LOCAL NEWS.

Journal Miniature Almanac.

Moon sets 1:30 p. m.

Several showers yesterday.

The "Bob Lee," a flat boat belonging to Dail Bros., is at Nelson's shipyard undergoing repairs.

Scuppernong grapes are plentiful, and selling from one dollar to one dollar and a quarter per bushel.

The extra fine stalks of cotton come in very slow to Mr. Allen this season. Those that have been sent in are not up to former years.

The Mayor was at the station on yesterday for the purpose holding court but no cases were ready. Peter Williams, col., was recognized for his appearance to-day.

Two lots of cotton from Smithfield at the Exchange yesterday. One lot was consigned to C. E. Foy, the other to John U. Smith. It brought eleven and a half cents.

One hundred and one bales of cotton sold at the Exchange yesterday. Prices ranged from 11 1/2 to 11 1/4—only one bale selling for less which brought 11 1/2. Market active.

Mr. Elijah Ellis received a bill of lading yesterday of a lot of hoghead staves shipped to him from Jacksonville, Onslow county, in answer to an advertisement in the JOURNAL.

The first draft on the National Bank for cotton last fall was drawn on the fourteenth of September. This fall the first was drawn on the sixteenth of September. Not so much later after all.

Capt. E. B. Roberts, agent of the O. D. S. S. Co., informs us that his company telegraphs him that it will bring, free of charge from New York, the 400 desks recently bought for the Graded School in this city.

Maj. Dennison has begun work on a large building near his cotton seed oil factory for the storage of cotton seed. The machinery for refining the oil will be placed in this building as soon as the Major begins the process of refining.

Death Among Horses.

Mr. B. H. Thompson of South Creek, who was in the city yesterday, reports that thirteen horses have died in that neighborhood during the last two weeks. The disease is blind staggers and not a single one attacked has recovered.

New Berne Cotton Market.

We notice that the house of Rally Bros. of Norfolk, among the largest cotton exporters in the United States, have established here a "grader," Mr. Fisk, in connection with their buyer, Mr. Matt Manly. The facilities here are now so great that New Berne ought to, and, we believe, will be the best cotton market in Eastern North Carolina, after Wilmington. The buyers make a marked difference between good and bad cotton and it will pay those bringing cotton here to handle carefully.

Passengers on the Shenandoah.

Inward, A. H. Holton and wife, John Dupp, O. Marks, Thos. Powers, Frank Smaw, Mr. Scott, J. F. Clark and daughter, Frank Brown, W. K. Carr and W. Parsley.
Outward: Thos. J. Latham, for Norfolk, J. T. Peele, E. City; Lt. Keene of Revenue Cutter Stevens for Maine on one month's leave of absence, Paul Jones of Atlanta, Mr. Oglesby, of Carteret and Mrs. Avery and child of Morehead City.

Closing Exercises of Christ's Church Parish School.

This institution, operated under the auspices of Holy Cross Guild, closed its summer session yesterday. It was very pleasant to witness the orderly conduct of the neatly clad children, their excellence in reading and declamation, and their prompt answers in the catechism. The work of the teacher, Mrs. Williams, has been very laborious through the summer but her task has been well performed. The Guild is doing a noble work in running this school, and should be well sustained. The exercises were very agreeably closed by the presentation of prizes by the Guild on scholarship, deportment and attendance.

DIED.

Mr. S. N. Dewey died last night at 8 p. m. of consumption. He was just forty-nine years of age.

Mr. Dewey was a native of Vermont and resident of New York for several years before removing to this city which he did sometime about the close of the late war.

He was an upright, christian gentleman and by his benevolent disposition and kind deportment won for himself the warm esteem of this entire community. His death will be mourned by a large circle of friends in both the town and country.

River and Marine.

The following schooners arrived from Hyde county on Friday morning.

The Gor. Vance, Capt. S. H. Spencer, with a cargo of corn and wheat.

The Hatama, Capt. Eugene Spencer, with corn consigned to W. P. Burrus & Co.

The Varina, Capt. Frank Bell, with rust proof oats, cotton and beef cattle.

The Emerald, Capt. J. H. Gaskins, with a cargo of corn.

The E. Charlie, Capt. Ben Willis, with corn and wheat.

