A hundred or more girls and boys yesterday availed themselves of the amendment made Tuesday night by the Board of Aldermen to the ordinance relative to skating on the sidewalks and the whirr of the wheels of many pairs of skates could be heard on almost any of the streets in the residential section of the city. In making an amendment to the ordinance the Board of Aldermen specified that no skating should be done in the business district should be done in the business district of the city. The skaters not only interfere with traffic but are themselves in danger when in this section. In the residential section they have ample opportunity to "burn 'em up" without much danger to anyone. Skating is a healthful recreation and the action of the Board in this matter has acceived the commenciation of the received the commendation of the Judges Will Make Known Their Large Church Being Erected—New Decision Saturday Even- Store Opens With Edgar Decision Saturday Even-ing, March 1.

E. Henderson, who recently ought the Tisdale place with the puriose of developing it as a suburb, has an interesting announcement in the Journal this morning. It is that he will give ten dollars in gold to the person who suggests the best name for the proposed new suburb. The judges cided in favor of the negative. In the will pass on the merit of the several names suggested and announce the winner Saturday evening, March 1. Mr. Henderson does not bind himself to accept the name the judges select as the most appropriate, but he will pay the ten dollars to the person suggesting the name that appeals to the judges as the most suitable.

The circumstances all seem to favor splendid future for the new suburb. The city is widening and paving Broad street, which leads directly out to the property and the county has already paved Neuse road leading by the pro

There is also a move on foot for a new car line to go out by the fair grounds, come back down Neuse road and into Borad street. Such a line if built would pass by the property and would of course make building lots on it all the more desirable. And even if such a line is not built, the suburb is in three blocks of the existing line.

Mr. Henderson is planning the opening of an eighty foot boulevard through the place, this embracing the lane and long double row of elms now leading up to the Tisdale home. In honor of a former New Bern jurist the boulevard will be named "The Gaston Boulevard". The greater part of the building lots will face this boulevard.

The parcel received last night was neatly wrapped and but for that awful, penetrating odor would have passed the most minute inspection. That the contents of the package had been "doctored" with a concection of catnip tea was evident from the combination of scents which it emitted. The consignor did this evidently for the purpose of counteracting the natural purpose of counteracting the natural perfume of the skins and alleviating the suffering of the mail clerks along the route. For several hours the package lingered in New Bern then continued its journey north
