NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

HUMPHREY & HOWARD—War in Egypt.
THOMAS S. HOWARD—Cotton ginning.
JOSEPH GAYLORD—Leah the Forsaken.
N. M. GASKILL—Merchant Tailor.

Journal Miniature Almanac.

Sun rises, 5:43; Length of day, 12 hours, 23 minutes.
Moon sets 6:23 a. m.

The schooner Ella E. Hill is on Howard a railway for repairs.

The city tax collector has sold about three hundred dog badges.

Our townsman, A. G. Hubbard, Esq., we regret to say, is still confined to his room.

The Clarie Scott Combination will be in the city to-day and will give their first exhibition to-night.

The schooners James M. Hall and S. Warren Hall of Philadelphia are discharging coal at the Midland wharf.

The man, Mr. Laughlin, an employee of the Midland Company, who was cut in an affray by Dr. Robinson at Smithfield last Sunday has, we learn, died.

Mr. Carraway showed us last night an "evening glory," a beautiful white flower on the glory order. To Miss Gertrude the editor makes his bow for a pretty bouquet.

The Democratic County Executive Committee met in this city yesterday and determined to call a county convention for October 7th, to nominate candidates for county officers.

We learn that at a meeting of the Cotton Exchange, held yesterday, it was decided to rent the vacant lot in front of the Exchange and floor it over for the benefit of the cotton sellers.

Vice-President Edward S. Sanford of Adams Express Company died on Sunday morning of heart disease. His funeral services took place yesterday evening at 8 o'clock, and at that account the express office in this city was closed and draped in mourning for the afternoon.

Educational.

This evening at 8 o'clock, in Clinton Chapel, will be delivered by the Rev. Mr. Eason, the 6th of the series of Lectures for the benefit of the Normal students. All are cordially invited to attend. Admission free. Subject: "Plain talk to plain people."

Maine Election.

We learn from the following telegram received in the city yesterday evening that the Dutch have captured Holland: WASHINGTON, D. C. We have carried everything in Maine; Governor, Congressional and Legislative tickets. D. B. HENDERSON, Sec.

Political Points.

Johnson Bryan was in the city yesterday and in an interview by a JOURNAL reporter revealed the following as the status of politics in the Core Creek section: The Greenbackers are caving in and looking for their lives. The Liberals all have the sore nose. The Republicans are all on crutches. "There ain't one that can walk without a crutch."

Between Hahn and Stimson it is "hip and thigh." The Democrats are straightening up. Some of them are now eight feet high and will soon be ten.

The Fire Companies.

The question of reducing the salaries of the engineers of the Fire Companies was reconsidered at a special meeting on yesterday and increased to $32.50 instead of $30.00. This was agreed to by the engineers, provided the salaries of the other officers were reduced in same proportion which was unanimously agreed to.

Councilman Crawford was in favor of reducing the old wages immediately rather than have one of the Fire Companies units for duty. He had rather help to pay it out of his own pocket than to take the risk one minute of the city being destroyed by fire.

Passengers on the Shenandoah.

The following passengers arrived on the steamer Shenandoah yesterday morning: Mr. Cox, Chas. H. Blank, M. Bryan, William Cohen and wife and three children, T. D. Morcer, J. Dean and wife, B. S. Mattocks, J. P. Brogden, George F. M. Dail, Prof. Pharruzay wife and child, Mr. Adams, C. E. Foy, Mrs. Foy, Paton, Dr. Walker Hill, Ida Martin, C. W. Hollowell.

The following passengers left on the steamer Shenandoah yesterday evening: John Dunn, W. H. Oliver and Miss May Oliver, for N. Y. J. M. White for Norfolk, Miss Taylor and Miss Harriet Lane, Isaac Patterson, Miss Hannah Clark.

New Berne Cotton Market.

The cotton market has not opened here yet, but we predict that when it does commence, this market will have no superior in the State. The buyers here are dealing direct with exporters and manufacturers, and the facilities for shipping are better than ever before, and better than any other market in the State—Wilmington, perhaps, excepted—and there is no reason why the best prices should not be paid. The Raleigh and Goldsboro markets may sometimes show better prices on paper from the fact that a better grade of cotton is made on the uplands than in this low country, but if our Smithfield and La Grange subscribers will try this market with some of their fancy staple we think they will be well paid for their trouble.

