solutions adopted by the Board of Thursday, Dec. 28th, 1882.

WHEREAS, the commerce of New Berne with the inland country sur-rounding is rapidly increasing, her merhants having put on, during the past year, six river steamers, the Trent, Cutler Kinston, Snow Hill, Florence and Elm City, which run to various points on the Neuse and Trent rivers. Mail Pacilities.

The resolutions adopted by the Board of Trade of this city at their regular meeting are very important. We print them in another column, and a copy will be sent to our Representative and to the Post-office Department.

The Board of Trade recognizes the fact that trade is largely dependent on good mail facilities. The farmer who gets his newspaper regularly with correct market quotations is naturally inclined to go to that market to sell his produce. If his newspaper is a week old when it comes to him, he places very

And the upper Neuse route is equally as important. From Jolly Old Field a number of offices near by could be supplied. We send a large number of Weekly JOURNALS to Johnson's Mills, Maple Cypress and other points in that up country not more than 30 or 40 miles from New Berne, that, under present mail routes, have to go from 150 to 200 miles to reach their destination, and occupy several days in the transit.

The daily route to Washington is so obvious a necessity that it commends application from Mr. E. R. Stanly to itself at once to every one. There have lower the valuation of his property—the been sent up number of petitions for it Court House building, now valued at from both New Berne and Washington, no more worthy act than will be ac-complished by re-establishing this daily Lenoir county.

In 1874 Bald Mountain began to groun and shake as if it had serious notions of developing a young "Vesurius." There was great excitement among the people who lived on and about the mountain. They sent for the Rev. George Logan. col., a preacher of the Baptist Church to preach and pray for them. His prayer on the occasion has given him fame in all the regions round about Bald Mountain. He prayed thus: "Oh! Laud, ef de shakin' ob dis mountain gwine to make dese sinners repent—den shake him agin." As the heavy tramp of the multitude shook the Parsonage last night and aroused and filled all its inmates with excitement; and as we stood and looked on with wonder and saw how the "pounding" process was per-formed and realized that only kindness was intended we were ready to say, "ef de shakin' ob de parsonage gwine" to result in so much benefit to the preacher and his family, we would not
