VOL. I.

NEW BERNE, N. C., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12, 1882.

NO. 9.

LOCAL NEWS.

No Mayor's court yesterday.
Rev. E. M. Forbes, of Beaufort, is in the city.
Over coats were comfortable yesterday morning.
Mr. J. L. Rhem commenced planting cotton last week.
Very few shad in the market yesterday; herrings in abundance.
Nearly every wood shop in the city is engaged in making pea boxes.
Two hundred hands were picking peas for Mr. J. L. Rhem, yesterday.
Garden peas were offered for sale on the streets yesterday at fifty cents per peck.
Messrs. Watson & Daniels shipped a lot of terrapins by the steamer New Berne, yesterday.
The JOURNAL of yesterday bore date Monday, April 11. It should have been Tuesday, April 11.
Parties who attended Jones Court, on Monday, say there was no railroad meeting, as was expected, on that day.
About nine hundred packages of garden peas and cabbages were shipped yesterday on the steamer New Berne and Midland road.
Mr. Geo. Bishop's mill is a busy place now. Ten hands, besides the engineer, are at work, and six saws running, cutting lumber for pea boxes.
A meeting of the citizens of Lenoir county is to be held at Kinston on Friday, to consider Mr. Best's proposition to build a railroad to Snow Hill.
The steamer Neuse cleared for Kinston yesterday with assorted lots of freights for about a dozen Kinston merchants, arriving to-day by steamer New Berne.
The Midland road gives notice in our advertising columns concerning the time of receiving trucking freights. We learn that some freights were left yesterday on account of being behind time.
The New Berne carried out, yesterday, 442 boxes of peas, shipped mainly by Messrs. Lane, Rhem, Ives and Meadows; also 174 crates of cabbage, some radishes, turnips, sweet potatoes, eggs, cotton and naval stores.
Among the shipments made on the Stout yesterday, we noticed a large lot of cleaned rice from the New Berne Rice Mills, and two hundred boxes of canned oysters, containing two dozen cans each. Those kind of shipments have the right ring. To send forth manufactured goods as well as crude agricultural products, is the right way to build up a community.
The feast of Easter was celebrated in the Roman Catholic Church with the usual indications of rejoicing. The decorations of the altar, the vestments of the priest and acolytes, and the joyful music of the Mass, proclaimed the happiness of the faithful on the glorious resurrection of our Saviour. Two services were held in the morning—at 7 and 11 o'clock. Rev. J. J. Reilly preached on both occasions. Prof. de La Croix ably assisted the choir by his skillful playing upon the organ.
Personal.
Messrs. L. Harvey, B. F. Nunn and W. J. Street of Kinston were in the city yesterday.
Passengers by Steamer New Berne.
Geo. W. Phillips, J. F. Littlefield, Mr. Sanders, J. McKoy, Mrs. H. D. Lappert, Miss Sallie Carraway, W. Miller, Miss Myra M. Southgate, Miss Em. Histon, New York; Master T. Southgate, Joseph Linen, Samuel Duster.
Rev. C. M. Payne.
A large congregation assembled at the Presbyterian Church last night. Rev. Mr. Payne, of Wilmington, preached with great impressiveness and power. He will conduct the conference for prayer at 9 a. m. to-day, and preach to-night at 7 1/2 o'clock.
Gas Lights.
The JOURNAL office is now lighted with gas from the New Berne Gas Works which gives a brilliant light. This is the new gas that has been recently introduced here and is said to be much better than the old. In manufacturing the new, water is used instead of resin, which was used in the old.
Cedar Grove Cemetery.
One of the most beautiful spots in the city of New Berne is Cedar Grove Cemetery. A visit to that hallowed spot on yesterday showed that considerable improvement had been lately added. Two shell roads, running at right angles, have been made, the walks have been worked, and the work of cleaning up generally is still going on.