One plan we expect to follow in the future, as in the past: The JOURNAL is published in the interest of farmers and not cotton buyers, and if the buyers here don't pay the best of prices we expect to let it be known.

Your Name in Print.

Mrs. Henry R. Bryan, and Miss Kate Carraway leave this morning for New York.

Miss Willie Brooks of Johnson's Mills Pitt county is visiting friends in the city.

Mr. Bryan McCullian, Sr., and lady are in the city visiting their sons Oscar and Lafayette.

Henry Archibell of the Kinston Bakery was in the city yesterday.

Mr. C. W. Hollowell of Pasquotank county, owner of the Nags Head property called to see us yesterday. Sorry we were not in the office at the time.

Mr. C. E. Foy has returned from his Northern trip much improved in health. He is now ready for business.

Charles H. Blank has returned from the purchase of a large stock of goods, and has a business-like step.

G. M. F. Dail was on the corner again yesterday in good trim for work.

J. P. Brogden, of Trenton returned from New York yesterday and was looking as peart as a school boy.

Mr. T. C. Whitaker a merchant of Trenton was in the city yesterday.

Mr. John R. Harding of Kinston is in the city. He intended leaving on the Shenandoah for Union College, Schenectady, N. Y. yesterday, but a too long search for a jewel who had left the city caused him to arrive at the wharf just ten minutes after the boat had left.

Without Regard to Race, Color or Previous Condition.

SNOW HILL, Sept. 9, 1882.

EDITOR MESSENGER:—At the Republican Convention now being held here, the nominees thus far are: For House of Representatives, W. T. Dixon, (present Representative), for Sheriff, Jas. T. Smith; for Coroner, Hymbrick Harper, col.; for Clerk Superior Court, D. W. Patrick.

Mr. Fred Loftin, of Kinston, (new convert) has just made a speech and in his concluding remarks said: "Let us all go to the ballot-box in November and vote the solid Republican and coalition ticket without regard to race, color or previous condition of servitude." He was enthusiastically cheered by the colored "brethren." His speech was very bitter. They are just now calling for O'Hara. He was endorsed as candidate for Congress. I write hurriedly as the mail is about to close. GREENE.

Proceedings of City Council.

TUESDAY, September 12, 1882.

A special meeting of the Board was held this p. m., Mayor Howard presiding.

Present: Councilmen Willis, Miller, Smallwood, Moore, Simpson, Bell, Morris and Crawford.

The Mayor stated that the meeting was called to take some action relative to employing an engineer for the Newberne Engine Company; that a committee from the Newberne Engine Company waited upon him at his residence last night, and stated that Mr. R. H. Hilton had resigned as engineer and they were unable to employ another to serve at that price, and unless they get one by twelve o'clock to-night they will be unfit for duty.

Mr. Crawford moved to reconsider the motion at the last meeting reducing the engineer's pay to $20 per month.

Mr. Miller asked for the reading of minutes of last meeting, stating that he wanted to show his position.

Mr. Moore seconded the motion to reconsider, stating that he had seconded the motion with a view to presenting a proposition from the officers of the city agreeing to allow a deduction of 25 per cent from their salaries, which would save $325 to the city, whereas the deduction on the engineers alone would amount to only $160 for the unexpired term.

Councilman Crawford withdrew his motion.

On motion, the salaries of the Engineers was increased to $22.50.

By consent the Mayor's salary was reduced to $25, the Treasurers to $12.50 and the Clerk's to $12.50.

On motion, the appropriation for the two engine companies for their jumper horses was reduced to $7.50 each.

On motion, a committee consisting of Councilmen, Willis and Moore was appointed to wait upon the City Attorneys and ask if they would allow a deduction of 25 per cent on their salary.

On motion, the city drivers were allowed $5 per week for their services.

On motion, the minutes were adopted and the Board adjourned.

