NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

E. H. BARNUM—Stockholders Meeting.
THOS. STANLY—County Convention.
C. SIMPSON—Brick for Sale.
Geo. T. DUFFY—Stockholders Schedule.

The Melvin arrived at New York yesterday.

Irish potatoes are plentiful and fine at fifty cents per peck.

The Trent sails up Neuse to-day at seven o'clock a. m.

The painters are putting the finishing touch on Mr. Elijah Ellis' new dwelling.

A small number took a sailing craft yesterday and went to Hog Island to picnic.

Two cases before the Mayor yesterday: one, a boy for throwing missiles in the streets, the other a man for being drunk and disorderly.

We are sorry our neighbor of the Nut Shell is troubled about paper. If his supply does not come to-day, we tender him some from our office.

A little fight yesterday on Metcalf street by two little boys. A Middle street merchant interfered and parted the blood-thirsty fighters.

Capt. S. H. Gray's old cannon has been painted up, ready to carry on the Washington Excursion. Some one evidently expects to make a noise on the trip.

Mr. R. R. Hill shows a curiosity on the potato question. He has a vine with over a dozen small potatoes growing on the stalk above ground like a bunch of apples.

The potatoes spoken of in yesterday's JOURNAL were raised from seed introduced by Mr. E. H. Meadows, and Mr. Fowler attributes much of his success in the potato business to the seed.

Dr. Peterson, of Aurora, was in the city yesterday, and reports the crops damaged by the recent cold snap. He says Aurora is rapidly building up and is destined to become a small city.

We are requested to state that the dinner-party will be continued at the Methodist parsonage this afternoon, commencing at 4 o'clock. We return thanks for the cake and ice cream sent the office last night.

We learn that the citizens on Hancock street, near the depot, were considerably alarmed by the continued firing of pistols on Tuesday night about 10 o'clock. Our police force would do well to look out for such night shooters.

The request made in the communication about sounding the hours on the town bell suggests to us that we hope the County Commissioners will think proper to put in a handsome city clock in the new Court House, which will ring out the passing hours and can be seen in distant parts of the city. The one at Kinston is a great convenience to the people.

Journal Miniature Almanac.
Sun rises, 4:48 | Length of day,
Sun sets, 7:06 | 14 hours and 16 min.

Pamlico Enterprise.
Mr. J. C. Pittman of this city will soon start a new paper at Stonewall, the Pamlico Enterprise. Mr. Pittman is a good practical printer, thoroughly familiar with newspaper work, and Pamlico county needs a local paper to tell of its many attractions. We extend greeting to the new enterprise and will rejoice in its success. Every county in the State ought to have its paper. The Enterprise expects to come out on the 9th of June.

Personal.
We learn from Mr. Cicero Green and Mr. J. W. Biddle that the stand of oysters in their section is bad. The cold weather won't give it a chance to come out.

Mr. J. P. Brogden of Trenton informs us that the celebrated alligator that had such a liking for lawyers as described in the Jones Items in yesterday's JOURNAL, has died. It was a Doctor he wanted and not members of the legal profession.

Mr. S. W. Ferebee and R. H. Baxter of Stonewall passed through the city on Wednesday to attend the Commencement exercises of La Grange Academy. That is the way it goes—the young men pass through New Berne to visit noted schools. They never stop here on that business.

MARRIED.
BEST-HINES.—In Kinston, May 21st, by Rev. Fred. D. Swindell, Mr. N. W. Best of Wayne county, and Miss Lydia C. Hines.

New Berne School Notes.—Made up by Miss Harrison's Pupils.

Examination postponed a week. School goes on nicely; ranks full, only one having stopped on account of the hot weather.

Have you seen anything of "Jakie"? If so, please let us know where to find him.

We were surprised to learn that gold was found in North Carolina before it was found in California.—[Tell us when and where it was found. ED. JOURNAL.]

Only four weeks before school close, then for the entertainment, gold medals, etc.

During the lecture on Natural History, the school being asked to mention an "edentate," our smart boy "Jack" quickly answered "an old lady."

