A light shower yesterday evening.

The schooner Virginia Dare is on Howard's ship railway for repairs.

Irish potatoes were being hauled to the railroad depot yesterday from the Mr. John D. Costin and son of Onslow county brought in a nice drove of lambs yesterday evening. Four car loads of lumber, ready framed, passed down the road last night for Morehead City.

Fifteen hundred pounds of wool was sold at the Exchange vesterday. Mr. Mr. Ellis. W. H. Oliver was the purchaser, paying about twenty-two cents per pound. We learn from Messrs. Clinton and George Simmons of Jones county, who were in the city yesterday, that fire is raging in the pocosin near Mr. E. F. Sanderson's.

A Mr. Hines, writing to the Farmer and Mechanic from Sampson county says: "Sampson endorses Judge McKoy and Capt. Swift Galloway for renomination. The disposition is to concede the Congressman at large to the 2d Dist., and Col. C. C. Clark is deemed worthy and well qualified."

Capt. Johanson of the barque Guldbringa called to see us yesterday mornthan the deep water.

Concert To-Night.

The entertainment to-night at the Theatre will be a great treat to all lovers of music. The best musical talent in New Berne-and it is well known that music is cultivated to a very high degree in this city-will assist in making the concert a grand success. And in ting fun for those who enjoy that best.

Personal.

Mr. Geo. Allen returned from New York on Wednesday night.

Mr. J. C. Whitty of Polloksville, came in on the fast mail yesterday evening, making the trip in six hours.

Misses Ella Herring, Leary Jackson, Ella Walsh and Eva Bell arrived with the excursionists on yesterday and are stopping in the city.

Mr. Willie Rhodes of Polloksville Academy was in the city yesterday. He had a prosperous school last session and will probably continue teaching.

Mr. E. R. Stanly left yesterday morning for his home in Rahway, New Jersey. Though a large stockholder in the A. & N. C. R. R. he will not be at the meeting to be held the 29th of June.
