Judge McEae, vice Bennett resigned, is in harness this week, at Wake Superior Court.

The Neuse sailed (or steamed) for Kinston yesterday at 12 m. with a general assortment of merchandise.

Choice bits of beef in Raleigh sell at 20 cents per pound. Come to New Berne for a good and cheap market.

Judge Bennett will open the census by addressing the Metropolitan Bennett-Cox club in Raleigh on the 17th.

Col. Folk accepts the nomination for Supreme Court, and says he has "repented himself" of his county government heresy.

The Enterprise, to arrive today, is an unusually large freight boat. The freight list runs up to over $400, which is a capital showing in the dull season.

Mr. R. J. Brock brought us in a nice basket of peaches on Tuesday. He has been selling them at 50 cents per peck, and says there is money in them this year at that price. His trees are loaded down.

Pleased to meet yesterday our friend of the Wilson Sittings, D. S. Carraway. Dan knows how to get up a very readable paper, even if the JOURNAL does doubt his knowledge of getting up cotton statistics.

Among our hotel "ads" that of Walter Dunn of Beaufort deserves special mention. His house is beautifully located on the front street in Beaufort and his advertisement speaks for itself as to his moderate charges.

The excursion on the Shenandoah on Friday will be apt to draw a better crowd than the one of the 4th. A band of music will be along to make it pleasant, and their own Methodist friends know how to get up a good crowd on such occasions.

Dockery has applied for a joint canvass with Bennett. Certainly he should have it. If the Judge will get him up in the morning, he did the lawyers on this circuit, there will be a chance for a little talking between now and November.

The regular mail train on the Midland road ran through to Smithfield on yesterday, carrying up a select party from New Berne. Col. J. W. Andrews was the recipient of a handsome gold watch from the employees of the road. An account of the trip and watch presentation will appear in tomorrow's issue.

The steamer Cutter, carried a lot of watermelons from New Berne up the river yesterday, and the Trent brought watermelons to New Berne down the same river. But the Trent fruit might be classed under the head of water-melons, for they were just about the right culture to generate two chills to the melon.

Mr. Simpson, the contractor and architect of the elegant residence of Mr. John Ellis, wanted to know of us yesterday evening where Mr. Geo. W. Charlotte was to be found to whom the JOURNAL of Tuesday had given the credit of the building. We referred him to the local editor who had conveniently gone to Kinston.

The Shenandoah brought in several passengers yesterday morning. Among them were Miss Mary Roberts, just returned from visiting relatives in New York; Mr. Sam Britt, of New York, formerly a resident of New Berne; and Mr. J. A. Holmes, of Norfolk, the handsome representative of the B. P. Safe & Co. Beer industry.

Mr. T. S. Gillett of Jones was in the city on Tuesday. Contrary to the general reports about cotton he gives a very flattering account of it in the White Oak section. He says it is, on an average, fully up to 1 foot better than the usual crop. One of his neighbors, the firm of Byrnes and Jenkins, has one of the finest crops that he has ever seen. Cotton will stand about three feet high and meeting across the rows.

We called on Mr. F. C. Roberts, the Secretary and Treasurer of the Atlantic road yesterday to learn if the $20,000 lease money due July 1st, from the Midland, had been paid in. "No, I have heard nothing from it. Maybe the Midland intends to treat him as they always have treated him in furnishing a lot of stockholders' wait until the money. Or maybe they are waiting for Governor Jarvis' September meeting."

Ho for the Sea Shore.
The following passengers were on the down train last night for Morehead City: Mrs. Col. T. M. Holt and two daughters, 21 Alamance; Mr. Busbey and family and Mrs. Leo. Heart of Raleigh; Mrs. H. P. Dortch and children and Reids, F. H. Ivy and W. M. Robey and families of Goldsboro.

Non Voyage.
The Shenandoah carried out a number of New Bernians yesterday on business and pleasure; Mrs. M. E. Manly and Miss Mary Manly left for a visit to relatives in Baltimore; Miss Nellie Long for a summer's visit to friends in New York and Boston; Miss Jeanie Ellis on a visit to New York; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ives to New York; Mr. R. O. E. Lodge and mother on a trip to Baltimore; Mr. L. M. Tompouger to Norfolk, and Prof. M. E. Hester on a trip to Elizabeth City. A pleasant voyage and a speedy return is the JOURNAL's good bye.

Mayor's Court.
The "Father of his country" was again before the Mayor yesterday charged with indulging in loud and bawdy language, tending to a breach of the peace. It appeared from the evidence that "George Washington" an old offender and a former victim of the Mayor's Court, had on the day before, on witnessing some person driving along the street, hollered so as to endeavor to attract the Mayor's attention, who was some considerable distance away: "There goes a man driving fast; you arrested him for fast driving, why don't you arrest him." The Mayor, considering that George's remarks were intended to cast an imputation on the Court, as well as to provoke a breach of the peace, gave him three quarters at the city's expense until the succeeding day; and upon a hearing of the evidence inflicted a fine of $5.00 and costs, and with the admonition that a similar offense would call for more summary punishment.

