The foundation of the new court house has been completed to the top of the ground. It has been well laid, and the work will go on as soon as more brick can be secured.

The certificates of stock for the New Berne Athletic and Social Club are printed with great taste and skill. Mr. N. S. Richardson is one of the best and neatest job printers in the State.

Mr. Fred Maler predicts that peanuts, owing to the large crops made in Tennessee and Virginia, will be very low this season. Says they will be down to 50 cents per bushel against $1.00 now.

Gen. Ransom informs us that work has been resumed on Contentnea Creek and in a few days will begin on Trent river. The money appropriated on Trent river has greatly improved navigation, from 91 to 9.90, the market closing at 91. and no doubt the present appropriation will still further improve it.

A telegram was received on yesterday by Mrs. Geo. E. Pittman from Georgetown, Ky., announcing the death of ex-Governor Robinson, which occurred on Tuesday last. The M. E. Church Working Society.

This society was organized in February, 1880, for the purpose of raising money for the improvement of the interior of the church on Neuse street. They have one hundred and fifteen members who pay monthly dues to the amount of ten cents each, besides voluntary contributions which many of them make monthly. In this quiet way, and by holding a few dime parties and festivals, they have raised nearly seventeen hundred dollars. It is not necessary to be a member of the church in order to be a member of the Society: any one friendly to the church is eligible to membership. The social feature makes tho work pleasant to the members as well as profitable to the church.

All-Saints-Day.

Yesterday there was service in the Episcopal church and the celebration of the Holy Communion. Beautiful boquets of flowers were carried to the if in memory of the departed saints of the early times.

All-Saints-Day, in old English, All-Hallows, All-Hallowmas or simply Hallowmas, was introduced because of the possibility of keeping a separate day revery saint. As early as the 4th century, on the cessation of the perse-cution of the Christians, the Sunday af-
