But few boats in the market dock yesterday.

The Patterson dwelling on South Front is undergoing repairs.

Two thousand bushels of rice in market yesterday. Prices ranged from $1.00 to $1.05.

Internal revenue collections for this district on yesterday, amounted to nine hundred and fifty-two dollars.

The steamer Saor Hill left here on Tuesday evening, and when about eight miles up Neuse her shaft was wounding off and had to return for repairs.

Mr. L. Weinstein's father, whose death was noted in yesterday's JOURNAL, was 85 years old and had been living in the United States for 20 years.

Capt. S. H. Gray left for Baltimore last Sunday to look after the Elm City. She will make a trial trip down the Bay, and if satisfactory, Capt. Gray will purchase the furniture for her.

There are many rumors afloat as to the final disposition of the Atlantic and N. C. Road. Some say it will be leased to the Richmond & Danville Co., but nothing definite has, as yet, transpired. —Raleigh Visitor.

The Exchange Lunch Room sent the JOURNAL office, last night, an oyster stew. They were "garden oysters," we should judge; by the way they were discussed by the local and the cotton sampler who was present as a visiting statesman.

This is the time of year for mercantile failures. The Plant speaks of them in the plural number as occurring in Durham; and the Charlotte Journal goes to the trouble of denying the rumors of failures in Monroe. The low price of cotton hurts.

Mr. W. S. Edmonds and family, of Richmond, have arrived and will spend the winter in the city. Mr. Edmonds is a fine sportsman and is no doubt ready for the falling Creek club. They ought to have a trial before the leader of the club gets off to Raleigh.

Bears Killed.

A correspondent writes us from Beaufort, Carteret county, that Messrs. N. Riggs, Edward Godwin and Wm. Godwin killed on Friday last three bears in Lake Swamp.

Rebuilding.

Dr. Chas. Duffy has given out the contract for a new building on the corner of Middle and South Front streets—the burnt district—to front Middle street 105 feet, extending 50 feet back on South Front. It will be two stories high and divided into four stores, the corner one 35x50 the other three, 28x50. Mr. E. M. Paye has the contract, and this insures a quick job.

Jones Post.

Our old friend Furney McDaniel, of Jones, is in the city. As this is the time of year when colds are prevalent, we quote a stanza from a poem once written by him for the JOURNAL on the subject:

"So sure is whisky to check cold,
These whisky doctors, sir, are bold
Enough to say that whisky today,
Made hot and sweet by any body,
With plenty of lemon and sugar in it,
Will surely cure you in a minute."

Mayor's Court.

Chauncey Respass was before the court yesterday morning to answer to the charge of assaulting Riley Moore with a deadly weapon, stabbing him in the neck with a knife. He pleaded guilty. After hearing the evidence His Honor decided that it was a case in which he did not have final jurisdiction, he therefore required Chauncey to give bond in the sum of five hundred dollars for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court. In default of bail the prisoner was remanded to jail.

Funeral Notice.

Catharine Windsor, the wife of Thomas Windsor, after suffering about two years with dropsy, died Tuesday night at about 12 o'clock, aged about 27 years. She was patient in her afflictions, mild and kind to all. She said she was ready and willing at any time. Just before dying she spoke, saying the Blessed Jesus had come for her to go home to die no more. She was a member of the A. M. E. Zion church, joined when about 12 years old. She leaves one child, an only son. The funeral will take place at her residence to-day at 3 o'clock p. m. Friends and acquaintances are cordially invited.

Servant of God well done!
Thy glorious warfare past;
The battle's fought, the race is run,
And thou art crowned at last.

Redeemed from earth and pain,
Able when thou wilt ascend
And sit in Jesus' precious reign
With our redeemed friends.

Y. A. CRAWFORD.

The Opossum in the Campaign.

