UNSETTLED

NEW BERN, N. C., TUESDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 11 1913

THREE CENTS PER COPY.

ALL INVITED TO ATTEND SMOKER

Tonight at Court House Great Campaign of Chamber of Commerce Starts.

EVERY ONE URGED TO COME
Another Meeting at Same Place
Friday Night To Hear
Campaign Reports.

Have you seen the man with a "Get One" button? If you are not a member of the Chamber of Commerce, he soon will be hot on your trail. If you are not a member of the Chamber of Commerce, you ought to be. Every citizen in New Bern will be a member of the organization that is "boosting" the city.

Tonight at the Court House at 8 o'clock the campaign will be launched by a big smoker. Every citizen in New Bern is urged to be on hand.
The campaign has been outlined similar to some that have been so successful in other great cities. The City Beautiful Club—a band of women in ensely interested in the development of New Bern, whose interest, unlike that of a great many men, does not stop with being interested, but who are willing to show their interest by devoting time and hard work to the proposition in which they claim to be interested—are going to serve a free luncheon, to every present member of the Chamber of Commerce and all those who join during the campaign, in the vacant store under the James Hotel, on Wednesday and Thursday nights. At these luncheons reports will be made by the members who are soliciting new members. Don't fail to attend these luncheons. The ladies have made great preparations for serving and serving every member of the Chamber of Commerce will avail himself of this rare opportunity.

Friday night at 8 o'clock the campaign will come to a close with a great meeting at the Court House, when the final report of the campaign will be made.

The Secretary will read his annual report, and the election for Directors for the ensuing year will take place. The election will be by ballot, and every member of the Chamber of Commerce will have the opportunity of voting for fifteen members of the Chamber of Commerce for Directors.

Don't forget to be on hand at the big smoker tonight at 8 o'clock.

MARSH ON FIRE.

Late Sunday afternoon hundreds of New Bern citizens were startled by seeing a dense column of smoke arising from a point which was presumably in the vicinity of "Long Wharf." Many hurried to that point expecting to see one or more buildings enveloped in flames, but they were very much disappointed. A marsh some distance from Trent river containing several acres of dried grass had been set on fire and it was this that caused the smoke.

PROGRAM AT THE ATHENS TODAY.

The greatest novelty in the way of vaudeville can be seen today matinee and night. The Lamont Duo, comedy singing talking and dancing—featuring "Skinner in his hair pin dance." A dead man would come near laughing at this act.

Pictures

"At Napoleon's Command" This is a spectacular war film, in two reels—2000 feet, portraying the great emperor Napoleon in the midst of his court and upon the battle field, and is historically correct in every detail.

"When Edith Played Judge and Jury"

This pathetic story of a so-called suicidal man, by the Selig Co. All next week Chas. Gramlich, the celebrated Dutch comedian and his talented musical comedy company consisting of 12 performers—3 ladies—presenting the following latest hit: "The Belknap Girl's Running the Judge," "The Isle of Pin-Pon," "The Golden Horse Shoe,"
"On one Night's Stand," "Wallens An Indian Romance." Owing to the length of these tabloids we can have only one show at night. This is the biggest and best yet. Every body attending the Athens Wednesday night will be presented with a souvenir.

WILSON KEEPS 'EM ON ANXIOUS SEAT

Those Who Expected Him to Burst Forth With Full-Fledged Program Disappointed.

HE CONFIDES NOTHING AT ALL
Result is Daily Conferences and Daily Questionings in Capital City.

Washington, Feb. 10.—When Gov.
Woodrow Wilson was elected President, three months ago, he was expected by his party leaders here instantly to burst forth with a definite program as to his future plans and a full-fledged list of Cabinet officers.

Instead of this, however, he has kept his own counsel. He has confided nothing definite to anybody who has been willing to talk about it and has let it be understood in a variety of emphatic ways that he will pick his Cabinet in his own season and pick these advisers after his own investigation.

This uncommunicativeness has resulted in an amusing situation in Washington. This uncertainty as to the feelings of the next administration has left countless would-be advisers "up in the air." It has caused much fuming and fussing on the part of those Democrats who would most willingly permit themselves to be taken into the confidence of the new Executive.

