A "dog fall" is the new name Judge Bennett gives to "mistrial."

The city fathers are having the white wash brush applied to the trees.

Superior court adjourned yesterday. No case of importance on the civil docket was tried.

Mr. S. W. Latham, one of our County Commissioners, brought in on Monday the first ripe peach seen by us this season.

Low tide yesterday. The steamer Louisa in passing from the Clyde wharf through the new channel ran aground off Radcliff's mill.

The Republican Convention of Lenoir met in Kinston on Saturday and instructed delegates to vote for Hon. O. Hubbs for Congress.

Among the visiting lawyers at Court on Monday were Messrs Nathaniel Beckwith of Hyde, A. J. Loftin of Kinston and ex-Judge W. J. Clarke of Goldsboro.

The steamer Neuse leaves to-day for Kinston with a good load of general merchandise. We notice in the lead 10 tons of coal shipped by Mr. Elijah Ellis to Miller & Canady of Kinston, and also a 40 barrel lot of flour coming to New Berne by the Clyde line.

From Mr. H. H. G. Sawyer, of South Creek, we learn that 811 barrels of Irish potatoes were shipped from that place for the week ending June 1st. The truck interest in that section is growing rapidly, and it behooves New Berne to hurry up with her steamer to that country.

Mr. T. A. Green was buying in potatoes all day yesterday for a commission house in New York. He gets between four and five hundred barrels from Mr. Jos. Rhem, beside a number of other lots. We learn that they are worth $5 per barrel delivered at the Old Dominion wharf.

In the Kinston Free Press of June 1st appears an account of the death of Mr. Abraham Huggins in Pitt county, with request that the Messenger and JOURNAL please copy. We would be glad to comply, but as we published the first account of it in the JOURNAL of May 25th, we see no use in copying the same thing from another paper.

Yesterday was review day at Miss Harrison's school. Since our last visit the diagram system in teaching grammar and penmanship as taught by the Goldsboro graded school have been introduced, and the progress made by the pupils in so short a time in these studies is remarkable. We think too there is some improvement in the order kept by the teachers.

Mayor's Court.

Only one case before the court yesterday. Hardy Singleton was up for an assault on Carolina Davis. Fine three dollars and cost.

Boat Ordered.

The New Berne and Pamlico Transportation company ordered their boat on Monday by telegraph. It is to cost $15,000 and to be ready in 90 days—by September 1st.

Old Bible.

We were shown on Monday, by Mr. J. Havens, an old family Bible printed in 1780. It belonged to the Bonner family—was owned by Mr. James Bonner a worthy citizen of Beaufort county about the middle of the 18th century.

Washington Shipment.

To give an idea of business matters in Washington we have obtained the shipment of one firm, S. R. Fowle & Son from June 1, 1881, to June 1, 1882: Lumber, 2,500,000 feet; shingles 800,000; spirits of turpentine, 335 casks; rosin, 2,500 barrels; tar, 1,400 barrels; cotton, 250 bales; rice, 13,892 bushels.

River and Marine News.

The steamer Louisa of the Clyde line came in Saturday night from Baltimore with cargo of general merchandise.

The schooner Lucretia, Peol Master, from Middleton arrived yesterday with cargo of corn consigned to J. A. Meadows.

The schooner Theresa, Ball Master, from Germantown with cargo of corn consigned to Burrus & Co.

Commencement of Wilson Collegiate Institute.

John S. Long Esq., accompanied by his daughter, Miss Nellie B. Long, left the city this morning for Wilson where he will deliver the Literary Address before the Wilson Collegiate Institute. The address will be delivered on Wednesday night. On Thursday night the Concert, conferring of degrees and the Annual Report of the President of the College will complete the order of exercises.

Body Found.

The body of Fulton L. Powell, who was drowned in Neuse river near the railroad wharf last Saturday evening, was found by a colored fisherman late yesterday evening about a half mile from the place of drowning and brought to shore. He was a young man about 19 years old. His body was taken in charge by Rev. R. K. Hearne and will be sent up this morning to his father in Wayne county. The Coroner, Dr. Bates, examined witnesses who were present at the drowning testifying that it was accidental.

Cheek and Brain.

A young man in the city has a boil on his cheek covered by a black plaster. He met a young lawyer when the following conversation took place:

Lawyer—"What's the matter with your face?"

