STATE NEWS.

Gleaned from our Exchanges.

Tarboro! Guide: There were July trials at the late Iuorior court. The verdicts were uilty in every instance except one, which case Cossey Battle manged by his blarneying tongue and excusive manner to pull his uilty client through the meshes of

Elizabeth City Economist: We had the pleasure of a call on Friday from J. S. Palmer, Agt. of C. Erdann's choice cigar manufactory of New Berne, N. C., whose ad. is found in another place. We commend the cigar establishment of Mr. Erdmann to the patronage of our dealers. He is one of us and night. to us, and convenient to us. Try lower part of Durham county and the upper part of Wake concluded to try their fortunes in the mountains of Western Carolina. Some of them purchased lands before moving their families while others went on trial. Among the latter went on trial. Among the latter number was Mr. Lynn Chandler, He was not very well pleased and the consequence is he has sold his crop and returned to Durham coun-

Winston Union Republican: We are indebted to our friend Mr. Richard Berry, of New Berne, N. C., for a copy of a "Jubilate Deo," composed by him for Easter festival and dedicated to Dudley Buck, Esq. Our musical friends who have examined it pronounce it a bright and joyous composition, well suited to the words and the occasion for which it was written. Mr. Berry is a fine musician and he is thoroughly acquainted with the manufacture and repairing of reed organs.

Carteret Co., Telephone: A flock of "Bogue sound lawyers" passed over our town the other day, the first we have seen in some time. They were going west.—Another branch of business has been opened of Baltimore, Md. in Beaufort by Capt. T. Thomas. His schooner the Thomas brought this week a full cargo of coal from Philadelphia which he is unloading in town, and he expects to open a coal yard for the sale of this useful AID ASSOCIATION of New article. We think quite a large trade can be built up and our citizens can have a choice of fuel.— Mr. Phil Pelletier, a young representative of Carteret county, in the law office of Simmons & Manly, at Circulars Mailed on Appli-New Berne, has been spending a days in Beaufort. Phil. expects to get his license to practice law and "hang out his shingle" ere long; may his expectations be realized.—We were shown by Dr. Bagby the other day a plan of the hotel he proposes to build on his front water premises, should he receive sufficient encouragement to that end.