Mr. J. I. B. Noble, of Beaver creek, Jones county, says he has a hunting club in his neighborhood which has caught thirty-nine opossums and thirteen raccoons since two nights before the election. He says barbecued opossum is a powerful weapon in a political campaign; one man in Lenoir county, W. A. Jones, the leading Democrat of Pink Hill, had fifteen in a pen at one time during the canvass. If he had said broiled partridges were good campaign food we could have accounted for Dempsey Wood's success. If the Democrats had been feeding on opossums years ago perhaps John V. Sherrard would have been pulling in the traces.

Jones County Day.

A field day for Jones at the Exchange yesterday. Of the many good sterling men of that county were J. R. Hargett, the nearest farmer on Chinquapin; Benjamin Brown, the most energetic farmer of Cypress Creek; Lewis Bynum, the king merchant of White Oak; T. A. Bell, a leading merchant of Pollockville; Jos. Simmons, the best farmer and deer hunter of Piney Grove; F. McDaniel, the poet of the county; J. I. B. Noble, an industrious farmer of Beaver Creek and a good opossum hunter; Ben Huggins, a good farmer and the leading bear hunter of Beaver Creek; Alonzo Leary, the fattest young man of Cypress Creek; and R. A. Whitaker, the handsomest young man of Trenton. All these sustain a well earned reputation in their respective callings.

Cotton Yesterday.

The telegrams from New York yesterday showed a further decline in futures. There was also a slight falling off in Liverpool futures though no change in spots. The decline in futures weakened the market here, the buyers seeming to be very cautious and not anxious, and the prices paid on the day before were barely sustained. Two hundred and sixty-eight bales were sold at 91 to 94.

Your Name in Print.

Mr. Thos. J. Presson, the leading building contractor of Kinston, was in the city yesterday.

Daniel E. Perry, Esq., the late candidate for Legislative honors in Lenoir, was in the city yesterday. He takes his defeat easy.

Mr. W. E. Patterson, of this city, traveling for Woodard, Morris & Co., of New York, left yesterday for Wilmington and other points South on a business tour.

Mr. Jos. B. Bryan, accompanied by Dr. T. P. Bonner, of Aurora, were in the city last night, and leave this morning for Morehead City, where Mr. Bryan's daughter, Mrs. J. B. Piver, is dangerously sick.

Mr. J. H. Young, of Middleton, is in the city.

Mr. J. H. Ormond, of Pamlico, arrived in the city last night.

Mr. A. R. Holton, of Johnson's Mills, was in the city yesterday with 23 bales of cotton.

Solicitor Grandy of the first judicial district, arrived in the city yesterday from Pamlico Court.

Norfolk Locals.

(Land Mark.)

The piling for the foundation of the new warehouse, Norfolk and Western Railroad depot, is to be completed today.

Yesterday the Corporation Court closed the November term.

The fines assessed in the Police Court for the last two days amount to $173.

The tug James C. Gibney went off the ways at Graves's ship-yard yesterday, and the schooner George W. Simon was hauled.

The Norfolk and Western Railroad Company is paying the attention due to their track on Wide Water street.

The first American ship for cotton this season arrived yesterday for the Sea-board Commerce Company, the bark Nyphon.

Mr. David Cox, of Hertford, N. C., visited the Cotton Exchange yesterday.

We understand that the tax payers of Norfolk county will hold a convention for the purpose of withdrawing the vexatious ferry question from political control.

DeJARNETTE.

The Noted Murderer Out of the Insane Asylum.

News and Observer.

The facts of the murder of his sister Mollie, by the young man, Thomas J. DeJarnette, in a house of ill fame, at Danville, Virginia, are doubtless fresh in the public mind, the crime having created an almost unparalleled sensation in all parts of the country. DeJarnette, who was at the time an employee of the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company, and whose home was in Rockingham county, N. C., found his sister in the house and shot her with a pistol, killing her almost instantly. This was in the autumn of 1880. In February, 1881, he was tried, and acquitted on the ground of insanity. Dr. Eugene Grissom being called as an expert to prove his unsoundness of mind. In June, 1881, DeJarnette was brought to the Insane Asylum at Raleigh, upon application of the commissioners of Rockingham county. There were at the time conflicting opinions as to his sanity. Since his confinement in the asylum he has conducted himself well, it is said, and was allowed certain privileges accorded to those whose mental improvement is plain.

