The Board of County Commissioners have been in session this week hearing complaints from property holders on the valuation of their property.

In the Mayor's Court yesterday Enos Banks, the colored boy who dislocated the arm of a sou of Col. Jordan last week, was put on trial. The decision of the Court was reserved to this morning.

The Republicans in Beaufort county are not going to pull in harness with the Your Name in Print. Liberals. They refuse to endorse their ticket and have called a straightout Republican Convention to nominate candidates.

The County Superintendent of Public Instruction of Beaufort county, holds a Teachers' Institute in Washington, commencing next Monday, with Jos. Kinsey of Kinston as Principal. These Institutes accomplish more good than all other efforts combined of the Superintendent. We think the new school law will prove a failure without them.

The Experiment, of the Clyde Line. the freight we noticed a large assortment of general merchandise for Samuel Hudson at Polloksville, two engines for J. W. Grainger of Kinston, a huge boiler weighing 24800 lbs. for the new steamer Kinston, a 17000 pound brick machine for J. F. Ives and about 500 bunches of cotton ties for T. A. Green.

The heavy tax in Craven is on account of the old debt-the railroad off there is no use in talking about low taxes. Besides we confess to being an unbeliever in the expediency of low taxes. People make great complaint about paying from twenty to thirty dollars a year to the sheriff, when they pay twice that amount to the tobacco merchant or to the beer dealer or for candies and soda water. The main thing J. P. to guard against in the matter of taxes is to see that they are expended judiciously.

Killed While Stealing a Ride.

The body of a colored man, apparently about 50 years of age, was discovered yesterday morning lying on top of one of the cars of the mail train on the W. C. & A. R. R. which arrived here at 6:20 a. m. When found the man was quite dead. The discovery of the body was not made until the cars were being shifted after the arrival of the train. An examination revealed the fact that death was caused by a severe blow on the head and the reasonable supposition is that the man was stealing a ride and was struck on the head and killed by some bridge, probably the Pee Dee, through which the train passed during the night. No one seemed to have been able to identify the unfortunate man By some it was said that his name was Horace, (inst name unknown) and that he had been recently employed in the mill at Chadbourn, on the W., C. & A.
