LOCAL NEWS.

Journal Miniature Almanac.

Sun rises, 7:09; Length of day, Sun sets, 4:47; 9 hours, 47 minutes. Moon rises at 3:40 p. m.

New moon to-day at 10:38, a. m.

Oak wood is selling at $4.80 per cord on the wharfs.

The Neuse came in yesterday evening with 65 bales cotton.

About 300 bushels of rice sold yesterday. A good quantity came in on the boats during the day but was not sold.

The revenue collections for this district during the past week foot up $4,498.37. Apple Jack must be freed from bondage before Christmas.

Eighty-nine thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight pounds of seed cotton sold during the week in this market. Maj. A. R. Dennison was the purchaser.

In "Fort and Fleet" this week. M. QUAD tells of a 300 pound shell bursting on Fort Sumpter and killing 18 men—the only single shot that did any great damage. We learn that that particular shot was fired from a battery commanded by Capt. S. H. Gray, of this city, and the gunner who fired it, John Young by name, is in Capt. Gray's employ in the plate factory here in the city.

We have complaint from Rev. E. M. Forbes, of Beaufort, about receiving the JOURNAL irregularly, some days missing it, and on other days getting two numbers. The fault is not in this office; we mail in time, every day. Mr. Manix, our postmaster assures us that the fault is not in his office. The matter now lies between the route agent and the Beaufort postmaster.

We see it stated in the New Berne Journal that Dr. W. H. Barker, of Carteret, has rented a house in that city and expects soon to move there for the purpose of sending his children to the Graded School. We don't blame the Doctor. We wish others of our citizens would do the same thing. Such action would tend to hurry up a school of the same kind in Beaufort.—Beaufort Telephone.

U. S. Commissioner's Court.

Mr. Geo. D. Murrill, of Onslow county, was before Commissioner Manly on yesterday, charged with violating the Internal revenue laws. The charges were not sustained and the defendant was discharged.

Crising Affray at Wilson.

We learn from Mr. J. A. Patterson who returned from Wilson yesterday morning that Mr. D. S. Carraway, editor of the Siftings, was seriously cut in the arm and throat on Friday by Mr. H. R. Strong. He did not learn the particulars of the difficulty. A private telegram from Mr. Carraway yesterday morning stated that his wounds were not considered dangerous.

Bad Lawsuit.

The horse suit of Cohen vs. Perkins resulted in a victory for defendant, but such a victory is enough to discourage lawsuits. Defendant owed $100; contended that he was cheated, and went before a jury of his country for relief. The jury said he should have relief, and made him pay only $40—but even a small judgment carries costs, and the costs in this case were (before being taxed) $821.75. So the man saves $80, but in so doing pays out over $200.

Your Name in Print.

Dr. Henry Matthews, of Kenansville, is in the city, the guest of Capt. John A. Richardson.

Mr. John Caraway left for Wilson yesterday evening.

Rodolph Duffy, Esq., of Catharine Lake, was in the city yesterday.

Dr. W. T. Kennedy, Junior Grand Warden elect, returned from the meeting of the Grand Lodge at Raleigh yesterday morning.

Judge McKoy closed his fall labors yesterday with the Craven court and left on the evening train for home to enjoy a Christmas holiday.

Mr. Sam Thomas of Carteret was at the Exchange yesterday with a lot of cotton.

Seaboard Arrivals.

The following arrived on Friday night and Saturday:

The Vovina, Capt. Frank Bell, from Slidestown with twenty-five bales of cotton, three hundred bushels of rice, and corn.

The Lucetta, Capt. White, from Hyde county with corn and cotton.

The Industry, Capt. P. Flowers, from Swan Quarter with cotton and rice.

The Sarah Midgette, Capt. F. Spensor, from Middleton with corn and rice.

The Snow South, Capt. Whitelhurst, from Elizabeth City with corn consigned to J. A. Maston.

The Corvus, Whitelhurst, Capt., from Elizabeth City with corn consigned to W. F. Barron.

Cotton Yesterday.

Futures gained ten points in New York yesterday while spots remained unchanged. Sales of futures 81,000 bales, closing firm. One hundred and seventy-eight bales were sold at the Exchange at 9 1/2 to 9 3/4. Sales for the week foot up 1152 bales.

Publish Schedule.

Mr. Geo. W. Smith suggests to the Trent River Transportation Company, the benefits to be gained by publishing their Schedule in the JOURNAL. The JOURNAL, in that case, says "Bake's is willing."

