

THE DAILY JOURNAL.

VOL. I.

NEW BERNE, N. C., WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1882.

NO. 153.

LOCAL NEWS.

Journal Minutiae Almanac.
Sun rises, 5:32 | Length of day,
Sun sets, 5:49 | 11 hours, 57 minutes,
Moon sets 6:33 a. m.

The market was well supplied with fresh meats yesterday.

The steamer Neuse is on Howard's ship railway for repairs.

James Redmond has bought out the beer bottling establishment of B. P. Sale & Co.

Maj. Dennison received on yesterday a boat load of seed cotton from Adam's Creek.

Greene county Superior court convenes next Monday. Our agent, C. C. Taylor, will be on hand.

Northern cabbage and onions came in on the Shenandoah yesterday. And yet New Berne is called a famous trucking centre.

Carrot empor, was the sword that won a horse case for a New Berne attorney before a Pollockville justice of the peace on Monday.

Mr. J. C. Wooten of Lenoir was in the city yesterday and left for Morehead City last night to attend the meeting of the Directors of the Atlantic & N. C. R. R.

We noticed on the Old Dominion wharf yesterday morning several bunches of green cotton stalks just taken from the field, and shipped to B. R. Smith & Co. by Mr. Walter Cohen. It is sent to be experimented with in making cotton bagging.

Lieutenant A. G. Paul Assistant Inspector of Lighthouses is on a tour of inspection in this district. He promises to put the district in first class order; the buoys will be taken up and beacons put in their places, and everything will be done to make navigation safe both night and day.

The proceedings of the Republican convention at Pollockville, last Saturday, is sent us for publication, but it is rather lengthy. The following extract will give the drift of the feeling:

Resolved 5. That the Hon. James E. O'Hara is an accomplished, educated gentleman, and far better educated than his opponent, and for this reason he will and should be elected by at least five thousand majority.

Prof. Johnson was busily engaged yesterday in examining and grading the small flock of the city. He will doubtless receive, unsolicited, suggestions from even the small fry. While a JOURNAL reporter was in the examining room yesterday, the Prof., after examining a little fellow wrote down the books that were necessary for him to have—a 2d reader, slate and pencil. The little fellow, looking straight at the Prof., said suggestively, "ain't you going to have spelling?" To-day those will be examined between 8 and 9 years.

Cotton Market.
Sales at Cotton Exchange on Tuesday of 91 bales at prices ranging from 11 to 11 5/10. Among the sales we noted a lot of Lenoir county cotton; 5 bales from W. B. Pearce Esq., 9 bales from Mr. W. H. West; 19 bales brought down by Mr. J. C. Wooten and selling for 11; and 14 bales sent by Mr. John Rhein and sold at 11:33. The market closed weak.

Your Name in Print.

F. M. Simmons, Esq., has returned from the mountains. Messrs. Cox, Gaskins and Holton of Pitt were passengers on the Trent to the city yesterday. Commodore Appleton Oaksmith is in the city. He came up to put his house on the southeast corner of Pollock and East Front streets in order for the reception of a family who are expected to work in the cotton factory.

Mayor's Court.

James Maxwell was before the Mayor yesterday morning charged with an assault upon H. J. Hughes. He pleaded guilty and submitted the case to the court. His Honor stated that from what he had heard of the circumstances it was a very aggravated case, and one sufficient to raise the ire and indignation of any man. But, no matter how provoked a man may be, he must not take the law in his own hands. It was his duty to vindicate the laws, but he would inflict the smallest penalty—$3.00 and cost.

Contest for Kinston.

The Kinston left for Kinston at 5 p. m. on Tuesday with the following consignees per steamer Shenandoah, beside a lot of local freight for points on the river. R. Edwards, R. C. Hay, Oettinger Bros., S. B. West & Co., G. E. Korneagy, Miller & Canady, J. M. Newborne, J. J. Edwards, Patrick & Dixon, Mrs. A. R. Miller, Meacham & Edwards, J. A. Barrahan, F. Harding, J. Slaughter, B. M. Fields, C. W. Burt, S. H. Loftin, L. Harvey, R. H. Abbott, A. R. Miller,

Kinston Items.