Reading lessons specially interesting. Class in "interest" much perplexed.

"Julia" says our picnic was at least as good as the "Oscar Wild" of New Berne being there. "Ella" suggests that he was Oscar "mild."

Small boys read "I'll do it" for "I'll do it," who by the way shows his interest in us by being on hand every examination day, and picnic days when the horses balk.

"Leah" says modesty is indeed a most charming characteristic, but when an old married editor tries to make a nice young man feel bad by totally ignoring at least his share in the "hearty cheers worthy of college boys" then it is much "too-too," specially when he occupies the whole of the doorway, and others have to peep first one side and then the other in order to catch a glimpse of what is passing.

"Maudie M." says, in describing the picnic grounds, "The place was lovely for a picnic, the tall and graceful pines were bending their boughs together, which made it very shady and cool for us. There was a spring about three quarters of a mile from the place, but right below, the silvery river wound its way for miles around, and of course we had plenty of wooden plates, so we took them down to the river and drank a sweet draught of water."

One bright youth tells us "millinery" company did not turn out May 10th, and a speech was made about the "48th century," and it had a great many bulen holes in it.

Trip to Morehead City.
The JOURNAL reporter having had a standing invitation for over a month from that clever conductor, Capt. J. A. Richardson, to visit Morehead and go aboard the Guldbringa, and partake of Capt. Johansen's pure port wine—which Capt. Richardson declares would make a man live fifty years longer if he could get a bottle a day—went down on Wednesday, not for the purpose of broaching the wine, but to look up items for the JOURNAL. Arriving at Morehead we found the Guldbringa out in the stream and Capt. Richardson unable to supply the Port. We were taken aboard the Noah, however, by her clever captain and a bottle of old "Chion," sparkling and pure, was uncorked and pretty soon the captain was prepared to tell of sea voyages. (The reporter being on board the Noah, and remembering that the ancient patriarch whose name she bears, drank wine, felt constrained to join the captain in broaching the bottle, as he pronounced it pure and unadulterated.) The Noah had discharged her cargo and the Bome was to be brought up to the wharf yesterday evening. The Guldbringa is still there, and her captain says he don't know when he will be able to set sail as the libel suit is still unsettled.

It is a pleasure to see such fine boats in our harbor, but at the same time it is mortifying to know that they can get nothing to carry out but sand, which they are compelled to carry as ballast. It is not that North Carolina does not produce anything to export—this is not the reason why a vessel cannot get a cargo at her chief port—but the enterprise and capital of other cities and States have diverted her trade to other channels. So we can announce that several fine boats have cleared from the port of Morehead this spring with cargoes of sand. Alas! Alas! for poor old North Carolina.

HOTELS.
But while Morehead City is making little or no progress as a seaport town, yet it bids fair to become a great place for summer resort. Heretofore there has been but one first class hotel—the Atlantic—but now it is likely to have a rival in the under the management of Messrs. H. Francisco & J. W. Bayliss. In conversation with Mr. Bayliss we asked:

"In what respect do you expect to excel?"

"We expect to feed as they can't feed anywhere in North Carolina. I have my full staff of cooks and servants here now, and will have them thoroughly drilled. The building has been thoroughly renovated from top to bottom—will build a large platform on the side next to the sound and will have good music. I also have an experienced and polite clerk, Mr. J. F. Pearce, in the saloon."

"How long have you been at this business?"

"I have been at it for nineteen years. I was at the Virginia Springs nine summers, and was on the Mississippi River for over six years. I certainly ought to know how to run a hotel."

And the reporter is of that opinion too.

Stock Feed.
We give below an extract from the Monthly Bulletin of the North Carolina Department of Agriculture:

SOME MORE FEEDING-STUFFS.
We have in the first place two of the bye-products of the rice mills, "Rice Flour" and "Rice Polish," from the Carolina Rice Mills at Wilmington.

