LOCAL NEWS.

Journal Miniature Almanac.
Sun rises, 6:48; Length of day,
Sun sets, 4:47 1/2 hours, 59 minutes.
Moon rises at 8:25 p. m.

Superior court to-morrow.

The covenant collections for the week amount to $289.

A bountiful supply of red head ducks in the market yesterday.

The Thanksgiving turkey has made his appearance, and shuffles off at $2.00 per pair.

Twelve hundred bushels of rice sold in the market yesterday. Prices unchanged.

The office at Radcliff & Co.'s mill has been repainted and now presents a neat appearance.

Rev. S. H. Isler, of Goldsboro, will preach in the Presbyterian church at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m.

The schooner W. M. Hill, Capt., arrived from South Creek on yesterday evening with 33 bales of cotton.

Four marriage license issued by the Register of Deeds during the week. Three to whites and one to colored couples.

The truckers are preparing their lands for cabbage and radishes. Mr. J. L. Rhem has already planted out 50,000 cabbages.

Mr. Z. DeForest Ely, a partner of Robert Buis, the celebrated garden seed grower of Philadelphia, is in the city looking after the interest of his firm.

The steamer Goldsboro of the Clyde Line arrived from Baltimore yesterday evening with a cargo of general merchandise.

Putting on airs! Four hundred walking canes were sold yesterday in New Berne. But they were candy canes sold by a confectioner on Middle street and eaten up before night.

Memor. E. W. & S. W. Smallwood have fitted up two neat little offices adjoining their building on the corner of South Front and Craven streets. One will be occupied by Dr. H. G. Bates, the other by Messrs. Watson & Street.

The busy hum of machinery could be heard at the cotton factory yesterday. Mr. Dobson seems to know exactly what he is about and will, we think, make a success of it. If he can make such goods as the samples he has on hand of his Philadelphia work, there will be no trouble in finding a market for it.

Bear and Catamount.

Mr. B. B. Mallison killed a short time ago a large bear on his father's plantation near Croatan, which weighed, net, 300 pounds. The fat on his back measured three inches. A few days afterwards he killed a catamount which measured four and one half feet from tip to tip. No rattlesnakes to report.

Willoughby Reads.

In looking over our exchanges yesterday we find that the popular reader, Willoughby Reads, is delighting our Eastern friends. The Edenton Enquirer says he read there twice this week and "is a fine success." Prof. Johnson, of the New Berne Graded School, says he has heard him often and that his readings are very enjoyable. He hopes to get him to lecture before his school while he is in New Berne.

Who will be the Judge?

There is a knotty point to be met next week on the tenure of office of the Judges of our Superior courts. The terms of the present Judges expire on the first of December. The Judges-elect ought to qualify and hold courts on the 1st of December, but the canvassing board meet in Raleigh on the 30th and the official count cannot be made known in time to prevent an interregnum. Judge McKoy will be holding court here this week and a solution of the case should be made at once if possible.

Cotton Yesterday.

No changes in New York and Liverpool spots. But little change in futures. The market ruled here about like the day before. One hundred and seventy-two bales sold at 9 1/2 to 9.65. Twelve hundred and forty-one bales have been sold during the week against 805 for the same week last year.

Baptist Church.
Rev. F. W. Esson, Pastor. Services at 11 o'clock, a. m. and 7 1/2 o'clock, p. m. Sabbath school at 3 o'clock, p. m. C. C. Clark, superintendent. Seats free.
Strangers visiting the city and the public generally are cordially invited to attend these services.

FOLLOWS STREET CHAPEL.
Services at 4 o'clock, p. m., conducted by the young men of the Baptist church. All young men and the public generally are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

Four Name in Print.
Mr. B. H. Hilton received a telegram yesterday from Baltimore with information that his wife, who was called hither to see her sick mother a few days ago, was very sick. Mr. Hilton left on the evening train for Baltimore.

Mr. A. L. Rounree of the firm of R. H. Rountree & Co., of New York, was in the city yesterday. His family are spending the winter at Kinston.

