LOCAL NEWS.

Journal Miniature Almanac.

Sun rises, 7:11 | Length of day,
Sun sets, 4:55 | 9 hours, 46 minutes.
Moon rises at 11:02 p. m.

The Government pays the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad $56.43 per mile every year for carrying the mails.

Governor Jarvis has offered a reward of $200 for the apprehension of Ben Hill, colored, who stands indicted in Craven Superior Court for the murder of his wife.

"She cometh not" is still the cry, judging from Capt. Gray's telegram from Norfolk telling Messrs. Green and Wolfenden not to come on until they should hear from him again.

Some unknown friend from Mobile, Alabama, has sent Miss Emma Becton of this city some extra fine oranges, and a specimen of "grape fruit." It measures 14 inches in circumference and resembles a huge orange.

Neuse Lodge No. 6, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, of Goldsboro, has donated $100 to the Goldsboro Graded School. It shows that wherever Graded Schools are established they soon become fixed in the affections of the people.

We regret to hear of the death of Mrs. F. E. Justice, widow of Dr. J. R. Justice, formerly of this city. Her remains will be brought on the train this morning and the funeral will take place from Christ Church at 9 o'clock. The public are invited to attend.

We notice from the University Monthly that the Law Class has organized into a Club to discuss and elucidate intricate questions of law and elected the following officers—three of whom are Lenoir county boys:

President—Robert B. Alberson.
Vice-President—Robert B. Winborne.
Secretary and Treasurer—Frank S. Spruill.

Query Committee—James N. Rouse, Thos. C. Wooten, R. B. Winborne.
Janitor—A. T. Hill.

The University Magazine gives the following notice of Judge Seymour in contrast with Judge Tourgee. We have never seen the latter gentleman, but from description, it seems rather rough to compare him with our U. S. District Judge as to personal resemblance:

Any one who has ever seen Judge Seymour, of this State, has seen a man who very nearly resembles Tourgee. But fortunately for the Judge, there exists only an outward resemblance. You will search Tourgee's sharp, shrewd features in vain, for the open, ingenious character that shines in the countenance of Seymour.

Convicts Coming.

Mr. Murray, a steward from the Penitentiary, was in the city yesterday making arrangements for the Quaker Bridge road convicts who are coming down next week.

University Notes.

The University Magazine, from whose columns we have gleaned several items to-day, has the following list of prominent men now in active life who are alumni of Chapel Hill.

Our two Senators—Ransom and Vance.

Six of our Judges—Ruffin, Phillips, McKoy, Gilmer, Shipp and Avery.

Three members of Congress—W. F. Pool, 1st District; A. M. Scales, 5th District and Clement Dowd, 6th District.

Twenty-two members of the General Assembly.

Wrong End of the Campaign.

"Why, don't you know me sheriff?" said an old, gray-headed colored man to sheriff Hahn yesterday morning as he grabbed the sheriff's hand.

"I think I have seen you before!" replied the sheriff.

"To be shore! I'm Lieutenant Rouse! I've the man what carried your election up there." "Sheriff!" said Lieutenant, in an under tone, "can't you make me a present of fifty cents to-day?"

"Fifty cents won't make a start now at anything," said the sheriff, smiling blandly and hurrying on to see some one else, while Lieutenant was left to cogitate upon the uncertainty of future rewards and punishments.

Cotton Market.

Prices braced up a little and eighty-eight bales were sold at from 8 1/2 to 9 1/2.

NEW YORK MARKET, SPOT:

Middling 10-14,
Strict low middling 10-1-16,

Arrested for Jail Breaking.

On Thursday night Abram Bryan, col., former jailor, and Wm. Fisher, the cook for the prisoners in the jail, were before Esq. Brinson upon the charge of assisting the prisoners to escape from the jail on Sunday night last. Upon the evidence of Rowland Fulcher and Nathan Henderson, both colored and who were among the number that escaped, and John Suggs, a prisoner who did not escape, they were held to bail in the sum of $1,000 each for their appearance at the next term of the Superior Court, in default of which they were remanded to jail.

