Mr. W. H. Oliver sold on yesterday 50,000 yards of cotton bagging.

The contest between Stinson and Hahn waxed warm and was very musical at Five Points Monday night.

Every steamer brings in large quantities of bagging and ties for our merchants. Begins to look like business.

We have a prospectus of the Bible Student's Eclectic Monthly to be edited by Dr. John T. Walsh. It will be devoted to an exposition of the Scriptures and will be published at $1.00 per volume.

Our townsman, Mr. Alpheus Wood while at Morehead last Monday, went down Bogue sound and killed a shark six and a half feet in length. He was on exhibition at Morehead City on Monday night.

The passengers on the Shenandoah outward trip—yesterday were Messrs. J. J. Tolson, Alek Miller, J. H. Hackburn, F. Ulrich, Robert Freeman, J. W. Moore and wife and M. Prag for New York; W. F. Rountree and family, Miss Florence Rountree and Miss Carrie Mayhew for Boston and Canada; Gen. R. Ransom for Norfolk, and Miss Annie Boyd for Baltimore.

Preparing for Business.

Maj. A. R. Dennison is setting things in order for fall work at his mills near the railroad. Two new grins will be put in, five new oil presses, a 70 horse engine, and the old depot building is to be put up on the old Bell wharf for storage etc. The improvements to be added will cost about $9,000.

Kinston College.

The dedication and corner stone ceremonies of this Institution will take place on Tuesday, August 29th. Hon. K. P. Battle, President of University, will deliver the address. Gov. Jarvis will lay the corner stone. All lovers of advanced learning are invited to be present. The building will be ready for use on September 4th.

Lecture.

The third of the series of lectures for the Normal students, will be delivered by Rev. L. C. Vass, Chairman of the Local Board of Directors, this evening at 8 o'clock in Rue's chapel. Subject: "Incentives to the study of the English Language, especially as exhibited in the Treasures of History in single Words." All are cordially invited to attend. Admission free.

Geo. H. White, Principal.

River and Marine.

Steamer Trent, from up Neuse with freight and passengers to T. R. T. Co.

Steamer Contentna, from Vanceboro with shingles to C. T. Cherry.

Steamer L. H. Cutler, from Vanceboro with naval stores and shingles to Wm. Cleve.

The schooner Mumantico, Capt. Cullen, hailing from Philadelphia, arrived from New York yesterday evening with a cargo of lime and brick consigned to R. O. E. Lodge.

Ready for the Fray.

Johnston H. Bryan, Esq., was in the city on Tuesday, for the second time since the JOURNAL came to New Berne. He wants the Democrats to hold their county convention and get to work. Says Sheriff Hahn, Bob Hancock and George Green, Jr., were out in his neighborhood the other night and eat up a fine possum supper that had been prepared for him, and he wants them attended to promptly and without mercy.

Passengers on Shenandoah.

The Shenandoah arrived yesterday morning with the following passengers: Gov. T. J. Jarvis and wife, Dr. W. R. Chapchut and wife, John Wood and wife, Judge H. A. Gilliam, Frank Wood, Ed. Wood, master T. S. Southgate, Julian Wood, Mr. Skinner, John Read, W. B. Coleburn and son, Misses Sophia Martin, Annie Wood, Nannie Cook, Mattie Saunders, Myra M. Southgate, Woodard and Mrs. T. M. Southgate. They left on a special train for Morehead soon after their arrival.

Freight for Kinston.

The steamer Neuse sailed at noon yesterday from Old Dominion wharf for Kinston with full load of goods from Old Dominion steamer Shenandoah for the following parties:

J. C. Hay, L. H. Fisher, Oettinger Bros., Thos. McGee, J. M. Mewborn, L. Grady, S. H. Abbott, J. A. Pridgen, Nunn & LaRogue, W. F. Stanley, J. H. Kinsey, L. J. Moore, J. Slaughter & Bro., R. C. Hay, W. Lowry, G. Gray, Miller & Canady, R. Rayner, T. D. Lindsey, R. E. Daly, Meacham & Edwards, G. B. McCotter, J. D. Taylor, Herring & Tanager, H. Archibell, S. H. Loftin.

Magistrate's Court.