Rev. S. H. Isler, of Goldsboro, is in the city and will preach at the Presbyterian church to-day. He is conducting, assisted by Rev. L. C. Vasa, a series of interesting meetings at Croatan.

Herman Bryan vs. Lawhorn.

It will be remembered that one Sylvester Lawhorn, a turbulent Kansas exoduster, shot without any provocation, Mr. Herman Bryan of this city. Mr. Bryan luckily escaped serious damage, and Lawhorn is only guilty of a deadly assault. At Lenoir court the defendant prayed for a removal and the case was transferred to Duplin. Mr. L. J. Moore was employed to prosecute and left for Kenansville last Thursday. The result of the trial is shown by the following telegram:

MAGNOLIA, N. C., Nov. 25.—Lawhorn convicted for assault on Herman Bryan. Sentence, eighteen months imprisonment. L. J. MOORE.

Athletic Entertainments.

At a meeting of the Directors of the Social and Athletic Club last night it was decided to get up a series of entertainments this winter to help raise additional funds for Gymnasium building. Messrs. E. B. Roberts, Matt Manly and Geo. N. Ives were appointed a committee to inaugurate the movement. It is thought best to invite one or more prominent speakers to deliver addresses and to get ladies in the city to aid in getting up some musical and theatrical entertainments.

We are very much pleased with this last feature. We badly need such entertainments, and a concert by the ladies here will be highly appreciated outside of any Gymnasium movement. Let us have it soon.

Trade for the Week.

Not much improvement to report over the week before. The "time" merchants say collections have been very poor. Notwithstanding the beautiful weather for the last two or three weeks many farmers say they have not picked more than half their cotton. The crop is some better than was anticipated in August when the heavy rains were coming, and pickers are scarce. The fair price paid for rice is causing that crop to be marketed. About nine thousand bushels were sold during the week, bringing from $1.00 to $1.07. Cotton has been coming in rather slowly and sales appear to be dull. Twelve hundred and forty-one bales have been sold during the week at prices ranging from 9 1/2 to 9.80. This would indicate that about $50,000 were paid out for cotton and rice; but the merchants say, or some of them say, that the money is not spent here. "These river boats," says one, are ruining the trade of New Berne; they bring the cotton down here and one man will come down in a buggy and sell for three or four and carry the money back, where it is spent in the country stores." If this be true, and drummers supply the country stores to such an extent as to injure the wholesale trade, then the business men of New Berne should look after the local and retail trade, and to do this successfully they should encourage manufacturing. Anything that will bring people to a city and give them employment is bound to build up the trade. It has been proven beyond a doubt that manufacturing will build up the trade of a town faster than anything else.

EDITOR JOURNAL.—Recently a handsome and neat tablet has been placed in the Methodist Church with the following inscription:

Rev. J. T. Arrington, Born in Louisville, N. C., Nov. 12, 1839, died Sept. 29, 1891, while Pastor of this Church.
In death he sang the "Old Ship of Zion" and with the triumphal song around the altar to join the angels on the other side.

Humble in life, triumphant in Heaven at death.
J. M. JONES.
Rowland N. C. Nov. 25, 1891.

Fair Premiums—1880.

We have before us a copy of the American Advocate, of Kinston, dated Nov. 15th 1880. In it we find the "Award of Premiums" of the "2nd Annual Exhibition of the Union Agricultural, Mechanical and Commercial Society, held at Newbern on the 30th and 31st of October and the 1st and 2d of November, 1880."

As a matter of curiosity and to encourage interest in another Fair, we quote some of the premiums given.

The list opens with a silver cup awarded to Col. John D. Whitford, followed by like premium to W. W. Caraway, both for thoroughbred horses. Caraway, now better known as D. R. Walker, also bore off second silver cup for best matched pair of carriage horses—not much of a "dirt road walker" in those days. Jumping over the list on cattle and hogs where we find many familiar names, as J. L. Rhem, A. C. Latham, P. E. Hines, Dr. Cobb, R. Berry and others, we find in the poultry exhibit, Master Charles Slover for Java Bantams; and J. F. Scott, of Jones, pulled up on China Geese. (And that probably accounts for campaign anecdote of figuring through to China or that other place.)

