LATEST ELECTION NEWS.

Special to the JOURNAL.

RALPH, Nov. 16.—Bennett two hundred and seventeen majority, with Hyde to hear from. Hyde reported fifteen for Dockery, but this lacks confirmation. S. A. ASHE.

Trade is booming.
Rice and cotton made things lively yesterday.

The Hahn "fraction" had a glorification meeting last night.

Mr. C. Erdmann is having a new brick pavement put in front of his store.

The schooner Alice arrived from Smith's Creek last night with thirty-seven bales of cotton.

The steamer Goldboro brought in a large freight of general merchandise yesterday morning.

The Internal Revenue collections for this district yesterday on brandy amounted to four hundred dollars.

Dr. Abbott of Pamlico says the jute crop is a success this year and is bound to become one of the leading products of the county.

Yesterday was rice day for New Berne as well as a good cotton day. About six thousand bushels were sold, the best bringing $1.06.

Pamlico day yesterday. Messrs. C. H. Fowler, S. H. Fowler, Dr. D. H. Abbott, W. W. Ferebee, Sam Ferebee and Josiah Tingle were among the number in the market.

Mr. John Dann is having a rush for Christmas goods. He was very busy on yesterday receiving and unpacking goods and packing and shipping to various points on the river above and below.

The Mayor and City Marshal took a walk over the city yesterday to examine the streets and see where to put in the best links. The JOURNAL reporter was close on their heels looking for city improvements.

The City Tax Collector reports $3,000 collected during the week. The order of the Board of Councilmen allowing him to take one half of taxes in city vouchers had a good effect. The city will be easy for a while on finances.

Bennett Improving.

Our telegrams from Capt. Ashe shows that Bennett is gaining. His majority had been whittled down until we expected the next news to put Dockery in. We hear that the vote of a precinct has been thrown out in Bertie which will elect Latham.

Resigned.

Messrs. J. W. Morris and J. R. Wagner, the first, General Freight and Passenger Agent of the Midland Railway, the second, Assistant Agent at this place, have resigned. They will form a co-partnership as Brokers and General Commission Merchants in a few days.

Died.

At Pollockville, N. C., Nov. 14th, 1882, of typho malarial fever, Sarah Eva, daughter of R. N. and Eddie White, aged 7 years 8 months and 5 days.

"One more addition to the heavenly choir."

Durham papers please copy.

Boiler Bursted.

About 11 o'clock yesterday morning one of the boilers lately placed in Maj. Dennison's spinning establishment on the railroad, burst, blowing out one end of the engine room and scalding a colored drayman, Silas Bryan, and horse pretty badly. It will be a loss to Maj. Dennison of about $500. The accident did not stop the spinning.

River Steamers.

The Contentee arrived last night from Jolly Old Field with 60 bales of cotton.

The Trent made regular trip to Bayboro yesterday.

The Anna arrived from Jolly Old Field last night with 80 bales of cotton—all local but 7-100 bushels of rice and 10 passengers.

A New Street Needed.

At the foot of Traven street, we notice large quantities of cotton and rice are landed from rail boats, and the street is so bad condition to receive it.

How would it not be well for the Cotton Exchange to put a floor over the space of street, but so wide for the cotton to be landed?

Sociable.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church of this city contemplate holding a "Sociable" on the 18th of December for the purpose of improving their house of worship on Neuse street. Among other pleasant features of the occasion will be a Japanese tea party. Many fancy articles will be displayed, and, in fact, everything will be done to make those who attend enjoy themselves to the full measure of any contribution they may see fit to offer.

Cotton Tuesday.

Spots were quiet in New York yesterday with prices unchanged. November futures closed four points higher than day before. Liverpool spots were unchanged; futures were flat. The market here was active with prices about the same as day before. Three hundred and thirty-three bales changed hands at 94 to 98.

NEW YORK MARKET, SPOT:

Name in Print.

Miss Moore, of Greenville, who has been visiting Mrs. W. R. Guion, returned on the evening train yesterday.

Mr. O. H. Guion, of the firm of Holland & Guion, real estate agents, took the train for Kinston yesterday evening on business for the firm.

Mr. R. G. Mallett, of the Claire Fiber Company, was in the city yesterday and left on the evening train for Kinston.

Mr. R. B. Proctor left for Goldsboro yesterday evening. He is preparing to open a saloon in the Bonitz Hotel.

Mr. R. B. Lehman left for Baltimore, via the Midland Railway, yesterday evening. He goes to meet his sister who is on her way to this city.

