You are cordially invited to be present at our

SPRING MILLINERY OPENING

Thursday, March 6, 1913

One day only, from 9 a. m. to 10 p. m.

Our line of Spring and Fabrics have been carefully selected from the best markets and well adapted to the immediate wants of the trade. What Paris originates, what New York indorses and adopts, that is what we offer you. The higher notes of the store orchestra now chant. Style, fashion, the mode, but the deep sustaining under-current of the music is as ever, low prices, best values and satisfaction. The birds, the green foliage, and blooming flowers remind us that the warm days will soon be here. Have you thought of your hat or dress, which ought to bloom royally when nature again smiles?

Just think what it will mean to come in personal contact with the most complete line of Easter Millinery and dress fabrics ever shown in New Bern.

Our many customers need no persuasion, but to others we would say come and participate. Music will be furnished by an orchestra. This alone will be worth your trip, if nothing more. Souvenirs for every lady. Come and spend the day with us—there is a reason.

Are You Thankful

BECAUSE YOU HAVE GOOD EYES?

If you haven't you ought to be thankful that you can have something done to help them.

If you have any eye troubles bring them to me; I'll fit you with glasses at a reasonable cost.

S. K. EATON.

What Your Tailor?

Don't trust entirely to appearance. Clothes often look alike without being alike.

Show-window clothes may look like custom-tailored clothes—in the show-window only.

But on close inspection the superiority of the clothes made to measure by our Chicago Tailors will reveal a fitness of workmanship that will make you decide in our favor. Quality is so apparent and the cost so modest that the best dressers select these clothes without question. Let us have your measure.

Ed. V. Price & Co.
