Election to-morrow.
No Mayor's Court yesterday.
Four marriage licenses issued by the Register of Deeds during the last week.

Rev. F. D. Swindell, of Kinston, fills the pulpit at the Centenary Methodist Church to-day.

The funeral of Miss Julia M. Mitchell will be held at the Baptist Church at 4 o'clock p. m. to-day.

Superior Court convenes in Carteret county to-morrow. C. C. Taylor will be on hand for the JOURNAL.

Judge Gilmer and lady passed through the city yesterday en route for Beaufort, where the Judge holds court to-morrow.

Cotton Receipts at the Exchange for the month of April foot up 351 bales, against 294 for the same month last year.

Capt. W. A. Thompson of this city, formerly of Beaufort county, will act as Collector and Canvassing Agent for the JOURNAL in this city.

Who would think that in a place the size of New Berne there are over 75 licensed drays and carts, and yet such is the fact; we doubt much if Raleigh, with all its metropolitan airs, can compare with New Berne in this particular.

The Newbernian comes out this week in a new and attractive dress. We can't say it is much improved except in looks, for it is always edited with ability and good taste. Brother Latham has no superior in the State press as a keen, pointed, incisive writer.

Register of Deeds Nelson says the rush for marriage licenses has been greater since January 1st to the present time than he had ever known for the same period of time. The rush usually comes before Christmas, but this year it came after. One hundred and twelve have been issued since January 1st.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Ladies Memorial Association will be held at the residence of Mrs. C. W.
McLean on Tuesday afternoon, May 3rd, at 5 o'clock. It is desirable that there should be a full meeting of the members, in order to complete the arrangements for "Memorial Day," the 10th of May.

One in visiting our market now, from the great abundance and variety of vegetables exposed for sale, would be led to think that he was in the land of perpetual summer. Meats and wild game of all kinds known to this section are also in great abundance. We have heard strangers say repeatedly that New Berne had by far the best supplied market in the State, and we opine, they spoke the exact truth.—Newbernian.

Festival.
An ice cream and strawberry festival will be held at Stanley Hall on Wednesday night next. The great attraction of the evening will be the lady waiters who will serve young and old in handsome style.

The Convicts.
In speaking of the convicts for the Quaker Bridge road in yesterday's issue, we suggested that the work could be finished in ninety days. We had forgotten that as soon as the Quaker Bridge road was finished the law provides that the convicts be transferred to the road running from Core Creek to Trenton.
Captain Page secured their aid from the Legislature, and the new road will prove a great convenience to the people of Trenton and the surrounding country.

Subscribes for the JOURNAL.

Just Industry.
We met on Saturday Mr. F. M. Elphinst-on, of Newark, N. J., on his way to Pamlico county, to make an effort to get the farmers to plant Jute.

Mr. Elphinston will erect a Jute Factory on Bay River by the fall provided he can get three hundred acres planted.
Good land will produce from 20 to 30 tons per acre, worth $3 per ton in its green state. This will pay handsomely, for the crop costs no more to make than a corn crop, and is easy to house.

Mr. W. H. Oliver deserves much credit in getting up this enterprise. He has been hammering at it for years, and if it does come will prove of great benefit to this section.

Everything is booming for a prosperous future for this city.

A Startling Statement.
On Saturday morning David Morton, a prisoner sentenced to jail for robbing the Postoffice in Grantsboro, made a statement in open court that was startling and demands attention.

He stated that he had been in jail for nine months, and but for the coffee sent him from outside he would have nearly starved. That he was furnished on an average with not more than five cents worth of provisions a day, and that of the poorest quality.

The JOURNAL straightway sent a reporter to the jail to interview other prisoners, and the result is given below, which does not correspond exactly with the statement given in court.

Sheriff Hahn is the party accused, and the JOURNAL is open to him for explanation.

The county pays 35 cents a day ($10.50 a month), and this money is amply sufficient to give good wholesome fare. It is not expected for prisoners to have hotel fare, but they ought to have good, wholesome diet, and he who would seek to make money out of their necessities will receive the condemnation of all good citizens.