The "Rice Flour" is, I infer, the outer coating of the grain. It is a slightly brownish meal of about the appearance of "Wheat Middlings." The "Polish," which is removed from the grain next, is a whiter, finer meal. Both of the products resemble wheat middlings very much in their chemical character also, except in the unexpectedly large amount of fat. The outer coating of the rice grain must contain considerable fat as well as nitrogenous matter. They should both prove highly nutritious feeding-stuffs.

The sample of cotton seed meal comes from the newly erected mill at New Berne, Maj. A. R. Dennison, manager. Much too much oil has been left in this cake. Cotton seed meal should not yield over 13.5 per cent. of fat at the most. This was one of the first specimens produced, and the manufacturers are, doubtless, making a better article now. This is a most valuable product for feeding purposes and fertilizing both.

Carteret Items.
Mrs. J. L. Gibble died last Sunday.

Beaufort is getting ready for summer visitors.

Mr. Blaisdell of Camden county, is at the Ocean View.

Mr. Whetthall of Baltimore, is here for health and rest, at the Davis House.

Mr. B. L. Jones has been confined to his room for some days with a severe cold.

Mr. Midyette of Hyde county, arrived with his family on yesterday to spend the summer.

The indications are that there will be more visitors at Beaufort this summer than ever before.

Mr. Chas. Lowenberg has painted and otherwise renovated his house and it is now open for the public.

Rev. Dr. Dixon of Asheville, has been spending some time here, left on Monday. He occupied the pulpit on Sunday at the Episcopal Church.

Miss Sarah Davis, who keeps one of the best boarding houses in the State, has had carpenters and painters at work, arranging for more room. She is receiving applications for rooms from all parts of the county.

The Ocean View, under the management of Mr. Thos. Martin, has been open all winter. To this house is attached a ball room; and to those who deem this as indispensable to a summer resort need not be deterred from coming to Beaufort.

Kinston College.
A large number of citizens met at Dr. V. E. Weyher's drug store Monday night, May 22d, to organize a stock company for building a college.

Dr. H. O. Hyatt called the meeting to order by calling Mr. J. C. Washington to the chair. Dr. V. E. Weyher was requested to act as Secretary.

Mr. J. C. Washington explained the object of the meeting, and congratulated the canvassing committee on their success in raising such a large amount of money in such a short time for the construction of a more commodious and handsomer school building than we hitherto had.

A roll-call showed sixty-eight shares represented at $25.00 per share.

On motion the following gentlemen were elected for permanent officers of this company:

President—John C. Washington.
Vice-President—N. D. Myers.
Secretary—Dr. V. E. Weyher.
Treasurer—H. O. Hyatt.

FINANCE COMMITTEE:
Dr. F. M. Rountree, Wm. C. Moore, D. Oettinger, J. P. Haskitt, Elisha Grady, Dr. V. E. Weyher, J. P. Fulcher, B. L. Taylor, T. J. Presson.

On motion, the Finance Committee was empowered to select out of this number a building committee, and report at next meeting.

On motion, the President appointed Dr. R. H. Lewis, G. E. Miller and J. A. Pridgen as a committee to suggest a name for the institution. The committee suggested "Kinston College." Report adopted unanimously.

On motion, the President appointed Dr. H. O. Hyatt, D. Oettinger and B. W. Canady as a Committee on Constitution and By-Laws. The committee to report next meeting.

WHEREAS, The subscription list showed that 44 citizens had subscribed $2,100, only a partial canvass being reported. The lists were returned to the canvassers with the request to make a special effort to increase the number of share-holders to not less than 60, and the amount to not less than $3,000.

On motion, Dr. R. H. Lewis was unanimously elected Principal of "Kinston College." The gentleman expressed his thanks for the unsolicited honor conferred upon him, and said, that having worked assiduously for the establishment of a school of a high grade in the past, he would redouble his efforts in the future.

On motion, Mrs. Anna L. Davis was unanimously elected Principal of the musical department. Mr. D. L. Davis thanked the meeting for the compliment paid to Mrs. Davis, and stated that he was authorized by her to accept the position.