Seed cotton is now selling at 34 and bale cotton at 10 1/2 to 11.

The Neuse and the Kinston lay at our wharf last Sunday; they both left Monday for New Berne, the former with 97 bales of cotton and the latter with 30.

Saturday was "Yom Kippur," the Hebrew Day of Atonement. The stores of the Israelites were closed and business with them entirely suspended.

There were two baptisms in Neuse river last Sunday evening. Mr. Claude Hill and Miss Lida Hill, by the Rev. E. E. Orvis of the Disciples' church at Kinston.

Elias Grout, Esq., of Massachusetts, who first started and aided in building up the large cotton trade at Kinston, made his annual autumnal appearance here last week as a cotton buyer.

General Fred B. Loftin is the high military title which Uncle Richard has conferred on the Republican Senatorial candidate for Greene and Lenoir.

"Tickle me Fiddie, tickle me too. Tickle me Fiddie and I'll vote for you."

The pale face delegate from Lenoir to the Wilson convention is exceedingly uneasy. Just with the defeat of Sheriff Davis, he may lose the position of Grand Officer of the Grand Jury. Oh, what a magnificent set of unselfish workers compose the "bread and butter brigade!"

In view of the political disasters which will surely happen in November, "Old Barb," a famous Philadelphia restaurant caterer, is daily experimenting in the art of making "egg flip"—a luxury peculiarly grateful to the stomach of our rosy, rotund, rubicund sheriff as well as of ourselves.

The attention of our county commissioners and justices of the peace is called to the bad condition of the draw in the county bridge below Kinston. Crossing the river is so delayed by the length of time the draw has to be kept open, that it imposes a great wrong and outrage on people who seek business or pleasure on either side of the river.

Petitions are circulating requesting Judge Seymour to appoint Federal Supervisors for the November elections. Such appointments, at least for this county, are entirely uncalled for and unnecessary. No one of any sense apprehends any troubles which State and county officials cannot control. This movement is in the interest of bad men who wish to be clothed with a "little brief authority" whereby to stir up bad blood among our people.

The little boy Ernest, son of Peter Phillips, who died about the 10th inst., was scalded to death by a pot of hot coffee being turned over on him. He was lying on a bench, asleep, by the side of a table when the hot coffee was accidentally turned over. He suffered for about three days and died. On the day of his burial his little sister Gertrude was attacked with Typhoid fever and lingered for about ten days and died. The afflicted father has the sympathy of the community.

La Grange Items.

Business in town Saturday quite lively.

Cotton 11 cents. Over 50 bales sold Saturday.

The residence of J. W. Sutton Esq., is receiving a new coat of paint.

Isaac Taylor, a colored man near 90 years old, died on the farm of W. M. Nettles last Friday.

C. W. Joyner is having lumber hauled with the view of building a first class restaurant in this place.

Last week was one especially favorable to picking cotton, and most of our farmers made good use of it.

The "equinoctial blow" was not very severe in this section, as to wind. Rain fell in large quantities, and stopped cotton picking.

Rev. John T. Walsh of the Disciples Church was in town Saturday morning, on his way to Wheat Swamp Church where he preached on Sunday.

An infant child of Francis Williams died near this place last week. Mrs. Williams wife of Adam Williams of Wayne county died on the same day.

Wiley Rouse an aged and respected citizen of Trent Township, in this county, was partially paralyzed while at breakfast on Saturday morning. His condition was critical when last heard from.

George Moy and Dave McDaniel had a fight Saturday evening. George was up before Squire Warters of Falling Creek, and fined fifty cents and costs. Dave gave bond for his appearance next Saturday.

The condition of Joshua Warters, struck by the negro Wilson reported last week, is not so favorable. He is still
