October.
County Commissioners meet to-morrow.

Scuppernongs were down to 80 cents yesterday.

Steamer Defiance arrived from Baltimore last night.

Two fair days, and the brick makers are becoming happy.

The market was well supplied with fresh meats yesterday.

Albert Patterson is building a new store next to the Central Hotel.

About ten tons of fish went up the road by Express this morning.

Over five hundred bales of cotton were brought in on the Goldboro road on Friday night.

Major Dennison received seven hundred feet of steam pipe on the Goldboro Friday evening.

No Mayor's court for several days. The City Marshal says the people are growing bolder.

The Register of Deeds issued license for one couple—whites—to marry during the past week.

Two interments in Cedar Grove Cemetery during the past week. One adult, who died of consumption, and one infant.

Stephen Jones, the umbrella mender, was well known in New Berne, was married in Raleigh a few days ago. Phil Holland and Owen Guion are hopeful.

A copy of the Weekly Charlotte Journal has been sent us. It is a capital paper—and indeed could not be otherwise, made up from so good a Daily. The Journal is a good name.

The Democratic Congressional Executive Committee for the 2d District met in Goldsboro on Friday Sept. 29th, and issued a call for a meeting of the Convention in Goldsboro on Saturday, Oct. 7th. We understand they adopted a resolution recommending that no candidate should be run by the Democrats.

The Star on Friday, quoted Middling cotton at Wilmington at 10 7/8. So New Berne is now up with the best cotton market in the State. What causes this? The answer is plain: the Cotton Exchange here, by providing mutual facilities for both buyer and seller, has induced exporters to establish agencies here and thus the market now is among the best in the State.

The Cotton Market.
Only 40 bales of cotton sold at the Exchange yesterday, at prices ranging from 90¢ to 101¢.

County Convention.
The following delegates were selected last night to attend the Democratic county convention next Saturday:
First Ward—A. A. Green, John C. Green, S. E. Breen, Jr.
Third Ward—Alex. Miller, P. Holland, J. M. Dwyer, Stevenson.
Fourth Ward—W. P. Barrens, S. Phillips.

Our Churches To-Day.
CHRIST CHURCH.
17th Sunday after Trinity—Morning Prayer 11. Sermon by the pastor, Holy Communion.
Evening Prayer 7:30.
The public are cordially invited to the services in this church. Free seats to all visitors.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.
Rev. Edward Bull will preach at 11 o'clock, in the Presbyterian Church. The pastor, Rev. E. H. Windley, will return from his summer vacation and meeting of Synod on Wednesday next.

Cotton Statement.
The following is the cotton statement from September 1, to October 1:
Sales at New Berne Exchange for week ending 10/1/82, 1,097 bales.
Sales at New Berne Exchange for month, 1,674 " "
Sales same week last year, 1,674 " "
Sales same month last year, 1,104 " "
Showing an increase in the week of 57 bales, and a decrease in the month of 36 bales.

A cargo from up Trent river arrived after the Exchange had closed, which would have run the current month up to and slightly beyond the sales of last September had it arrived earlier in the day.

The Goldboro reports of the Port from all over the world, 97,000 bales. Gross receipts at the Port from all over the world, 4,500 "

Have no means of getting at gross receipts for last year.

AGRICULTURE.

After the Graded School gets well under way it should be visited often by the friends and patrons of the school. Their visits will encourage the children and also keep themselves informed as to what good is being accomplished. But, we wish to suggest, at least two weeks ought to lapse from the opening of the school before visitors are allowed. The school is new, the system is new and many of the teachers are strangers, and to form perfect order out of this chaos will require some little time, and the presence of visitors will necessarily embarrass.

Your Name in Print.
Pleased to hear that Mr. Adolph Colin has been making educational as well as political speeches. We hear he calls and comments from the JOURNAL in his educational theories. Commendable say we.

P. H. Pelletier, Esq., of Carteret, was in the city yesterday.

River and Marine.

The schooner Ella Hill and Adie Henry sailed for Adams creek yesterday to load lumber at Hoser's mill for Baltimore.

The steamer Goldboro of the Clyde Line, sailed for Baltimore last night at 9 o'clock, with 1,950 bales of cotton, and naval stores.

The steamer Neuse arrived on Friday night with 60 bales of cotton, through freight.

The schooner Susan, Capt. John Slade, cleared for Bay River on yesterday, with a cargo of general merchandise.

The steamer Contentea arrived from Vaneboro yesterday with shingles and naval stores.

The schooner S. Francis, Capt. Douglas, arrived yesterday from Jacksonville with a cargo of oats and corn. The corn was consigned to W. P. Barrens & Co.

Kinston Items.

Cotton came in very briskly last Friday—it declined, however, to 101 cents.

The river is now in good condition for the boats and is rising slowly at this point.

