THE JOURNAL. NEW BERNE, N. C., DEC. 10, 1882. Published at the Post office at New Berne, N. C., as second-class matter.

Bits of the History of New Bern.

The battle of Alamance fought, the effort to resist English laws stopped, Tryon on the 24th of June returned and on the 25th, 1771, left Newbern forever. It is admitted that the Regulators were guilty of excesses...

What dire offence from trifling causes spring. What mighty contests rise from little things. And if women were the cause of Tryon's greatest troubles in Newbern...

Gov. Tryon has been much abused, and the ladies of his household censured, through a hundred years or more, for the manner in which they obtained from the Assembly the second appropriation for the Palace...
