LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

NATIONAL BANK—Statement.
JOURNAL OFFICE—Cane lost.

Journal Miniature Almanac.

Sun rises, 6:51. Length of day, 11:34.
Sun sets, 5:35. 11 hours, 34 minutes.
Moon rises at 1:55 a.m.

The County Board of Education meets to-day.

The Superior Court of Jones county convenes next Monday.

The new Express uniform caps are very nobby. The company requires all its messengers to wear them.

The Tiger Lily carried into Pamlico yesterday a portable engine for Mr. Gibbs for rice threshing—shipped by Mr. J. C. Whitty.

The Wilson Siftings comes out enlarged. It was already a first rate paper, and the only improvement desired was in getting more of it.

The forgery case perpetrated on Mr. John U. Smith two days ago came to a hearing yesterday before Esq. Stanly. Money refunded and costs settled.

Rev. Mr. S. H. Lohr will preach at the Presbyterian church, near Pollockville, on Sunday the 8th, (to-morrow) in the morning, and at Pollockville in the afternoon.

The Delaware says that Judge Seymour may be seen daily on the streets of Greensboro staggering under a double armful of law books. He is there reading up on Federal law, and is availing himself of Col. Keogh's fine library.

Mr. E. H. Meadows received by the Shenandoah yesterday a lot of Peruvian guano. His huge warehouse, next to the "cotton yard," has an office fitted up in front, and there, we learn, will be Mr. M.'s headquarters for everything in the trucking line.

The New Court House.

The workmen, superintended by Mr. John B. Lane, are laying the foundation for the new court house. It is to be 94 feet long by 53-6 wide, and fronts Craven street. We suggest that the corner stone be laid on the 20th of May next.

Self Nominated.

They have a kind of an odd way of doing things up in Halifax. In the Democratic convention a committee was sent out to recommend the nominees.

Winter Quarters.

Mr. J. J. Wolfenden has opened an office and warehouse in the brick building next to the Clyde line freight office. He has farmed all summer and now is going into winter quarters to handle rice and other grain. Query: Will it take all the profits of his winter's work to pay expenses of the farm? This is generally about the result of city farmers' work.

Convicted of Forgery.

Mr. L. S. Wood, a clerk at Mr. Geo. Allen's store, returned from Wilmington on Tuesday night where he had been as a witness in the case of J. M. Collier, alias George Harris, indicted in the Criminal court for forgery. He says the jury brought in a verdict of "guilty" within fifteen minutes after taking the case. The sentence of the court had not been passed when Mr. Wood left.

The New Berne Bar.

At the Theatre, Thursday night, when the "deed" scene occurred in Esmeralda, wherein Dave tore the paper up, a New Berne Attorney was heard to whisper to Probate Judge Carpenter: "That deed wasn't worth a straw; the woman's privity examination had not been taken." And the Probate Judge gave a gentle sign of assent, and immediately intimated that he was ready to make it good for the price of a reserved seat.

Machine Shops.

The Machine Shops in this city are worthy of repeated mention. The amount of costly machinery in them, the number of hands employed, and the quantity and variety of work turned out by the establishments of E. G. Cutler, Bert and Messrs. Maxwell & Crutcher are each and all worthy of notice. They are never idle, and from early morn until late night are constantly heard the clang and hum of busy industry.

Congressional Convention.

At the Democratic County Convention held in New Berne on Friday, the following gentlemen were named delegates to the Congressional Convention which meets in Goldsboro to-day: John Hughes, Eliza Ellis, John S. Egan, E. H. Meadows, E. M. Pavia, Alpha Wood, Jas. A. Bryan, Major A. Gordon, Bryan Whitford, Edward Whitford, S. W. Latham, Van Allen Brown, Wm. E. Lane, B. A. Russell, John H. Brown, Washington Bryan, F. M. Simpson, John Manly, H. H. Lane and Lemuel Goff.

Your Name in Print.

Miss Potter, of this city, and Miss Phares, of Morehead City, were registered as visitors at the Cotton Exchange yesterday.

Mr. Pesh, of the Revenue Department, left yesterday on the Shenandoah for a Baltimore trip.

Ti-Ti Pipe Stem.

Capt Southgate of the steamer Shenandoah wants a Ti-Ti pipe stem. A young lady friend of his in Norfolk, while visiting friends at Harvard this summer, was asked about this stem by one of the College professors, who understood it could be found only in North Carolina, and was very desirous of getting one. Mr. E. H. Meadows says this stem is very common in Western North Carolina and especially in the region where "Esmeralda" came from. Will some of our exchanges near "old Bald" call attention to this fact and direct us how to get a genuine, simon-pure Ti-Ti?

Cottons Yesterday.

The bulls took possession of the local market yesterday and pushed the price up several points, although New York spots remained unchanged. One hundred and ninety-one bales changed hands—the bulk of it at 10 1/2; a few bales brought 10.55 and three bales went off at 10.40—less than a cent difference between this and the New York market. Liverpool Futures closed "firm" and New York Futures were "easy" with slight decline on Thursday's figures:

NEW YORK MARKET: SPOT: Middling 11. Low middling 10 1/2. Strict low middling 11 1/4-16. Low middling 10 1/2.

NEW YORK FUTURES: October, 11.21. November, 10.96. December, 10.90. January, 11.03.

LIVERPOOL SPOTS: Uplands 8 1/2. Orleans 6 13-16.

