The merchants who were burned out in the fire on Wednesday night were engaged vesterday in storing their goods to await the action of the Insurance adjusters. Roberts & Bro. moved to the W. G. Bryant store on South Front; Wahab moves to the W. G. Brinson store, W. F. Rountree in the building occupied by Watson & Street and Dr. Bates in the upstairs of the same building. In reporting the losses in yesterday's issue, we neglected to mention the building owned and occupied by D. N. Kilburn. Loss, $1,500. No insurance.

New Line of Steamers. Capt. A. W. Styron, of Washington, the owner of the steamers Greenville and Turboro was in the city yesterday. He speaks of putting on a line of light draft boats to ply between Swansboro, Morehead City and New Berne and up White Oak River, provided he can get the farmers in that section to take stock, or guarantee freights. There is a rich country along the White Oak River which would rapidly develop with good facilities for transporting products to market. We hope the Captain will succeed in this enterprise.

It would be a very graceful and a very proper act for the different Insurance companies doing business in this city to make handsome presents to the fire companies here. These companies saved thousands of dollars for the Insurance men, and a recognition of this in the shape of new hose for future use would be very appropriate. Insurance rates, we learn, are just as heavy where there are fire companies as where there are none, and in a case of this kind where a direct benefit is clearly shown, some recognition should be made.

THE ELECTIONS.

Democratic Gains Every State.

Our telegraphic dispatches yesterday inform us that the following States have gone Democratic: New York, Alabama, Arkansas, Delaware, Florida, Indiana, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Missouri, Mississippi, New Jersey, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Massachusetts, Calafornia and Pennsylvania.

New York gives 135,000 majority. Ben Butler is elected in Massachusetts by 15,000 majority. California and South Carolina send solid Democratic delegations.

Iowa gives one Democratic Congressman, and Wisconsin gives four more. Penusylvania, of the Clan Cameron. gives 13 Democratic Congressmen to 15 Republicans, and elects the Democratic Governor.

From the News & Observer, The Result.

The returns of the election come to us in such shape that we can with difficulty climate the points. Generally we may say that our anticipations have been fully realized. Massachusetts elects Butler by about 20,000 majority, and sends four Democratic members to Congress. New Hampshire probably elects a Democratic Governor for the first time in twenty years. Connecticut swings into line with a Democratic Governor and three Democratic Congressmen, thus reversing her present representation. New York elects Cleveland by 115,000, being 15,000 more than we had anticipated. Pattison is elected Governor of Pennsylvania, but we cannot see what his majority is to be. California is Democratic to the core.

The Democrats make great gains in the House of Representatives. But it is too early to state results with exactness. Suffice it that the people have overthrown the bosses and set their seal of condemnation on the reckless policy of the corrupt Republican leaders. In this State the returns are meagre, but justify the belief that Bennett is elected by between 7,000 and 10,000. The entire judicial ticket is elected. The legislature is practically as it was last session. The revenue bosses do not appear to have made anything by their coalition with aspiring and disaffected Democrats.

Green is reported elected in the third district. Cox, Scales, Dowd, Robbins and Vance are elected. We have nothing as yet from the first district, but see no reason to think that Latham has not been elected.

While the number of men discharged by sennumber of men discharged by sentence of court martial is 110 less than during the previous year, the number of re-enlistments has fallen off 544, and the number of desertions in 1,380 in excess. There are Beaman, Democrat, for Senator, beats Loftin, Republican, in Lenoir about 100 majority and Loftin beats him in Greene about 150 majority, electing Loftin by 50 majority.
