There is not the least doubt But that THE PITTSBURG VISIBLE TYPEWRITER is the best low priced machine on the market today. It is durable, attractive and light. Its simplicity is marvelous. There are no complicated parts to get out of order. It is like an open book. If something closs, you have easily to make a few turns with a screw driver, remove the part causing the trouble, clean it off, replace and go ahead. It is the only machine in the world on which the set of type and type bars can be taken apart from the machine in less than ten seconds. This feature alesses apart from the machine in less that ten seconds. This feature aleast saver. It is the only machine new on the market with which twenty legible typewritten copies can be made at one writing. The ribbest control is automatic, the observation of the second change is simple and cony minute the back spacer and tabutating the back spacer and tabutating from the back spacer and tabutating machine. The type are lines is a symmetrical row in front of the machine. The type bars and it is impossible for these to break. The machine is so constructed that the lighter touch or the vigerous pound use in heavy manifolding have the ame effect on the mechanism.
