"MEMORIES OF THE SOUTH"

Let's go up and hear them sing Thursday evening—just the thing! Albaugh's, and they'll take us back 'Long the sweet old memory track, Through the green fields that we knew in Virginia vales of dew Old Kentucky, and the glee Of the hills of Tennessee.

Memories of the South! Away. To the green fields let us roam. Helpin' those Confederate girls Make improvements to their Home.

Let's go up and help 'em out! Dixie land to make us shout In the old way once again As they sing us songs of men And of places far and sweet Where the hills and rivers meet And the roses fill the room Of the whole outdoors with bloom Memories of the South! Oh! Sweetest music ever heard— Robin on a Southern bough And the wondrous mockin' bird!

Let's go up and take a girl Maybe with a little curl Golden round her little ears Like they were in those old years When the southland was our clime Of the hearts-of-lovers time And the girls of Dixie seemed. Something sweet the heart had dreamed Memories of the South! Be there Thursday evening. Albaugh's when We'll go back in song and dream To the sunny South again. ! —The Benztown Bard.

SHE GAVE UP ALL HOPE

Physicians Failed To Help Mrs. Green, But She Finally Found Relief in Cardui.

Meetez, Va.—Mrs. J. C. Green of this place, says: "I suffered with womanly troubles so that I could hardly sit up. Two of the best doctors in our town treated me, and I tried different medicines, until I gave up all hope of ever getting well.

One day, I decided to try some Cardui. It did so much for me that I ordered some more, and I cured me! Today, I feel as well as I ever did in my life.

The pains and the trouble are all gone. I feel like another person in every way. I wish every sufferer could know what Cardui will do for sick women."

A few doses of Cardui at the right time, will save many a big doctor bill, by preventing serious sickness.

It tones up the nervous system, and helps make pale cheeks fresh and rosy.

Thousands of weak women have been restored to health and happiness by using Cardui. Suppose you try it.

It may be just the medicine you need.

CURIOUS MANX LAWS.

Food and Drink Alone Are Taxed and Debtors Are Imprisoned.

In some respects the Isle of Man is one of the most backward portions of the British empire. All the revenue is raised by taxes on food and drink. There are no death duties, no property tax, no land tax. The working classes are unprotected as well as over-taxed. No factory laws exist, and no attempt has ever been made to limit the hours of shop assistants, although Manxland is essentially a nation of shopkeepers. Then, although usury is forbidden by law, imprisonment for debt is still legal and is commonly resorted to.

Yet Manx laws, although backward in some respects, are in other ways well advanced. Every woman, widow or spinster, in the Isle of Man, be she owner, occupier or lodger, enjoys the parliamentary franchise. Every widow enjoys half her husband's personal estate and has a life interest in his real estate, and she cannot be deprived of this by will.

The sale of cigarettes and intoxicants to children was forbidden in Man for years before such a prohibition was enforced in England. Englishmen have legislated mildly against money lenders. The highest interest that can be charged in the island is 10 per cent, and that has been the law for over 200 years.—Chicago News.

LUXURIOUS KITCHENS.

They Used Silver Lined Saucepans in the Old Days in Rome.

While the housewife today prides herself, and with reason, on the equipment and conveniences of her establishment, she need not think that centuries ago other women in other lands were not equally well provided. Indeed, the kitchens of Roman women were much more luxuriously fitted out than are most kitchens of today.

Now, in the days when the Roman empire was at its height, if you went into the culinary department of an elegant establishment you would find saucepans lined with silver and pans of various description richly inlaid with arabesques in silver and shovels that were handsomely and intricately carved. Egg frames, too, that would cook twenty eggs at once and pastry molds shaped like shells and an infinite assortment of griddles, frying pans, cheese graters and tart dishes.

The toilet tables of the Roman women were well supplied in the same lavish fashion. Ivory combs, perfumes, cosmetics, hairpins, even an elaborate hair net of gold, have been recently unearthed. Safety pins, too, which have for a long time been considered a strictly modern invention, could be found on their tables. But they had no brushes nor any glass mirror, the kind they used being of silver or other white metals.—Chicago Tribune.

WALL STREET BANKS.

As a Rule They Make Loans on a 20 Per Cent Margin.

Most Wall street banks insist on having a twenty point margin behind each loan. That means that a man borrowing $100,000 must put up as security stocks or bonds of $120,000 market value. If the securities decline to a point where the $20,000 margin is reduced to $15,000 the borrower is called upon to put up additional securities. Most brokerage houses do not wait for such a summons, but send the necessary collateral to the bank as soon as they see that the price of their securities has declined.

But the banks are guided always by the character and the financial standing of each borrower. Each bank has a list of favorite borrowers who can secure whatever money they need in times of stress or in times of calm. The loan clerks know who the favorites are and show them every courtesy. It means a good deal for a Stock Exchange house to get on the "favorite list" of a Wall street bank.

Some borrowers, in order to stand well with a bank, never complain when the bank raises the rate on their loans. They go on the theory that it is foolish to dispute a rate with a bank when the difference between 2 per cent and 2½ means only $1.39 a day on the interest charge for a $100,000 loan.—New York Post.

A FEW POINTS IN FAVOR OF THE PITTSBURG VISIBLE TYPEWRITER.

There is not the least doubt but that THE PITTSBURG VISIBLE TYPEWRITER is the best low priced machine on the market today. It is durable, attractive and light. Its simplicity is marvelous. There are no complicated parts to get out of order. It is like an open book. If something clogs, you have only to make a few turns with a screw driver, remove the part causing the trouble, clean it off, replace and go ahead. It is the only machine in the world on which the set of type and type bars can be taken apart from the machine in less than ten seconds. This feature alone is worth many dollars as a time saver. It is the only machine now on the market with which twenty legible typewritten copies can be made at one writing. The ribbon control is automatic, the color change is simple and convenient, the back spacer and tabulating key are within an inch of the operator's hands when using the machine. The type are lined in a symmetrical row in front of the operator and are easily cleaned. Strong piano steel wires control the type bars and it is impossible for these to break. The machine is so constructed that the lightest touch or the vigorous pound used in heavy manifolding have the same effect on the mechanism. Call at the office of the E. J. Land Printing Company and take a look at this wonderful machine. Price $65.00 on the easy payment plan.