It may be that the matter is exaggerated, or that the Sheriff has been deceived by some subordinate, and therefore is not responsible. We hope he can make a vindication.

A Visit to the Jail.
The JOURNAL reporter stepped into the jail yard on yesterday morning, with a view of taking a peep at the inside. The jailer, a colored man, readily assented to carry us through. Upon opening the door the first thing that attracted our attention was something covered up head and ears with a shawl, and seemed to be moving about like a cat in a wallet. Upon inquiry the jailer informed us that it was a lunatic, and that there were two in there, both women. On passing out we attempted a conversation with her but it was no go.

The first cell we look into is occupied by David Morton.

"How long have you to stay here, Morton?"

"I have six months to stay now—have been here nine."

"Faring well, are you?"

"My room is comfortable—no fault to find of that. I get plenty to eat—such as it is. I am willing to show you what I had for breakfast (holding up a chunk of corn bread); here it is. I get the same for dinner, with some herrings; no supper at all. Sometimes I get about two cents worth of beef for dinner—very seldom, though—and sometimes a small bit of pork. I have no fault to find of the jailer; I believe he brings me all that he is allowed, and he has actually furnished me at times on his own expenses, and I shall never forget him."

In the next cell is Henry Bryant, col., who said in reply to questions, "I have been here four months. Sometimes I fare pretty well and sometimes bad.
Get plenty to eat such as it is."

William Fleming: "I get plenty to eat such as it is; bread and tea for breakfast, bread and herrings for dinner."

In the last cell we called at were three prisoners, but only two lodgings. They were A. P. Dupe, N. B. Dudley and Wilson Gray Brinn, and each one told the same story about the fare, "plenty, such as it is." Corn bread and Yapan tea for breakfast; corn bread and herrings for dinner, and the scraps for supper, if you leave any, seems to be the bill of fare for Craven street hotel; and the reporter is satisfied that a plenty of corn bread is dealt out, for he saw enough to feed Bill Taylor's and Major Barrett's pack of hounds, of Lenoir, for several days.

The jailer says he is anxious to see the next JOURNAL; the foreman will take notice and see that he gets one.

The Greenback Speaking.
Hon. Jesse Harper, chairman of the National Greenback party, accompanied by Col. John R. Winston of our State Executive Committee, reached this city on Saturday, and delivered addresses in the Theatre at 11 in the day, and again in the Court House at night.

In an interview with Col. Winston we learn that it is the intention of the Greenbackers to run a Congressman-at-large, and indeed a full ticket, in the State in the coming campaign. On being asked if this would not probably hurt the Democrats worse than the Republicans, he replied in the negative, and stated that, in his canvass for Congress two years ago in Scales' district, he drew more from the Republican ranks than from their opponents—but that the Greenbackers had nothing to do with who should be hurt; they were building on the reason and good judgment of the people.

On assembling at the Theatre Col.
Winston introduced in a short, ringing five minutes speech, the HON. JESSE HARPER.

or Illinois. The speaker has not a very prepossessing appearance, but he improves while on his feet, and his speech commands close attention, both as to matter and manner. With a good command of language, and with a happy faculty of grouping facts for a definite end in view, he almost forces conviction even where one disagrees with his theories. We have not room to report his speech, but it was well worth listening to.

The speech in the morning was calculated to raise alarm concerning the present system, and was directed towards pulling down rather than in building up. At night the true theory of Greenbackism was explained and illustrated.

The Greenback theory has many attractions that would draw to it followers and advocates only for the strong party ties already held by the people.
If a disruption of old parties should ever come, it is still problematical whether or not the Greenbackers can build up as well as tear down.

