LOCAL NEWS.

Journal Miniature Almanac.

Sun sets, 5:24; 11 hours, 16 minutes.
Moon sets at 7:32 p. m.

A grand Stimson ratification meeting is advertised for this city for Oct. 27th.

The tobacco growers of the West are congratulating themselves on the delay of Jack Frost.

The attendance at the colored Fair at Raleigh, last week, was not as great as on former years.

The city Marshall knows how to get work done on the streets—he takes off his coat and leads (occasionally.)

Wm. H. Johnson, the colored candidate for Legislative honors in this county had six bales of cotton in the market on Friday.

Our former townsman J. L. H. Missillier of Henderson arrived in the city last night. He returns to-morrow morning.

The new steamer Elm City, built by Captain W. A. Graves for the Carolina waters, is very nearly ready for service.—Norfolk Landmark.

Mr. John Dillard had on exhibition at the Cotton Exchange, on Saturday, several bunches of luscious Mish grapes—the best sample of the season.

Mr. A. B. Cox who is holding a skating rink at Weinstein's corner, has concluded to take a share of stock in the New Berne Gymnasium Club.

The Directors of the Athletic Association decided on Saturday night to admit ladies, upon certain conditions, to all the privileges of life membership, save that of voting.

The District Conference of the A. M. E. Zion Church which met here this week elected A. G. Oden and V. A. Crawford, delegates to the Annual Conference to be held in Wilmington, commencing on the first Wednesday in December.

Col. Jno. N. Whitford comes out in a card replying to Mr. H. Frank Brown, in which he shows that his candidacy has been endorsed by the Democratic Convention of Jones and of Carteret and by the Democratic Executive Committee of Onslow.

The Durham Plant speaketh thusly: "Our people remember Wilson Lucas, of Hyde. He was one of the bitterest Democrats we ever heard talk. Now he has gone and accepted the nomination for the Legislature from the Liberals and Radicals of Hyde."

In Carteret county one demagogue plea used against the present Sheriff, Julius F. Jones Esq., is that he collects taxes very closely. We thought that was what a sheriff was elected for, and it ought to be spoken to his credit that he is thus making a faithful officer.

The cotton yard was christened yesterday with cotton from three counties—Craven, Lenoir and Wayne. Capt. Gray, President of the Cotton Exchange, led off with the first lot, followed by Mr. J. C. Wooten, of Lenoir, with 22 bales, and then by Mr. George Best, with a lot Wayne cotton.

If the comet this year heralds anything for New Berne, as suggested in "Bits of History," we take it that it refers to the advent of the New Berne JOURNAL, and the division into two parts may refer to the two JOURNALS—Daily and Weekly. If any one else wishes a different interpretation he must manufacture for himself.

Diphtheria.
This fearful and fatal disease has been raging alarmingly through this section. It is easily subdued if you keep a constant lookout. Examine the throat of your children daily, and at the first appearance of white ulcers apply the proper remedy.—Watch-Tower.

We rejoice to know that diphtheria is now under control. The Watch-Tower has settled it—just examine the throat and apply the proper remedy!

Cotton Yesterday.
The week ends with 830 bales of cotton, and of this 179 bales were sold on Saturday from 104 to 101. New York futures went off in the evening and the market closed at 10 7/16 for middling—the lowest figures reached this week. New York spot were "dull" and futures "easy." Liverpool spots "easy," and futures "weak."

Characteristic War Order by Gen. Hill.
In an old copy of the Charleston Mercury, bearing date January 25th, 1865, which has been furnished to us by a friend, the following characteristic order of Gen. D. H. Hill is found copied from the Augusta papers of the previous day:

All non-combatants are respectfully requested to leave the city immediately. If their removal be delayed until the emergency arrives, no railroad facility can be allowed them. In the class of non-combatants are included all young gentlemen who have no relish for the trenches. These are exhorted to leave at once under escort of the old ladies. In addition the Provost Marshal is ordered to close all places of business and amusement, and to see that all men under the age of fifty, and not physically disabled, take their places in the ranks.—Charlotte Journal.

Hard Work.
The present schedule of the mail train on the Midland road makes pretty hard work for the employees. The same conductor, brakemen and engineer are on continued duty for twenty-four consecutive hours, every other day. They go on at 10 p. m. at New Berne and reach Morehead at 12.55. At 2.55 (no time to get any sleep) they leave Morehead and reach Goldsboro at 9.40 a. m. After stopping in Goldsboro about 3 hours the train leaves for Smithfield, arriving there at 2.11 p. m. and leaving at 4 o'clock reaches New Berne again at 10 p. m. having been up on a 24 hours' stretch. This is rather steep work, especially for the engineer upon whose vigilant wakefulness depends the safety of the many passengers committed to his care.