General Joseph E. Johnson, who has been in this city during the week on business for the Home Insurance Company of New York, concluded his work and left on the evening train yesterday for Washington.

Mr. E. R. Stamps, chairman of the Board of Directors of the Penitentiary, arrived in the city yesterday morning and went out, accompanied by F. M. Simmons, Esq., to take a view of Quaker Bridge road. Hope he may think it worth while to send convicts and have it completed.

Deputy sheriff, W. F. Howland of Carteret county returned to the city from Pollockville yesterday evening, whither he had been to compare the vote for Senator of the Ninth district. The official count gives Col. Whitford 420 majority.

Mr. Levi Fulcher, of Carteret, was at the Exchange yesterday with a lot of cotton.

Capt. Thos. Thomas, of Carteret, was in the market yesterday with a good lot of cotton. Though advanced in years, he is more active than half of the young men.

The Political Situation.

(Farmer and Mechanic.)

This paper goes to press at 10 a. m. on Wednesday, and although ten days have elapsed since the election, the result is not yet decided, beyond question. We have the full returns from Maine, Nebraska, California, but not from Western North Carolina.

Enough has been obtained, however, to settle definitely the following facts, viz:—

1st (as predicted) the Democrats carried the country and elected 176 members of Congress, a majority of 24.

2d (as predicted) Democrats elected Gen. R. B. Vance by 3,800; Maj. Clem Dowd by 3,200; Gen. A. M. Scales by 2,900; Gen. W. R. Cox by 650; Col. Wharton J. Green by 900.

3d (as predicted) The Democrats lost two members, to-wit: Maj. Lewis Latham by 840; and Maj. W. M. Robbins by 140. We had the Majors but they had the majority—thanks to the stay at home.

4th (as predicted) The Democrats carry the State by about 3,000. Judge Bennett's majority does not reach that figure; but Judge Ruffin's will, we think.

5th (as predicted) "Jarvisry," "Railroadery," "Negro-Troops," "Negro Fairs," "Tucker Hall Conventions," etc., have so disgruntled the people that fully 30,000 Democrats stayed away from the polls.

6th (as predicted) The Democrats lost more than a dozen members of the Legislature, but will still have about 50 members.

Kinston Items.

Kinston college now has one hundred and thirty pupils.

Last Wednesday morning brought us the heaviest frost of the fall. Vegetation, like the defeated candidates, is all wilted and gone till it sprouts again.

The various county officers elected at the late election are on the lookout for bondsmen. Some of them say it is more difficult to bond than it is to get elected.

The official vote of Greene and Lenoir counties, as compared by the Sheriffs, at Kinston on the 14th inst., gives Fred B. Loftin 98 majority in the 11th Senatorial district, over R. C. D. Beamian.

The famous phrenologist Dr. W. H. Barker, of Onslow county, is in town. He was seen examining the Senator-elect of the 11th Senatorial District, and pronounces him en fait in the act of legislation.

The store of the inimitable auctioneer, Charlie Burt, is full of goods, notions, etc., but the late election has hushed up his chattering boys—Snow and Dennis—and the auctioneer mourneth for his first born.

A petition, signed generally by the citizens of this place and vicinity, has been sent to Gov. Jarvis, praying the commutation of the death sentence to imprisonment for life on Cicero Collins who was sentenced by our last Superior court to be hung at Kinston, December the 8th, prox., for murder.

We are no "prophet of evil," but the times indicate this country is nearing its condition in 1836, 1848, 1867 and 1873, on account of the enormous amount of money sunk in rail roads, and the great increase of buildings in towns and cities. It were well that each one should begin to set his house in order for the inevitable crash.

The Late Election.

Between Chairman Cooke and Chairman Coke, the State Press has evolved a larger number and variety of pictorial rosters than ever appeared in this locality since Kirk and Sherman passed through. We observed, however, that by Saturday night the cocks had nearly all disappeared from off the Democratic fence. Another Radical off-Fense!

This is said to be an "off year." Does that mean—"a little off color?" Any way, we notice that Gen. Chalmers, Tom Ochiltree, Kellogg, Dr. York, Jim O'Hara, Beas Butler,—and all the wild mule coats of politics "got elected" this year.