On both sides of the Capital there are daily conferences and daily questionings. Little groups of politicians gather around lunch tables or in cloak rooms and ask each other if a yobbo has heard anything from Trenton.

There is the same mournful shaking of heads one day as another.
Occasionally some statesman will confess that he has heard a bit of gossip from the neighborhood of Trenton, but he will not urge it as worthy serious consideration. He generally prefaces his sottoy with the remark that he cannot vouch for his information.

When by chance some Democrat takes a pilgrimage to Trenton and returns to Washington he is immediately surrounded by anxious colleagues.
He is searched for some authoritative news from headquarters; he is stood up and ordered to deliver; he is besieged. He finally gets his breath in time and admits that he knows nothing at all. He iterates and reiterates what he told to the President elect, but he is unable to remember anything that Governor Wilson told him.

And, too, it is surprising just how many Democrats there are who have not been invited to Trenton. Many of them are the most willing of counsellors. They are eager to declare their loyalty to the next administration and want the new Executive to know from their own lips just how progressive they are.

But there are few men who are chosen, regardless of the number who are ready to be called. Many Democratic Congressmen have found excuses to go to Trenton. They have not been invited, but have written ahead and asked for just half an hour or just 10 minutes of the valuable time of the governor. They on y confess to their intimate friends that they invited themselves to the conference.

All this uneasiness arises from the fact, of course, that Governor Wilson is not ready to pick the people upon whom he is to lean most heavily in the next four years. He wants to weigh carefully the qualifications of the men who are urged upon him for Cabinet berths and he wants to see just who is who in Congress before he selects his advisers there.

Learn Only Three Things.

Up to this time the only definite news that has come from Trenton is:

That Joseph P. Tumulty is to be the next Secretary to the President.

That Governor Wilson will keep hands off the reorganization of the next House and Senate in the fight between progressives and conservatives.

That he has sent word to Washington that he will not disturb Republican officials whose terms expire in his administration, but will let them finish their time.

Some of the things that have not been learned are:

Who is to be in the next Cabinet?

Who is to have the distribution of patronage in the various State delegations?

Whether or not President Wilson means what the public understood

INDIAN MAIDS IN SUFFRAGE PARADE

Commanded By Dawn Mist Mounted Troops Will Have Part In Great Pageant.

TO WEAR TRIBAL COSTUMES
Will Live In Their Own Teepee
While In Attendance Upon Inauguration.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Dawn Mist, daughter of Chief Three Bears of the Glacier National Park Indians, will command a troop of mounted Indian maidens in the cavalry division of the woman's suffrage pageant here on March 3. This is said to be the first time Indian women have taken any part in the nation-wide movement for extending the franchise to women.

In Dawn Mist's troop will be ten maidens all selected as being the most representative of their tribal ceremonial costume and be mounted on Indian ponies richly caparisoned with elaborate Indian bead work.

Dawn Mist succeeded in obtaining the co-operation of Louis W. Hill, son of James J. Hill, who has agreed to provide transportation for the young women. While in Washington the Indian girls will live in their own teepees on a camp ground provided for them.

The cavalry division of the pageant is taking large proportions. It is believed at suffrage headquarters that nearly 200 mounted women will be distributed throughout the procession.

The suffragists have at last found a bird that can be used as an emblem in their pageant. The red phalarope, an Arctic bird, which lays its eggs and leaves them for the male to hatch, is the bird. The red phalarope is peculiarly fitted for the big celebration on Pennsylvania avenue. If the weather man is right in his prediction, the third of March will be too cold for other birds than those that come from Arctic regions.

ELKS' NOTICE.

There will be a regular meeting of your Lodge tonight at 8 o'clock. Very important business will be transacted.
You are earnestly requested to be present.

T. B. KEHOE, Secty.

TOWNS PLAN TO FORM A LEAGUE

JACKSONVILLE, POLLOKSVILLE
SWANBORO AND RICH-
LANDS MAY PLAY.

