New steps are being built to the entrance of the Episcopal church.

The steamer Goldsboro was loading lumber at Congdon's mill yesterday.

Our clever postmaster, Mr. Jno. S. Manix, has put in forty new handsome lock boxes.

The Midland Railroad Co. have information from Providence that the two new engines left there on Monday morning for Goldsboro.

Seventy-eight bales of cotton at the Exchange yesterday. Price 9½ to 9.90 The New York Exchange was closed yesterday, consequently no market reports.

One of the "resolute" men of the First Ward was promptly on hand at the Old Dominion wharf yesterday morning, looking for the arrival of McLindsay on the Shenandoah.

Messrs. Maxwell & Crabtree have the machinery for Capt. Cherry's new boat nearly ready. The boat is 60 feet long and 14 feet beam, is a double ender—sharp at both ends—and will be especially adapted to service in small creeks.

Mr. Lewis Webb to a New Berne cotton buyer with a green coat on at the Exchange yesterday morning: "Why, how are you? You look green since I saw you last!" "Yes," replied the buyer, "I feel devilish green since losing on cotton so."

Died.
At Bayboro on the evening of the 6th inst., Mrs. Pattie Hough, of pneumonia.

Your Name in Print.
Mr. Lewis Webb, of New York, arrived on the Shenandoah yesterday morning, and will spend a few days in the city.

Railroad Accidents.
Yesterday was an unlucky day for the Midland. The down mail on Monday night broke down a few miles below here and did not return until late yesterday evening. The up mail yesterday morning, when near Goldsboro the engine jumped the track and smashed up things generally, but no one was hurt.

La Grange Items.
C. C. Taylor, the JOURNAL agent, was in town Saturday.
Fruit tree agents are again among us—this time on the delivery trip.
A lot of drunkenness in town Saturday, and some disturbance. Nothing serious.
Foggy Elmore, about 80 years old, died near Piney Grove in Wayne county, last Wednesday.
R. C. Croom dug a sweet potato last week which weighed 8½ pounds, so says Croom. The potato was given to one of the townsmen for attentiveness to business.

A tenant, Pompey Moy, on J. W. Sutton's place, threshed 183 bushels of rice from 4 acres. This is the best yield I have heard of, 40 bushels to the acre.

William Barwick had his arm caught and terribly torn in Mr. Parrot's gin, near Falling Creek last week. How long before genius will learn that gins are dangerous?

Another case of sore throat in the Buckleberry section—a small child of John R. Elmore's. It was better on Saturday. It is hoped that the disease, though severe, is not diphtheria.

To-morrow is election day and will fix Sam's or Slover's fate as to the post-offices. O'Hara must be elected, as Hubbs has withdrawn. So Slover may be considered in luck, unless, peradventure, the Republicans may, etc., etc.

A countryman was driving leisurely down the street, when his horse dropped, it was thought from some disease. The driver with assistance removed the buggy, applied the remedy—a long whip—and the horse was brought to his feet.

THE ELECTION.

The Vote in the City.
The voting at all the wards in the city was very orderly, but little interest being shown except in the contest for Hahn and Stimson. In the congressional vote Major John Hughes was complimented with the votes of several hundred of his friends who wrote their tickets and put in as a token of their esteem. It would have afforded them great pleasure to have worked for him for the position if the Democratic party had thought best to call him to the front.

We give below a summary of the vote for Congressman at Large, Supreme Court Judge, and Sheriff, as received by us up to the hour of going to press.

Craven County Vote.
The city of New Berne shows a falling off on both Democratic and Republican votes, but much greater Republican loss. The net Democratic gain reaches 130 in the city, and near 200 in the county so far as heard from.

From Pollockville.
We learn that Col. Whitford gets about 100 colored votes at Pollockville. Mr. Whitaker, Democratic candidate for Clerk, and Sheriff Koonce get each about 60 colored votes.

North Carolina State Sunday School Convention.
Memorable and significant was the meeting of this Convention, on last Wednesday, Nov. 1, in Winston N. C. The Forsythe county Sunday School Association held its annual meeting on Tuesday. It is perhaps the banner county in the State in Sunday school work. The State Association is yet small, but its prospects are brightening, and all who attend its annual sessions must see the value of county associations to stimulate and strengthen the great work of the sabbath schools. Normal Sunday school councils can be held in each county, and thus all Sunday school workers can compare notes, and fit themselves for their duties, just as our teachers do for secular schools in the grand normal schools at Chapel Hill and elsewhere.

But the impressive feature of this occasion was the wonderful assemblage of Sunday schools, on Thursday morning, in the public square in Salem, the sister and adjoining town to Winston and the center of the Moravians in N. C. There were some thirty Sunday Schools with beautiful banners, and numbering 1500 teachers and scholars. From four quarters they filed by divisions into this beautiful, shaded square, and took the seats prepared for them. The audience was estimated at 2400. From the stand for speakers, a fine brass band led this great crowd in singing the praises of God. After prayer and an address of welcome from Rev. Dr. Rothaler, the Moravian pastor, speeches appropriate to the occasion, were made in the following order by Rev. L. C. Vase, of New Berne; Prof. Winston, of University of N. C.; and Rev. Mr. Crawford of Greensboro.

