Songsters Finding Favor In This Section.

All Bird Tribes Decreasing Every Year-Action Needed To Save Them.

A movement to protect song birds is finding much favor in several counties in this section at this time. and at is expected that several legislators will go to the coming General Assembly with the purpose of baving an act passed for their preservation. Petitions in several communities.

Carteret county has taken the lead in the matter and Senator Davis and Representative C. S. Wallace have assured their constituents in that county that they will champion the bill. If an act covering the entire State is no: passed, several counties in the feathered singers on their own account

On the banks from Cape Lookout to Hatteras many mocking birds yet remain, besides other species, and on the mainland robins are plentiful, but every tribe of the bird yearly decreases. as is the case for many miles inland and the citizens of the section are determined that they shall be protected.

EXPOSITION STAMPS

On Sale Yet.

Letters bearing a new series of postage stamps have been received in this city. These are the Panama-Pacific Commemorative Stamps. Only those of the one, five and ten cent denominations have so far been seen. They are of regulation color but each bears. some distinctive scene. They measure three fourths of an inch in width and are an inch and one sixteenth in length. At the top appears the words "U. S. Postage" and "San Francisco, 1913."

The one cent stamp is green and in the centre, within a circle, appears a bust of Balboa, the discoverer of the Pacific ocean. On either side of the background are palm trees, with the the words "Balboa, 1913"

The five cent stamp, blue in color, bears a picture of the Golden Gate of San Franscico harbor with vessels at yellow in color while the subject is The Discovery of San Francisco Bay".

These stamps are now on sale at several postoffices in the State but so far the local office has not received a supply. Inquiry there yesterday elicited the information that they would probably be placed on sale here within a week or two.