If the Trent River Co. would listen to a newspaper suggestion we would advise it to change their Trent river schedule and run something like the one followed by the Neuse River Navigation Co. (whose schedule, by the by, is published regularly in the JOURNAL). That that is, let them run a schedule coming to New Berne on one day and return to Pollockville and Trenton on the next day. By doing this a large passenger travel would be worked up. As the boats now run very few passengers come down on them because they must lie over in New Berne two or three days. The steamer Kinston brought down 23 passengers on Friday morning and on every trip brings a fair crowd. That schedule comes to New Berne on Mondays and Thursdays; return on Tuesdays and Fridays.

Meeting of the Bar.

On the day after the death of Mr. A. G. Hubbard the members of the New Berne Bar held a meeting to take suitable action commemorative of his life. At that meeting Hon. George Green was elected chairman, and a committee, consisting of Messrs. F. C. Roberts, C. C. Clark, Clement Manly, Washington Bryan and C. R. Thomas Jr., was appointed to draft resolutions of respect and present them at some future meeting.

On Saturday morning the Bar was again called together and the committee, through their Chairman, Mr. F. C. Roberts, introduced the resolutions printed below. On a motion for their adoption, quiet and feeling addresses were made in memory of the deceased by Messrs. C. R. Thomas, H. R. Bryan, John Hughes, W. J. Clarke and C. C. Clark. And then upon motion of the latter speaker, it was resolved that the Resolutions be presented to the Superior Court and requested to be spread upon the minutes. It was also requested that the city papers copy the same.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE.

On Friday, the 1st of December 1882, at 8 1/2 o'clock a. m., Albert G. Hubbard the oldest member of the New Berne Bar departed this life.

Mr. Hubbard was born in the county of Caswell, about the year 1817. In 1844 he was matriculated at the University of North Carolina, and was graduated in that institution in 1848, carrying on and completing his collegiate education by the assistance of the Philanthropic Society. He then removed to the city of Raleigh and commenced the study of law in the law office of the late Gen. Charles Manly at the same time teaching in the family of his preceptor. In 1847 at the instance and by the advice of friends, he removed to New Berne, and commenced the practice of his profession. His quiet and gentlemanly deportment, his easy manners, and his literary taste and culture commended him to the favorable attention of his adopted town. For the long period of 41 years, he devoted himself almost exclusively to the study and practice of his profession, whiling away his leisure hours in cultivating his taste for classical literature, of which he had a profound and critical knowledge. His extreme modesty and desire for a peaceful life, created in him an aversion to all forensic display; hence he seldom addressed an audience, except when duty imperatively demanded it; but his speeches were always listened to with interest, his language being chaste, classical and dignified, and his ideas well digested and clearly expressed—as a counsellor he was wise and prudent.

As a companion, he was genial, amiable, and instructive. He made many friends and acquaintances. In the neighboring counties of Jones, Onslow and Carteret, he practised his profession for more than a quarter of a century, where he was well known and universally esteemed. Abhorring all ostentation, he was liberal in his charities, and let not his left hand know what his right hand was doing.

Resolved, That in the death of Albert G. Hubbard, the State has lost a highly respected and valuable citizen; the Bar an able and accomplished brother, and the community in which he lived, a gifted and esteemed member.

Resolved, That in token of respect the members of the Bar wear the usual badge of mourning for 90 days.

Resolved, That the foregoing preamble and resolutions be presented to His Honor Judge McKoy, with the request that he order the same to be spread upon the Records, and that a copy thereof be transmitted to the family of the deceased.

After the reading of the Resolutions, Judge McKoy spoke very touchingly upon the character of the deceased, his friendship for him, and the uncertainty of human life, and then made the following order:

Ordered by the Court that the resolutions adopted by a meeting of the Bar, in accordance with their request made known to the Court, by their Chairman, F. C. Roberts, Esq., be spread upon the minutes of the Court.

And it is further ordered that the Clerk inscribe on one blank sheet of the Minute Docket of this Term the name ALBERT G. HUBBARD.

Kinston Items.

Cotton sold here last Friday at 9.25 and 9.30.

Jerry Smith, son of Hogan Smith, deceased, died at his residence in Lenoir county on the 8th inst., of bilious fever.

The schedule changes in the atmosphere Thursday evening brought weather as cool as "breezes from Greenland's icy mountains."

Oscar H. Kennedy, son of the late Bright Kennedy, of this county, died in his 29th year of consumption, on the 6th inst., at his residence on Falling Creek, Lenoir county.

A new postoffice with the rural name "Fields," R. C. Hill, postmaster, has been established in Lenoir county on the line of the postal route from Kinston to Ridge Springs.

In the U. S. Army and Navy Register for November, we see that Dr. Andrew J. Pollock, formerly of this place, is in charge (pending the arrival of the regular Naval surgeon) of the Medical department of the Pensacola Navy Yard.