How to Turn a Barley into a White Man.
The Charlotte Journal may now let up on our Swansboro correspondent as the following extract will abundantly prove:

"Dr. W. W. Gregory, of this city, has discovered a medico political nostrum which is at once to settle the race question by turning all the negroes white. About two years ago the doctor treated a colored man for a chronic disease of the skin and gave him a certain lotion for it. After the lapse of a day or two the patient returned and the doctor was astounded to discover that the coal black skin was, where it had been anointed, pure white, without abrasion of tenderness of parts, and the color and flesh as healthy and natural as those of a white man; the lotion having removed the pigment without injury to the skin. The doctor was ignorant himself of what element in the preparation had effected this wonder, so he remained quiet. A year after this the negro returned and the doctor found the places still white. Since that time Dr. Gregory has been trying to discover the ingredient, and a day or two since came to a definite conclusion on the subject. He now invites the examination of all scientific men if the man can be got to come forward. His exact residence in the county is not known, but if he will come forward the doctor says he will do something handsome for him."

State and Wm. Cohen vs J. B. Newbold.
A trial before Justice W. G. Brinson on Saturday evening brought out some interesting points. Mr. Wm. Cohen some months ago had sold a mule to the defendant for $150 and in payment therefor had taken a note due Nov. 1 1882, and secured by chattel mortgage on crop and stock—about $1,000 worth of collaterals. The young man Newbold had sold a half bale of cotton—the first picked out—and Mr. Cohen had him prosecuted for selling mortgaged property with intent to defeat the debt. Hon. C. C. Clark appeared for prosecutor and F. M. Simmons, Esq., for defendant.

It seems that Mr. C. had sent defendant a postal card some days ago notifying him when the debt would fall due and suggesting an early settlement—and having some words about it defendant had "cussed him out." On being asked, on the witness stand, why he took offense at this notification he said it was on account of the publicity given private business. If prosecutor had written a letter it would have been all right.

"But do you not know," said Mr. Clark, "that postal cards are private communications, and no one has a right to read them in their passage to you?"

Ans. "But everybody does read them—especially at Pollockville."

The Justice decided the case against the prosecutor, evidently believing from the evidence that the cotton was not sold with the intent to defraud, there being ample security intact to secure the indebtedness.

There are no less than four or five rice threshers in the county this year, and from what we hear they are kept busy night and day. The new machine of Forebee & Co. is said to have threshed out 170 bushels rice the first day of its trial.—Familia Enterprise.

Carteret Speaking.
The candidates for the House of Representatives, and Julius F. Jones, candidate for Sheriff, will address the voters of Carteret County at the following times and places:

Pelletier's mills, Tuesday, October 17th, at 2 o'clock, p. m.
Oak Grove school house, Wednesday, October 18th, at 10 o'clock, a. m.
Newport, Tuesday, October 19th, at 2 o'clock, p. m.

Harlowe, Friday, October 20th; at 2 o'clock, p. m.
Beaufort, Saturday, October 21st, at 2 o'clock, p. m.
Cedar Island, Tuesday, October 26th, at 10 o'clock, a. m.

Portsmouth, Tuesday, October 26th, at 7 o'clock, p. m.
Harker's Island, Friday, October 27th, at 7 o'clock, p. m.
Morehead City, Saturday, October 28th, at 7 o'clock, p. m.

Straits, Tuesday, October 31st at 7 o'clock, p. m.
Ward's Creek (west side), Wednesday, Nov. 1st, at 2 o'clock, p. m.
Ward's Creek (east side), Wednesday, Nov. 1st, at 6 o'clock, p. m.

Kinston Items.
Cotton has been coming in very briskly during the latter part of the week. It sold to-day, Friday, at 10.16.

The strong man—an athlete with a single leg—has been amusing our public this week by an open exhibition of his powers and gymnastic exercises. He lifted "Chow Chow," 240 pounds, at arm's end, threw him over his head and called for another baby.

The fox caught by D. G. Taylor in Lenoir county with a Bennett badge around his neck, notice of which has appeared in the JOURNAL, is said to be the "Old Red Fox," of Greene, who was looking out for the Senatorial nomination from Greene and Lenoir.

Samuel M. Croom, an exemplary and useful young man, residing in Trent township, Lenoir county, son of Mrs. Margaret A. Croom, was caught by the arm in his gin last Thursday, splitting the arm from the hand to the shoulder and producing death from hemorrhage in a few hours—before skillful aid could be had.