The baseball enthusiasts in the little town of Jacksonville are preparing to reorganize their baseball team.
During the past two years this town has had one of the best amateur teams in Eastern North Carolina and they exhibited their ability to play baseball. There is a movement on foot to organize a four team amateur league between the towns of Jacksonville, Swanboro, Pollokville and Rich-lands. All boast of good teams and if they decide to take this action and enough enthusiasm can be worked up to give them proper support the citizens living at those places will have an opportunity of witnessing some exciting games.

him to have said when he intimated that he would surround himself only with progressives?

Who will represent him on the floor of the House and Senate?

When the extra session of Congress will be called?

Whether the President will try to drive Congress or try to lead it?

These are, after all, the questions that have most seriously perturbed the minds of impatient ratepayers here, and the situation is being enjoyed by those who either have a sense of humor or who may, for one season or another, be disgraced.

A. C. L. BUYS NEW CARS.

The Atlantic Coast Line Railway Company Saturday placed an order with one of the largest railway car manufacturing plants in this country for thirteen hundred new cars; one thousand box cars and three hundred flat cars.

taken from the call which he has issued indicate the line of work for the coming Conference:

As far as possible it is our purpose to keep the Conference this year to sane Evangelism which must incorporate a most thorough line of Bible teaching. So far as I am able to direct the Conference it is to be an occasion for instruction and inspiration.

in being able to secure the strongest platform that we have ever been able

WANT THE GUILTY BROUGHT TO BAR

REWARD OFF $25 OFFERED I C NNECTION WITH GAME LAW VIOLATION.

Editor New Bern Journal:—

On the first page of your Sunday issue appears an article headed, in large capitals: "Hunters Violate the State Laws"—meaning game laws—which is probably true of every State in the Union having such laws. In some or capita s, as a sub-head, "Northern men said to be shipping birds to other States". Doubtless they are.
But these statements are intended to be local in their application.

The "leading local sportsmen" who informed the Journal's representative had "no direct evidence" of the alleged violation, "but had learned it in an indirect way." The article proceeds as follows: "That birds are now being shipped North is now believed, and in the future every effort will be made to see, if such is the case, that the violator of the law is apprehended and brought to justice." Why wait for the future? As the phrase goes, "Do it now!" Let the "leading sportsman" inform the game warden his authority, and let the latter go ahead and do his duty. In order to aid him in his efforts to bring the alleged violator to justice, the undersigned, Northern men who have come to this section and leased hunting grounds for the season, hereby offer a reward of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for the apprehension and conviction of the parties referred to in the Journal's article.

CIVIC WORKERS HOLD MEETING

Regular Monthly Meeting of The City Beautiful Club Held Yesterday Afternoon.

MAN MATTERS CONSIDERED
Committees To Serve the Chamber of Commerce Dinners Are Announced.

(By Mrs. B. E. Moore.)
The regular monthly meeting of the City Beautiful Club was held in club rooms on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Mrs. R. N. Duffy presiding.
At every meeting the club has enrolled new members, and at this meeting we were most pleased to have Mrs. D. E.
Henderson join us.

Miss Hollister reported that she had written our Representatives in Raleigh to use their efforts in having bill passed for the protection of our song birds and that this matter had received their attention.

Mrs. Moulton reported that her committee had had an audience with the Mayor relative to trash an aches thrown in the streets and our Mayor had pledged hearty support. It is most earnestly hoped that each and every citizen, business man and housekeeper shall co-operate with our club in trying, not only to make, but to keep clean, our streets and lawns, and not to feel that the club and its committees have any spirit of complaint or personal grievance, but only a civic pride in a city kept clean.

Apologies of this subject Mrs. Duffy gave us a valuable talk as to the proper treatment of our lawns, pointing out wherein our grass has not had the right treatment, hence the sparsely covered lawns, and also gave the remedy as suggested by one who has studied the subject and which we hope to see published soon.

The need of more shade trees was discussed and it was moved and seconded that the club expend $15 for shade trees to replace dead ones. Those who planted trees last year and lost them are requested to make application for new ones and to state what kind of trees were lost so that the committee can determine the best trees to purchase.

It was moved and seconded that our club join the American Civic Association, so that we can keep in touch with the work other civic workers are doing and can profit by their experiences.

Motion was carried that the table and chair donated the library by the City Beautiful Club be presented by Mrs. E. K. Bishop at the next Library meeting, and that the table be previously marked with brass plate suitably inscribed.

