Third Ward Republican Meeting.

Meeting was called to order by chairman Lawrence. On motion Major A. R. Dennison was chosen chairman and R. B. Lehman, Sect. Nominations being declared in order, the following were nominated and by ballot declared elected. Ward delegates—James Maxwell, Samuel Jackson and Wm. W. Lawrence; Alternates—John Pool, R. B. Lehman and Moses Chase. Meeting then adjourned.

In the Resurrection.

Captain Dixon has for the past three or four days been cleaning out the south side of Trent River, near the railroad bridge for Mr. Isaac Lewis who intends making a seine beach. Among other things taken out, he has resurrected the Mary Francis, a boat owned by Mr. Lewis, which was sunk during the war. She was, however, raised to condemnation, as Mr. Lewis proposes to make fire wood of her.

Gen. Basil Manly.

A telegram was received in the city yesterday announcing the death of General Basil Manly of Raleigh early on Monday morning.

Mr. Manly was a son of the late Governor Charles Manly and dies in the prime of life aged about forty-two years. He distinguished himself in the Civil War as Captain of the Ellis Light Artillery and was promoted to Major just before the close of the war. He has been for a long while General of the State Militia, and was Raleigh's Mayor for eight or nine years before his death. While his death has not been unexpected for some time, it will cause sympathetic sorrow throughout the State to those who knew his many noble traits of character.

Our Churches on Sunday.

CHRIST CHURCH.

Morning service—In the absence of the Rector, service was held by the Lay Reader of the Parish, Mr. George H. Roberts. Psalms for the 14th morning, Collect, Epistle, Gospel and Lessons appointed for the fifth Sunday after Easter were read and Hymns 67 and 520 were sung.

BAPTIST CHURCH.

In the absence of the pastor, Mr. C. C. Clark conducted service. Song—Touch the hem of his garment. Reading of 2nd Chapter of 1st epistle general of John.

Prayer, and comments upon the chapter read. The speaker directed his remarks to the young converts. He reminded them that because of sin they would be beset by many temptations; and if they should fall, to remember that they have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ.

CATHOLIC CHURCH.

Father J. J. Reily announced that Father Oberle would preach here on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights at 8 o'clock; and on Sunday next, services would be held by Right Reverend Bishop Northrop.

The speaker called attention to the fact that the present was ROGATION week or week of PRAYER, and urged the necessity of its practice. Prayer should be made in faith, with humility and submission. God grants not always what we ask, but what we ask aright, and what is best for us to have. And, as in soliciting an earthly King for a great favor it would be natural to seek the intercession of his mother to plead in our behalf, so we have a supernatural Mother to whom we can go with our prayers and intercessions.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Rev. L. C. Vass preached from the 9th Chapter of Acts, 6th verse: "And he trembling, and astonished, said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise and go into the city and it shall be told thee what thou must do."

The speaker showed that the teaching from this text had been perverted and that many now were waiting for the Lord to appear to them in a miraculous manner as he did to Saul and thus convert them. Instead of this, the true lesson lay in the words, "go into the city and it shall be told thee what thou must do." Even in Saul's case the Lord did not tell him what to do to be saved, but sent him to learn from his chosen minister. The Bible contains the message of salvation, and from it the sinner may learn, without any miraculous intervention.

CENTENARY METHODIST CHURCH.

MORNING SERVICE.
Opening song—59th Hymn.
Reading of the 96th Psalm.
Sermon by Rev. J. E. Mann, P. E.
TEXT: The Lord reigneth; let the earth rejoice; let the multitude of isles be glad thereof. XCIV Psalm, 1st verse.

The speaker began by saying that it had been a custom in all ages to announce the reign of an incoming sovereign. In like manner it was the duty of all good men, and it was a duty which he purposed to perform to-day, to proclaim the reign of Christ.

He proceeded to show from the very nature of things that exist around us that God does exist and reign. The little nest of eggs demonstrates that there is a bird; the infant that there is a parent; the earth that there is an earth maker, and the existence of the universe that there is a universe maker. He discussed the doctrine of evolution, and said that the reason the infidel scientist would not agree with Christian scientists that in the beginning God created the heavens and the earth and breathed into man the breath of life, was, because they hated the King; they wanted to assassinate the Ruler; to dethrone the Lord Jesus Christ. Again, the organization of matter shows that there must be an organizer. When we think of the wonderful arrangement of the heavenly bodies, all moving harmoniously, each in its separate orbit, some at the rate of one thousand miles per minute, who can doubt that there is a supreme ruler to guide and direct them? "The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament showeth his handiwork."

The speaker then argued that every true Christian, aside from the evidences furnished him in the glorious works of nature, knows that God does exist and reign. We know it because we have felt His presence. He has brought us from darkness to light; we have communed with Him; we have gone to Him with a load of sin and He has lifted the burden from our souls; the light of His countenance has shone into our souls and it was the spring time of joy to our hearts. We know that God does exist and reign; we rejoice that it is so, and all men who put themselves at the foot of the Cross will, too, find out that their only hope is in accepting the Lord Jesus Christ.