Work of the court.
The district court adjourned last night after having disposed of the following cases:

U. S. vs. Chas. H. Brown; Illicit distilling—verdict, not guilty.

U. S. vs. Eli Saunders; Illicit distilling—verdict, not guilty.

U. S. vs. Jerry Thomas; Illicit distilling—no pros.

U. S. vs. Edward Taylor; Illicit distilling—verdict, not guilty.

U. S. vs. Wm. Mumford; Illicit distilling—verdict, guilty; judgment not prayed.

U. S. vs. John B. Hill; Illicit distilling—two cases—guilty; judgment suspended.

U. S. vs. Asa Waller; Illicit distilling—verdict, not guilty.

U. S. vs. John E. Deaver; Illicit distilling—verdict, not guilty.

U. S. vs. J. H. Hatcher; robbing Post office—verdict, guilty; judgment six months imprisonment.

U. S. vs. Bryant Outlaw; selling tobacco without license—judgment suspended upon payment of cost.

U. S. vs. David Morton; stealing from Post office at Grantsboro—verdict, guilty.
Six months imprisonment.

U. S. vs. C. L. Davis; illicit distilling —verdict, guilty; judgment suspended.

The Guldbringa case argued by counsel; decision reserved.

Meeting of the New Berne Bar.
The meeting was called to order by Maj. John Hughes, who moved that Hon. Charles C. Clark be made chairman. On motion of Maj. Hughes, Clement Manly was chosen secretary.

On taking the chair Mr. Clark addressed the meeting in some feeling and eloquent remarks on its object.

John S. Long Esq. moved a committee of five be appointed to draft suitable resolutions. Chairman appointed Messrs. John S. Long, John Hughes, George Green, L. J. Moore and H. R.
Bryan.

Dr. W. H. Barker, as foreman of the Grand Jury, stated that by request of his body, he asked that the resolutions hereafter given, be appended to those which should be adopted by the bar.

After reading the resolutions introduced by Dr. Barker, Mr. L. J. Moore moved that the same be referred to the committee on resolutions.

The committee reported the following resolutions:

The death of the Hon. George W.
Brooks, who filled so responsible and conspicuous a position in the judicial history of this State, is a bereavement to the profession which he had dedicated the best and noblest years of his life, and a calamity to every interest of law and justice in a commonwealth, whose annals were so ably illustrated by his wisdom, learning and fair-mindedness. Exercising the duties of a judge in a tribunal which could not limit its action by the sympathies and prejudices of his own people, and called to decide important questions in the most critical and trying periods in our history, he was always faithful to the high trust reposed in him, and showed the purity and dignity of his character and the clearness of his intellect, by proving equal to every occasion, and causing truth and equity to triumph over injustice, oppression and wrong.

North Carolina may have had abler and more distinguished jurists, to provide over her courts, and to labor for the purification of her social interests and the execution of her laws; but no finer gentleman, purer citizen or more incorruptible judge has been known to the profession of the law. Therefore in the members of the New Berne Bar, as a tribute of respect to our departed brother do resolve:

First, that we appreciate and honor the professional record of Judge Brooks, that we value the inestimable services which he rendered to the people of North Carolina, and that we will cherish as a priceless heritage, the proud example which he left us of a high personal honor and official integrity in the midst of all the trying circumstances of his career.

Second, that a copy of these proceedings be transmitted to the family of the deceased, with an expression of our earnest condolence and sympathy; that they be spread upon the records of this court, and that they be published in the newspapers of this city.

John S. Long, Chairman.

Resolved, that by the request of the Grand Jury we append the following:

We, the Grand Jury of the Federal Court, well knowing the noble virtues and valuable services rendered by Hon.
George W. Brooks, and sincerely sympathizing with the present appropriate action of the New Berne Bar, do add, by permission, to their proceedings, the following resolution.

Resolved, that we remember the departed jurist as one of the truest sons of North Carolina, one of her ablest and fairest judges, and one of her purest citizens; and we do hereby extend to the family of the deceased our profoundest sympathy in this hour of bereavement.

W. H. BARKER, Foreman.

Mr. John S. Long, as chairman of the above committee spoke to the resolutions in some suitable remarks and moved the adoption of the resolutions. Mr.
Stevenson seconded this motion and spoke in eulogy of the distinguished deceased.
Judge George Green, addressed the meeting in a brief but forcible and earnest speech. Mr. Moore moved that the resolutions of respect which were unanimously adopted by the meeting be spread on the minutes of the court, and to that end requested that the secretary report the resolutions to the U. S. District Court now in session and request that the Judge thereof allow the same page of the minute book of the Court.