On Friday Nathan Hill, brother of Ben Hill, was arrested for assisting in the escape, and committed to jail for a preliminary hearing before Justice Brinson on Monday.

That Chair.

The Cotton Exchange recently presented Miss Kuyk a chair as a token of their appreciation of her services here as Telegraph Operator. Miss Kuyk has given the following reply which we take the liberty of publishing:

NEW BERNE, N. C., Dec. 23d, '82.
MESSRS. W. H. OLIVER, F. MYER, G. F. M. DALL, J. A. GUYON, F. B. FISK and M. MANLY:—Allow me to express my heartfelt thanks for and deep appreciation of the beautiful chair with which you were so kind as to present me. The spirit which prompted this kindness and attention to a stranger, as I am one in your midst, touches my heart far beyond the power of words to express, and I shall ever remember this as one of the brightest and most pleasant memories of my life. Hoping I may continue to deserve the kind regard so gracefully expressed I remain,

Very Respectfully,
ADRIANA M. KUYK.
Manager W. U. Telegraph Office.

Your Name in Print.

Miss Mamie Green left yesterday evening for a visit to friends in Durham.

Wm. G. Brinson Esq. went up to Falling Creek yesterday to adjust the insurance loss caused by the fire there last week.

Mr. Wm. H. Worth, one of Lenoir's best farmers and a cousin of the State Treasurer, was in the city on Friday. He purchased 71 tons of kainit from Mr. Wm. H. Oliver.

Mr. Sam Sugg of the firm of Sugg & Bros. in Greene county is in the city. He says the JOURNAL "ad" about the "sawyer wanted" has brought him in nearly a dozen applications.

Rev. N. M. Jurney returned to Beaufort yesterday from Greensboro. He learned that there were three cases of small pox at Wilson. Quarantine will be next in order.

Water-Packed Cotton.

The JOURNAL has noted, several times this fall, instances of water-packed cotton brought to this market for sale. We learn now that there is another lot of it on the cotton yard from Jones county and it is so heavily watered no doubt can be had about the intent of the packer.

We wish to say now that the Cotton Exchange of New Berne is in great measure responsible for the continuance of water-packed cotton in this market. With several well defined cases of such fraud reported to us, we have yet to hear of a single prosecution at law. Any person who endeavors thus to obtain money under false pretenses ought to go to the penitentiary, by his act he throws suspicion and odium on good farmers who would scorn such deception. And when the Cotton Exchange sees fit to prosecute those who try thus to defraud its members, then it will put itself right before the public, and not before.

Dried Fruit.

The dried fruit trade of Greensboro the past season has been an unusually large one, as will be seen by the figures appended. The firm of Houston & Bro. furnish us with the following statement of their shipments: Peeled peaches 84,444 lbs.; halves and quarter peaches 85,374 lbs.; black-berries 110,933 lbs.; plums 3,815 lbs.; cherries 25,523 lbs.; apples 89,035 lbs.; in all 379,124 lbs. Messrs. J. W. Scott & Co., report to us the shipment of 320,618 lbs. of all kinds as above enumerated. Messrs. Odell & Co., shipped 372,593 lbs. The above shipments were made by the three largest dealers in town, and other heavy shipments have no doubt been made by other firms engaged in buying and shipping fruit. The shipments noted above represent a money value, probably of more than one hundred thousand dollars, which is a goodly sum for distribution among the mothers and daughters of this section of the State, and shows that there is a large amount of industry in the land yet, notwithstanding the supposition on the part of some of the male members of the human family that women do nothing but talk of dress.

La Grange Items.

Pully's is a boy, Junius', as usual, a girl.

Miss Bettie Kinsey was in town Saturday.

La Grange Items is now domiciled in the city.

A. J. McIntyre occupies the Woolard house.

A family row in town Saturday. A big fuss for only one or two knock downs.

Dr. J. M. Kirkpatrick has bought and occupies the house formerly owned by Mayor McIntyre.

Shade Fields is living in the Henry Fields house, formerly owned by Edwards & Murchison.

Benj. H. Dawson was married to Miss Georgia Emery in the Institute section last Thursday.