Judge Fields had before him last Thursday a case of assault with intent to commit rape. The party, who is white, was bound over to the Superior Court.

The Neuse, with 81 bales of cotton, left Kinston Friday evening for New Berne. Capt. Roberts, in the forenoon, took a leap into the river to avoid falling on the wharf.

Sylvester Lawhorn, who shot Herrann Bryan a few weeks since, was released from jail last Wednesday, giving bail in four hundred dollars for his appearance at our fall term of the Superior Court. Mr. Bryan is still improving.

Geo. T. Wasson, Esq., candidate for Solicitor in the third Judicial District, is advertised to speak at Woodington on the 5th; at La Grange on the 6th, and at Kinston on the 7th of October. Humphrey, Moore, O'Hara and other Republican speakers will accompany him.

The Samaritans of New Berne joined the Samaritans of Kinston here last Thursday and had a pleasant and spirited time. The war flag of New Berne accompanied them and on the occasion with excellent and soul-stirring music. Israel B. Abbot, Esq., delivered a fine oration.

Uncle Richard says the Republican Senatorial joint at Snow Hill took the "last blade of fodder" from the "old wheel-horse" of the Republican party and has placed it tantalizing before the eyes of the young sinner colt of Lenoir, to reach which he expects such "rearing, snorting and cowering" this fall as was never before heard of in the animal kingdom.

The aggregate returns of the tax lists of Lenoir county show for the current year 1,221 white polls and 888 colored polls. The taxable value of real and personal property amounts to one million nine hundred and eighty-four thousand two hundred and twenty-nine dollars. The increase in value over last year is about one hundred thousand dollars. Thirteen dogs were given in for taxation, and $741 in net income.

Richard W. King, Esq., chairman of the Lenoir county executive committee has resigned that position, doubtless concluding he cannot conduct this canvass with success by the Liberal Republican Democratic Red Light which the Snow Hill convention has raised for the guidance of the Republican party. Dr. Samuel A. Bartleson, the great Kuklux hero, has suggested himself as the character for the daring and difficult position.

Mary Ann Hill, aged about twenty-six years, died a few days ago in Pink Hill township, Lenoir county. She has been a county pauper and a bed-ridden invalid and cripple nearly twenty years. In 1863, when young, she received an accidental gun shot wound, which, shortly after the wound, caused her breast to sink and her knees to be drawn up to her breast, in which position she died, having been confined to her bed in that condition about eighteen years. The contents of the loaded gun were never taken from her or discovered. Shortly after her death, her funeral was preached by Rev. Henry Cunningham, her poor mother manifesting a grief, wild and frantic, as if the only object on earth worth living for had been cruelly taken from her. Truly, a mother's love is a pledge of our immortality.

Deer and Snakes.

The New Berne JOURNAL has a correspondent at Swansboro, Onslow county, who would take the priming away from anybody, except the man who said English of Indiana is expending money in this campaign. The last statement of this correspondent is that hundreds of deer are dying in the woods of some kind of distemper, and that a large buck walked into a gentleman's yard, as if seeking help for his complaint, and allowed himself to be knocked in the head with a stick, rather than take the trouble to move. Not satisfied with this evidence of his veracity, but, to clinch the thing, he says he has the backbone (or one of the vertebrae) of a rattlesnake that measures 1 1/2 inches in diameter, and then, soaring away to the azure heights of mendacity, he solemnly avers that Bryant Hatzel killed a buck a few days ago which carried six prongs and weighed 350 pounds, although he was not at all fat. This correspondent is evidently a Radical.—Charlotte Journal.

Our correspondent is not a Radical but an "independent," and the Charlotte Journal evidently don't know enough about deer and rattlesnakes to offer a righteous criticism.

Fish.

A brief visit to the fish packing establishment of Mr. Geo. N. Ives on Thursday evening increased our respect for the importance of this industry.

Eighteen hands and the proprietors were busily engaged packing and tying the tubs and barrels, getting them in readiness for the midnight train. Mulletts, bluefish, mackerel and many other varieties were assorted, string and counted, and thirty-five tubs containing about 40 bunches each, and three large barrels were soon made ready for transportation. The bluefish were very large and of excellent quality, one of which, a full grown one weighing seven pounds, was, through the kindness of Mr. Ives, partaken of at the breakfast table of ye local this morning. Mr. Ives' shipments this week will exceed one hundred tubs of fresh fish, besides quite a number of barrels of salted ones.—Beaufort Telephone.

The Forty-sixth Massachusetts Regiment, at its late reunion, discussed at length the suggestion to have an excursion to New Berne, with which they became well acquainted during the war. And it was agreed that they would do so at some day in the future. They will receive a more hospitable welcome than they formerly did if they shall carry out their purpose. We can sympathize with the feeling, not one of exultation, but of personal interest in revisiting places where one suffered hardship during the war.—News and Observer.
