Ten Thousand a Year.

Mr. EDITOR:—In your editorial on aturday morning, on Graded Schools, ou state that it can be proved that such school will benefit New Berne, directly, $10,000 a year. That sounds like a pretty broad statement, and if you can nake such a showing we would be glad

The proof can be given and the estimate is not at all too great. A 29th, 1832, as follows for sale : first-class Graded School here would though good, are not equal to the Goldsboro and Wilson and Fayetteville Graded Schools. To board, with copper. clothe and pay tuition for these one $200 per year - $20,000, all of which would be spent in New Berne, and ten to twenty families would, every year, move into New Berne from files, when published in Kinston, will show that at least ten families moved into that town every year bring capital to invest or offer mus. will give part of her history : and brain to the labor market, For some days our citizens were kept in expectation of the arrival of the that $10,000 a year will be the profit accruing directly to New Berne from this Graded School. It might not come the first year, for schools have been a failure here so long that some time will be necessary to get the people in the adjoining counties to believe that it is a succounties to believe that it is a success.