Then followed a regular basket picnic, which all enjoyed wonderfully. After this, as the weather was threatening, the large Moravian Church and Lecture rooms were thrown open, and about 1700 to 1800 of this great assemblage were packed therein. The "Love-feast" of the Moravian church was then administered. It is celebrated in accordance with a very early and beautiful custom of the ancient church, when Christians met and broke bread together in love. In this feast a mug of coffee and a loaf of bread—every mug and loaf being alike, are given to every guest, and they eat together as loving friends.

We sang sweet hymns to God's praise in unison, led by a fine organ and a cornet. Addresses were also made by Rev. Messrs. Pegram and Vass, Prof. Stirling and others. Never was there a more interesting band of children to address than was here seen: there were perhaps a thousand of them. They will be a great power soon in our State. The present study of God's truth and training in these sabbath schools will be for our honor and glory.

Two model teachers' institutes were held; addresses were made by Rev. C. H. Wiley, D. D., formerly State Superintendent of Public Schools, on the Principles of Teaching, and of Class Instruction; a model Bible class recitation was given; General Conferences were held, at one of which, by invitation, an elaborate address was made by Rev. L. C. Vase on "Teachers Side-Lights;" and Normal Drills in sabbath school lessons, with the use of a fine scripticon, were given by Dr. Rothaler, with great enthusiasm. Indeed the three days' work was both delightful and profitable, and it will be a happy day when we have a County Sunday School Association in Craven county, and can secure such a mass meeting of sabbath schools in New Berne from the surrounding counties.

The towns of Winston and Salem are two of the most enterprising and prosperous in our State, and their elegant hospitality was liberally dispensed on this occasion. L. C. V.

NORFOLK REDEEMED.

Raleigh, Nov. 7.—The following telegrams are from the News-Observer:
In Wake county, five precincts give a Republican gain of 71. Guilford, Morehead and Gilmer townships show a Democratic gain of 191. Indications point to a Democratic victory in the county.
In Davidson, Lexington gives Bennett 18 majority, a gain of 48.
Mecklenburg and Gaston reported Democratic by 300 majority.
Scattering precincts in Johnston, Lenoir, Orange and Alamance show gain for Bennett.
Burke county elects the entire Democratic ticket.
Rowan Democratic by a handsome majority.
Anson 300 majority for Bennett.
Lincoln county close.
Cleveland gives a good majority.
Green is reported elected by 500 majority.
Looks like Bennett is elected by an increased majority over Jarvis.

Jones County Items.
Business in Trenton is brightening up.
The health in Trenton and community is not so good as it was a few weeks ago.
The election takes place tomorrow and I predict the election of Whitaker, Koonce, Wilson, Page and Whitford. Better men could not be elected.
I have been informed that the report in last week's papers as to the irregularity of Mr. E. H. Foy in an affair in Raleigh is untrue, and I am very glad of it. Mr. Foy is a young man of fine business qualities and great promise, and such a report is very damaging to his reputation.
Your correspondent was in Pollockville a few days ago and was struck with the thrift and enterprise of the place. I think the place is destined to be one of considerable importance, as she has enterprising citizens as Sam Henderson, Jno. Pierce and others. There has been great interest taken in Pollockville in the last few days, especially in county officers.

Applying Homeopathy.
The poet Heine had as much wit as imagination. The following anecdote is told of the shrewdly comical way he once got out of an awkward transaction:
On leaving Hamburg a friend of Heine's gave him a huge sausage, begging him to take it to Paris as an offering to a homeopathic doctor, a friend of his. In the railway-carriage Heine tasted a bit of it, and liked it so much that, before he reached Paris, there was only a morsel left. This he inclosed in an envelope and despatched it with the following letter:
"DEAR DOCTOR.—According to the precepts of homeopathy, the thousandth part is more efficacious than the whole. I send you, therefore, that portion of the inclosed sausage in the hope that the pleasure you derive from it will be a thousand times greater than if you had received it all."

THE BONITZ HOTEL
GOLDSBORO, N. C.,
Is now nearing completion. The building is very imposing, situated in the business part of the city, all light rooms, and when finished there will be one hundred and five in all—seventy-five finished now, and elegantly furnished with all the modern improvements.

BEAUFORT, Nov. 7.—Returns in from but few precincts. The vote will be close. Col. Whitford, for Senate, and Hardy, for House of Representatives, will perhaps have a small majority. Canaday, for Congress, is believed to be ahead of Green. J. F. Jones is elected Sheriff by over three hundred majority. N. M. Jurney.

MOREHEAD CITY, Nov. 7.—Indications are that Hardy, for House of Representatives, is defeated. Jones solid. Hurrah for Jones. S. F. BENNETT.

MOREHEAD CITY, Nov. 7.—Indications are that Groene and Hardy are defeated. Sheriffalty in doubt. WEBB.

LENOIR.
The election passed off quietly and peaceably at Kinston. Dockery's majority at Kinston is 6—being a great falling off for the Republicans, the usual majority being 160. There are reported gains for the Democrats in Sand Hill, Woodington and Falling Creek, which makes the result in the county very doubtful. The Democrats claim the election of Wood for the House of Representatives and a majority in the county for Beaman for the Senate. The Sheriff's election is in doubt, both claiming it.

LENOR.
The following is the official vote at Kinston as far as counted:
Dockery, 288.
Bennett, 282.
O'Hara, 249.
Hughes, 208.

NORFOLK VA.
Norfolk Democratic by over one hundred majority, a gain of five hundred and seventy-nine on governor's election. T. J. LATHAM.