It appears that an application was made a few days since for his release from the asylum. This, Dr. Grissom says, the board of directors did not oppose, but preferred on account of the character of the case and its history that the matter should be decided by a court of law. So a writ of habeas corpus was sued out, returnable before Chief Justice Smith, at Chambers, yesterday. The prisoner was brought before his Honor. Counsel appeared for him, and Drs. E. Grissom, James McKee, A. W. Knox and J. A. Sexton appeared and testified to the present sanity of the prisoner. After the hearing the Chief Justice discharged the prisoner and he stepped out a free man again.

DeJarnette was interviewed by a reporter the moment the trial ended. He is quite a handsome young fellow, and looks in much better health than when brought here in 1881. He says that he was 23 years old last August, and he does not look a day older, with rosy cheeks and a youthful countenance. He says that his physical health gave way in 1879, and following came mental troubles. His family was considering the idea, he states, of placing him in the asylum months before he killed his sister. The railway company suspended him for thirty days on account of his mental troubles, he further says. As to the slaying of his sister, DeJarnette says at the time he was unconscious that he was committing any offense for which anybody in the world would blame him, and thought that he was doing right. He was dead to every moral impulse. He was in this state of mind for several months after he was in the asylum, but then began to realize his crime and to look at it as other people did. DeJarnette made this statement in a matter of fact way and without any hesitation. He said further that for months before he killed his sister he slept but little, ate little, was a wreck; that he often contemplated suicide, and once had nearly completed preparations for taking his own life. During the trial he was very quiet, and at its conclusion went down the street. In the afternoon he left for his home, which is at Mayfield, Rockingham county.

Solid Whisky.

The announcement of the invention of solid whisky, which can be carried around in the pocket like a plug of tobacco, suggests immense possibilities. It is only comparable to the substitution of giant powder, dry, solid and portable, for the fluid nitro-glycerine, and is much more important on account of the larger use of the alcoholic explosive. It completely knocks all liquor laws cold as a wedge, and portends every man his own barroom.—Greensboro Patriot.

The Robbins-York Contest.

Intelligence from Statesville confirms the statement of the JOURNAL a few days ago that Maj. Robbins would contest the Congressional result in the 7th District before the State canvassers on the ground of irregularities in Davie county. It is now claimed that a large number of the York ballots in Davie were on blue paper and that enough of these will be thrown out to elect Robbins.—Charlotte Journal.

A Stalwart Centenarian.

Mr. Jno. Gilkey, of Rutherford, was in the city yesterday. He is 94 years of age and is still upright and strong as a youth. He reads and writes without spectacles, is not deaf and none of his senses or faculties are impaired in the slightest. He was born in the house in Rutherford in which he still lives and has lived without interruption for a century minus four years.—Charlotte Journal.

A Terrible Accident.

At the Wilmington Cotton Mills, yesterday forenoon, Mr. A. M. Chadwick, who was in charge of the machine known as the picker, had his left hand caught and badly crushed in the machine. He was picking little pieces of cotton waste from the picker, while it was in motion, and in this way his hand was caught. Mr. Chadwick, as soon as his hand was caught, with great presence of mind, managed to kick off, with his feet, some of the belts, but could not reach the main belt and was in great danger of having his arm drawn in when Mr. Roderick McRae happened to enter the room and seeing his predicament, at once ran to the main belt which he threw off and so stopped the machinery. Mr. Chadwick had the first three fingers badly crushed and may yet lose also the thumb and little finger. The unfortunate man was carried to his house and Doctors Love and Wood were called in and amputated the crushed fingers. Mr. Chadwick has had much sympathy in his misfortune. He was a good workman and is said to be one of the most careful men in the mill. He is about 40 years old and has a family. This is, we believe, the first accident which has occurred at these mills since they have been in operation. —Wm. Review.