Mrs. R. H. Lewis was then unanimously elected as one of the assistant teachers. Other teachers to be selected by the Principal.

It was moved and carried, that the Editors of the Kinston Free Press, Goldsboro Messenger and New Berne Journal be requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting.

On motion, the meeting was adjourned to meet at Dr. V. E. Weyher's Drug Store Wednesday night May 24th.

J. C. WASHINGTON, President.
V. E. WEYHER, Secretary.

Pamlico Items.
We only have five persons in the poor house at the county's expense. What county can beat that?

Cold weather has considerably damaged the stand of cotton and kept all crops from developing to suit the farmers.

The Justices were called to meet the County Board of Commissioners on Monday, and were asked for an appropriation of $400 to complete the county jail, which was granted.

The M. E. Church held their quarterly meeting here last Sunday. Elder J. E. Mann preached to a large crowd. All who I have heard express an opinion were highly gratified at his eloquence and gentlemanly demeanor. He addressed no one, not even a Universalist.

The schooner Annie E. Hall, Capt. Teeme Crowder, is at our wharf loading with lumber for Messrs. T. C. Hadder & C. H. Fowler. This firm keeps this schooner running regular and ship large quantities of lumber by other craft, as their demands require, besides shipping large quantities for the local demand.

Mrs. Sarah Nichols, wife of Mr. Jno. H. Nichols, died this morning heart disease being the cause of her death. To all outward appearances seemed to be well up to yesterday morning. She leaves an affectionate husband and four children to mourn her loss. A good woman and an affectionate mother and neighbor gone over the river.

Pamlico court convened on last Monday at 10 o'clock. Judge A. W. McKoy presiding, to the satisfaction of all interested, except a very few offenders, and there were of that kind, as well say all. By or before night the State docket was dropped, and by 11 o'clock Tuesday the civil docket was cleared. No cases either civil or criminal of much importance. How is this for a county with seventeen hundred registered voters? No one in jail for any offence. Respectfully yours,
JAS. S. LANE.

Strike the Bell.
WHY NOT MAKE THE CITY BELL STRIKE THE HOUR THROUGH THE DAY AND NIGHT?

MR. EDITOR:—Why not we ask, why not? when so many of our citizens desire it, and it is possible that Mayor Howard will not do as much for their convenience with their own bell as did all the railroad presidents here with the depot bell from the first to the last, and until, for some unaccountable reason, President Best had the depot building pulled down ere a new one was erected. We heard the absurd reason for not striking the hours on the city bell, its interference with the fire alarm. How so? Did the old clock so faithfully striking the hours prevent its bell giving the first notice of fire? Did striking the hours on the depot bell day and night prevent its being used as promptly for fire alarms as was the idle and otherwise useless city bell? Who can with truth say it did? Mayor Howard is a live man, and wont he, we repeat, for the great convenience of a large number of our people, and also to keep his corps of policemen lively, have the hours on the city bell struck through the day and night.

Mr. Editor will you help us to have it done and oblige

STATE NEWS.
Gleaned from our Exchanges.

—Greensboro has a negro murderer in jail for brutally killing his wife.

—The Republican Judicial Convention for the Second District will be held at Tarboro on the 19th of June.

—Raleigh Visitor: Cotton is dying out, and the farmers are very much discouraged.—Mr. Logan Berry, who resides in the southern part of the city, has a regular whistling chicken. He says it whistles all night.

—The Greensboro papers speak in very flattering terms of the sermon delivered by Rev. Solomon Pool before the graduating class of Greensboro Female College. The Patriot says "it was brilliant and eloquent at times and held the vast congregation enthralled throughout its delivery." All we have to say is, if that is a true report the preacher has made a wonderful change in his delivery since 1867-68. We heard him repeatedly at Chapel Hill, and while it was admitted that he was pious and devout no one ever dreamed of dubbing him an orator.

—Durham Tobacco Plant: Mr. Moses E. McCown caught a club last week that weighed five pounds. It was a good one.—A mass meeting of the soldiers of Person county was held in Roxboro on the 17th instant. Committee men were appointed for each township and it is proposed to have a big barbecue on Friday the 21st of July next. Ample preparation will be made and a tremendous crowd will be in attendance.