Friend—"Got a boil on it."

Lawyer—"Thought you were going to join the Republican party by turning black."

Friend—"No, I thought I would be a lawyer and would need more cheek."

Lawyer—"Yes, but lawyers require brains as well as cheek."

Moral—Let lawyers alone.

Must and Will get Married.

Stepping into the Register of Deed's office yesterday we saw a man in earnest conversation with the Register. Finally he left the office saying he would swear she was 18, and if that wouldn't do he would telegraph down there—Goose Creek, Pamlico county where the intended bride's mother lives, and get her age. Upon inquiry the Register informed us that the man had sent a friend in to get his license, and when asked her age, replied, seventeen. The Register with this information before him could go no further, and then it was the man came in and had the conversation above alluded to.

Commissioner's Court.

The County Commissioners were in session yesterday.

The committee appointed to examine the feeding of the prisoners in the county jail submitted a report stating that they were properly fed and cared for.

The County Superintendent of public schools submitted an elaborate report on the condition of the schools, amount of work etc.

An order was passed making the cartway beginning at the foot of David Morton's mill road and running on the dam of said mill to B. F. Borden's landing at the mouth of Hancock's creek a public road. The clerk was instructed to serve necessary notice on the Supervisors of township No. 5.

Board adjourned till to-day.

The Cox Cotton Planter.

We learn that one of our Kinston friends Mr. N. Stanly has bought out the entire proprietorship for the United States in the Cox Cotton Planter and will leave for Georgia in a few days to establish agencies and provide for the manufacture.

This planter has been in use in this section for several years, and so far as we have heard, has given entire satisfaction. Around Kinston it is admitted to be the best ever put on the market. Mr. W. L. Kennedy, one of the largest and best farmers in the county says that he has tried nearly every planter introduced, and that the Cox planter beats any that he has ever seen.

One very strong evidence of its superiority is in the fact that so conservative a man as Mr. Stanly, who is himself a practical farmer as well as a sound business man, should close out a paying mercantile business in Kinston and devote his entire time and capital in manufacturing and selling this planter.

Our Churches on Sunday.

BAPTIST CHURCH.

Evening Services—Song 136th hymn. Reading a portion of the Scriptures. Prayer. Song, 149th hymn.

Sermon by the pastor Rev. F. W. Eason. Text: There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God. Heb. IV—9th verse.

The speakers theme was "The home of the righteous." He depicted, in beautiful language, the home of those who follow the Lord Jesus Christ. He told of the blessings and comforts to be enjoyed by them, and painted out what was necessary to gain admission into the shining courts above.

ST. CYPRIANS (COL.) P. E. CHURCH.

Rev. Mr. Cassey, Rector. Evening services. Psalter for the 4th evening of the month being the 22d and 23d Psalms. 1st lesson: 2d chapter of Genesis. 2d lesson: 5th chapter St. John's Gospel. Hymns 340 and 512 were sung.

A short lecture on the teachings of the day, Trinity Sunday, was delivered by the Minister.

One of the offices of the Holy Spirit was to convince the world of sin; and it is the Spirit that convinces of sin and the need of pardon from the Father through the merits of the Son, the Redeemer of the world. When thus convinced the sinner will feel, as we love to sing, "Nearer my God to thee."

CHRIST CHURCH, P. E.

Morning Prayer and Sermon by the Rector, Rev. V. W. Shields.

Trinity Sunday—1st lesson: Genesis, 1st chapter. 2d lesson: 3d chapter St. Matthew. For the Epistle 4th chapter of Revelations.

The Gospel for the day, 3d chapter of St. John.

Psalter for the 4th morning of the month being the 19th, 20th and 21st Psalms. Hymns 138 and 435 were sung.

Text: 16th verse of 17th chapter of Gospel by St. John.—"They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world."

The sermon was clear, distinctively instructive and appropriate to the day, the last great Festival of the Church calendar—after which there was a celebration of the Holy Communion.

METHODIST CHURCH.

Morning Service.—Hymn: "A charge to keep I have." Prayer. Hymn: 610th. Sermon by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Burkhead. Text: A part of the 24th chapter of the Book of Joshua, beginning at 14th verse.

