A Million Dollar Worth of Harley-Davidsons in The Government Service

THE World's Largest Motorcycle user, the United States Government, uses more HARLEY-DAVIDSONS than all other makes combined. These machines are today used by nine different governments. In the Government Mail Service alone there are over 3800 Harley-Davidsons in daily use, collecting and delivering mail,—a fitting tribute to their reliability.

"Hundreds of individuals and corporations have proven the Harley-Davidson to be the ideal motorcycle for commercial use." The HARLEY-DAVIDSON today holds the World's Economy Record, as well as World's Records for Endurance and Reliability. It is the only motorcycle made with the Full Floeving Seat and Free Wheel Control (both patented features) two of the greatest comfort devices known to motorcycling.

Discouraging a Vocalist.
Why a certain parrot never learned to talk Current Opinion tells in these words:
Kerrigan went on a trip to South America and while there bought a pretty Spanish parrot as a present for his friend O'Brien. He shipped the bird to O'Brien at once, and when he got back home he said:
"Daddy, did ye get the fine parrot I sent ye from Rio Janeiro?"
"I did that, Kerrigan, and I want to tell ye that I never put me teeth into a tougher bird in me life!"