Howell Garris says that he fated 985 pounds of pork, and picked and saved 50 bushels of peas from a one horse farm. That farm was well peened.

Christmas times, the young will meet to enjoy themselves. Some enjoy the dance while others engage in the old time play, and sing, "dance around the rose bush," etc. etc.

Some one attempted to break in the house of James T. Albritten, about a mile from this place, a few nights ago. Mr. Albritten was at home and the thief or burglar was frustrated in his designs.

Mrs. Noah Rouse received, from Mrs. C. L. Koonce, of Florida, a handsome present a few days ago in the shape of a box containing oranges and other Florida fruits. The oranges were very fine, some weighing 20 ounces.

John N. Waters was married to Miss Rouse, daughter of John Rouse, near this place, on Last Sunday. John took a part of the visitors out to the barn and showed them his coffin, and otherwise entertained them in a way that none but he can.

Joe Kinsey was in town a few days ago. Joe is alive on the school question, and especially so on the Graded system. He will open one in Kinston the first of January. What say the people of this section? Shall we have a Graded school? Or be swallowed up by Kinston and Goldsboro?

Three negroes attempted to commit some act of violence on Frank Hawley on Saturday night the 23d inst. Mr. Hawley gives the following statement:

While on his way to Kinston, when near Falling Creek bridge, a negro caught his horse by the bridle, and at the same time two others, one on each side of the buggy, attempted to get hold of the reins. Hawley fired at one of the negroes, when the horse took fright and made his escape, the negroes firing two or three shots as they went.

Stonewall Items.

Mr. Alex. Woolard has his hand badly mutilated in a cotton gin on Tuesday.

Jas. M. Lane, with Roberts & Bros. of your city, is home visiting his relatives and old friends.

Prof. A. H. Hamlin, Madam Rumor says, left for Goldsboro Wednesday morning to take unto himself a help meet.

Messrs. Potter & Fowler and Hadder & Hooker have on hand and for sale some fine horses as are found in any market.

Miss Tursa Jones died on Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock at the residence of Mr. Jas. Jones, on Spring Creek, of pneumonia.

Mr. Jno. H. Delamar died last Thursday night at the residence of Mr. G. W. Daniels. His health has been very poor for several months.

Christmas has passed and all seemed to enjoy it pretty well, especially the little ones. I have heard of only two fights—no damage done in either.

Mr. Geo. H. Russel and Mr. Charles Warren, Attorneys at Law of Washington, paid our village a short visit last week on legal business, and the gentleman Bear restler of the same town was also with us at the same time with some fine stock, putting up some good trades.

Mr. W. Hooker and Miss Amanda Miller were married last Thursday night at the residence of Sheriff D. B. Hooker, Jas. O. Baxter, Esq., officiating. Mr. Benj. Martin and Miss Ellen Caton were married last Sunday evening at the residence of Mr. Jesse H. Day, in Bayboro, Festus Miller, Esq., officiating.

The installation of the officers of the Mt. Vernon Masonic Lodge in this place caused a lively time here on Wednesday, all sections of the county being represented by a pretty good crowd. Our townsman, the Hon. W. T. Cabo, being installed Master. It conferred upon him as well as other honors, the one of a treat to the members of the Lodge, of a dinner and other refreshments.

The Man Who Never Advertises.

Sing, business man, the dark and doleful fate of him who labors but that he may wait. The piles of goods heaped up within his store, which can't be less, and never may be more; the man whose life has lost all fortune's prizes; in fact, the man who never advertises.

Sing of his start, his great ambition's scope, The capital that gave him cause to hope, His credit large, his full and ample stock, His bank account as solid as a rock;

Then tell the doom to which the man was fated Who never advertised, but simply waited.

So simply, and so vainly! Splendid signs, Which basement art irradiates and refines, Plate glass show windows elegantly dressed, Such lovely clerks, cashiers, and all the rest, served but to show him how the public sizes The style of him who never advertises.

He waited, and all waited; clerks, cashiers, salesmen, saleswomen, such delightful dears, impatient waited all the season through, With precious little for the crowd to do. The noble saw—that fact there's no denying! But passed the store without a thought of buying.