Hail Storm.
From a passenger on the W. & W. R. R., we learn that there was a terrific hail storm near Weldon on Monday evening. The ground was thickly covered, and in some places the drift of hail was eight inches thick.
Information Wanted.
Of Miss Elizabeth Brinn, daughter of James and Rebecca Brinn of Perquimans or Chowan county, who came to New Berne during the late civil war. A legacy is left her in Perquimans county, the particulars of which may be learned from Mr. E. A. White, the Collector of Internal Revenue at New-Berne.
Pick Pocket.
On Saturday last Mr. John McSorley, while attending an auction sale on South Front street, where a considerable crowd had gathered, had a double case gold watch taken from his vest pocket. He says it was evidently the work of an expert. No clue has as yet been obtained to lead to the capture of the thief.
Fire.
At 1:30 a. m. this morning, the fire alarm sounded, and soon it was ascertained that there was a fire on Middle street. On reaching the fire within less than ten minutes after the alarm, we found both of the fire engines in position, the New Berne with steam up and a huge stream of water playing on the fire. In a few minutes the Atlantic had a stream on and the fire was soon extinguished.
An out-building in rear of Miss Harrison's school house was burning—evidently set on fire by some one—and had caught a large pile of wood near.
Seeking Sight.
Jimmie Cahoon, from Goose Creek Island, Pamlico county, was in the city, yesterday, on his way to see some oculist concerning his eyes. When about six years old he had an attack of fever, and on recovering lost his eyesight. He wishes now to get some celebrated oculist in New York or Philadelphia to perform an operation, and see if sight cannot be restored. Dr. Kennedy, of Pamlico, advised him to first consult Dr. R. H. Lewis, of Raleigh, who would be able to advise him properly about the best plan to pursue. Good counsel, for Dr. Lewis, though a young man, has justly gained a high standing in his profession as an expert oculist.
Compliment to Judge Gilmer.
Saturday morning, just before Judge Gilmer was about to close Court, after two weeks laborious work, Mr. C. W. Bernard arose with a beautiful silver casket in his hand, in which lay a most handsome and beautiful bouquet of rare and exquisite flowers, presenting them to His Honor as "a tribute of high regard and a beautiful floral offering from the hands of two fair damsels, (Misses Dancy) with the earnest and sincere hope that his future pathway might always be strewn with the richest blessings and fairest flowers in life," to which his Honor responded with thanks to the fair donors for such lovely flowers.—Greenville Reflector.
Shipment of Grain, Potatoes, &c.
A large quantity of corn and rice have been shipped from this section of late to say nothing of the thousands of elegant fish, and now we find the following in the Rural Messenger, of Petersburg, Va.:
"Three schooners of the North Carolina sweet potato fleet arrived at this port Monday. Fifteen or twenty of these vessels came to our wharves about this time every year from Eastern North Carolina in the vicinity of Beaufort, with sweet potatoes for table use and for planting and they usually find ready sale."
That's it; "Old Carolina" will almost feed the world, away! Certainly a much larger portion of it than her territory.—Albemarle Enquirer.

Kinston Items.
A number of the citizens of Kinston, among them Joseph Lassiter and F. B. Loftin, are attending Jones Court.
A severe storm of wind passed over Kinston, Monday evening, with a slight rain.
Mr. Strickland is supplying the citizens with an excellent quality of beef.
Mr. W. F. Moore has fitted up an ice house adjoining his store, thus preparing for the "heated term."
The Kinston and Snow Hill road is the absorbing topic. Rumor says that the Kinston merchants are not very anxious for it on this ground; That the enterprising Greene county merchants are already giving the Kinstonians their hands full by way of competition, and if this railroad were built, the firms of Sugg Bros., W. H. Mail & Co., Jno. D. Grimally and others, who often pay higher prices for cotton than was paid in Kinston, will, by means of quick and cheap freights, absorb the trade arising from about 2,000 bales of cotton, which Kinston has heretofore handled; and also sell to the farmers about 1,000 tons of fertilizers now distributed from Kinston.
Onslow County Items.
Mr. EDITOR:—Everything in the vicinity of Ward's Mills is in a prosperous condition; the weather is fine, and the farmers are going ahead with their work, the most of them done planting corn, and some of them are ready to plant cotton.
Messrs. A. F. Farnell, sr. and jr., will plant cotton about the 15th of this month. They are go-ahead farmers. Messrs. Sol. Gornito, Nathan Gornito, Thomas Conway, W. Justice, Sol. Gillett, Sam. Gillett, J. A. Gillett and T. Arthur are all large farmers, and ready to plant cotton.
J. O. Frazzell, the hunter, has a store full of goods at Piney Green. He still continues to keep the foxes at bay. He has caught, since the 1st of February, about 60 foxes and killed 18 fine deer, some of them of the largest kind.
The alligator hunting is fine sport now. Mr. Nathan Gornito killed in one day last week two large ones, one of them ten feet long; and Mr. G. W. Ward killed the next day five of the "varmints," two of them measuring twelve and a half feet each in length, and it was not a good day for "gatoring," either. There are thousands of the pesky things in the creeks near here, and they destroy more hogs than the cholera does in its season.
Jack Beasley (white) stole an ox from a negro a few days ago, and ran away, but soon came back, when two officers of the law, named Tom Canaday and Burge Williams, attempted his capture. Beasley turned upon the officers with a loaded revolver and fired several shots at them, but luckily missed his mark, when they in turn fired at him. He then ran off, pursued by the officers, but he succeeded in making his escape in a thick swamp.
Messrs. Sam. Conway and David Coston caught 1,700 herrings with one dipnet, last Saturday night, at Montfort's Mill. The Doctor has a good farm in operation, and still continues to furnish the best of meal for his customers.
Everything is looking well so far in our neighborhood.