LIVERPOOL FUTURES: October, 6.45-6 1/2. November, 6.22-6 1/4. December, 6.20-6 1/4.

Independents.

RICHMOND, Oct. 2d, 1882.

Mr. Enron:—There has been a good deal said for the nominees of this county. Now I propose to say something for the independents; there is no few of this class of voters in this county. We have an independent ticket for the county, and on the 7th of November next we expect to vote up a whaling majority.

We are strictly democratic and claim that we are not at all responsible for the disorganization of the old party; we only ask for the majority to rule. Away with two third rulers in conventions; away with machine politics. We ask only for a free ballot and fair count. We ask that no special tax be levied and collected without our satisfaction. We ask that county expenses be run within the constitutional limits. We ask that our jury men be paid for their services every day they serve, and if necessary no man can be compelled to serve more than one day without pay if he asks for payment. J. W. FOUNTAIN.

Vance Township (Lenoir Co.) Items.

Application will be made soon for a post office at J. M. Mewborne's store.

Mr. Lem. Hardy of Green is building a small steamer to navigate the Contentment creek. She will be named, we understand, the Robert Rauschen.

O. Hubbs and G. T. Wasson had a bitter contest at Snow Hill. Mr. L. J. Moore also spoke. All sustained themselves. Rev. Mr. Smith (co.) howled for an hour and a half.

Mr. D. G. Taylor, the champion fox hunter of Lenoir county, caught some days ago, after a fifteen mile chase, an old fox whose head was perfectly white, with two black stripes down each side of his head, blaze in face, heavy tan colored marks over his eyes, and white throat. After the pack of hounds were beaten off it was discovered that there was a leather collar around his neck with this inscription: "R. T. Bennett, a hero among heroes, a statesman among statesmen, will carry N. C. by 15,000 majority. Signed, MOUNTAINEER." J. LOVICK.

La Grange Items.

Sickness, mostly chills and fevers, in abundance.

James L. Elmore and Hattie B. Casey were married at the residence of the bride's father on the 4th inst. "Judge Sutton" officiating.

Patrick Joyner's horse sown cotton from McIntyre & Co's gin house nearly half round a square. Patrick says some one touched him with some bagging and ties.

J. R. Uzell, who has just finished his legal course and received license from the Supreme court to practice, was in town yesterday. Mr. Uzell expects to make Kinston his head quarters.

Cotton has a black eye. Price 10 cents and dull at that. Western hog meat at 16 to 18 cents and cotton at 10 cents, makes it hard on those who eat the meat. Raise your supplies little children.

The County Commissioners at their last meeting granted retail liquor license for two new bar-rooms in this place, R. T. Whitfield and Thos. Head. I have not learned if they will keep a bar. Shade and Fred still hold the fort at their old stands.

Bill Casey has just entered into politics. He is opposed to the no fence law etc. Billy thinks he has considerable influence and can defeat this much-praised, much-cursed measure. William had better wait and see if it will be an issue in the campaign.

I have been informed that the statement made last week in regard to former purchasers of Mr. Nettles' land and gin "falling to come to time," does the parties an injustice. They say that they were ready and willing to comply with the contract, and that it was the additional five hundred dollars that caused Mr. Nettles to declare a forfeiture.

Horse vs. Negro—1790.

(Greensboro Patriot.)

In the records of the Superior court of Rowen county, 1790, appears the following judgments:

STATE vs. Larceny

Ordered that this sentence be immediately executed.

STATE vs. Murder

Defendant being convicted of murdering a negro it is ordered by the Court that he be imprisoned twelve months in the county jail.

Ponies that will Please the Little Ones.

Baron Von Raub, Leon Springs, Bezar County, has 8,000 acres all under fence, properly subdivided, and stocked with beautiful Shetland and spotted ponies. His breeding stock consists of seven stallions and forty-five mares, all thoroughbred, and two hundred spotted pony mares. He is breeding a race of striped and spotted ponies to please the children. He sells the increase to persons all over the world, and the supply is not equal to the demand. These little ponies range over the prairies like sheep or goats, and present a novel appearance—very gentle, every one as docile as a cat, and can be caught anywhere on the range.—Texas Wool Grower.

THREATENED LANCASTER.

Arms for the Militia Company—What a Union County Negro Threatens.

COLUMBIA, October 3.—Mr. John H. Fitzpatrick, who has just been elected captain of the Lancaster Militia company, reached Columbia to-night to consult with the Adjutant General as to the organization and equipment of his company, which now numbers eighty-eight members all told.

Capt. Fitzpatrick says that Lancaster is now quiet, but that the air is filled with all sorts of fearful rumors, and threats have been made by the negroes to burn the town. Several anonymous letters have been received by the sheriff conveying these threats, and a negro named Alexander Blackman is reported as saying that if the negroes in Lancaster would fire one house in the village every house in the country should be burned to the ground. A negro living on Mr. Health's plantation, just over the North Carolina line, is reported to have said that he had 1,200 negroes under his command, and "if necessary, they would sweep everything between the North Carolina border and Lancaster."

Since the riot last week there have been no open demonstrations, but the people are on the alert, and the Town of Lancaster is guarded every night by a force of sixteen well-armed men. Gen. Manigault will ship to-morrow a full supply of Roberts' rifles, with forty rounds of ammunition for each member of Fitzpatrick's command.