We believe, as firmly as anything can be believed, that the Democratic-Conservative citizens of North Carolina have above 20,000 majority, which can be depended upon, whenever the State government is impartially administered and the party is managed as a party, and not as a Faction. This may sound treasonable to some,—but the masses of the people will admit its truth. Many of our friends who thought we were wrong, and blinded, in 1880, now take a different view. Let us then all unite, rectify matters, bury factional quarrels, and work for the up-building of the state.

The Legislature of Delaware has no Republican in the House, and only one in the Senate. He must feel dreadfully lonely, when voting on party questions.

More than $5,000 were spent in the "Anti-Pro." expenses of carrying Wake county this year, it is said. It was an "wet" election.

"Alfred M. Scales, the people's choice or Governor," appears at the mast-head of the Daily Patriot. Well, well-regulated scales weigh well, and impartially administer their duties; and this is what is indispensable to re-form the Democratic party in North Carolina. We never saw Gen. Scales, but we venture to say he would not, if elected, try to form a "Scales faction," and use the power given to him by the PEOPLE, to injure and defeat those who happened not to think him "a bigger man than ole Grant."—Farmer and Mechanic.

How Massachusetts voted $5000 to a Church.

BOSTON, Nov. 13.—The members of the Congregational Church at Easton are happy over the result of the election in this State. Their church building was burned not long ago, and in soliciting subscriptions from their fellow townsmen, the Hon. Oliver Ames jokingly told them that if he was elected Lieutenant Governor he would give them $2,500, provided the successful candidate for Governor would do the same. Gen. Butler, it is said, heard the story, and offered to fulfill the latter promise, in case he should succeed at the head of the ticket. Gen. Butler and Mr. Ames were both elected, and the State of Massachusetts has therefore voted the Congregational Church at Easton $5,000.

U. S. COURT.

Hearing of An Important Case in Chambers—Judges Bond and Seymour Presiding.

(Wilmington Star.)

The case of Mrs. Virginia Matthews vs. D. R. Muchison, et als., in relation to the Carolina Central Railroad, on a motion for the appointment of a Receiver, came up before Judges Bond and Seymour in Chambers at the U. S. Court room yesterday. The Judges took their seats about 10.30 o'clock, the counsel, except Judge Russell, being at their respective tables; those for the plaintiff occupying seats on the left of the bar and those of the defendants on the right, fronting the Bench. Judge Russell soon made his appearance, and, after some preliminary remarks from the different counsel, the case for the plaintiff was opened by him in a narrative of the facts upon which they relied for a support of their position. His remarks altogether occupying some two hours and a quarter in their delivery. He was followed by Mr. Robinson, of counsel for the defendants, in a statement of similar purport from their stand point.

Upon the conclusion of Mr. Robinson's remarks, which did not occupy much over three-quarters of an hour in their delivery, the Judges gave notice that the time for argument would be limited to five hours for each side.

Court then adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning.

Quite a number of spectators occupied seats in the Court room during the proceedings, and several members of the learned fraternity not interested in the case were present in the bar.

It is understood that the argument in the case will close on Thursday.

Sudden Death at 90 Years.

Coroner Alexander was summoned at a late hour yesterday afternoon to the classic neighborhood of Pinchgut to hold an inquest over the body of an old colored woman who fell suddenly and died yesterday, at a house in that precinct. Dr. Wilder went out with the Coroner and after the examination a verdict was returned that the woman came to her death from heart disease. She was extremely old, being over 90, it is said. Her name was Charlotte Alexander.—Charlotte Journal.

Winter in the Northwest and Southwest.

WINNEPEG, Man., Nov. 13.—The Red River is frozen across, and there is fair sleighing here.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 13.—The weather this morning was clear and cold and ice formed on all the shallow streams. Killing frosts are reported throughout this section.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 13.—The first frost of the season in this region occurred this morning.

SHREVEPORT, La., Nov. 13.—There were frost and ice here this morning.

DALLAS, Texas, Nov. 13.—There was frost here last night, and the mercury this morning stood at 29 degrees. It will probably fall to 26 to-night.

The Democrats did some nasty things in the late elections. They combined with Beas Butler, and elected him Governor of Massachusetts. They combined with Begole, a renegade Radical turned Greenbacker, and elected him Governor of Michigan. And they combined with Glick, saloon-keeper's candidate, and elected him Governor of Kansas. We take pleasure in the defeat of Gov. St. John, who is as full of fanaticism as a rattlesnake is of poison, and hates the South so bitterly that he advocated the negro "exodus" in preference to white immigrants. But, all the same, the Democrats get no credit by resorting to "trades" to capture offices.—Farmer & Mechanic.