The committees appointed to serve the dinners for the Chamber of Commerce on Wednesday and Thursday evenings were announced and the entire club are asked to assist these committees and all members to meet at the James Hotel on Wednesday morning at 10:30 a. m. to help in getting the hall in readiness.

Mrs. S. L. Dill, Jr., president of the Woman's Club gave notice of a called meeting of the club for Friday afternoon.

TO SERVE PRISON TERM.

Deputy Sheriff R. B. Lane yesterday sent one of his deputies to Raleigh to place John Gilmore, colored, in the State prison. Gilmore was found guilty of horse stealing at the last week's term of Craven County Superior Court and was sentenced to serve a term of four years in the penitentiary. Seven colored prisoners who were sentenced to the county road were taken out yesterday morning and placed at work with the chain gang.

MR. WEST HONORED

Among the officers elected for the ensuing year at a meeting of the Carolina Box and Shook Manufacturers held in Philadelphia, Pa., last week was W. A. West of New Bern. The next meeting will be held at Norfolk Va., on April 7, 1913. The meeting was largely attended by manufacturers of North Carolina pine packing boxes, who represent the consumption of about two hundred and fifty million boxes each year. Questions discussed were the economical methods of manufacturing packing boxes and the use of modern machinery.

BUSY TIMES IN MAYOR'S COURT

Law-Breaking Element On a Rampage Saturday Night and Sunday.

DIVERS OFFENCES CHARGED Woman Bound Over on Charge of Operating Disorderly House.
Disturbance Probed

The law breaking element of the city broke loose Saturday night and Sunday and in consequence Mayor McCarthy had a long line of offenders awaiting his arrival at the municipal court yesterday afternoon.

Matilda Goode, colored, was charged with operating a disorderly house.
The woman emphatically denied the charge. However, from the number of witnesses who testified against her, the Mayor drew his conclusions that there was something wrong and found her guilty. She was given the alternative of putting up a bond of $200 for her appearance at the next term of Superior Court or going to jail.
She went to jail.

Maggie Slade, colored, imbibed too freely of "bind tiger", came down in the business section of the city Sunday afternoon and created a disturbance. For this she was allowed to contribute the cost of the case to the city coffers.

Ed Mann and Charles Foy, colored, pulled off a two round bout near Smith's hall, on the afternoon of the Sabbath day. They said they did not know that it was against the law to have a little friendly scuffle but the five and costs with which each was taxed will doubtless serve as a reminder in the future.

Josephine Phifer, one of the most frequent visitors to the police court in the capacity of defendant, was again up to face charges. This time she had ironed the face of a female friend with half a brick, inflicting various and sundry injuries. Guilty was the sentence of the court and the penalty three dollars and the cost.

Jesse Moore colored, walked into a store in the Northern part of the city and invited the proprietor to vacate without any parley. The latter refused to do this and a "cussing bee" ensued with the result that Moore was soon taken in custody by an officer.
His offence was not so serious and he was released on the payment of a fine of one dollar and he costs.

Jim Jones, alias Peg Leg Jones, etc., who has served so many jail sentences in Craven county during the past few years that he has lost count of them, was in the toils again for being disorderly. Somebody said that Jones used his name in an entirely uncomplimentary manner. It was proven that such was the case, also that the defendant was the worst nuisance on South Front street (with the exception of a row of shacks near the bridge, and the Mayor placed a fine of ten dollars and the costs of the case on him or thirty days working on the streets.
Jones said he had no money and he was sent to jail.

NEW CORPORATION FOR MORE- HEAD CITY.

The Carteret Fish and Oil Company of Morehead City was granted a charter Friday afternoon. R. W.
Taylor, J. C. Taylor and John Guthrie are the incorporators and the authorized capital is twenty five thousand dollars with five thousand dollars paid in.
The company will manufacture fish scraps and fish oil and fertilizer and will begin business at an early date.

IMPROVING ROADS.

The convicts are now at work on the road just west of Jack Smith's creek. A section of this road is at present in pretty bad shape but with a few days work it will be in as good condition as the Neuse road, which is at present one of the best pieces of country road in the county.