The steamer Defiance of the Clyde line, cleared for Baltimore yesterday evening at 4 o'clock, with naval stores, staves, hides etc., and 500 bales of cotton.

The Shenandoah arrived yesterday about ten o'clock p. m. with general merchandise and passengers. She cleared at 6 o'clock for Elizabeth City with 176 bales of cotton and a number of passengers.

The L. H. Cutler arrived from Vanceboro yesterday evening with a cargo of lumber for C. Cherry.

The Trent arrived yesterday from up Neuse with cotton.

The Contentee cleared yesterday morning for Trenton with a large freight among which was an engine for Silas Venters at Richlands.

Your Name in Print.

Frank Myer Esq. arrived on Thursday night and looks as though he will make things lively at the Exchange.

Mr. Wm. H. West of Lenoir and Joshua L. Tucker of Pitt, both excellent farmers, came in on the Neuse on Thursday night and stopped with Capt. W. A. Thompson.

Dr. Charles Duffy, Sr., of Onslow is in the city.

Frank Brown, of Tuckahoe, Jones county returned from the North on the Shenandoah yesterday. He says he can't understand how those who opposed Col. Whitford so bitterly at the Polkville convention are now his warmest supporters.

O. Marks returned from the North yesterday. He says a big stock of goods are on the way.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Holton returned from a Northern trip yesterday.

Mr. John Dupp, our candy manufacturer, returned on the Shenandoah yesterday.

Mr. Thos. R. Jarvis of Statesville, Hyde county, is in the city. He says the cotton crop in that county is damaged about one third, but the top crop is growing nicely and with a late fall will partly make up the damage.

Magistrate's Court.

On yesterday Thos. Stanly, Esq., had before him Mr. David Oglesby, of Carteret county, for abandoning family. The warrant was issued upon the complaint of Mr. Murdock, the father of Mrs. Oglesby. M. DeW. Stevenson, Esq., appeared as counsel for the defendant.

The complainant stated that Mr. Oglesby had been gone from his family over two years, and that he was living in Carteret county at the time of the abandonment, though Mrs. Oglesby had visited New Berne during that time.

Counsel for the defendant insisted that the court had no jurisdiction and should dismiss the case.

Justice Stanly—"I want to do right in this case. I confess I don't know what is right. I have consulted lawyers, and they differ as to the course I should pursue. I would like to have Mrs. Oglesby here. If the other side had counsel I would not say a word."

Attorney—"I am sorry the other side has no counsel, for I am sure if it did there would be no trouble in dismissing the case. In all courts a case must be tried upon the papers before the court. It is not a question of fact; this is only a question of law, and as the court has no jurisdiction the defendant should be discharged."

Stanly—"I can't do that, Mr. Stevenson; oh, no, I can't discharge this man. I must hold him until I find out what to do. I have consulted lawyers and they differ. I want to do right. I confess I don't know what is right in this case. If Mrs. Oglesby was on a visit here, and he (Mr. Oglesby) was with her here, he might have given her five cents. That would make the abatement in this county."

Attorney—"Your Honor will certainly not decide this case upon what might have been. You can only decide it upon the papers before you."

Stanly—"The case is just this. It is a question whether the abandonment took place in Carteret county or in Craven county. If Mrs. Oglesby was here on a visit and he was with her and gave her five cents that would make the abatement in this county."

Attorney—"Is there any evidence that he gave her five cents?"

Stanly. No, I want to do right. I don't know what is right. I have had legal advice and the lawyers differ. I see I will have to hold this man until I see further on."

Attorney—"Will your Honor make the order?"

Stanly. "I don't want to put you to any trouble, but I think I must hold him until I find out more about it. I think that is right."

Attorney—"How long do you wish to hold the defendant?"

Stanly. "Mr. Murdock could you have Mrs. Oglesby here. What time would suit you to hear this case?"

Attorney—"Any time will suit us."

Stanly. "Mr. Murdock could you have Mrs. Oglesby here to-morrow by 12 o'clock?"

Murdock. "No sir. I could have her here by Monday."

Stanly. "Will Monday do?"

Attorney. "Yes; but say Tuesday at ten o'clock."

Stanly. "Well, Tuesday then at ten o'clock."

Attorney. "What will be the amount of the bond?"

Stanly. "Well, I want to do right. I guess I'll hold him in a bond of $200."