The town hogs, pounded by Constable Kilpatrick, broke into the adjoining saloon of Ed Jordan a few nights since and, besides utter demolishing all the crockery ware, gratuitously helped themselves to raw oysters, pepper sauce, mustard, and other seasonings. Perhaps the hogs imagined the constable had taken them to a festival.

That universal individual "every body," has "hung his banners on the outer walls" and established oyster saloons in two of the lower rooms of our court house. Unfortunately, however, this morning, "one Phillipa with an R" broke into a thousand fragments, the oyster saloon and caused the suspension of business till the crockery can be replaced.

Church Tilghman Esq. and Miss Kate Croom were married by Justice Coleman on the 8th inst., at the law office of M. A. Gray Esq., Ex-Mayor Canady, one of the invited guests pronounced the benediction and the bridegroom left with his bride humming,

"I gather Kingdoms as a King
Who hath a queen to second him."

Dr. Billy Haskins, the famous faith doctor and fortune teller of Jones county, has at last got at the bottom facts in the gift of divination. He even foretells who will be jurors and what their judgment will be in any suit pending before the courts. He is consulted even more than lawyers are. A suitor in a justice's court at Kinston a few days since, consulted this famous man and got such an answer that he at once abandoned his case. To save further costs the Arnold Green-Dawson case should be referred to this master of the Divine art of divination.

Publish a Schedule.

WHITE OAK, ONSLOW CO., Dec. 7.

MESSENGERS:—I have seen in the JOURNAL something about enterprise in New Berne which I approve very much. I believe in all enterprise, but promptly the life of business. I was in Pollockville Wednesday with several others from Onslow with cotton to put on the steamer Trent, and when we inquired about it, we understood the Cutler had gone up to Trenton Tuesday evening and had not returned. Wednesday at 3 o'clock p. m., we expected the Trent. But to our surprise, there was no steamer at all. So we did what trading we intended in Pollockville and returned home, leaving our cotton on the wharf, as there was not room to store it in the ware house, and I think there was at least 20 or 25 dollars to each bale the merchants of New Berne could have got, provided we could have got our cotton on the boat and went down and sold it on Thursday. I think we need some one in charge that will have the steamer run regular and let it be known what days to meet it. And when they desire to make any change in the schedule publish it in the JOURNAL or some public way that the farmers in Jones and Onslow may know with some certainty when to meet, especially the farmers in Onslow who we live some 12 or 15 miles from Pollockville and cannot understand such tomfoolery.

Respectfully,
GEO. W. SMITH.

Obituary.

(Mobile Register.)

Died, at his late residence, Portersville, Mobile county, Ala., after a lingering and painful illness, Francis Alexander, aged 83 years, 8 months and 10 days—at forty minutes past three o'clock, p. m., November 4, "fell asleep in Jesus—blessed sleep." He was a native of New Berne, N. C., but for many years a citizen of Mobile, Ala. Respected and esteemed by all who knew him, he led a truly upright life, and was noted for his purity, honesty, integrity and piety. His last hours were passed in great peace of mind, surrounded by those whom he loved and who loved and honored him, his sorrowing wife bowed down with age and grief, his children, grandchildren and friends, who deeply mourn their loss, but are consoled to know that it is his eternal gain and that he has exchanged his sufferings here for a blissful rest in heaven. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, from henceforth, ye, saith the spirit, that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them"—Rev. 14 chap. 13 verse.

Going to Texas.

(Charlotte Journal.)

The waiting room of the Trade street depot was crowded all yesterday afternoon and last night till one o'clock with a party of thirty persons, from the western part of Mecklenburg and the southeastern part of Iredell, who left on the one o'clock train for a new home in Palestine, Texas. Some of the party are well-to-do land owners. Among them were J. W. Jolly with a family of nine; Wood Sloan, wife and child; A. J. Beall and a family of eight, and Mr. Hyatt with a family of four. Quite a number of others from the same section are, it is learned, contemplating emigration to Texas.

Mr. F. H. Andrews and wife will leave on Monday for El Paso, Texas, where Mr. Andrews has been offered a good position in business.

Glad to Hear It.

(Beaufort Telephone.)

We are credibly informed that a steamboat route will soon be established between Beaufort and New Berne. The Messrs. Dey Bros., proprietors of one of our scrap and oil factories, propose to put the Bonito, a boat capable of carrying eighty or ninety bales of cotton, on the line so as to connect with the lines of steamers plying between New Berne and Norfolk.

We are certainly glad to hear it, and hope our enterprising friends will meet with the encouragement they so richly deserve. Such an arrangement will be of great benefit to the business men of Beaufort, and in fact to the people all along the line of the proposed route. Success to the undertaking, say we.