—Wilmington Review: A heavy hail storm passed over Long Bay, S. C., on the 16th. The hail stones were very large and did much damage to crops. We are indebted to a subscriber for the above information.—A new dance for summer evenings at the springs has just been invented. The couples have nothing to do but to stand and hug while the band plays a solemn air. That beats the "racket," which gives no leisure for hugging or anything else.—A subscriber at New Supply, Brunswick county, writes that a heavy frost fell on the night of the 16th at that place. He says fruit was injured but very little, if any, on account of being protected by the full-grown leaves. The latest frost in this region for many years.

—Greensboro Journal: A special feature of the exercises Tuesday evening at the College will be recitation in concert of Jean Ingelow's "Hide Tide on the East of Lincolnshire," given by twenty-four young ladies. They will also recite "Rock of Ages." A number of choice selections from Aldrich, Mrs. Browning, Will Carleton and others will be rendered by pupils of the elocution class. The entertainment will also include some choice musical numbers. Wednesday evening the Calisthenic classes will show the year's work in different movements, exercises with rings, wands and dumb-bells. The popular "Broom Drill" will be given by the pupils of the advanced class en costume. The two classes number sixty, and will give an interesting entertainment.

—Raleigh News and Observer: Col. Robert Bingham is on a trip North.—Cotton receipts this season to date 59,005 bales.—Gov. Jarvis left yesterday for Newton, at which place he delivers an address Tuesday evening. Wednesday evening he speaks at Rutherford College.—Gen. W. P. Roberts has returned from a visit to Gates county. He reports the crop prospects as very poor on account of the cold and wet weather.

—At the conclusion of Senator Bayard's speech at Charlotte Governor Jarvis congratulated him on his grand effort, and Mrs. Jarvis, who was on the speaker's stand, presented the distinguished son of Delaware with a handsome bouquet.—The programme for the exercises of the National Cemetery Decoration Day has not yet been announced. It is certain, however, that Hon. Augustus S. Seymour will deliver the memorial address. Rev. E. R. Rich has accepted an invitation to act as chaplain, and Col. A. W. Shaffer will read a new memorial poem by Hon. A. W. Tourgee. Appropriate music has been provided, and all kindly disposed citizens will be cordially invited to attend.

—Wilmington Star: The Norwegian barque Atlantic, Capt. Knudsen, was cleared from this port for Hamburg, yesterday, by Messrs. E. G. Barker & Co., with 3,014 barrels of rosin and 200 casks spirits turpentine.—Rev. James Sprunt, of Kenansville, filled the pulpit of the First Presbyterian Church on Sunday last, the pastor, Rev. Dr. Wilson, being absent in attendance upon the session of the General Synod at Atlanta.

—The owner of a horse washed him in liquid turpentine yesterday, when the animal commenced cutting up all sorts of capers on the streets, to the evident amusement and gratification of the small boys. He came near breaking his neck several times in his grand and lofty tumblings.—The German barque August, which was injured some two months since by being struck by lightning while off our coast, and which put back to this port in distress, was sold to the highest bidder, yesterday, by Messrs. Cronly & Morris, auctioneers, for account of underwriters, and others concerned, and was purchased by Mr. James Sprunt for $3,400, who will put her in thorough repair.

CITY ITEMS.

This column, next to local news, is to be used for Local Advertising.

To the Patrons of the Nut Shell.
With infinite regret, I have to ask the indulgence of my patrons for two or three days. Owing to a delay in freights, a lot of paper ordered from Richmond did not reach here before my stock of paper gave out, and I am compelled to await the arrival of the paper ordered before I can get out another issue of the Nut Shell. However, I can promise my patrons that the delay will be short; and that in future I shall make arrangements to avoid all such mishaps by keeping a sufficient stock of paper on hand.

Respectfully,

Editor and Proprietor Daily Nut Shell.