Among the many permanent institutions of our thriving town is Shelburn's Photographic Art Gallery. He has connected with his operating room an elegantly fitted up reception saloon, where some of the finest works of the photographic art are exhibited. His photographs are as natural and life-like as any that come from Gurney, Mora or Sarony. In these degenerate days when good looks frequently compensate for the absence of all better gifts it is important to public persons that their features be kept prominently before their patrons and it looks like some of our citizens have already taken advantage of this suggestion. Shelburn's photos prove the oft repeated assertion of Yankee in the "Octoroon," "the camera can't lie." The peculiarities of great people while facing the camera are very interesting. It is said the great Charles Dickens would always begin by inviting the photographer to join him in "a little brandy and water, hot." It is not suggested, however, that any of Shelburn's patrons have Dicken's peculiarities. It is said the best looking people, as a rule, are the most difficult to take. Those generally make the best pictures who understand the art, for it is an art, of graceful posing. Plain people are rarely satisfied with their photographs and seldom, with themselves. Success after all, is the best test of merit, especially in this business; and if Shelburn's merit is to be tested, he stands pre-eminent over all other artists in our State.

Railroad Notes.
(New York Sun.)
The Grand Trunk system now embraces 3,330 miles.
A road, to cost $3,000,000, is to be built from Brooklyn, Ill., to Shawnee town.

The Wheeling and Lake Erie Railroad has been opened from Wheeling to Detroit.
A short line is to be opened up by the Missouri Pacific from Kansas City to St. Louis.

The California Southern is completed to San Diego, 669 miles from San Francisco.

A railroad is to be built between Buffalo and Toronto. It will be ten miles shorter than any existing road.

Trains are to be running on Nov. 1 on the Chicago and Atlantic Railroad between Chicago and Marion, Ohio, 250 miles.

The New York, West Shore and Buffalo Railroad when completed will, it is said, be the most expensive road ever constructed for the distance.

The Denver and South Park division of the Gunnison branch is now completed to Gunnison, 207 miles from Denver, 72 miles from the main line at Buena Vista.

Hyde County Items.

"The falling of a leaf is a whisper to the living."
The autumn with its beautiful foliage. Leaves take on new beauties ere they die.

How much better it would be if men would make their last days the beautiful days.

This is the season for the Hyde county poet, (of whom I heard my old friend Samuel W. Latham, of your county often speak,) to begin his inspiring strains. While I am not a native, I endorse said poet when he sings:

"Hyde county, Hyde county is the county for me,
Hyde county, Hyde county lies down by the sea.
Hyde county, Hyde county lies right on the sea,
Hyde county, Hyde county is the county for me.

Hyde county's daughters, fair as you ever did see,
Hyde county, Hyde county lies down by the sea.
Hyde county's sons as brave as can be,
Hyde county, Hyde county is the county for me."

That man was patriotic if not poetical. Don't tell Sam Latham that I said, he said the poetry contained about one hundred verses, stanzas, which?

I hear rumors of a wedding; don't tell any one. Will give particulars after the interesting event.

Mr. L. S. Ross is an independent for clerk. Mr. T. C. Mann has announced himself for sheriff.

Senator Z. B. Vance will speak at Swan Quarter Oct. 19. Hyde will turn out on that day.

T. W. Pool, candidate for Senate second district will speak at three places in the county, beginning about the 10th inst.

Mr. Geo. Richards, of Currituck, shot and killed a hog stealer, caught in the act. Any Hyde county pork thief ought to be dealt with severely, scarce as bacon is just now. This one deserves his fate—it is a large bear.

Messrs. W. B. Swindell, Jas. M. Ransom, J. M. Spencer and B. Spokesbury, enterprising merchants, have returned, after purchasing their fall stock.

Capt. Hussey, officers and men of the steamer Wm. Gales, on the route between E. City and Fairfield, are spoken of in the highest terms for unexcelled courtesy and kindness.

Learn that the corn crop will average nearly as much as last year.

Cotton pickers and rice cutters (human) are in demand.

The universal cry is something to eat, specially bacon. The cholera killed most of the hogs last year, thereby saving salt and labor. How will that do for a "silver lining" to the cloud?

Mr. Jas. McGowan, before reported quite sick, is dead.

Lilly B., daughter of Robert and Vianna Jannette, died at Lake Comfort, aged 5 years, 1 month and 19 days.

David S. Gibbs has been quite sick, but is getting well.

The Removed Transfer of the R. & D.

No further direct testimony could be gained yesterday as to the reported transfer of the Richmond & Danville's lines of railway to the Standard Oil Company. The incidental evidences however, cited in the Journal this morning as to the relations of the Standard Oil Company and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and the well known desire of Mr. Garrett of the latter corporation for southern connections and a southwestern outlet are confirmed by the opinions of our well posted citizens, and in a striking manner by the Atlanta Constitution yesterday morning, which paper originated the report of the transfer on the previous day by the publication of a telegram from New York to the effect that the transfer was there believed to have been made. The Constitution cites nearly the same reasons for belief in the report as those of the Journal, and quotes Mr. Garrett of the B. & O. as saying sometime ago that "he would be in this section shortly if the plans he then entertained were matured." The Constitution thinks that the new controllers will without doubt complete the proposed system by building the Georgia Pacific.