At the conclusion of the sermon a collection was taken for the poor, after which the sacrament of the Lord's supper was administered to a large number.

Letter from Dr. Burkhead.

NASHVILLE, TENN., May 12, 1882.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The Committee on Episcopacy on yesterday offered this:

Resolved, That the General Conference elect six traveling elders to the office of Bishop in the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

Dr. Blue, of Alabama, moved that the report be amended by striking out "six" and inserting "three."

Dr. J. H. McLea, of Texas, addressed the Conference. This question is still under consideration. Many speeches have been made and others will be. Dr. B. Craven, of North Carolina, spoke on the question to-day. I am in favor of five; I think four will be agreed on. I have no idea that any man from North Carolina will be elected.

Rev. W. M. Robey, of the Methodist Advance, has been here for several days, but left this morning. Revs. J. A. Cunningham, F. L. Reid and J. R. Brooks are here. Mrs. Dr. Wilson and Mrs. E. J. Lilly are the only North Carolina ladies here that I have seen. I learn that Rev. J. T. Bagwell will be here to-day.

I have no means of knowing who will be elected Bishop. Much business has already been done. I am on the committee on boundaries, and, as I am also a member of the "Board of Missions," I have been kept very busy. Most of the work of a General Conference is done by committees. There are few speeches made by the really working members. Our Mission work is in good condition and enlarging. The Board accepted three missionaries for China at its meeting yesterday, viz., Rev. D. L. Anderson, of Georgia; Rev. J. H. Farbeaux, of South Carolina, and Rev. J. W. Langston, of Texas. The men are ready, and I hope the means will not be lacking. The church seems to be waking up to the great work of going "into all the world and preaching the Gospel to every creature." Rev. Mr. Shaw, of Texas, made the best speech I have heard on the Bishop question. One of our lay delegates, J. S. Carr, Esq., is still absent.

We had a missionary meeting last night in McKendree Church. A large crowd was present, to hear the addresses of Dr. Carlisle, President of Wofford College, South Carolina, and Dr. A. G. Haygood, President of Emory College, Georgia. Both speeches were good.

Dr. Patterson, Superintendent of our Central Mexican Mission, is also here, accompanied by a Mexican Methodist preacher. Dr. Southerland, Superintendent of the Mexican Border Mission, is also here. He greatly desires the formation of a new conference, to embrace a part of Texas and several States of the Republic of Mexico. I am in favor of this, with the lights now before me. I have just received a copy of your paper.

L. S. BURKHEAD.

Kinston Items.

West & Bond supply our market with young fat mutton at 50 cents a quarter.

Wm. B. Isler, reported dangerously ill a few days ago, is now improving slowly.

Mrs. Annie J. Pope, nee Biddle, and her daughter Annie, are visiting their relatives in Kinston.

Grown chickens are mostly caught by the Tuckahoe hawk, J. F. Stroud, and held at 25 cents a piece.

The Duplin county Absalom, a Mr. Maxwell, with his long auburn curls, was the street excitement last Friday.

Capt. E. R. Page, of Jones, was here last Wednesday, "making his figures" for Republican Congressional honors in the Second district.

The annual Commencement exercises of Kinston Collegiate Institute will take place on the 8th of June next. Hon. A. M. Waddell, of Wilmington, delivers the annual address.

The colored societies and Sunday school children from New Berne, with the colored band of New Berne, speeched, picknicked and perambulated Kinston last Thursday.

Hon. J. C. Scarborough, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, is here to-day—Friday—looking after the interest of the public schools and the property of the State Board of Education.

Captain Wm. W. Carraway has aspirations for the Democratic nomination for Congressman at large. [If Greene county were entitled to the nomination, D. R. Walker ought to have it.—JOURNAL.]

Joseph Kinsey's three months' term of the public school in Kinston township closed the 12th instant. He and his assistants have greatly raised the character and infused new life in the public school of this township. He proposes to continue the school two weeks longer, his patrons paying him. Mr. Kinsey is a thorough and successful teacher.

Henry Archbell's steamer Neuse picnic excursion to the celebrated Seven Springs, near White Hall, left Kinston early Thursday morning, with a fair crowd and E. L. Miller's fine music band, carrying ice cream, cakes and tropical fruits. They were gone all day, stopping two hours at the Springs, reaching Kinston at night on return. Had a very pleasant trip.

La Grange Items.

The steamer Neuse passed up on Thursday with, it is said, a picnic party for White Hall or Seven Springs.

C. S. Wooten went to Raleigh on Monday to attend the Director's meeting of the A. & N. C. R. R. He returned on Thursday, but I have not learned of the action of the Board.

John Edwards (col.) was arrested on Wednesday for cruelly beating his child—a girl 8 or 10 years old. The whipping is said to have been inhuman. The trial will take place Saturday.

James K. Driver was elected chief of police at a meeting of the Board of Town Commissioners Tuesday. He rendered valuable service at once, by removing nuisances that should have been removed long before.

A blockade, or blockhead, party was in town Friday night. Scantling, planks, barrels etc. were piled at the doors of some of the merchants. A shot or two from one of the clerks scattered the mischievous fellows, and the fun stopped.

