a tired feeling, no appetite and pains about through the body. Keep the body strong and healthy by taking Bear's Emulsion. It has been thoroughly tested by people in your own county. People that you know say it is the best thing they ever took for any of the above ailments. It is sold to you on a positive guarantee that it will do as recommended or money refunded. One dollar a bottle. Sold by Bradham Drug Company. (Adv.)

OLYMPIA.

SHAKESPEARE CLUB MEETS.

Section B. of the Shakespeare Club met in the club room yesterday afternoon. The hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. C. D. Bradham and Mrs. Richard Duffy. A very interesting program was carried out. Readings from Midsummer Night's Dream were read and discussed upon the plots of the play followed. Dainty refreshments were served before the close of the afternoon.

The following were present: Mrs. C. D. Bradham, Mrs. Richard Duffy, Mrs. Cecil Gabbett, Mrs. Owen Guion, Misses Dita Roberts, Mollie Heath, Laura Hughes and Eula Cox, of Greenville.

THE MONUMENT FUND.

During the past few days several contributions have been made to the De Graffenried Colony Monument Fund. Several hundred dollars is yet to be secured and the committee in charge of the work want to have this in hand by Spring so that the work can begin. The Cooper Marble Works of Raleigh have prepared a drawing of a monument which would be very appropriate and this will be placed on exhibit here soon. Contributions may be sent to S. M. Brinson, treasurer of the fund.

WHY IS A HOUSE?

Houses are built to protect us from the elements and to give us an opportunity to rest in seclusion. We can thus keep from us unwelcome guests and disturbers of various types. Let us, however, not exclude our two best friends, continually knocking at our doors and windows—our two greatest benefactors—fresh air and sunshine.

It should not be overlooked that William Loeb did not go with the Guggenheims as a matter of sentiment.

Capital Punishment.

"Mamma, did you love to flirt when you were young?"
"I am afraid I did, dear."
"And were you ever punished for it, mamma?"
"Cruelly, dear. I married your father."—Paris Rive.

The hours we pass with happy prospects in view are more pleasing than those crowded with fruition.—Goldsmith.