Business was dull, but salaries and rent Went on till cash and credit both were spent; Until the sheriff closed the whole concern, Now, at a pittance which his soul despises, He works for one who always advertises.

A Budding Michigan Genius.

(Armata Telegraph.)
At the Armada fair this fall Maggie Leighton, a little girl of thirteen years, exhibited a clay model made by herself. The work was all done with an old "case knife." Since the fair she has not been idle, and, judging from the work now on exhibition, the old "case knife" has been a frequent and faithful companion. The work consists of three pieces, the largest of which is a bust of a lady with her head resting upon her hand. It is about eight inches in height, and is very finely formed and finished. The second piece represents a large Newfoundland dog and a little boy, both asleep, the boy's head resting upon the dog. On this piece the little sculptor has displayed a great amount of skill. The third piece is a bust of John Paton, Sr., a gentleman well known to many of our readers, and grandfather of this little artist, and the features and general looks so resemble this gentleman that few of his acquaintances fail to recognize him.

Washington Notes.
It is reported that N. D. Stockbridge, Assistant Commissioner of Patents, has tendered his resignation, and will shortly engage in business for himself in Washington.

Four Sub-Committees of the House Appropriation Committee are at work on the Appropriation bill. The District of Columbia bill will be ready to report next Tuesday, and the Fortifications, the Navy and the Legislative bills will be ready during the first week in January.

The Ways and Means Committee, considering the Tariff Commission's report, yesterday advanced the duties  $\frac{1}{2}$  cent a pound over the report on all grades of rice, and the rate on rice flour was changed from  $\frac{2}{4}$  cents a pound to  $\frac{2}{5}$  cent, ad valorem. The duty on pickled salmon was changed from  $\frac{2}{4}$  of a cent to  $\frac{1}{4}$  of a cent a pound.

Gossip.
Congressman J. Hyatt Smith will return to the pulpit at the end of his term.

Gen. Tom Thumb is a Knight Templar, and he wears a regalia which cost more than that of the Prince of Wales.

The Boston critics find "eloquence" in Mrs. Langtry's neck and "deep paths" in her eye. They haven't got down to her feet yet.

Mary Anderson has sat for her photograph more times than any other woman alive, and it is more in demand than that of any other actress.

Mrs. Roscoe Conkling is thought to look like pictures by Botticelli. She is pale and delicate, with dark eyes, and is elegant and lady-like in the extreme.

Recent analyses of water from the holy well at Mecca—where it is eagerly drank by pilgrims—show it to be ten times stronger than average London sewage.

Luca and Gerster have been engaged to sing at the festivals of the silver wedding of the Crown Princess of Russia, in January, regardless of expense.

It is said that the wife of the late Prof. Henry Draper loves science, and her husband was assisted by her in his work as Sir John Herschel was by his sister Caroline.

Canada is the paradise for lecturers. It is said that fuel is so expensive there that it is cheaper for a man to pay half a dollar to hear a lecture in a warm hall than to stay at home and burn coal.

A Russian, named Selinger, living near Larimore, Dak., finding his quarters too poor a shelter against the cold, started with his wife and baby in a snow storm to go to a village half a mile distant. They lost their way on the prairie and the wife and baby perished. Selinger was rescued. His hands and feet were frozen.

A PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

$200 Reward!

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
Executive Department,

Whereas, official information has been received at this department that

late of the County of Craven, stands charged with the murder of his wife; and whereas, it appears that the said Benjamin Hill has fled to some, or so coyals himself that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him.

Now, therefore, I, Thomas J. Jarvis, Governor of the State of North Carolina, by virtue of authority in me vested by law, do issue this my Proclamation, offering a reward of TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS for the apprehension and delivery of the said Benjamin Hill to the Sheriff of Craven County, at the Court House in New Berne; and I do enjoin all officers of the State and all good citizens to assist in bringing said criminal to justice.

Done at our City of Raleigh, the 28th day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and in the one hundred and seventh year of American Independence.

THOS. J. JARVIS,