New Bernian Abroad.
In the Ulster Herald of New York, June 29th, we read a long account of the Commencement exercises of Hamilton College. From it we copy the following extract concerning an honored adopted citizen of New Berne, Judge Seymour:

An intelligent and cultured audience assembled at the church in the evening to listen to the address before the alumni, delivered by Hon. Augustus S. Seymour, of North Carolina, class of '57, now, Dr. D. W. Dwight, class of '55, presided; and Rev. Dr. H. A. Nelson, class of '40, made the opening prayer. The theme of the speaker was "Thomas Carlyle," a delightful sketch of that writer's life, character and writings. Judge Seymour has spent so much time in the pleasant fields of literature, that he knows their every nook and corner, and when he once gets started on a literary essay or address, there is no limit to the good things to which he gives expression. His address last evening was brimming with anecdote and illustration, and possessed that nameless charm which comes from a good appreciation of humor, a pleasing style, a happy choice in the selection of facts, and keen critical insight into his author's methods and tone of thought. He was listened to with deep attention and interest. We sincerely regret that we are unable to present our readers with the address entire.

Kinston Items.

Hides, dry, 8c. to 10c. per lb.
Hides, green, 4c. per lb.
Chickens, 20c. to 30c. per pair.
Eggs, 12c. per dozen.
William Herring, senr., in his 72d year, died at his residence in this county on the 8th instant.

Humphrey's pole—a long and heavy one—will, at the Congressional Convention at Wilson, July 19th, take in the persimmons.

J. B. Rouse at Kinston, "the bulldog of the tin yard" in the prohibitory movement last year, says the movement shall never die until he "shuffles off this mortal coil."

There are more aspirants in the Democratic than in the Republican party for the Republican nomination for the House branch of the Legislature from this county. We now feel like saying "And Sat an came also."

To the people of Lenoir county it seems like the Democrats, having parcelled out all the offices they have to give away, are now longing for the "flesh pots" the Republicans are showing from the "high mountain."

It certainly looks like the Neas and Observer of the 8th instant has Col. C. C. Clark at a disadvantage. A possessor with this "fall in a split stick," wonders at the inscrutable ingenuity of man, and so also may a "Yarborough Kurnd."

A good and pious old Democrat of this county, who believes it, will rain

when he prays for it, now repeats loudly, on his benedict knees: "Good Lord, remove these damned Republicans and 'purchasable Democrats' from the top of the high mountain, or the devil will pay with our Democracy."

The case of Cesar Ection against Dosey Parks, removed from Judge Weatherington to Judge Biddle, was heard last Saturday, at Dover Station, before Judge Biddle and Judge Russell. They were engaged all day, twenty-three witnesses being examined. It seems "agreed to disagree." It will be heard again next Saturday, at Biddle's, before the same judges and a jury, if the court will pay for the jury.

The new inferior Court give promise of being independent of lawyers. On Monday when the case against the boy that broke into Barnes & Jackson's store was called the attorney for the defence, Mr. Moore, stated that the Solicitor had consented to let judgment be suspended on payment of costs, and "Hold on says the Court, we'll hear the evidence first," and after hearing the evidence exclaimed, "Two years at hard labor in the penitentiary."

Jas. H. Fox, Esq., representative of Onslow county in our State legislature, was here on Monday of our inferior Court. He has decided opinions and expresses them freely about the management of the finances of his county by the Democratic Board of County Commissioners, and the county officers—that he expects to take a part in the election of county officers at the next election. Besides, he has decided opinions as to living alone in this world—says he has been a lonely widower many months, is tired of, and cannot accept the situation—has two plantations, both rented out—is now free and on "dress parade," and will visit Beaufort and other pleasure resorts on the look out for "body, beauty," and marriageable widows.

Our inferior Court commenced here 24 Monday, July 10th, Justices J. C. Wooten, senr., Wm. C. Fields and Jas. M. Newborn, presiding—a full court. A large number of jurors were excused for the term for cause shown, when the swearing of the Grand Jury commenced. The county attorney, A. J. Loftin, Esq., suggested J. G. Kennedy for foreman, who in the act of being qualified, was set aside by the intervention of the court, and another juror, George Turner, was named and sworn as foreman. Daniel E. Perry, the junior member of the bar, then proceeded plainly, pointedly and loudly to charge the Grand Jury on the criminal law of the land, both common and statutory.

Besides our resident lawyers, we see here in attendance on the court only that shrewd, hard-working and learned attorney of the New Berne Bar, L. J. Moore, Esq., who, in the management of his cases, shows all of the spirit, power and ingenuity of the late Louis B. Henry.