Attorney—"Your Honor knows it a doubtful case. We don't know that we can give a good bond for $200. It is better to have the bond smaller and make it good."

Stanly—"I must have a good bond—$200 justified."

The bond was justified by Mr. Erwin Oglesby, and the case was adjourned until Tuesday morning, at which time the Esq. "will try to do right."

Trial of Dr. Robinson.

Dr. Robinson was arraigned before Justice Thos. Thain on Tuesday afternoon of the 12th, for the killing of Daniel Laughlin. Col. Thos. Fuller, of Raleigh, and Mr. Dortch, of Goldsboro, having been employed as additional counsel for the defence. About twenty-five witnesses were examined, and after able arguments, both for the prosecution and defence, the case was turned over to the Justice for a decision, the defence claiming that it was a bailable case. The Justice refused bail, and sent Dr. Robinson to the Goldsboro jail to await trial. We learn that counsel for defendant has sued out a writ of habeas corpus, their object being to obtain bail for the Doctor. We understand the case came up before Judge Gilmer at Elizabeth City, Wednesday.—Smithfield Herald.

No Congressional Nomination.

The New Berne JOURNAL is strongly in favor of the Democrats of this district nominating a Congressman. It gives as a reason why this should be done that it will help to bring out the full party vote. In this we think the JOURNAL is in error. There is no chance of electing a congressman from this district, therefore the incentive to vote for him would be of small force except as a vote for him would be a protest against radicalism and its iniquitous legislation. These protests can be registered in the vote for Bennett and for the State ticket where the vote will be effective. Northampton has declared against any congressional or county ticket. Edgecombe is of the same opinion. Let the good citizens register their protest against radicalism by voting for Bennett and our State ticket and the near future will prove the wisdom of the course we advocate.—Tarboro Southerner.

Political Notes.

(News and Observer.)

Mr. W. H. Bower is the nominee for the House in Caldwell county.

Mr. E. P. Lovell has been nominated for the Senate from Alleghany and Watauga.

Mr. W. A. Branch has received the nomination for the House from Beaufort county.

B. F. Bullock will, it is said, take the place of Gen. P. B. Hawkins on the Liberal ticket in Franklin.

The Alamance Republican convention Saturday nominated Dr. G. K. Faust for the Senate and J. W. Albertson for solicitor.

We are not anxious about the result of the election in Caldwell, Watauga and Ashe. They will elect the Democratic nominees.—Lenoir Topic.

Knowing Republicans in Raleigh say that the O'Hara-Hubbs embroglio in the second district will result in the withdrawal of Hubbs.—Greensboro Patriot.

The "Liberal" convention, which met in Marion last Saturday week, nominated Messrs. Samuel L. Patterson, of Caldwell, and Samuel H. Flemming, editor of the Marion Lamp Post, for the Senate in this Senatorial district.—Lenoir Topic.

Gen. Roberts tells us that Gov. Vance's speech at Shelby was a masterly effort. An audience of at least 800 heard it, and all were delighted. Vance made a fine impression. Cleveland will do her full duty in November.

Arabi Pasha's tragedy, in two acts, has ended and the curtain has been rung down. The Liberal force in North Carolina has also collapsed before the actors had got their little parts well by heart. It is time to ring down the curtain and out the lights.—Wilmington Star.

Freight.

The railroads have increased the freight on cotton 28 or 30 per cent. between here and Norfolk. Last year the freight by rail was $1.75 per bale; now the charge is not by the bale, but by the hundred; forty-seven cents per hundred, which, count 450 pounds as an average bale, will make the freight be $2.12. Last year the W. & W. road received for carrying a bale of cotton from this place to Weldon 62 1/2 cents. From the latter place to Norfolk the charge was $1.12 1/2. Supposing the same proportion to be received by the respective companies, we have the freight thus divided: To Weldon, 75 cents, thence to Norfolk $1.35. We wish to enter our protest to this increase. The freight was too high last year. It is simply a piece of meanness done to extract from the people as much money as possible.—Tarboro Southerner.

In Egypt.

A private letter from Hon. Victor C. Barringer, of the Egyptian International Court, to his brother, Gen. Barringer, in this city, states that the deliberations of the International Court were suspended only during the week of the bombardment of Alexandria. Mr. Barringer is now in Italy, where he has been spending his summer vacation, but returns to Alexandria in October.—Charlotte Journal.