The subject was Serving the Lord. The speaker from the Scripture read and deduced arguments to show that we are moral agents and have the power of choosing whom we shall serve, and that God has higher claims upon us than any other being in the Universe.

He spoke clearly, forcibly and earnestly, showing the necessity of serving God with the whole heart. He was fresh from the General Conference, where he had mingled with the master minds of the Church, and doubtless felt inspired to do the work of the Lord with renewed vigor.

At the conclusion of the sermon a collection was taken for the poor, after which the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered to a large number.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Sabbath 11 a. m. Rev. L. C. Vass, the pastor preached from Hosea 14:5. "I will be as the dew into Israel."

He explained that during the long, dry season in Palestine, from April to October, no rain fell; but especially at the beginning and the close of this season the dews were remarkably copious, so as to drench tents and the clothing of persons exposed. These dews were invaluable to vegetation. God used this fact to illustrate some characteristics of His grace.

1. The influence of Divine Grace are peculiarly gentle. God's ministrations are likened to those of a living father, and a comforting master. Psalms 100, 8 verse; Is. 66:13. Patience, sympathy, love, distill rest and peace.

2. Refreshing and invigorating influences. God's grace brings pardon, sanctification, faith, joy, strength for duty and suffering.

3. As dews fall under shadows of night, and Divine Grace comes in seasons of dark trials; as to smitten sinners; to Paul, Joseph, Daniel, martyrs, and trusting children.

4. These Divine dews of blessing come from Divine power and love, and by Divine plan. So Christians can trust a covenant keeping God.

5. Dews clothe all vegetation, even blades of grass, with germs, and each holds a full image of the sun in its bosom. So God clothes His humblest child with beauty of holiness, and fills Him with the likeness of His Son; makes him shine with rays of the Sun of Righteousness.

6. When clouds sweep over the sky no dews fall to refresh. So sin shuts off Divine blessings of Gospel from men. These thoughts were illustrated and enforced earnestly and tenderly.

Kinston Items.

The tobacco factory, under the management of Mr. C. F. Harvey, is again in operation.

Fred. Loops is having the "Baer store" moved from its old place around to help the building up of "Slabtown."

Dr. W. H. Barker is making a decided hit in Kinston. He has lectured here often but he is always original and entertaining.

Mr. James Leary, who left Jones county about two years ago, returned from Florida last week, bringing some nice ripe peaches.

Mr. J. F. Hill left on Monday to attend Commencement at Thomasville Female College, where Misses Zell Pollock and Beria Hardee are being educated.

Miss Laura Bryan of this place and Miss Lizzie Biddle of Craven left on Monday for Wake Forest Commencement. And, by the way, our countyman, Mr. C. S. Wooten delivers the literary address before the Societies of that Institution.

It is sometimes bad to be a Doctor's wife. We noticed at church, on Sunday, Mrs. Dr. Tull, nee Wooten, a bride of three days—and the groom away seeing a patient. Every trouble has also its blessing, and it is pleasant to know that the Doctor has such extensive practice.

Appropos to the matter of advertising—I heard a man enquiring the name of some fish dealer in New Berne on yesterday, and on looking over the columns of the JOURNAL no such name could be found. Would it not pay such men to keep a small card in the paper to cover such demands? I notice several of our young men have bought, this spring, fine suits of clothes from D. W. Hurtt in your city. I see his "ad" in the JOURNAL and naturally associate the two facts together. [We are glad our correspondent speaks of this matter. We are glad to get advertising, and equally pleased to know our patrons are getting pay for their money—Ed. JOURNAL.]

The Kinston Collegiate Commencement is all the go this week. Young ladies are pouring in, and of course the boys are bound to follow. Miss Fannie Wooten has just returned from Greene; Miss Eva Bell is in from Tarboro; Miss Bella Rosenthal from Raleigh; Miss Katie Lewis, a daughter of the Principal, just back from Richmond; Miss Nora King from Wilson; Miss Emily Howell from Raleigh; Misses Ida Edwards and Mollie Edwards from Hookerton; Miss Annie Pope from Weldon; Miss Addie Johnson from Pitt, and perhaps others whom your reporter has failed to see. Of the young gentlemen we note Messrs. Pollock and Hill, two promising law students from Chapel Hill, and Brother Henry Strong, of Wilson, as samples of that side of the house.

Stonewall Items.