Presbyterian Revival in Rockingham.

A letter from Madison, Rockingham county, informs us that Rev. C. M. Howard, the Presbyterian evangelist, of Virginia, has been holding religious meetings day and night for the past week in the Madison Presbyterian church with most wonderful success. People gather for miles around and listen with marked and eager attention to the wonderful powers of this man of God. A great number are enquiring the way to be saved and one night last week there were about 60 new enquirers who went up to the seat of 60 new enquirers who went up to the seat of prayer. We have a crowded house every night; indeed the church has never had such a meeting before. In all probability the evangelist will visit Greensboro while in this section.—Greensboro Patriot.

Buildings a Colored Democrat.

Policeman Orr yesterday morning arrested and placed in the station house a negro man named Murphy for cursing on the streets. The case is one of interest, as Murphy very insolently and rudely fell to abusing, in front of the Court House, an old and well known gray-haired negro named Tom Reed, who is a Democrat and was expressing Democratic sentiments to a party of gentlemen. These instances of colored people attempting to bulldoze colored Democrats are far more frequent, in this community, at least, than the much-howled-over bulldozing of Republicans by white Democrats.—Charlotte Journal.

Death of a Physician.

We reluctantly chronicle the death of Dr. Marrs, of Pamlico county. He has been a practicing physician for several years, and enjoyed the confidence and esteem of the people generally. He had recently opened an office at Grantsboro, and his practice was constantly widening. He was taken with pneumonia only a few weeks ago, and after the most excruciating pain he yielded up his spirit on last Sunday evening.—North State Press.

The Chalmers Election Case.

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 20.—Gen. Chalmers has filed a petition for a mandamus, before Judge Wharton, to compel the Secretary of State to count his votes in Tate county. He charges that Mr. Myers, the Secretary of State, allowed returns from other districts to be inspected, but refused to allow any one to see the returns from the Second district until they were counted. He alleges that the returns were purposely concealed to prevent any errors from being corrected during the ten days allowed by law for making returns, and says the clerical error as to J. R. "Chambliss" would have been promptly corrected if the returns had not been fraudulently concealed. The Commissioners of Election of Tate county have sent an amended return showing that the votes were cast for J. R. Chalmers, and not for J. R. "Chambliss."

On Trial for Killing his Father.

Robert A. Donald, aged 20, was on trial in the Kings County Court of Sessions, Monday, for killing his father, David Donald, April 22, in their home in Brooklyn. They came to blows at the supper table on April 22, and the son struck the father in the face with a large earthen teapot, with such force that he broke his nose and fractured his upper and lower jaw bones. Donald died before morning.—N. Y. Sun.

GILBERT PUMP.

Read the following testimonials in regard to the Gilbert Force Pump, and remember that "No Well Regulated Family can afford to be without one."

By attaching hose it is made an efficient Fire Extinguisher.

Respectfully, J. C. WHITTY,
Newbern, N. C.

MR. JOHN C. WHITTY—Sir—In reply to your inquiry in reference to the Gilbert Pump, I would say the city has one in use on Pollock street, which has been in use over a year, and has kept in perfect order all the time, and has been in daily use. They are in my opinion strictly a first-class Pump.

THOS. S. HOWARD, Mayor.

JOHN C. WHITTY, Esq.—Dear Sir—In regard to what I know of the Gilbert Pump—the city of New Bern placed one in front of the National Bank of New Bern, about one year since, and it has well stood hard usage ever since, without any repairs that I know of. This I believe is a better record than any previous Pump can boast of.

Yours truly, J. A. GUYON.

J. C. WHITTY, Esq.—Dear Sir—We have had one of the Gilbert Improved Pumps in use at the Cotton Exchange for several months and find it all that is claimed for it by the manufacturer. Respectfully,

U. T. CARRAWAY.

MR. J. C. WHITTY—Dear Sir—We have had a Gilbert Force Pump in use nearly 12 months and it has given us perfect satisfaction—no trouble with it whatever—it brings the water