A. W. WOOD, City Clerk.

Kinston Items.

Corn, $1.00 per bushel.
Meal, $1.20
Wheat, $1.00
N. C. Hams, 20c. per lb.
Sides, 18c
Shoulders 18c
Beeswax, 25c
Chickens, 30 to 50c per pair.
Eggs, 15c per dozen.
The above are retail prices.
Cotton (Baled) 11c to 11 1/2c.
Cotton, seed, 9 1/2c.

About twenty-five bales of cotton came in last week. W. F. Stanley bought twenty-one bales.

The little boy of Pete Phillips living in Vance township, who was scalded last week by the breaking of a coffee pot handler, has since died of his injuries.

John A. Parrott, a son of the late James M. Parrott, died on Friday night last, after weeks of great suffering. He was a young man of exemplary life and his loss will be sadly felt.

E. W. Bizzle, of La Grange, who ran for Register of Deeds two years ago is again the candidate for the same position. He is not so well known, but is said to be a gentleman of fine business qualifications.

F. B. Loftin, Esq., candidate for the republican Senatorial nomination from Green and Lenoir, stirred the political waters from the bottom at Snow Hill last week. His speech is said to have been a masterly effort.

The Democratic county convention at Kinston last Saturday, it is said nominated a strong ticket for the legislature and for county officers. Dempsey Wood, Jr., is brought out for the House branch of the legislature. His family connections unite him with a large portion of the Republican party—besides he carries a strong pocket book and is a clever fellow in every way.

B. W. Cannady, of the business firm of Miller & Cannady, lately mayor of Kinston, takes the place for county treasurer. He is a young man of popular manners, is a good wire puller, has great material solidity, runs the Kinston Machine Shops, runs a large Hardware store and several plantations and still has capacity to manage with success the county funds.

J. D. Sutton, Esq.—there is a resignation of Suttons, white and colored, in this county—is the candidate for Sheriff. He is a good man of "good old stock," daring and energetic, runs a whiskey still and can afford "77 drinks" to every voter before breakfast and will certainly reduce the Davis "fraction" to the decimal of an eighth before November next.

Our Lieutenant Governor, Major W. J. Barret, seeks to add to the title of Judge of Probate to the many surroundings of his name. It is not yet known that Governor Jarvis will permit this nomination, since it breaks the slate made by the Governor and Billy Woodpile to save the State two years hence with Robinson and Barret. A ukase is expected from the Capitol countermanding this nomination and ordering the faithful "to hold Barret and save the State."

The threat of the revival of the Ku Klux by "Old Bart" and the certainty of many sudden deaths from the "worm of the still" after the election, offering in inviting prospect for business, have induced our life long friend, Durham Grady, to stand for Coroner. His place will pay well unless all appearances fail. Such is the Democratic ticket. It has youth, beauty and the "root of all evil" with which to fight the so-called Republican ticket and ad victis is the sign of the hopeful Independents.

Endorsing resolutions seem to share the like fate in democratic as in republican conventions. One was introduced last Saturday in the Democratic convention, endorsing Hon. Matt W. Bansom as United States Senator and suggesting his re-election by the next legislature. The Jarvis wing of the party jumped at it like a "duck after a june bug" and soon picked all the life out of it. If the friends of the Governor are as vigilant and faithful in other capacities as in this, our wily and working chief magistrate will surely recognize in the near future "The applause of listening Senates to command."

La Grange Items.

Corn, 80 cents.
Meal, 90 cents.
Pork, 15 cents, retail.
N. C. Hams, 18 cents.
Cotton, 11 cents.

Goods are arriving in quantities.

Moses, infant son of John D. and Julia Walters, died in this place on the 3d inst.

The first bale of new cotton of this season sold in this place, was sold on Saturday by W. S. Uzzell, at 11 1/2c, Edwards & Murchison being the purchasers.

Last week there was in this place almost a meat famine. But few of the merchants had any, and these few but a small quantity. Farmers should have their meat houses at home.