The following cases were called:
State vs. Chas. H. Brown, continued by the State for absent State witness.
State vs. Hannah Williams, called and failed. Judgment nisi.
State vs. Chas. H. Brown, obstructing public road, continued by the State.
State vs. John Kinsey, larceny, called and failed. Alibi argued.
State vs. Daniel Moore, larceny. Not pro with leave.
State vs. Hannah Williams, larceny: called and failed. Judgment nisi.
State vs. Dabney Croom, larceny: mistrial. Continued.
State vs. John Herring, called and failed. Alibi argued.
State vs. Isaac C. Wooten, larceny: called and failed. Judgment nisi.
State vs. Nathan Standy, removing crop, called and failed. Sci. fa. and causis.
State vs. James H. Standy, larceny. Continued by defendant.
State vs. Alfred Paison, concealed weapons. Not pro.
State vs. T. C. Wooten and Ben Wooten, A. and B; defendants submit. $1.00 and costs.
State vs. T. C. Wooten and Pen Wooten, A. and B; defendants submit. $1.00 and costs.
State vs. Jos. Allen, affray; continued. Alibi argued.
State vs. Amos Croom, larceny—guilty. Judgment suspended on payment of costs.
State vs. Thomas Bryan, larceny; continued. Alibi argued.
State vs. Thomas Jones, larceny—guilty. Two years in penitentiary.

STATE NEWS.

Glained from our Exchanges.

Hillsboro Observer: Haywood Malone, a well-to-do farmer of Cedar Grove Township, committed suicide by hanging himself to a tree last Wednesday. He climbed the tree, tied one end of a rope around his neck and the other above a limb, and then jumped some ten feet, breaking his neck. He had been suffering from mental aberration for the past twelve months, and his friends feared something of the kind.

Greensboro Daily Eagle: The largest steam engine and boilers ever brought to this place, are now at the depot en route to Columbia Factory in Randolph county. The weight of the engine and two boilers is 55,000 pounds. We knew Greensboro shipped beeswax to England, spokes and handles to Germany, fruit everywhere; but we were set up to-day by the statement of Capt. R. E. Potts, that he would this evening ship some corn meal to Hartford, Conn.

Raleigh Visitor: Everything in the provision line unprecedentedly high.—The Richmond and Danville Railroad company will soon have an additional number of freight cars and engines built. This is in consequence of its enormous increase of business, and especially in view of the fact that they are bringing a large supply of coal over their roads from Tennessee.

A Brave Girl Drowned
CHICAGO, July 7.—Yesterday a number of girls were bathing at Kewaskum, Wis., and one of them got out too far. Mary, the daughter of Dr. R. A. Freeman of this city, bravely went to her rescue and succeeded in saving her, but was herself drowned.

Big Fourth of July boat race in Swansboro on Tuesday. I was not there but heard Mr. Burns Smith was the victor. A prize of $10 was sailed for. About a dozen boats and canoes entered for the prize. Distance to the Banks, three miles, and back to starting point, six miles the whole.

Mr. Wm. Riggs, Bear Creek, was attacked while fishing a few days since, by a large shark and came very near being killed, but finally succeeded, with the help of Mr. Hancock a gentleman near him, in killing the monster, and taking the gentleman in out of the net. He measured 8 1/2 feet in length—regular marlin's teeth.

Captain John Hill, mouth of New river, killed two large porpoises with a pick, an instrument used to sharpen a grist mill rock with. The "varmint" got to fighting near the shore and got aground; when the Captain went for him with the pick he had, and got two of 'em from which he realized about fifteen gallons of good oil.

Capt. A. L. Willis has a fine schooner 2 1/2 mts. of the sharpie build, 45 feet long and 15 tons burden, which is a little ahead of anything of the kind I have ever seen, is used for freighting on New river, built by himself. He says he is going to build a steamer on the plan, right away, which will be a God send to the people on New River and expects to have her done by the last of the fall.

Only fourteen candidates for Register of Deeds here; Mr. D. E. Humphrey, the present incumbent, seems to have the inside track; Dan is a good boy, and guess he makes a good Register, but if he don't look sharp and cut his papers right your humble servant will show him, and the rest of 'em, how to snuff the candle at the last quarter of the race. Guess Register pays very well; ply it only takes one man for Register in this county; wish it took a dozen or two.

Jones County Items.

The crops in Jones are very promising now; hope the season will continue favorable.

Miss Page, from Virginia, is on a visit to her brother, Capt. E. R. Page near Trenton.

Capt. E. B. Roberts and family and Miss Georgia Street are in Trenton visiting Mr. Green.

The Knights of Honor have a very flourishing lodge in Trenton with about 18 or 20 members. The lodge meets the 2d and 4th Saturdays in each month.

A grand mass meeting of the "Anti-Bourbons and Liberals" will be held in Trenton Saturday, July 15th. Several distinguished speakers are expected to be present.

One of the "big men" of Jones some time ago sold $50,000 worth of trees. The only work he is to do is to count the stumps after they are cut. This is something like the sale of timber in Western North Carolina.

There are one or two very active Liberals in this community, and the general impression is that they are seeking an office; but I don't think it is so, for I heard one say that he would not accept an office unless he said he wanted it, and he also stated that he never asked any one for an office and never expected to, and if this be so, he certainly cannot be after an office and is working simply for the good of his country I suppose.
