Alligator Killed.

Yesterday morning just as the steamer Shenandoah arrived at her dock an alligator's head was seen in the Clyde dock. Mr. Eugene Potter, the clever purser of the Shenandoah, sent a rifle ball through his head. He was brought to shore and was about the size of the one shipped to Burrus & Co. from Hyde. John Pridgen of the steamer Neuse took him up to Kinston to exhibit to the Republican Convention which convenes there to-day.

Yesterday evening a party of ladies from your city, consisting of Misses Oliver, Roberts and Ives (with two gentlemen who went as servants to take the fish off when caught) went trolling. It $3.00 and cost, which cost was $2.45, was a strong breeze and a rolling sea, making a total of $5.45 as the price of but they were brave and were intent on catching fish. Yonder are the fish said the Captain near the breakers, but it is rough for ladies. But they all said go, we can stand it if you can. By this time two of the ladies began to settle an account with the sea-it was the first time they ever had to pay such a tribute for such fun-but they caught 46 blue fish just the same, and returned the bravest girls we have yet met.

The next heard of him he was back at the penitentiary in Raleigh, whither he had gone of his own accord. He stated to the authorities there that railroad work didn't suit him and he prefered to remain at the State capitol.

Wilmington Review: John Howard, a white man, who murdered a negro two years ago, in Duplin county, was arrested last night at Magnolia by James T. Carroll, Esq., the postmaster at that place. We learn that Howard was brought to this city last night and lodged in jail for safe keeping. -Army worms have attacked the shrubbery at Oakdale Cemetery, and are playing sad havoe with it. They first attacked the grass, and after eating that crawled to the hedges and other shrubbery. We also learn that the worms have made their appearance at Mr. John G. Wagner's place on Masonboro Sound. They have been gotton in to his crops.

On Wednesday afternoon the Baptist Association suspended business at 4 o'clock to visit the Orphon Asylum, and a large crowd was soon assembled in the spacious Thapel of that Institution.

Interesting addresses were made by Revs. J. K. Connally, T. J. Hor-ner, Prof. L. R. Mills and Mr. C. J. Humphries.

A collection in behalf of the Asylum was taken up, amounting to $49,54 in cash and tifteen bushels of wheat. In addition to this, one visitor agreed to clothe and feed a boy and girl, and another agreed to clothe one orphan.

The exercises were exceedingly interesting, and those who had never before seen the workings of the Institution were deeply impressed with its importance and great good it was doing .- Free