The wet, cloudy weather is certainly very unfavorable to the cotton crop. In this connection I see that commission merchants are urging upon farmers the benefits to be derived, from getting cotton out dry, assorting so as to not have two grades in the same bag, which they call "mix-packed," and the great necessity of sheltering after packing.

Sim Wooten had up his sign, "selling at cost for the next fifteen days for cash," last week. The last two words prevented many sales. M. S. Webb, next door to Sim, put out his, "at cost selling at cost." They were both taken down the latter part of the week, but I learn that when Webb wishes to make a sale, he twists his sign, and Slover Bryan, who does business opposite, goes over and makes a purchase.

The Postmaster at this place has received over two hundred postal cards, enquiring for one Johnston Campbell who is represented to have drawn $1,000 in the Kansas City Lottery. Quite a number of letters addressed to said Campbell have been received at this office, some of which have been sent to the dead letter office, and as the man is not known to be about here, the enquiry is, is the Lottery a fraud, and who is Johnston Campbell?

The County Democratic Convention met last Saturday. The desire previous to the meeting in this section seemed to be, that candidates be selected who could command the support of the party, and that one be especially selected for the Legislature who could discuss before the people the issues between the parties, uphold the time honored principles of democracy, and materially aid in the campaign in carrying the party to victory. Of the candidates selected, I have heard no objection to speak of, except that made for the Legislature.

The objections to Mr. Wood about here, so far as I have been able to learn, are first, his want of ability to canvass, and second, that he is not sufficiently identified with the party. As to first, no one thoroughly acquainted will raise any question; and as to the second, it is charged that he has, in every election, (the last probably excepted) voted for the Republican candidates for county offices. I understand that in other portions of the county, he will be objected to on account of his position on the no fence law. The question now is, will the party support him?

Jones County Items.

Jno. W. Wooten, Esq., had the misfortune of losing two of his horses one day last week.

It is very quiet in Trenton now, nothing to relieve the monotony but an occasional political discussion.

Hope the citizens of the county will remember Hon. J. W. Shakelford will speak at Trenton next Saturday, the 16th inst.

The land of Thos. F. Worley was sold to-day by the county commissioners; H. C. Koonce bought it, paying $1201.00 for it.

Mr. Jas. Pollock of Trenton, who has been so very sick, we are glad to know is rapidly improving and we hope will soon be up again.

Mr. Jno. I. Heath, one of our energetic and successful farmers brought the first lot of seed cotton to this market this season, which was sold for 3.37 per hundred.

We were shown on last Saturday by Dr. Scarborough some of the finest apples we have ever seen. They were presented to him by Mr. Andrews of Beaver Creek. The heaviest weighed 13 ounces and three of them turned the scales at 37 ounces.

Miss Fannie Koonce, daughter of Mr. Amos Koonce about 18 years of age died at home on Cypress Creek last Sunday morning of the typhoid fever. Miss Fannie had been for several years a consistent member of the Methodist church.

The Star Route Cases.

WASHINGTON, September 11.—At 10:10 o'clock the star route jury entered the court room, and through their foreman announced that they had reached a conclusion as to four of the defendants, but stood as they did on Saturday, and as to the others being unable to agree as to them. The court declined to receive the verdict and a recess was taken until two o'clock p. m.

WASHINGTON, September 11.—At 2 o'clock Judge Wylie took his seat and sent for the star route jury. When they appeared Foreman Dickson announced that there had been no change in the opinions of the jury since the last report. The Judge then said he had concluded to accept their verdict. The defendants were called, and all answered. The foreman then stated that the jury had instructed him to return a verdict of guilty as to Turner and Peck, and that no agreement was reached as to Brady and the two Dorseys.

"Leah, the Forsaken," at the Academy of Music.

The talented young English actress, Miss Clarie Scott, appeared at the Academy of Music yesterday afternoon and again last night, in the personation of the character of "Leah, the Forsaken." Of Miss Scott nothing can be added to that which we already have spoken in her favor, except to say that she deserved a better reception than she received during her engagement in this city. Her principal support, Mr. S. K. Coburn, as "Nathan, the Apostate Jew," acquitted himself in that character satisfactorily to the audience.—Norfolk Landmark.