Mr. T. T. Gooding, now of Pamlico, gets a premium on oats, and it is a striking coincidence that he has now an advertisement in the Pamlico Enterprise of oats for sale. J. R. Green of Durham gets the prize on "manufactured tobacco," and from that beginning can be traced, we believe, the world-renowned Blackwell Durham Tobacco. Mr. E. R. Stanley, now of Rahway, New Jersey, comes in for the "largest yield of potatoes from one hill," and his reputation as an amateur agriculturist is well established here. The name of Wm. H. Oliver & Co. appears very often for agricultural implements; and on tinware, pumps etc., C. A. Hart, Bro. & Co. had the list. And without further special mention we quote the following:

Kinston Items.

This cool weather is bringing with it fresh pork very plentifully. It sells readily at 1 1/2c. hog round.

Cotton sold here last Friday, 24th, at 9.40, a slight decline from the previous day—later in the evening it further declined to 9.35 and 9.25.

A "gentleman of color" of this county is over anxious to exchange his wife, who has deserted him, for a big spotted ox or a little black bull or a half ton of kaint.

Tax payers are forking over to the sheriff very slowly. It is believed that officer will make more from costs for advertising than from commissions for collecting this year.

The exodusters from Kinston this week to Duplin court are numerous, select and elite. They go as witnesses in the State against Sylvester Lawhorn for shooting Herman Bryan.

Kilby Jones Esq., the hero of Pink Hill, was in town last Friday with a bale of good cotton. He says, "you bet" he won't invest any of it in "a co-operation store" with Dick Whitfield as sole director.

It is said the cotton presses of some of our cotton ginner and packers need covering or re-shingling. A cotton grower brought three bales to market one day this week so wet it could not be sold at any price.

It is said a crowd of our young Nimrods took the Midland N. C. train one night this week for a "possum hunt, but where they went or what they caught "no feller" has found out. They say, however, that Capt. Levi Jake brought up the rear with one little blue-eyed "possum."

Sheriff Davis takes a new departure next year. He expects to embark in agricultural pursuits, hiring Lewis Grady Esq., the political boss killer of this county, to do his plowing with a little red bull. Mr. Parker may look out for the first cotton blossom next summer, and Swansboro may expect its reputation for big trout, big snakes and big potatoes to be wholly eclipsed, if the Sheriff and Grady can keep the old jug full.

The Election in this District.
(Statesville Landmark.)

Different of the papers of the State have announced, within the past week, that Maj. Robbins would contest the election of Dr. York in this district, and different grounds of contest have been cited. We called, yesterday, upon Maj. Robbins for a statement of his purpose in the premises, and received from him a statement something like this: He is in constant receipt of information, from different counties in the district, of gross irregularities, informalities and frauds, in the election. He will consider it his duty, not so much to himself as to the party whose standard-bearer he was, to look into these charges. If he finds substantial grounds of contest, that is to say that there were outrages upon the ballot, designed to falsify the will of the people, he will contest the election. He would not think of doing so, however, upon any mere technicality or for any mere informality, committed without any criminal intent. He only desires that the will of the people shall be understood, and he would not take advantage of any technical point in his favor where the will of the voter is expressed as against him.

This Maj. Robbins says, has been his position upon questions of this kind all these years. He was, while a member of Congress, called upon to vote many times in contested election cases, and always he sought to find whom a majority of the voters meant to elect. That ascertained he voted always in favor of that man, without reference to other considerations.

This reasoning, it appears to us, must strike all right-minded people as just and sensible and as showing good principle on the part of Maj. Robbins.

The majority for Dr. York, by the way, as certified to the State canvassing board, will be 390. An error in the Wilkes vote, however, makes his actual majority 198.