Crops generally in good condition as to cultivation.

The oat and wheat prospect for our county is excellent.

There has been too much rain to satisfy those who are depending upon a stock crop, as they have not been able to get a burn yet.

Mr. Charles Swan lost his youngest child, an interesting little girl, yesterday morning. She has been quite sick for three weeks or more.

MR. EDITOR:—The cool weather has materially injured all crops and especially cotton. Where the stand was excellent at the first chopping, at this time is very broken.

Noah Wallace and Nancy A. Sanders col. were married in this place last evening at half past 9 o'clock, J. S. Lane J. P. officiating. A runaway match. The daddy kicked up a row this morning.

On yesterday week ago, two gentlemen croquet players in Bayboro had a round or two which cost them a dollar or so. It is quite a mania in that village with the males, but as yet I have not seen a single lady in the game.

A colored boy named Jno. Whitfield, about 10 or 12 years old, son of Cicero Whitfield dec'd., accidentally shot himself, the lead passing through his left hand and right shoulder while merrily birding out of Mr. J. F. Sawyer's field several days ago. He has been under the treatment of Dr. Kennedy and A. H. Moore, and is recovering very rapidly.

The Democratic township meetings to appoint delegates to the county convention is ordered by the chairman of the executive committee to meet on the 10th inst and the county convention to appoint delegates to the congressional and judicial convention meets in Bayboro the 17th inst. There seems to be some disposition with a few to try and disorganize the Democratic party of Pamlico but I hope and believe their efforts will be fruitless.

Onslow County Items.

Fine weather and fine crops.

I saw a strawberry at E. W. Fonville's which measured 54 inches in circumference. He has a large bed of them.

Mrs. Julia Everett, aged 96 years, died on the 25th ult. She was the widow of Mr. Fred. Everett, who served in the war of 1812. Up to her death she was quite well and health.

Mr. Micajah Farnell, on Wallace's creek, near Piney Green, lost his dwelling house, kitchen and smoke house on Thursday last by fire; lost 300 pounds of bacon, all he had, and everything in the house named except two beds and one box of trinkets, including all his clothes. The origin of the fire was carelessness of some negro boys. Mr. Farnell was in the field and did not know of the fire till too late to save any thing. His loss is very heavy. No insurance at all. People should insure their property.

A splendid picnic on Brown's Banks near Swansboro on the 27th of May under the management of Charlie Russell and David Hancock—about 250 present and a glorious time. We had a regular fish fry: Pig fish, hog fish, mutton heads, sheep heads, trout, drum, mackerel, spot, pinfish, mullets, white perch, croakers, and clams, don't you talk. Well, we just had a huge old time; we caught the fish as we went to the banks, had fish boats for the occasion. Capt. Eden Yeomer was the chief boss of the fishing crew. We only caught about 1300 fish and when all had finished eating not many were left.

Pollockville Items.

Bill Loftin col. has the best cotton and corn I have seen this season. The crops generally are small and the farmers have very poor stands.

B. B. Windley of Trenton has made a great improvement on Bell's store by using his paint brush.

New Berne must have a dog factory, as I see a few voyages since, that an old colored farmer near here had consigned to him from New Berne, 8 bales of hay, 1 jug molasses, and a dog, which gave the fellow considerable trouble to get home. Says he won't take any more dog in his'n.

Dr. Street keeps busy now as there are a good many cases of chill and fevers, also dysentery in our neighborhood.

Mr. Haywood White has commenced building a gin house on Main street which he expects to have in operation by the fall. I understand he has ordered through J. C. Whitty, the agent at this place, an Onida engine. Pollockville is coming out of the kinks. You would hardly know it Mr. Editor; it has increased its population in the last six months more than double, and its buildings in 12 months thrivable. We would advise anyone who wishes to make money, to come to Pollockville; now is the time.

Kinston College.

A quorum being present the meeting was called to order by the Vice President.

Minutes of last meeting read and approved.

The finance committee reported as follows: To the stockholders and members of Kinston College Stock company:

2. That the sub committee appointed by the chairman to locate the building recommended to put the house 20 feet from Mr. J. F. Wooten's line and 50 feet from the street.

3. That we have endorsed the above report.

W. C. MOORE, Chairman.

B. L. TAYLOR, Sec'y of Fi. Com.