Solomon Alexander, et al., brought an action before W. G. Brinson Esq., on yesterday against Mr. J. P. Caddigan, Treasurer of the Midland Railway Co., claiming forty dollars damages for the killing of one cow and heifer by the train, and ten dollars for exemplary vindictive damages. The plaintiff was represented by W. W. Clark Esq., and the defendant corporation by Clement Manly Esq. The plaintiff obtained judgment for forty dollars. Defendant appealed.

Your Name in Print.

Mr. Geo. Allen and daughter, Miss Mary, returned from Virginia last night. Miss Mary has been spending a few weeks with friends in Virginia.

Miss Corinne Harrison returned from the Warm Springs last night.

Miss Cole and Miss Taylor of Chapel Hill spent the day in the city yesterday, returning to Morehead last night.

Mr. Thos. Daniels, Misses Mary Oliver, Mary Roberts, Lizzie Slover, Ella Ives, Capt. Richardson's family, and Mrs. E. P. Williams were passengers for Morehead City last night.

Mr. F. L. Perry was in the city yesterday with a plan—European—of the new hotel to be built at Morehead City by the opening of next season.

Mr. J. P. Brogden of Trenton came in last night and reports that the cotton crops in Jones are beginning to shed their forms.

Mayor's Court.

Joseph Brown was the first case called yesterday morning. He was charged with making an assault upon Jack Huzzey on Monday night. His pleadings were that he knew nothing about it; didn't know that he had done anything until he found himself in the cell this morning. He was fined $5.00 and cost.

THROWING BRICK.

Maggie Farrar was up for an assault upon Horace Whitford. She handled a whole brick so carelessly as to allow it to come in contact with Horace's head, and caused him to bleed like a hog, leaving an ugly scar.

Ed Harvey gave a vivid description of the assault, went through with all the motions, told how the blood ran and how Mag. ran to make her escape. "She is guilty of an assault then," said His Honor, after Harvey had finished his tale.

"Yes," said Harvey, "I should call it mighty bad saltin' to be struck with a whole brick."

Maggie's character was not proven to be the best. She was fined $10.00 and cost.

Freights on the Shenandoah.

Steamer Shenandoah O. D. Line arrived at her wharf yesterday with goods piled upon top of goods, merchandise on top of merchandise and rolls of bagging sufficient to gladden the hearts of many a farmer and to cover enough cotton to give her a full load back. We find on her freight list the names of most of the brotherhood of our live merchants hereabouts and we mention below a list of the consignees at New Berne:

Jas. Redmond, S. Radcliff & Co. H. J. Hughes, J. A. Simpson, C. E. Slover, B. E. Lane, A. M. Baker, W. E. Brown, G. B. Guion, W. Hollister, A. H. Holton, R. B. Proctor, W. Colligan, Sr., Roberts & Bro., Asa Jones, J. M. Howard & Co., T. A. Green, E. H. Windley, J. Detrick, S. A. Munter, John Dunn, Reel Bros. & Askins, J. S. Nutly, W. F. Rountree, S. H. Scott, Geo. E. Tinker, J. J. Tolson & Co., J. D. Taylor, Geo. Allen & Co., L. H. Cutler, C. H. Blank, T. Gates & Co., Dan Bros., K. R. Jones, Humphrey & Howard, J. K. Willis, A. Miller, J. W. Baxter, Midland N. C. R. W. Co.

We also noticed the large double truck belonging to Guion & Wood piled up with freight for Beaufort, Morehead City, La Grange, Goldsboro and Smithfield.

Kinston Items.

The Woodington township rebelled from its former leader, and sends a new delegation to do its work.

We learn that Messrs. J. F. Harper and E. M. Hodges expect to open a hardware store in town this fall.

The Mosely Hall township sends two sets of delegates, which threaten trouble to the Kinston Convention next Saturday.

"Me too" from Jericho is reported to have followed the example of his brother-in-law and cast his fortunes with the Republicans.

The Sand Hill township seems to have caught the spirit of early work which animates Judge Bennett. They held their township convention last Saturday at sunrise.

Elder Henry Cunningham of the First Will Baptist Church, closed last Wednesday an interesting religious revival at British Chapel, in Sand Hill township. Thirty accessions were made to the church; Alex. W. West and his two daughters, Miss Sue and Miss Sallie, and Emanuel Daugherty and Miss Louisa, his daughter, were among the number who joined. Elder Wines, of the Methodist Church, assisted a part of the time. The meeting commenced on Friday the 11th inst., and closed on the following Wednesday. Much good was done in that neighborhood.