Ward's Mill, April 8, 1882.

STATE NEWS.
Cleaned from our Exchanges.
—Wilmington is troubled with burglars.
There are 29 inmates of Orange county's poor house.
—Cotton planting is progressing briskly in Wake.
Mr. A. Mickle, well known to all old Chapel Hillians will soon move to Texas.
Alamance county has tobacco plants as large as a five cent piece. The seed were sown before Christmas.
Mr. Fab, H. Busbee will deliver a Literary Address at the Commencement exercises of Greensboro Female College in May next.
A Wilmington fisherman catches a catfish weighing 42 pounds and measuring 7 inches between the eyes; so we learn from the Review.
There are 990 convicts in the penitentiary and at work on the railroads says the News and Observer. [Can't you spare some of them for the Quaker Bridge road, as directed by the Legislature?—JOURNAL.]
—The Recorder tells of a church member in Durham county who was too stung to give his pastor rock enough to put pillars under the church. [Thought they were glad enough to get rid of rock in that county—JOURNAL.]
—The Warren News: The Kinston JOURNAL has been removed to New Berne and is edited by Messrs. J. W. Harper and H. S. Nunn. It is now called the New Berne JOURNAL. It is one of the best papers in the State.
The Greensboro Female College is to be sold on the 8th of June next to satisfy a judgment in favor of the North Carolina Railroad. It is hoped and expected that the Trustees will make arrangements to save it from falling into other hands.
—Asheville Citizen: The New BERNE DAILY JOURNAL is very gladly welcomed to our exchange list. It is published in New Berne by our old friends, Harper and Nunn, and gives evidence of ability and industry. We wish it unbounded success.
—Granville Free Lance: The Rads of the county will start the campaign next Monday at Meadows' store, Tally Ho, rather early to begin, but several fellows have axes to grind, and want to get the start of others.
—The trouble now is what Congressional District will Vance county be in. A part of the county is in the second and a part in the fourth.
—Economist: Chowan Court is in session this week at Edenton. Judge McCoy presiding. —Corn market active and in demand. Sales Saturday, in Elizabeth City at 80 cents a bushel.
—The "Press Conventions" Ball is getting to be the sensation, and we are pleased to know that our citizens are showing an interest in it and in the occasion. —H. T. Greenleaf has left with us a beautiful specimen of sugar made from sorghum molasses. It is granular, of brown color and tastes as good as it looks. We are pleased to learn that Mr. Greenleaf is contemplating the erection here of a factory for the purpose of making sugar from the cane that grows so well and abundantly with us.
—Asheville News: A visit to some of the back yards and alleys of the town would lead one to suppose that the principal business of the citizens of Asheville was the manufacture of fertilizers. Ashes, filth, dirt and trash, generally abound in reckless profusion, and with a few more warm days the smell will outrank a first class guano factory. —Hassell, of the Eagle Hotel, had his table last Sunday, bountifully supplied with fresh tomatoes, spring potatoes, green peas and strawberries, direct from Florida. These Southern delicacies with buffalo tongue from the Western prairies, looked like making the extremes meet in a pleasing combination. But the proposition that the product of the means is equal to the product of the extremes held good in this case, for Hassell had North Carolina represented with roast beef, turkey and boiled ham, et cetera. His guests were as diversified as his dinner, for they were from New York, the New England States, Mexico, Iowa, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Virginia, with some North Carolinians by way of variety.