A few days of warm weather, with refreshing showers, has greatly improved cotton, corn etc., in appearance. The wheat crop, in some places is looking well, and bids fair, at this time, to yield a full crop. In other places the "rust" is very severe, and may seriously damage it.

A new public road has been authorized in this township by the county commissioners, leading from Moses Joyner's by the way of his mill, to the public road near Levi Sutton's. A bridge is to be built across the creek by the citizens, and afterwards to be kept up at the expense of the county.

Mr. Reitzel, fruit tree agent for Lindley's nurseries is in this place receiving orders. He says that there is an agent in the field, whose name is Smith, and that not one, in a family of six brothers together with the father and several uncles, is named John. Very remarkable. Mr. Reitzel is stopping at Fields' but don't get any "Bennet's best" his capacity for eating is sufficient without.

Pollocksville Items.

The fishing club anglet in vain.

J. B. Pollock, the clever sewing machine agent from Kinston, was also here.

A man who has beaten his sword into a pruning knife was in town one day this week.

The recent warm showers has much improved the cotton prospect. Several of our farmers were seriously thinking of plowing up and planting over.

Mr. S. Hudson had an ox that attempted an exhibition of his skill in the art of jumping, by jumping head foremost into a well, and now jumps no more forever.

Rumor hath it that one of our young men has gone down below Newport and taken unto himself a better half, and, if the report is correct, we extend unto him our congratulations.

Mr. H. A. White will soon commence the erection of a gin and mill house, and then another steam whistle will be heard in our midst. Manufacturing is what we need. Who'll be the next?

The steamer Trent has missed two regular trips, causing some little disappointment to shippers. We heard a patron suggest that if the T. R. T. Co. did not do better he thought the name should be changed to the Independent T. Co.

Carteret Items.

MR. EDITOR:—Permit me to raise my hat and wish you the most abundant success.

Farmers in this section are busy in working out their crops. Corn come up well, and earlier after planting than was ever known before. Bud worms have been bad in some localities, but the corn is beyond reach now and "booming." Cotton is also being hoed out and that looks well. Melons are beginning to put out "runners" and in a short month we will "lay by" this crop to await the gathering season in July. This industry is growing and our farmers find it remunerative. The light soil and warm climate make Bogue Sound in reality as it is in name, the "home of the melon." We would be glad to welcome you here when this crop ripens. You ought to come as enterprising journalists so as to learn of our many advantages and so as to inform your many readers of the "paradise of Carteret." Here where all nature first dons her beautiful robe of green, where the rose spreads its beautiful petals to assimilate the first warm rays of approaching spring, while the jessamine and honey-suckles scents the balmy air with their sweet perfume; here where the gambolling billows in playful leaps chase each other ashore, and the soft breeze, pure from the bosom of old mother ocean fans with ceaseless care the florid cheek of health. J. W. S.

Onslow County Items.

Mr. Sol. Gornto is ahead in the turp. business. He has about 8 sets boxes in operation this season; has also a fine farm in cultivation.

E. W. Fonville has about 125 head of fine sheep of the Cotswold breed. A. F. Farnell has also a fine lot of sheep, some of which are the same breed.

Everything going on fine; has been very dry, but a refreshing rain fell last night and crops look nice and flourishing. A. T. Farnell Sr. has taken the lead in cotton and corn here; he and his son, A. T. Farnell Jr., have good land, and are good farmers which is half the battle in making the stuff.

A grand picnic and banks party at Swansboro and Brown Sound both same day, 6th May. At the former place there were some 450 people from all parts of the county. Had a splendid time and I guess there were some bargains made between the young folks.

Look out for a half dozen weddings in about as many weeks. Two vessel loads besides boats etc. went from Swansboro. Capt. W. Dennis and Capt. Robinson took the parties over to the banks where they spent the day in pleasant enjoyment. The party at Brown Sound was not so large but they enjoyed themselves equally as well. About 125 persons were there, also on the banks they had a dance on the sea beach to good music by Messrs. I. M. Proxow and E. H. Fonville who are splendid musicians. W.

Resolutions of Respect.

To the Worshipful Master, Wardens and Brethren of Pollocksville Lodge No. 175 A. F. & A. M.

Your committee appointed to report resolutions on the death of Bro. G. M. Morrison, M. D., beg leave to submit the following:

Again this lodge has cause to mourn the loss of one of its members. The grim tyrant of death has laid low one whom we all loved and respected, therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of Bro. Morrison this Lodge has lost a useful member—as a mason always willing and ready to perform the work assigned to him, and as a physician ever kind and willing to render all the assistance that alone can be rendered by a member of the healing art, and as Bro. Morrison has crossed the river of death and is now resting under the shade of the trees, awaiting for the final resurrection, where we all hope to meet him in that Lodge above where the Grand Master of the universe shall preside—and shall fear neither pain, sickness nor death.

Resolved, That we wear for thirty days the usual badge of mourning in memory of our lamented brother.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread on the Lodge records, and a copy be sent to the family of the deceased; also a copy be furnished to the NEW BERNE JOURNAL for publication.