The Republican Convention at Kinston last Saturday was unusually large and lively. L. B. Cox, Richard Whitfield and Ned Gatlin were elected delegates to the nominating convention on the 26th instant. After the business of the convention was over, Fred. B. Loftin came forward and made a stirring speech and put everybody else to speaking. He cut loose from the Democracy and planted himself squarely on Republican ground. R. W. King, though unwell, held forth for a short while in his usually effective style. Dan E. Perry, candidate for the Legislature, to a call for him, responded in a happy speech. The recruits to the Republicans seem to be very numerous. The Democracy is appalled.

Jones County Items.

Capt. Page, who was quite sick last week, is up again.

Mrs. S. A. Francks of Trenton has been quite ill for several days.

There seems to be a good deal of sickness in this community now, as Dr. Scarborough is very busy all the while.

We have had two or three days of fair weather, which are very acceptable to the farmers who are busy getting fodder.

The nomination of Col. Benj. Askew seems to be very satisfactory. Col. Askew has been a life long tried and true Democrat, working always for the good of his party purely from principle and without the hope of reward, and I have no doubt that the Democrats in this district will give him a full and hearty support. It will be remembered that the Colonel represented this district the last time Jones sent a member to the Senate, and he polled a larger vote than any other man on the ticket. Besides the Colonel, being a popular Democrat, he will make a good and useful member.

It seems to be the opinion that the delegates from this county were instructed to vote for Col. Whitford at the convention, when they were not instructed at all; but the county convention only recommended the name of Whitford for the nomination, and left it with the good judgment and sound discretion of the delegates of the three counties to nominate, and if they had seen fit to nominate Whitford all would have been well and on the other hand, if they thought that Col. Whitford was not the most available man (which doubtless was the case) they had a perfect right to nominate some other man and not go contrary to instructions for, as has already been said, they were never instructed to vote for him. I suggest that the "Jewels," when they discuss the matter again, they will strike out the word instruct and insert recommend.

M. At 4 o'clock the Old faction assembled, chose Homer Borden, "the old war horse," as chairman, and A. J. McIntyre secretary. A committee of twelve was elected to recommend delegates to the county convention. Homer Borden, J. M. Carter and Hardy Barnes were the delegates. This meeting nominated N. G. Sutton for constable of the township. A resolution was passed, endorsing A. J. McIntyre (complimentary) as first choice for clerk, and Coleman as second choice.

Things were done more orderly and fairly in this, than in the first meeting; which was the legal one will be for the county convention to decide next Saturday. This meeting was not largely attended, but I understand that many were presented by the other side. Among those who did attend were many that have worked for the Republican party for many years, and hence I designate them as "Old."

I learned Saturday evening, from those present, that a split was about to or did take place, at Falling Creek, but could not learn particulars.

James L. Wooten accompanied by E. W. Bizzell, the salesman of the firm of Wooten Bros., left for Baltimore and New York to-day to buy the fall and winter stock.

La Grange Items.

Charlie, son of R. K. Fields, was kicked and severely hurt by a horse, on Saturday.

Ben F. Sutton Jr. passed through town with a watermelon, which he said weighed 51 lbs.

William A. Fields, a resident of Pitt county, and brother of our hotelier, while assisting in sawing some lumber at a steam mill, was thrown upon the saw and his arm entirely cut off near the shoulder and thrown ten feet or more. Dr. Bynum attended to him professionally, and on Thursday he was doing as well as could be expected.

Lieut. Foss' family met with an accident last Thursday night, that came near being very serious. On their return from the reunion of the 27th regt., while crossing Bear Creek bridge near Spring Hill, the night being very dark, the driver missed the way, and the buggy, containing Foss' wife, a small child, a girl, and one of his sons, was upset, and with the horse thrown into the creek. Foss and an older son was close at hand and went to the rescue. The creek was full at the time, but strange to say, not one was lost or seriously hurt, and all the contents of the buggy saved.