On motion of Maj. Hughes the chair declared the meeting adjourned.

CHARLES C. CLARK, Chairman.
CLEMENT MANLY, Secretary.

On the assembling of the court the proceedings and the resolutions were read and a motion made to allow the same to be spread upon the minutes.
His Honor, Judge Seymour so ordered.

La Grange Items.

Rust spreading upon the wheat, cotton coming up slowly, and corn looking badly from the effects of the late "snap," is about all that can be said of the crops about here.

Dr. John Bizzell, a graduate of the Baltimore Dental College, has located in this place (temporarily) for the practice of his profession. Dr. Bizzell has done considerable work for the people about here and, so far as I know, has given perfect satisfaction.

The town election is not so much as mentioned, in public. If any candidates have been named I have not learned who. Some one has suggested that the nominations may take place Saturday night. But short time for canvassing, unless the Sabbath is used for that purpose.

A. E. Rouse of this place, has invented a machine with which he moved a house a distance of three hundred yards in six hours, without horse power and with only three hands. So I learn from Mr. Rouse. This puts Lewis Washington's apparatus in the shade completely. Rouse is making other arrangements, which he says will enable one man to do as much as three.

I have heard that Joe Bryan, colored, bound over for theft to this term of the Superior Court, took leg bail from the court house on Tuesday. Many schemes were adopted at the preliminary examination to show that Joe was innocent, and to prevent his being bonded. His leaving shows that he is guilty, and that he knew it. It is expected of lawyers to clear their clients, but private citizens and Justices of the Peace should see that no guilty man escapes.

The meeting at the M. E. Church continues, under the charge of pastor W. P.
McCorkle, assisted by the Rev. J. N.
Andrews. Mr. Andrews was formerly pastor of this church and was highly esteemed by the congregation for his fearless promulgation of the truth, and for his open denunciation of sin. I heard one of the congregation remark the other day, that he had never heard Mr.
Andrews preach but what he got close to some one in the house before he closed. Mr. McCorkle preaches ably and is loved by his members.

Morehead City Items.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Since my last letter I have been on North River, surveying some of that fine land. The farmers are all busy planting cotton. Corn is up and looking 'nice' in spite of cold weather.

Court at Beaufort on Monday. Judge
Gilmer is to preside.

The Guilding is still lying at the depot wharf awaiting the action of the U. S. Court now sitting in your city.

There are any amount of watermelons planted in this county this season, and if it does not turn too cold they will come into market early.

Mr. Thomas Daniels of New Berne has been down here for the past week looking after his fishing interest. Mr. Daniels is an energetic, go-ahead man and Morehead lost one of her best citizens when he moved to New Berne.

The Potosi, a large three masted schooner with ice for Mr. Hazel of Goldshoro is also at the wharf, her cargo being too large for the ice house in Goldshoro. Mr. Hazel has bought out Mr. Stanley of Kinston and will stop part of his cargo in that thriving town.

The gentlemanly and polite clerk of Dr. Blacknal, Mr. B. B. Rainy is now at the Atlantic Hotel with a corps of hands cleaning up for summer. The Masons are plastering the ten pin alley and no doubt everything will be in the best of order for the coming crowds.

Mr. Chas. Slover and wife, Mr. W. E.
Patterson, Miss Ella Ives, Miss Radeloffe, Miss Bryan, Mr. Francisco, and a "genus homo," whose name is unknown, from your city, have been spending a day or two at the "Midland Hotel," and from appearances are having a good time.

L. A. W.

Greensboro Female College.

A meeting of the Trustees of this institution in session in this place today, the following gentlemen being present:

C. P. Mendenhall, President, Rev. J.
A. Cunningham, Secretary, Revs. A. W.
Mangum, D. D., E. A. Yates, D. D., W. H. Hobbs, D. D., N. H. D. Wilson, D. D., T. M. Jones, D. D., and Col. J. C.
Pinder, Seymour Steele and W. H. Hill.

The plans of these gentlemen are not in a condition to be made public, still it is no breach of confidence to say that they are quite confident that the college will not be sold on June 9th as at present advertised.—Greensboro Bugle.