The Republican Township meeting for more correctly, meetings was held here last Saturday. It was easy to see "in early morn," that all was not lovely. Groups could be seen here and there in close conversation. Parker, with his campaign coat, was on the war path. Pope came out of his hole to do service. Moore, the judge, was planning. Stanton looked thoughtful. Homer walked a round with all the dignity due his former position, McIntyre, the new out, was smiling, and Carter was not idle. And what more can I say, for time would fail me to tell of W. B. Walters, N. G. Sutton, West Wooten, Hardy Barnes and a host of others, who all worked like Turks. At 11 o'clock, the masses assembled at the appointed place, and it soon became apparent that things were "cut and dried." An organization was attempted before the meeting was called to order, and here the two factions, which I will call old and new, arranged themselves in phalanx strong, each trying to control the organization. As soon as the hubbub ceased, Squire Moore called the meeting to order, when the Rev. Austin Williams was announced elected chairman. He returned thanks for being called to preside over the honorable body, confessed his ignorance and asked those better informed to assist him etc. Sometime during the meeting, but not just here, Stanton was chosen Secretary. It became evident about this time, that the New or Reform party were managing things their own way. A motion was made and adopted to appoint twelve committeemen to select delegates to the county convention. The chairman easily selected six; (it is charged that these were selected before the meeting and in the interest of the New faction) the others were selected by the assistance of Squire Moore and others, and were mainly of the same stripe. The committee retired with Judge Moore at their head, and selected Joe Walters, George Williams and Richard Wooten, col., as delegates. (Right here the New Issue said his sky was not bright) all Stanton men so said.

This produced a general uproar, such as it has never been my privilege to witness, except at an old fashioned corn-shucking.

To say that all was disorder would be too feeble, confusion confounded is nearer the truth. In order to tickle the colored element, Mr. Moore retired with a part of his committee a second time, and reported West Wooten, Richard Wooten, both colored, and Jesse Walters as the delegates, a change in color, but having the same voice. Before the meeting closed, W. B. Walters was declared as the nominee for Constable.

This closed the first or New faction proceedings, said by the other wing to have been run in Stanton's interest entirely.

At 4 o'clock the Old faction assembled, chose Homer Borden, "the old war horse," as chairman, and A. J. McIntyre secretary. A committee of twelve was elected to recommend delegates to the county convention. Homer Borden, J. M. Carter and Hardy Barnes were the delegates. This meeting nominated N. G. Sutton for constable of the township. A resolution was passed, endorsing A. J. McIntyre (complimentary) as first choice for clerk, and Coleman as second choice.

Virginia, Berlin P. O., Southampton Co., Va., September 2, 1881.

Gentlemen—I used your fertilizer on oats, corn, peanuts and vegetables, at the rate of about 200 lbs. per acre. My oat crop was good. Vegetables were excellent, and some very satisfactory. Will use it next year under all crops, believing it peculiarly adapted to our soil as a renovator.

Wm. H. Hood

Georgia, July 21, 1881. B. Park, Greensboro, Ga., writes:

In reply to yours of the 20th inst., I take pleasure in saying I was very much gratified with the results from the use of your fertilizer under my grape vines, my grapes rotted much less than for several years past, and one variety that had heretofore invariably failed, this year matured well. I did not put it around the vines until some time in March, but I believe the grapes would have received greater benefit if the fertilizer had been applied two or three months sooner.

Pennsylvania, Norristown, Pa., Oct. 1880.

Dr. J. G. Ralston, widely known in the north as a nurseryman, says: I used your fertilizer the year under fruit trees, grape vines and vegetables, with great benefit.

North Carolina, Belvidere Perquimans Co., N. C., Dec. 20, 1881.

Gentlemen—The Norfolk Fertilizer purchased of you last Spring, I used at the rate of about 175 lbs. per acre under corn, cotton, peanuts and vegetables. Corn came up well and grew vigorously and was not injured by worms and bugs, and grew satisfactory. Cotton balled from bottom to top, and remained green until frost; did not have rust and yielded freely. Peanuts were good, no pods among them. Vegetables best I ever had—will use it under all my crops the ensuing year. It is the best fertilizer I have ever used. Please ship me ten (10) tons by the 15th of January, 1882. There will be a heavy demand for your fertilizer in this section this coming year.

Yours truly, J. R. DADLEY.

From the same we have the following: August 4, 1882.—For oats the result was entirely satisfactory, and for clover the best I have ever used. Much of it will be wanted this fall and next spring, and some very soon for turpentine.

Respectfully, J. R. DADLEY.

At this place, Belvidere, twenty-one sacks were used under the crops of 1881, and about fifteen hundred sacks under the present crop in that vicinity.

Respectfully, S. B. Carney, Joseph Sanderlin, Major John Mullin and other prominent truckers and Norfolk have used this Fertilizer the present season and are well pleased with the results.
